

The Board of the Morehead Christian Church met on January 26, 1953.

Board members present were: Hartley Battson, Harlan Powers, Leo Oppenheimer, Ward Williams, Henry Glover, Wilferd Waltz, O. B. Elam, W. H. Rice, Arthur Blair, M. S. Bowne, N. E. Kennard, O. P. Carr, Mrs. Murvel Crosley, Mrs. J. M. Clayton, Lew Higgins, and Miller Dungan.

The meeting was opened with prayer.

The minister made a brief presentation of the Advance in Kentucky program. A motion that the minister write a letter to the Advance in Kentucky director explaining our attitude toward the Advance, and that the letter be submitted to the chairman of the Board for official approval, was made by M. S. Bowne and seconded by N. E. Kennard. The motion was passed.

The minister then noted that the committee appointed to draw up a Constitution for the operation of the church had not functioned and presented a copy of a suggested constitution to each member present with the suggestion that the former committee be dissolved and another committee be appointed to examine this constitution and report at the next meeting of the Board, the February meeting, their recommendations concerning this constitution. Their amendments, alterations, and suggestions will then be acted upon by the Board. Any changes and suggestions are to be made to the chairman of the Board in writing prior to the meeting of the Board in February. M. S. Bowne moved that such a committee, composed of Harlan Powers, Edith Crosley, and Hartley Battson, be appointed. N. E. Kennard seconded the motion and the motion passed.

N. E. Kennard reported that plans are being made to provide an adequate supply of serviceable tables for the serving of meals and other purposes in the church basement.

M. S. Bowne reported on the recent additions to the Organ Fund. He then moved that a series of two letters be written to each and every member of the church explaining the cost of the chimes and the cost of the repairs to the organ and urging each and every member to take advantage of a specific Sunday as the time to bring in their offering in special envelopes to pay for the chimes and the organ repairs. N. E. Kennard seconded the motion and it passed after a short discussion in which it was stressed that every person in the church who desired to do so should be urged to give to this fund.

The Treasurer's report was received and accepted.

The chairman appointed the following officers to serve for ~~JANUARY~~ February: Elders; Virgil Ruley, C. E. Nickell. Deacons; Leo Oppenheimer, W. H. Rice, O. P. Carr, M. S. Bowne, Paul Reynolds, N. C. Marsh, N. E. Kennard. to shut-in O. B. Elam, Ward Williams.

Dear Otto:

Attached hereto report of Treasurer, D. L. Bayless, relative to the following:

1. CONSTRUCTION FUND - Men's Sunday School Room.
2. CHRISTIAN CHURCH ORGAN FUND.

The above acquaints us with the Financial Status of the two Projects .. one of which is being entirely handled by the members of the Men's Class .. and the Organ Fund Project is a matter that concerns the entire Church.

PROJECT (1) - Men's Class:

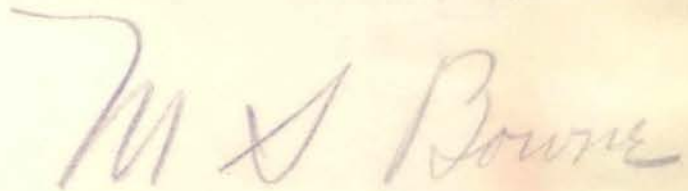

During the meeting of the Class last Sunday morning, it was voted to purchase 48 chairs at $4.45 each as per sample shown and now remaining in the Class Room where anybody can see it. This obligation will amount to $213.60 .. toward which we have $85.42 on hand .. requiring about $128.00 within the next ten days as we expect to receive the chairs sometime this week after which we will have ten days for payment. In addition to all of this, we owe for lumber and materials (Carr Lumber Company - $334.00, and Morehead Lumber Company - $56.00), or a total of $384.00 which has been reduced to a total amount due of $269.00 by reason of Carr Lumber Company reducing their bill $130.00 and Morehead Lumber Company reducing their bill $15.00. This remaining $269.00 is scheduled to be paid out of contributions each week by the Class (each Sunday's contribution). The foregoing acquaints us with the financial status of the Men's Class and the disposition of the funds contributed.

PROJECT (2) - Organ Fund:

The combined cost of the Chimes and Organ repair is about $900.00 and we have $413.00 to meet this obligation. Before next Monday (January 26), which is the next date for the Church Board to meet, somebody ought to come up with a program to meet this obligation.

Conclusion: Finally .. the Tables in the basement will have to be repaired or replaced. Somebody suggested that they should be replaced with tables having folding legs .. so they can be stacked and put away .. out of the way .. good idea.

Yours truly,

M. S. Bowne

From the Book of Isaiah

Come ye, and let us walk in the light of the Lord. Put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes, saith the Lord; cease to do evil; learn to do well.

Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.

Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker! There is no God else beside me, saith the Lord; a just God and a Saviour.

I dwell with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

Say unto them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come, and save you.

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.

Trust ye in the Lord for ever: for in the Lord Jehovah is everlasting strength.

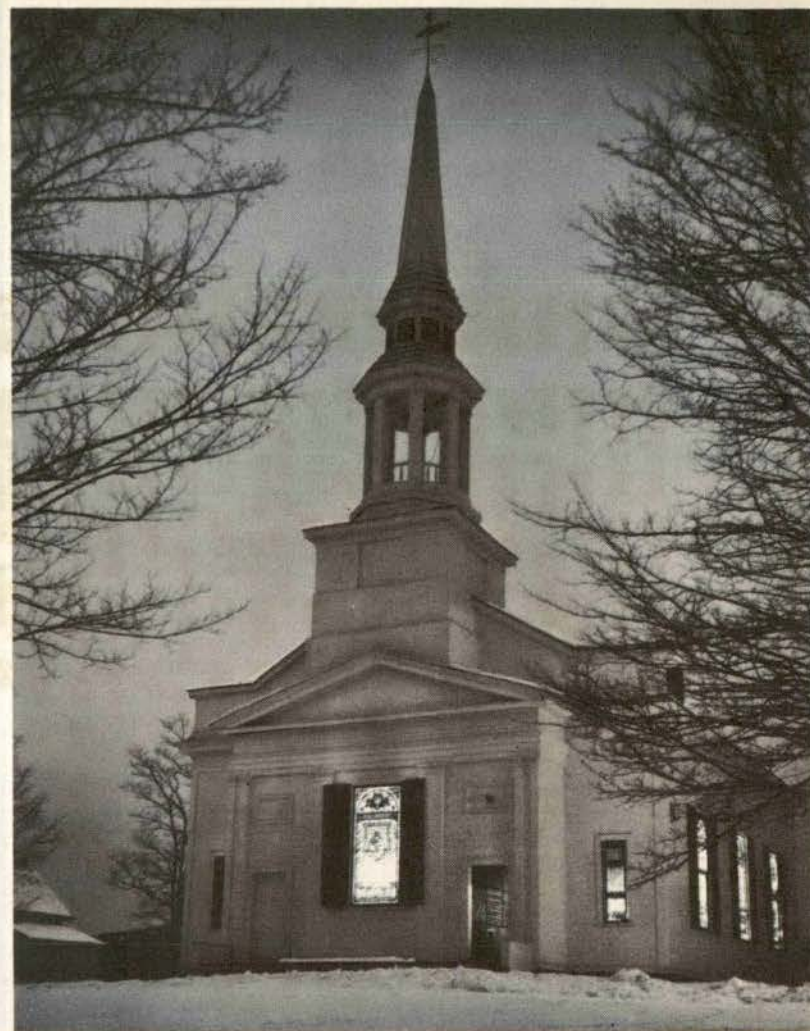

God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the Lord Jehovah is my strength and my song.

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

My servants shall sing for joy of heart. Be ye glad and rejoice for ever.

The Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations. He is their Savior.

Shut-ins: Arthur Blair and Andre Bowne

The minister reported that the Christmas Committee had done very good work, and that they had distributed eight baskets of food, three baskets of fruit and three poinsettias to shut-ins and needy. He reported the Christmas programs were well-attended and well conducted.

The minister also spoke of the need for an evangelistic program. He also stated that additions to the church grew less each year. There was some discussion but no definite decision reached.

Mr. Dungan stated that it was necessary for him to be away from Morehead for a few weeks because of his illness.

Mr. Bowne suggested that the organ fund be transferred to the general fund if that had not been voted at an earlier date. The ~~prospective~~ chairman stated that 3/4 of the cost of a new parsonage could be borrowed at 5% interest.

George Cline moved to transfer the organ fund to the building fund. This was seconded by Mark Bowne.

Meeting adjourned.

MOREHEAD CHRISTIAN CHURCH
Morehead, Kentucky

October 19, 1953

Dear Friend,

Our church year ends on the thirtieth of this month. It is time for us to review the achievements of the year and to get our plans for the new year under-way. I think it has been a very good year in many ways.

Our Department of Religious Education has done by far the most effective job of its history in this year. A Vacation Church School was held with an enrollment of over 65. Monthly meetings of the Department were held. Attendance in our Church School has increased from an average of 82 per Sunday to an average of 95.54. The Department has organized a Senior Youth Fellowship, a Junior Youth Fellowship, a Disciple Student Fellowship, and is now organizing an Intermediate or Chi Rho Fellowship. Every Sunday School Department has a substitute for each teacher and each room has two room mothers. We are sincerely grateful for the tremendous job this Department is doing under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mary Alice Jayne.

We have not done very well with our evangelism. We had only four additions to our church during the year. Let us all become concerned about uniting the people of our community with the church. We should have 45 additions during our new year. You can help by supplying names of prospective members to the minister. Call 31-J any day Monday thru Friday from 3 to 5 o'clock. Miss Phyllis May, our office secretary, will be glad to list prospects. You can also visit these prospects and invite them to church membership. Our membership is 193.

In the field of Stewardship, we are improving. Thru the 16th of this month we had already received for all purposes $9,716.71. This includes Sunday School, pledges, loose offerings, special offerings. We gave: Transylvania College $135, the College of the Bible $150, Kentucky Christian Missionary Society $100, Unified Promotion $600, the Convention $15, and the Councils of Churches $15. The Week of Compassion received $116.84. Our total offerings will exceed $10,000 for the year. This is an average of about $52 per member.

There are intangibles that might be reported, such as the interest and fine work being accomplished by the Christian Women's Fellowship in each of the three Circles. The C. W. F. paid for the painting of the sanctuary and sent about $350 to United Christian Missionary Society. These women are doing a marvelous work for the constant improvement of the total program of the church. We just could not get along without them.

Physical improvements include the painting of the sanctuary, the completion of the Men's Classroom, installation of new light fixtures in the basement, repairs on the parsonage, and the complete overhauling of our organ.

Our new year begins November 1. We need to adopt a new budget and to elect Leacons, Leaconesses, Board officers. We will transact this business next Sunday morning after the worship service. Please be present and help us get off to a good start on the new year. The proposed budget is attached to this letter. The nominating committee will have its report ready for you next Sunday morning.

It has been a good year. Let's make next year still better.

Yours truly,

Miller Dungan

The Paramount Confession

AMONG the most difficult words for any person to utter are these, "I have sinned." Hard as it is to say, "I have sinned against God," it is even more upsetting to go to another person, be it a father or mother, a relative, friend, or stranger, and confess "I have sinned against you." It is humiliating, searing to one's pride. It may be interpreted simply as weakness and call forth remarks of contempt and derision. Yet, every child of God will find that from time to time, in some form or other, he has to unburden his soul in such a confession.

The prodigal son came to it the hard way. He had no concern for sin against either God or man until he was completely impoverished, disgraced, and humiliated. Not until shame and suffering overtook him did he begin to count the blessings that had been his. Then he saw what a fool and sinner he was. Dire circumstances drove him to an honest and decisive self-examination. The one paramount result was the confession wrung from his erstwhile unwilling lips, "I have sinned."

Our restless age is marked by shallowness of thought in matters spiritual, and by an intense preoccupation with the activities of the present. The atmosphere of the day, or the spirit of our times, discourages every thought or effort directed toward critical self-examination. Nevertheless, the child of God knows that growth and development of his life in God requires that he daily search out the sin in his own heart, confess it before God, and seek forgiveness through our Savior, the Friend of sinners.

Lord Jesus Christ, grant us humility of heart that we may daily confess our sins. Give us also boldness to believe the forgiveness of sins through Thy holy and precious blood.

Dear Friend:

Even though the missionary year closed June 30, I am not able to give you a report today. I am optimistic about the results and a little later an announcement will be made.

50<sup>00</sup>
It is fine to receive an offering from you early in the new missionary year. It is a good sign for the future. Enclosed is our receipt.

May I take this opportunity of thanking the church for their cooperation last year. Also I wish to express my hope for continued support in the new year.

Sincerely yours,

The House of the Lord

"I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord." So spoke David of old. Down through the centuries God's children everywhere have taken up this refrain of gladness. For deep in their hearts they share the feeling of the Psalmist when he says, "One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to enquire in his temple."

Whether it be the little white church by the side of the road, or the cathedral in the great city, matters not. The Lord is there to be communed with in prayer, to be adored and worshipped, to guide and to bless through Word and Sacraments.

Therefore the church sings

We love the place, O God,
Wherein Thine honor dwelleth;
The joy of Thine abode
All earthly joy excelleth;
It is the house of prayer,
Wherein Thy servants meet;
And Thou, O Lord, art there
Thy chosen flock to greet.

We love Thine altar, Lord;
O what on earth is dearer?
For there, in faith adored,
We draw Thy presence nearer;
We love the word of life,
The word that tells of peace,
Of comfort in the strife,
And joys that never cease.

We love to sing below
For mercies freely given;
But most we long to know
The triumph-song of heaven.
Lord Jesus, give us grace
On earth to love Thee more,
In heaven to see Thy face,
And with Thy saints adore.

W. BULLOCK

MILLER DUNGAN, MINISTER

PHONE 31-J

MOREHEAD, KENTUCKY

February 23, 1953

Director
Christian Advance in Kentucky
641 South Limestone St.
Lexington, Kentucky

Dear Sir;

The sentiment of the Board of the Morehead Christian Church toward the Christian Advance is that it is a fine cooperative effort for our churches to be making at this time. We delight in the unity of spirit and endeavor that can be accomplished through such an emphasis.

We, at present, are reaching or exceeding all of the goals suggested in the Advance except the financial askings for the College of the Bible, Transylvania and the State Work. We will strive to go beyond our present accomplishments in the fields of Stewardship, Education, and Evangelism. We will reconsider our giving to the institutions of our brotherhood and will make revisions in our budget from time to time. We support the spirit and aims of the Advance.

We will continue to build our program along our present lines and will try to maintain a steady growth in all fields. We will be very cautious about entering into any "pressure" or "campaign" methods of advance due to the fact that our present program seems to be effective. We do not want to lose the gains we have made under a growing persistent and enthusiastic program. With the understanding that we tailor the programs of the Advance to our local needs, and that we hold our sister churches and our cooperative programs in high esteem, we want to register our sentiment in favor of the Advance.

Yours truly,

---

Chairman of Board
