Brother of Local Women Dies Sat.

The remains of W. L. Pennington of Louisville were taken to Bigstone, Elliott county Monday of this week for burial following his sudden death on Saturday of last week. Mr. Pennington was well known here, having often visited his sisters, Mrs. J. H. Miles and Mrs. J. B. Fraley here. Mr. Pennington has taught school for the past 12 years at Male High School in Louisville. His death was due to heart failure.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Chas. Van Sant of Sanoy Hook, assisted by Rev. O. C. Seewers of this city and by Mr. C. H. Edwards, representing the faculty of Male High.

Mr. Pennington was particularly well known among the educators of the state. Previous to his connection with the Male High faculty Mr. Pennington served seven years on the faculty at Owensboro.

Mr. Pennington was a member of the Methodist church and was a worker in the Sunday school of Louisville during his 12 years residence there. He was a graduate of the University of Kentucky where he took his A. B. degree and of the University of Indiana where he obtained his masters.

He is survived by one brother, Ross Pennington of Bigstone, Ky; and five sisters, Mrs. J. H. Miles and Mrs. J. B. Fraley of this city, Mrs. Alice Carter, Bigstone, Mrs. Ida Seages, Elliottville, and Mrs. Linda Jones, Clearfield.

Y. W. C. A. Treats Children of City

There are at least 72 children in Morehead who believe in Santa Claus. If they had ever doubted it, they were reassured last Saturday afternoon, when the Y. W. C. A. of Morehead State Teachers College entertained them with a Christmas party in the lobby of Fields Hall.

A beautifully decorated and lighted Christmas tree was a source of great delight to them all, and when Santa Claus made his appearance they were quite overjoyed. From the contents of his pack he presented each child with a package which contained, a toy, a pair of hose or an apple, an orange, candy, nuts.

Another feature of the program was the singing of "Silent Night" and "O Little Town of Bethlehem", in which everyone took part.

David Nickell Is Injured In Practice

David Nickell, son of Dr. H. L. Nickell, suffered a serious fracture of the skull in basketball practice at the Morehead State Teachers College Monday evening, while engaged in a practice scrimmage against the freshmen. During the scrimmage he collided with Ryan, freshman player. Their heads bumped together and both fell to the floor. David apparently crashed his head against the hardwood, crushing the skull just over his eye. He was immediately rushed to St. Joseph's Hospital at Lexington where he underwent an operation on Tuesday afternoon. Actually crashed his head against the floor from the effects of the operation.

David was a regular performer on the Eagle squad and would undoubtedly have been a cog in the Eagle machine this year, especially since raritary material will be scarce if the college is admitted to the S. I. A. A.

Friends of Dr. Nickell and David wish for him a speedy recovery.

Nickell, J. D. Gammage, H. C. Haggan, E. V. Hollis, A. Y. Lloyd, W. H. Rice, Clark Lane, D. B. Leadbetter, M. L. Wilson, W. H. Vaughan, and Claude Evans.

The executive committee consists of the officers and one member appointed Judge A. W. Young.

The league is entirely non-partisan and non-political in its nature. The constitution and by-laws will be published in a later issue of the News.

Car Thieves Caught After Long Chase

Morehead ain't such an easy town to get out of, even though it has but one exit, as two hold had rovers hurried to their sorrow Wednesday afternoon. Word was received here Wednesday morning to be on the lookout for an Ohio car from Georgetown Ohio which was stolen. About noon the stolen car arrived and the local officers headed it. The car was turned down Fairbank avenue and up Railroad Street. While the car thieves were making the turn and round up Trumbo avenue, the officers grabbed Caskey's taxi and an attempt to head them off was blocked the entrance to Main Street. The robbers drove their car up the street and sent the taxi swung up on the curb next to Hogge's store and out into the street and on. Officers followed in another car shooting at the tires. Either they were successful at any rate the car stopped at the Caudill garage where its occupants had abandoned it and taken to the hollows on foot. Officers followed and captured both after an exciting chase.

According to reports the men were really desperate and hard to capture having boldly evaded officers at every town through which they had passed. At Flemingsburg, so the report said, they knocked a policeman off their running-board and drove merrily on. An attempt was made at Owingsville to stop them but the evaded the law and hurried on to Salt Lick, where another attempt to head them off was made.

They are at present being held in jail here also. Both County officers are aid to have followed them for the purpose of taking them back to Bath county. The men refused to give their names, although one wore a hat with a Huntington label, the other a hat that came from Baltimore.

VIKINGS BEAT HITCHINS IN SECOND GAME OF SEASON WHILE AMAZONS LOSE TO THE HITCHINS GIRLS 30-17

Will Have School Next Summer

Morehead's 1933 summer school will be run on the same basis as before, according to Dean William H. Vaughan. This decision was reached at a meeting of the Executive Council of Kentucky State Teachers Colleges held at Frankfort, December 5.

The announcement of the decision will quiet many rumors which have been afloat since the slashing of the state college appropriations last winter. Unofficial reports have had it that the state colleges would have no summer school at all in 1933.

The council decided that each of the teachers' colleges and the University of Kentucky will conduct a summer school of two six-week sessions has been the custom for the past few years. President J. Howard Payne and Dean Wm. H. Vaughan, who were in Frankfort for the meeting of the State Department of Superintendents, attended the meeting of the council.

Announces For Circuit Court Clerk

In this issue of the News appears the announcement of Lowell Howard Howard for the office of Circuit Court Clerk subject to the action of the Democratic party at the Primary on August 5, 1933.

Mr. Howard is the son of P. S. (Philly) Howard and has spent practically all his life in Rowan county, having been born in Elliott county, and moving here with his parents at an early age.

Mr. Howard is well qualified for the office to which he aspires, both by education and natural ability. He is a product of the Rowan County Schools and the Morehead State Teachers College where he has taken two years of college work. He has also completed a course at the Bowling Green Business University, which guarantees ample knowledge of the conduct of the office.

Mr. Howard is a young man of good personality and will bear acquitance.

Downing Team Suffers Misfortune

Admission into the sacred realm of the S. I. A. A. for Morehead State Teachers College seems to be bringing a trail of misfortunes in its wake. However, the S. I. A. A. can hardly be said to be responsible for the accidents that have cut down the strength of the Eagles basketball squad which is unquestionably facing the hardest seasons since basketball became a major sport in the college. Of course when application for membership in the conference was made, it automatically cut out the use of freshmen and stars who taken part in athletics at other colleges. And then the injury jinx came along to further upset the wagon.

Downing was counting as a guard, suffered a fractured skull in practice Monday afternoon and will of course be out for the season.

On Tuesday night another likely candidate for a team that has already been dealt a series of body blows, suffered another on Tuesday when Reed of Hazard sustained a sprained ankle which will put him on the shelf for several weeks at least and possibly eliminate him for the season. Coach Downing is seriously considering the appointment of a body guard to protect what remains of his squad the rest of the season.

Last Friday night saw Waterloo again stave the Amazons in the face when they met the Hitchins ladies in the Morhead gym, the final score being 30 to 17 in favor of the visitors. Actually the Amazons during the first half, when they had something like their full strength on the floor, had a slight advantage, but with Atlas Fraley out on fould, and Athol on the sick list the only really experienced girl on the Amazon team was Katherine Jackson and "Kathy" did the best job she could do under the circumstances. A one man team was not capable of competing with a five man outfit and that was that.

The really weak position at present on the Amazon team appears to be at center, where Maxine Egan used to perform at the pivot position for the Amazons. This is not for the purpose of criticism. It looks as if they said Amazons will have a go center by the end of the season. Elizabeth Butcher gets few good experiences on her shoulder, the meantime the Amazons will still fight.

As the Hitchins fans took delight in the downfall of the Amazons, the Vikings took all the pleasure away, when they appeared on the floor, determined to avenge the defeat of their sisters. To say that they did harvest revenge, is to discount the final score of 28 to 28. At the end of the first half the score was 40 to eight, and if Holbrook had not had a merciful heart, it might as well have been double that. But he had a number of good men to try-out and took advantage of the opportunity.

In the second quarter he ran in three substitutes and followed it up with three more, finally ending the game with a new team.

Tatum went on a scoring spree and wound up by making the gym record for high point, formerly held by Wid Caudill with 23 points, against Bety Layne. Tatum rolled up 26 points against Hitchins. Gene Miles was second high in the scoring orgy.

Outside of the fact that it gave fans an indication of the possibilities of the team for this year, the game could not be said to be interesting. It did however give promise of a fast scoring offense in the future games of the season. The consensus of opinion would be that the Kings have more fair material with which to build a team than ever before. Their reserve strength should be greater and they should therefore be able to keep a stronger team on the floor at all times. The weakness of the Kings in past years has been the fact that five men have been about all the first class material they could muster. Last year for example, the Kings had a first class "first" team, but the reserves were woefully weak. If a man went out on fould, the teamwork of the Kings was gone. That should not be the case this year with the fine material at hand. That may be a premature statement but it stands.

The Calvers will be hard watching at forward. They can hardly be said to be a finished performer at present but before the season is over he should be showing his heels and his hips to the boys. Others are Arch Cassey, Earl Caskey, Kenneth Vincent, Russell Barber, Harold Crotshaw, Gene Calvert, Art Crockett and a number of other comers who as yet are undeveloped. Then of course, there are Miles and Tatum around whom the team can be built. Altogether, it is safe to predict, that while the Kings may or may not be of championship calibre, they will not prove to be a set-up for any team in the conference.

Friday night the Amazons and the Vikings meet at Owingsville here. The Amazons are handicapped by illness and injuries. The Owingsville boys are said to be strong this year and will probably give the Kikings plenty of opposition. Owingsville always has been hard for the Vikings and the Amazons to curry, and they may do some currying themselves before the game are decided.

Payne, Vaughan At Teachers Meet

President John Howard Payne and Dean William H. Vaughan attended the meeting of the Kentucky State Department of Superintendents held at Frankfort, Thursday and Friday of last week.

The meeting, which was the regular fall session of the association, was attended by about two hundred school executives from all sections of the state.

The general theme of the meeting was the reorganization of education in Kentucky, as undertaken by this association. If the trend of the speeches are to be taken as an indication, the association hopes to adopt a new system of education in the near future. The leaders at the meeting were very pessimistic as to the outlook for financing education in the next few years and it was generally conceded that teachers are likely to receive even less pay next year than they are receiving now.

One of the highlights of the meeting was the banquet held on Thursday evening. The principal speakers of the evening were J. H. Richmond, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and President Frank L. McVey of the University of Kentucky.

Y. W. C. A. GIVES BANQUET

On Tuesday evening, December 13, the Y. W. C. A. will hold its annual banquet in the college cafeteria. The girls will march in together singing, "Follow the Glean." After the grace and the reading of the Christmas Bible story, they will join together in singing "Silent Night."

After the dinner the following program will be given:

Story—"Birth of Christ"
..... Gertrude Mock
"How to Celebrate Christmas" Gladys Burton
Women's quartette "O Little Town of Beth'hem"
"Seeking of Christ" Miss Exer Robinson

Solo "We Three Kings of the Orient Are" "Saddle" Waters

The program will be closed by the entire group singing "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear."

Cast Chosen

Mrs. Stacey Haskins, soprano, Ashland, was selected last Friday evening at the try-outs held in the auditorium to play the leading role in the coming play to be produced by the Revelers Dramatic Club.

Announcements

Miss Hanks, who has had considerable experience in dramatic work, will play "the character" part of Madama Rosalie La Grange, the Irish medium who is called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Crosby, to hold a spiritualistic seance at a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Crosby. These two roles will be taken by George Scott and Elizabeth Denny. Helen Laxson will play as Helen O'Neill.

Other students who were chosen for roles are Paul Sparks, as Edward Wales, Sharon Williams as Phillip Mason, Vincent Simons as Inspector Tim Donohue, Maurine Vinson as Mrs. Tren, Josephine Mason as Miss Eastwood, Ruth M. Holbrook as Elizabeth Erskine, Charles Adams as Howard Standish, "Saddie" Waters as Miss Standish, Robert Rowland as Bradish Trent, Raymond Tibbets as Sergeant Dan, David Nickell as William Crosby, and Carleton Allais as Pollock, the butler.

"The Thirteenth Chair" is one of the leading mystery plays on the stage. It ran successfully for several months at the Forty-eighth Street Theatre in New York City, under the direction of William Harr's Jr. The theme is centered around the Irish medium, who is conducting the seance at the dinner party. The lights are off, the doors and windows are locked, and all of the members of the party are sitting in a circle, clapping hands when Edward Wales is murdered as he asks the medium a question concerning the mysterious killing of one of his friends a few months before. No clues can be found and only by the clever deductions of the medium is the case solved and the guilty party found.

TOURNAMENT IS AT FINAL ROUND

Recent developments in Thompson Hall's checker tournament have narrowed the starting field of thirty to five, the survivors of three rounds of play. Three men, Hopper, Adams, and Garb, have reached the fourth round of the tournament, this attainment representing the conquests of three stoutly resisting foes.

The fourth round will be completed when the winner of the Hutchinson-Martindale feud is settled.

Of the three already perched in front of the remainder of the field, Hopper has had, perhaps, the easiest going. Dr. Welter nearly eliminated Hopper in the first round, but after a warm scuffle the assistant dean was forced to strike his colors. A second-round bye and a victory over William Reynolds placed Hopper in his present position.

Dr. Gard encountered sterner opposition, however. He eliminated a very talented young wood-pusher in the first round; in the person of John Francis. The lean was danger-
