MOREHEAD, Ky.---Morehead State University's baseball Eagles won the Ohio Valley Conference's Eastern Division fall championship Thursday by sweeping a doubleheader from Eastern Kentucky.

Coach Sonny Allen's Eagles won the opener 8-4 and shutout the Colonels 1-0 in the nightcap.

MSU completed the fall season with a 5-1 record in the OVC, while Eastern Kentucky finished 4-2. The fall champion will face the spring season champion in a playoff next spring to determine the Eastern Division's representative to the OVC championship series.

The Eagles, led by home runs by centerfielder Mac Whitaker and pitcher Jeff Garman, rolled to an 8-4 win in the opener. Garman recorded his fourth win against no losses.

In the nightcap, MSU scored the game's only run in the bottom of the sixth inning when Whitaker singled, went to second on a wild pitch and scored on a double by first baseman Homer Cablish.

Righthander John Kurtz held the Colonels to four hits for his second win of the season.

Morehead State is the defending OVC baseball champion. The league's Eastern Division consists of MSU, ECU, Tennessee Tech and East Tennessee.
