RECEPTION FOR THE FETTERS

PAINTSVILLE PEOPLE MEET THE FETTERS IN LARGEST SOCIAL GATHERING OF THE SEASON.

The largest and most enjoyable social gathering of the season was the reception given by Mrs. Hulda Meek, mother of Mrs. Fetter, at their palatial home last Friday evening in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Fetter and Mrs. Chas. Fetter. The list of guests which follows will give some idea of the large crowd present. With a very few exceptions every invitation was accepted and the receiver was present.

Dr. and Mrs. Fetter were in Cincinnati for several days before the reception, later visiting Portsmouth, Ohio, and were accompanied home by Dr. Fetter's mother, Mrs. Chas. Fetter. In their absence, Mrs. Meek, mother of Mrs. Fetter, Misses Ora and Frankie Preston, cousins of Mrs. Fetter and Anna Mary Kelley, her private secretary, decided to give this reception to the bride and groom on Friday evening after their return on Thursday evening. They sent out invitations and arranged the decorations and all the details of this pleasant affair without the knowledge of the bride and groom.

While the reception was for the purpose of meeting Dr. and Mrs. Chas. Fetter, it was indeed a most pleasing social affair, and highly enjoyed by all present. The bride and groom accompanied by Mrs. Chas. Fetter arrived from Portsmouth, Ohio, the former home of Dr. Fetter, on Thursday evening, but were not permitted to see the beautiful decorations until a short time before the arrival of the guests on Friday evening.

The decoration of the beautiful home was admired by all. For days before the reception a number of friends were busy making the entire house more beautiful with flowers and decorations. Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Greene who are expert decorators had the work in charge and that it was done in excellent manner is the verdict of all present.

At eight in the evening the guests began to arrive and at nine o'clock the large hall was full of guests, all enjoying the occasion to the fullest. From the first to the third floor of the home was open to guests and all forms of innocent amusements were engaged.

Music for the occasion was furnished by an orchestra from Ironton, Ohio. It would require a page of our paper to fully describe the beautiful decorations and the excellent arrangement of the affair by those who had it in charge.

As stated above the object of the gathering was the meeting of the Fetters and their friends there met them in a pleasing manner. Dr. Fetter had met a number of our people before, but he was there to greet them again with his smiling face and pleasing manner.

All who met Dr. Fetter were pleased with him and delighted to know that he is now a citizen of Paintsville.

The receiving line were Mrs. Hulda Meek, Dr. and Mrs. Fetter, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Buckingham, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. W. Turner, and Mrs. Anna Skidmore. Mrs. Fetter, the bride, wore a gown of silver, cloth of gold, made with a corsage of pink chrysanthemums, tied with pink tulle. Mrs. Meek, mother of the bride wore a black satin and sequette crepe, with silver embroidery and a corsage of violets and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Chas. Fetter, mother of the groom, wore black satin and silver embroidery in silver and black. The bride's gown was made of silver and black satin.

THE HERALD'S HONOR ROLL

PAY YOUR SUBSCRIPTION AND BE HAPPY ON THE WAY.

The following old dependables, the salt of the earth, have renewed the faith in The Herald the past week. Watch the list each week.

Miss Fane Webb, a leading merchant of Sitka, called and renewed her subscription to The Herald Monday. She says her husbands always ask for The Herald when they are in Sitka. She is the wife of our most popular business women and is making a success with her store.

Homers D. Picklesimer, of Volga, is a new subscriber to The Herald, having had his name entered on our books Monday. He is a popular young man and will likely be all who know him.

Kendrick Picklesimer, of North Vernon, Ind., is another new subscriber to The Herald books. He is a native of this county and formerly lived at Sitka.

R. C. Mackenzie, of Glenwood, Ky., sends us a dollar this week for The Herald a year. The Herald gives him the news of his home section.

Harry Stanton of Manlio, this county, was in town Saturday and called and paid a year's subscription to The Herald. Mr. Stanton is one of our regular subscribers and likes the paper very much.

Joe Howard, of Barnett's Creek, is a new subscriber to The Herald, having subscribed last Saturday while he was in town.

F. D. Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Fleming, Sr., of this city, was here last week and subscribed for The Herald. He is moving from Williamson, W. Va., to Akron, Ohio, where he will engage in the bakery business.

Grant Daniel, Sr., of River, was in town Saturday and left a dollar for The Herald a year. He says he can't get along without it. He is a good citizen and farmer.

B. R. Vaughan, of Volga, was in town last week and left a dollar for subscription. Mr. Vaughan is a brother of County Judge Fred A. Vaughan and was employed in business near Flat Gap for a number of years. He is a Christian gentleman and one of the county's best men.

ROAD BUILDING IN JOHNSON COUNTY

The credit for the road work is due the Fiscal Court who this year applied for State aid in building roads in this county and a creditable showing has already been made.

Next year this court will continue the road building with the aid of the State money. The money from the State for the building of roads is taken from road tax charged each county, but is only applied to those counties who apply for it. The salaries of the road engineer and other State employes is supplied from the automobile fund.

These articles on good roads will appear in The Herald from time to time. Look for them. Every citizen in the county ought to be interested in good roads. Good roads are the life of a county and without good roads it is impossible to make any progress.

Enough money is saved by the farmer in bringing one load of produce to town over good roads than his taxes would amount to in one year. But keep in mind the fact that you pay the road tax whether you build good roads or not. Only the counties that apply are furnished State aid.

W. L. McDyer has had the big sale of Clay & Stanton, assisted by Mr. Hyson, McDyer has had experience in building good roads and has been constantly on the job in this county since the work started.

In the above picture the Fiscal Court is inspecting the work. County Judge Fred A. Vaughan, County Attorney Sam Stapleton and others are shown in the picture.

THE FOOT BALL GAME

PRESTONSBURG DEFEATS PAINTSVILLE 12 TO 0, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14.

"Floyd County Day," headed by Prestonsburg's strong football squad and two hundred real live roosters carried home the bacon from the Johnson County Fair Saturday, October 14.

There could not have been a more beautiful day, the weather being perfect. The sun shined bright for the three thousand roosters who had gathered from far and near every nook and corner in Johnson and adjacent counties to add one more link in the chain of life's pleasures, and to make our sister county of Johnson make this fair a huge success we carried along with us our old friend and brother "Woods' Roosters".

After this time the Prestonsburg "Champions" took charge of the grown ups who were interested in a little high touch of what is known as real foot ball. Of course they say we had to play the High School team and from the time of the first kick off was made we realized this fully. Just three minutes from the time Paintsville received the ball Prestonsburg had it back in three wild rushes made by Davidson, Mayo and Lounsbury, the ball was carried from the forty yard line over the goal for a touchdown. It was then the Paintsville roosters went wild. They saw they were up against the same old thing of former years and in order for them to get a score against Prestonsburg this year (with all due respect to the balance of the Paintsville team), it would take just about 14 more men like their old boss, "Red Preston, to make any showing whatever.

It was real amusing to our boys from Prestonsburg to break through the weak line of Paintsville, and to see the feminine roosters from the side line yell, "Catch him, Red! Catch him Red!"

Not a single time during the game did Paintsville get the ball within 20 yards of their goal and only made five first downs, in fact the game was awfully simple for Prestonsburg and simply awful for Paintsville.

Anybody familiar with boys who play with you--you are a good clean bunch of boys--you play well for the material that you have and there is no doubt in our minds but what you could win against any other team on the river. Your line plays well and your backs play exceptionally well and if at any time that the Prestonsburg players can be of any assistance to you we are at your service.

During the second quarter we did not need it necessary to make any scores and in fact we had instructions from our coach not to work very hard during the game with the center line. In the third quarter (we thinking that the spectators had forgotten just the lick that it was done with we decided to put the finishing touch on the game and with center line we went forward pass and a great end run by Burke our left half-back, the ball was again carried over the goal line. (Loud applause from Prestonsburg and our sang Rose.)

This was the final score. And it is the tune of the "Good Old Summer Time" in the good old foot ball time.

In the good old foot ball time. While striding down to Paintsville on the C. & O. line. We arrived in Paintsville about dinner time. Paintsville started to blushing, the crowd was so big that it was in the good old foot ball time.

What is the matter with the Prestonsburg fan.

ABOUT THE GAS.

A representative of the Central Kentucky Gas Company has called the attention of the editor to the article in our last issue where The Herald places the blame on them for the gas being out of last Wednesday and Thursday.

This company claims that the gas was not shut off at the main line, but that the fault was with the Johnson County Gas Company, and that if they had not cut the gas off they would have notified the Johnson County Gas Company who furnishes the gas for Paintsville. Residents at Thekla claim that they had gas all the time which is more evidence that the gas was not cut off by the main line company.

We gladly make this correction as we do not wish to unjustly accuse this company with the inconvenience of the many consumers of gas in Paintsville. The blame should be placed just where it belongs and it certainly was not the fault of the Central Kentucky Gas Company.

Mrs. Fetter Visits Paintsville. Mrs. Chas. Fetter, of Portsmouth, Ohio, mother of Dr. S. P. Fetter, is here this week the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Fetter and Mrs. Hulda Meek. Mrs. Fetter has already met most of the people in Paintsville who came as a shock to those who knew him. The shock was made the greater by the death last week of Supt. Fox of the Clifton Forge division, who died very suddenly.

Mr. Scherer, who was forty-five years of age, was one of the best known men in the C. & O. official family. He stood especially close to President Stevens, who held him in the highest esteem.

The deceased was twice married. He is survived by two children by his first wife and one by the second. The second Mrs. Scherer also survives. The funeral services were held in Richmond this afternoon. One service was held at the home of the deceased at the English Lutheran Church. Interment occurred in the Hollywood cemetery, Richmond. The services were attended by C. A. Mowbray, claim agent, and L. Y. Johnson, special agent both of Ashland--Independent.

Copland Visits His Farm. Geo. F. Copland returned last week from a visit to his farm in Virginia and reports the farm in good condition and working along nicely. He recently installed a large tractor which does the plowing on the farm. This marks the place of a dozen or more horses. His farm, which is said to be one of the best in Virginia is supplied with all the latest improved farming implements and stocked with the best live stock of all kinds.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McDyer entertained Gov. Stanley for a six o'clock dinner last Saturday afternoon after the Governor had made his speech. The McDyer home was beautifully decorated and the dinner was an excellent one, well prepared and elegantly served.

Mr. McDyer holds a position under the Good Roads Department of the State administration and is a personal friend of Governor Stanley. After dinner the Governor left for Van Lear where he made a speech.

Mr. and Mrs. McDyer moved to Paintsville a short time ago from Pikeville where they were located at the home of Congressman and Mrs. John W. Langley. Mr. McDyer is a native of Ashland while Mrs. McDyer before her marriage was Miss Jane Adams of Louisa, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Adams.

Mrs. Adams was a guest at the McDyer home and assisted in entertaining the Governor. The McDyer family are charming entertainers and are valuable assets to the community.

MR. SCHERER IS DEAD

DIES AS RESULT OF ASSASSIN'S BULLET--GENERAL CLAIM AGENT OF ROAD.

L. L. Scherer, general claim agent of the C. & O. Railway company, died Saturday evening at a hospital in Richmond, Va., his home at 7:30 o'clock. His death followed an operation which was performed in the hope of relieving an affliction which was due to gunshot wounds received when he was shot about a year ago by a negro at Covington, Va. Mr. Scherer was shot by the negro out of revenge for his having been arrested for robbing freight cars. The negro was later arrested and sent to the penitentiary for life. For a time it was feared that Mr. Scherer would not live to leave the hospital but he recovered sufficiently to resume his duties, although he suffered very much from his wounds. When in Ashland recently he stated that he thought that he would have to undergo another operation, as he was suffering much pain.

Mr. Scherer's death came as a shock to those who knew him. The shock was made the greater by the death last week of Supt. Fox of the Clifton Forge division, who died very suddenly.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.
For President: CHARLES E. HUGHES, of New York.
For Vice-President: CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS, of Indiana.
For Congress: JOHN W. LANGLEY, of Pikeville, Ky.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.
We are authorized to announce WM. WALTERS as a candidate for Jailer of Johnson county, subject to the Republican primary election August, 1917.

CHARLES E. HUGHES.
Charles E. Hughes is the first candidate for President that has ever visited the Big Sandy valley in a presidential campaign. He gave us all an opportunity to see and hear one of the greatest men of our times and the standard-bearer of the greatest party ever known in the history of the world—the party that numbers in its lists the names of Lincoln, Grant, Garfield, the Shermans, McKinley and Theodore Roosevelt—the party that saved the Union, freed the slaves, gave us the homestead laws, established agricultural schools, developed the resources of the globe, gave freedom to our country, extended our influence over the globe and made the United States the greatest nation of people on the face of the earth. It is well for all of us to keep in mind the glorious record of those things for which our fathers fought and labored; it points us onward to greater achievements in the future. As the poet has said: "New occasions teach new duties, Time makes ancient good uncouth; We must upward still and onward, Who would keep abreast of truth."
Mr. Hughes well represents all the elements of greatness in the history of his party, but what is better he looks forward to the future. He sees with clear vision the glorious path of progress that is led us to be a light to all the nations of the world, and in him are to be found the natural and acquired gifts which qualify him to be a chosen leader of the people. As Lincoln in 1860 was an instrument in the hands of Providence to redeem the nation from the curse of slavery and sectionalism, so Hughes seems to be the one who is destined to lead us out of the miry bogs of weakness and indecision in our dealings with the nations of the world, Lincoln banished slavery and unified the people at home; it will fall to the part of Hughes to give us that respect and influence abroad that will finally carry the beneficent institutions of the Great Republic around the world.

In this respect we are at a low ebb—the lowest, perhaps, in our history except that at the end of Buchanan's administration in 1860.
Our government is now in the hands of a theorist, who, however well-meaning, is not a man of decision, character nor a man of virile action. He is one who tries to make the world conform to his theory, instead of making his theory conform to the necessities of the world. He uses brave words, that there is not behind them the force and character that we find in the men of the past. He is not foresighted; he never sees a danger until after the evil has been done. All intelligent men know that promptness and foresight would have prevented the "Panic" disasters that all that have occurred could have been better done before that they had occurred, and that had this been taken, there would have been no such loss pher in the presidential chair. He is no doubt a good college president, but he is unable to lead the "world's broad field of battle," where the world is the stage and the interests of our nation and of humanity are at stake. God bless President Wilson personally, but God deliver us from four years more of his weak and changeable policies.

Charles E. Hughes makes it plain that he will protect American rights at home and abroad; that he desires peace with all nations; that the way to have peace and prosperity is to stand for our rights at home and abroad. He shows that our present business prosperity is artificial and abnormal, arising solely from the great demand

HUGHES FOR ARBITRATION.
Hughes sympathetic with Demands of Labor Which Are Proved to be Just.

"I am sympathetic with every demand to improve the conditions of labor, to secure reasonable compensation for labor, I am in sympathy with every effort to better human conditions, and particularly the condition of those who toil in industrial pursuits, in railroad pursuits, in all these great activities that are essential to our prosperity. But when you have a proposition to make, at least know whether the demand is a just one.
"Labor, of course, should not desire anything but what is just. I do not believe labor intends to ask for anything but what is just. What is just can be extended and will survive long litigation. Nothing is lost by having the process of reason applied if only that which is just is required."—Mr. Hughes in His Speech at Portland, Maine.

SURRENDER TO FORCE WOULD LEAD TO DISASTER.

"That kind of virus in our life—surrender to force—would be a disaster to our country. We let capitalists or working-men, any interest, that the wage to be wanted is by supplying pressure and if we cannot get it we resort to force. In a few years, democracy will be a failure, and we might as well give up our government."
—Mr. Hughes in His Speech at Portland, Maine.

PUBLIC OFFICER SHOULD STAND LIKE A ROCK.

"Government under pressure is not American Government. Whenever pressure is applied to any public officer he ought to stand like a rock and say, 'Here I stand until we substitute reason for force. It is not American doctrine to legislate first and investigate afterward.'"
—Mr. Hughes in His Speech at Portland, Maine.

DEMAND WAS NOT FOR EIGHT-HOUR DAY.

"It has been said that the judgment of society has made the demand for the eight-hour day. This was not the eight-hour day, and the judgment of society had nothing to do with the proposition laid before Congress and passed by Congress. The proof of this is found in the bill itself, which proposes an investigation to find out whether Congress had any business to do the thing which it was asked to do, and which it did do."—Mr. Hughes in His Speech at Portland, Maine.

WE SHOULD CONSIDER WHAT IS RIGHT THEN DO IT.

"Our Government is based on the idea that we have Legislatures to investigate, to consider what is right and to do what is right. It is based on the idea that public opinion is formed from discussion of questions, and that we can come possibly to right solutions. It is not based on the idea that the Government should act without knowing the justice and merits of a case in which it acts."—Mr. Hughes in His Speech at Portland, Maine.

THEY SHOULD BE NO ACTION UNDER DICTATION.

"We have one priceless treasure in this country, and that is the right of good judgment after public discussion. In the long history of our people, judgment after victory has been won over tyranny and force. We have a right to have a general sense of public discussion, to the end that we may have a general understanding of our activities and a general appreciation of what is necessary to the improvement of our conditions. We may disagree about the measure or that, but we have confidence in the public judgment in the long run. There is one thing which we must always maintain, and that is that there shall be no action on the part of our elected representatives, taken under pressure or under dictation. We must know what the facts are and what Justice requires."—Mr. Hughes in His Speech at Portland, Maine.

to see the people rallying to the standard of the "Grand Old Party" under his leadership. If ever there was a time in the history of our country when the Republican hosts should rally to the standard, IT IS NOW. They should sound the trumpet and call the clamor from the hills and hollows, blow the bugle till its silver tones are heard by every patriotic citizen in America, bent the long roll, and step forward in unbroken ranks to the polls on the 7th of November and redeem our country.

A CONFESSION.

"The friends of President Wilson admit the weakness of their candidate when they persist in wanting to know what Hughes would have done. The query is a confession that the President has made a mess of things. If they were satisfied with his course they would point to it with pride, but they are not and they know that others are not satisfied.

"They do not undertake to justify what he has done in Mexico, for example. They fall back on the same expedient of asking what one else would have done that might be more satisfactory. What Mr. Hughes would have done is not at issue. As has been pointed out before, it is idle to discuss how we would have met conditions that never would have developed under different handling.

The interesting fact is not what any one else would have done, but what President Wilson did do. Even his supporters tacitly acknowledge that he bungled, and they are asking the public to overlook that fact and return him to office. They conject their own candidate when they attempt to fasten on others opponent some of the embarrassments that is theirs.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.
A number of subscriptions to The Herald in the county have expired and the high cost of paper and other material makes it absolutely necessary that all to this at once in order that we may continue giving you a good newspaper. Paper is now costing us 7 1/2c per pound.
If ever there was a time in the history of our country when the Republican hosts should rally to the standard, IT IS NOW. They should sound the trumpet and call the clamor from the hills and hollows, blow the bugle till its silver tones are heard by every patriotic citizen in America, bent the long roll, and step forward in unbroken ranks to the polls on the 7th of November and redeem our country.

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvia Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. "She says first, 'Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my household work. After taking in my Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my household work, as well as run a big water mill. I wish every suffering woman would give it a trial. I still use Cardui when I feel a little bad, and it always does me good.'" a trial. I still use Cardui when I feel a little bad, and it always does me good. Headaches, backache, side ache, nervousness, tired, worn-out feelings, etc., are sure signs of woman's trouble. Signs that you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. You cannot make a mistake in trying Cardui for your trouble. It has been helping weak, ailing women for more than fifty years.

The Woman's Tonic

RELIEVE HEADACHES WITHOUT DOSING

By Applying Sloan's Liniment to Forehead You Can Stop the Severe Pains

Many headaches are of a neuralgic origin. The symptoms of such headaches are a severe pain in the forehead, the temples, or back of the head. There is usually a feeling of tightness about the forehead. Rubbing is unnecessary, as the pain is quickly passed to the seat of trouble.
