

The Campaign flag.

Friday, November 6, 1868.

To the Patrons of the Campaign Flag.

This is the last number of the CAMPAIGN FLAG (save one containing the returns), which will be published the present year.

That we have labored faithfully and zealously in the cause of Democracy and truth, none we presume, will deny, and we feel a confidence that if others have performed their part as well as we, the labor which we have bestowed in the furtherance of Democratic principles will find a rich reward in the glorious results which will come from the election next Tuesday.

That Cass and Butler will be triumphantly elected, we have never entertained a serious doubt; and that Democratic principles will continue to prevail throughout the Union, we are equally confident.

To be thus prepared, each man should inform himself thoroughly upon all the various issues which may come up between the Democratic and Federal parties, and be ready, under every circumstance, to defend the rights of Democracy, to resist the gross perversion of the one to the other; and this brings us to speak of the importance of the Democratic press, as a medium through which correct information may, at all times, be obtained.

This pitiful attempt to get up a little sympathy in favor of Gen. Taylor, at the expense of the editor's veracity, is too contemptible to merit serious notice; but we cannot permit any man, professing friendship toward us, to misrepresent us in that way, to enable himself to accomplish any object whatever.

Those who have neglected to pay their subscriptions to this paper, are now informed that we will not receive any more orders to receive it, without further trouble.

Owing to a press of business, our paper for to-day is a few hours later than usual. Can't help it—enough said.

People have been in the habit of talking about the prayers of the world towards a more christian and humane state of feeling—a state in which France was not matter—but condemned mercifully and tearfully. Such dreams are not for the ministers of England's "justice"!

When the speakers of the Whip party, is that such of them as Garrett Davis, Leslie Combs, and others of the small fry, address the people, they seem to endeavor to excel each other in heaping abuse and foul slanders upon the name of Gen. Cass, and carry their shameful assaults to such an extent as to create a feeling of loathing and disgust in the breasts of every true gentleman.

It is our wish to see the KEYSTONE FLAG in the hands of every man who, at present, receives the CAMPAIGN, and hope that Postmasters, and other Agents, will endeavor to induce those residing in their respective neighborhoods to subscribe.

THE PUBLISHERS.

Mean, False, and Contemptible.

If any one thing, more than another, has characterized the conduct of the democratic party and governed the democratic press, during the controversy which is now about to close, it has been an avoidance, on their part, to say aught, in relation to Gen. Taylor, that could possibly be construed into anything like slander or abuse of that brave old soldier; and we are proud to say that we have seen, in no instance, anything of that sort in the democratic papers with which we exchange. The Herald of Wednesday last, however, menally and falsely charges that "not a sheet that flies the name of Cass and Butler at its masthead, but brands itself in some form, in the disgusting work of slandering Gen. Taylor."

This sweeping declaration is not only untrue, but the editor must know it to be so; and we defy him to print his renders to one single line which we have ever penned, that could possibly be construed into either abuse or slander against the General. When the whip editors were denouncing Gen. Taylor as "the most ardent skull-breaker, woman and child slayer," &c., we boldly and fearlessly defended him, from their ruthless assaults; and that man does not live who can point out an instance in which we have ever come within the range of the unflinching falsehood of the Herald; and it argues a littleness and unfairness on the part of the editor, which we thought him incapable of exercising.

We have spoken or penned a word by way of detraction, is a falsehood, let who may utter it; and we shall brand it as such, wherever it may appear.

This pitiful attempt to get up a little sympathy in favor of Gen. Taylor, at the expense of the editor's veracity, is too contemptible to merit serious notice; but we cannot permit any man, professing friendship toward us, to misrepresent us in that way, to enable himself to accomplish any object whatever.

Those who have neglected to pay their subscriptions to this paper, are now informed that we will not receive any more orders to receive it, without further trouble.

Owing to a press of business, our paper for to-day is a few hours later than usual. Can't help it—enough said.

People have been in the habit of talking about the prayers of the world towards a more christian and humane state of feeling—a state in which France was not matter—but condemned mercifully and tearfully. Such dreams are not for the ministers of England's "justice"!

When the speakers of the Whip party, is that such of them as Garrett Davis, Leslie Combs, and others of the small fry, address the people, they seem to endeavor to excel each other in heaping abuse and foul slanders upon the name of Gen. Cass, and carry their shameful assaults to such an extent as to create a feeling of loathing and disgust in the breasts of every true gentleman.

It is our wish to see the KEYSTONE FLAG in the hands of every man who, at present, receives the CAMPAIGN, and hope that Postmasters, and other Agents, will endeavor to induce those residing in their respective neighborhoods to subscribe.

THE PUBLISHERS.

THE Eagle heads an article, "The Taylor Rev. r." The chill will come about Tuesday evening, after which the editor should speak of Taylor shakes, as he will be certain to have one.

Ex-Governor Metcalf.

This distinguished gentleman is now in our city, on his return from a recent electioneering tour in Ohio. We understand that he intends to make a speech to-night, in compliance with a desire of some of the most ardent Taylorites of our city, and that he will take pains to exculpate himself from the slander implied in the following article from the Cincinnati Gazette. Certainly no man who is familiar with his political history, who knows of his heretofore ardent feelings, his ultra-whig notions, the agency he had in the proceedings at Lexington against Cassius M. Clay, the violent speech he made to the mob while the press was being taken down, can believe for a moment that there is one word of truth in the statement which the Gazette makes. Let him nail the statement to the counter as base calumny:

"Governor Metcalf being introduced by Col Bond, spoke for half an hour, with great power, in a review of the case of the venerable patriot of the land—no man, distinguished widely, for his personal and political integrity—he is a slave of the press, and a slave State, and a slave press. HE WOULD NOT VETO A BILL CONTAINING THE PRINCIPLES OF THE WILMOT PROVISION—HE IS HIS PLACES TO THE PEOPLE FORBID IT, HIS CHARACTER FORBID IT, AND THAT WERE SUCH AN ACT POSSIBLE, HE WOULD VETO IT. HE WOULD DENOUNCE HIM, AND SO WOULD THE WHOLE WILG PARTY, SOUTH AS WELL AS NORTH. LET THE FREE SOIL PARTY NOTE THIS."

Send in the returns. We hope our friends in all the counties of this State, will forward us a correct statement of the vote of each, immediately after the closing of the polls on Tuesday evening, that we may be able to give the result as soon as practicable.

Because Senator Allen showed conclusively, on Wednesday, that Gen. Taylor did not differ with Harrison, Jackson, and other Presidents, in relation to the exercise of the Veto Power, some of the Whigs have told us that "Col. Allen agrees exactly with Gen. Taylor!" Wonderful discovery! If Col. Allen agrees with Gen. Taylor, Gen. Taylor must agree with Col. Allen, so are very well satisfied with the agreement all round, as that Col. Allen is right.

We might give the names of the whole ten democrats referred to, were it not for the prospect that we have no room to spare for those who are disposed to differ with them in their Presidential preferences.

Those who have neglected to pay their subscriptions to this paper, are now informed that we will not receive any more orders to receive it, without further trouble.

Owing to a press of business, our paper for to-day is a few hours later than usual. Can't help it—enough said.

People have been in the habit of talking about the prayers of the world towards a more christian and humane state of feeling—a state in which France was not matter—but condemned mercifully and tearfully. Such dreams are not for the ministers of England's "justice"!

When the speakers of the Whip party, is that such of them as Garrett Davis, Leslie Combs, and others of the small fry, address the people, they seem to endeavor to excel each other in heaping abuse and foul slanders upon the name of Gen. Cass, and carry their shameful assaults to such an extent as to create a feeling of loathing and disgust in the breasts of every true gentleman.

It is our wish to see the KEYSTONE FLAG in the hands of every man who, at present, receives the CAMPAIGN, and hope that Postmasters, and other Agents, will endeavor to induce those residing in their respective neighborhoods to subscribe.

THE PUBLISHERS.

A negro man killed another negro at Augusta, Ky., on last Tuesday night, by striking him with an iron dry pipe—the murderer made his escape, and has not yet been taken.

Out of the Foul Party.

Willis Hall, the great gun of New York City whigery, is out with a letter declaring his opposition to Gen. Taylor. This renunciation whigery by a man who has been their leading spirit—the life and soul of the whig party—will have a tremendous effect on Taylor at New York and the East, and Taylor will soon cry, "save me from my friends," at the rate matters are going on.

The letter of Mr. Hall is strongly ably supported by a disclosure some wholesome truths, which we would recommend to the old admirers of Henry Clay. In speaking of the political murder of Henry Clay by the party he has made, Mr. Hall says: "This man was murdered in the arms of his friends. His assassins are known, and history is preparing to gibbet these Ravallines in the chains which they have forged for themselves."

Cass's CONSISTENCY—How will the Whigs assert this? Gen. Cass has but recently declared the views of the Nicholas letter in regard to slavery, yet over the following in his celebrated pamphlet on the Quilting treaty: "I would be left only to those who there to be seriously affected by it; and where it is left by the Constitution of the United States. It is a matter with which the General Government has no concern."

Here is the identical doctrine of the Nicholas letter, denying the authority of the General Government over a slavery, yet we get our information from the scrupulous, slanderous, bare-faced Whigs represent that the sentiments now declared by our candidate have been but repeated, in an effort to be made to swallow them with his former declarations.—Spirit of Jefferson.

LOOK OUT.—The Gazette says our statement, that a couple of Whigs had left Boston with $20,000 in their pockets, for the purpose of aiding Taylor in Ohio, was an error, as they had no money. Why? "What Whig," says the Gazette, "would let the Enquirer read and take extracts from his letters?" Now we did not get our information from the Whig, nor from a Whig letter. We got it from watchful friends, upon whom we can rely. We again warn the Whigs to look out for the look out, for we have no doubt, on an effort to be made to swallow them.—Cin. Eng.

It is a favorite saying with the Taylorites that "Old Zack never surrenders." Either he has surrendered to Tom Corwin or Tom Corwin has surrendered to him. Tom was his deadly opponent during the election, and now finds it necessary to support Old Zack tooth and nail.—Who surrendered? Corwin says he did a letter from Gen. Taylor, yielding all his rights to Old Zack, and in token of tenderness will not exhibit it.—Cin. Eng.

Another Whig Borer.—Mr. Palmyre of Cambridge Mass., member of Congress from the Fourth District, lately addressed an address to the Whigs in the course of his speech, according to the Atlas, he deprecated the election of Gen. Taylor in the strongest terms. "Heaven forbid," said he, "that Gen. Taylor or Gen. Cass be President of the United States!"

The Cincinnati Gazette is a very busy just now, reporting steamboat wrecking, and proves General Taylor a marvellous popular man. Suppose it turns its attention to a little of the ballot box voting done within the past few months, and especially in Ohio, on the second Tuesday of the present month. Come, enlighten your readers on this subject.—Dayton Enquirer.

Can any body inform us where that twenty thousand majority for Ford is, that Auditor Woods has been speaking about for some time?—Harrison Telegraph.

It has followed the Whig party, and has sunk into Gov. Webb's ashes of despair. It is a bloodhound of General Taylor are now traversing the State, per order of the Whig Rookstock State Central Committee, not to "sneer" that "twenty thousand majority" but merely "to find out where it is."—Statenland.

Gen Taylor's present Monthly pay. $200 00

Pay per month, $200 00

Pay for four servants, at $15 per month, 60 00

Subsistence for four, THIRTY RATIONS PER DAY, at twenty cents per ration, 180 00

Subsistence for four, four rations, at twenty cents per ration, 24 00

Clothing for four servants, at $2 per month, 10 00

BY THE TELEGRAPH!

From the Daily Equator. From Venezuela—Battle at Caracas—Defeated. New York, Oct. 30th. An arrival at this port from Venezuela reports a battle at Caracas, between the government troops and a party commanded by Paez, in which the latter were defeated with six hundred killed and taken prisoners.

New Orleans, Oct. 26th. By an arrival at this port, we have advices from Yucatan of the 17th inst.—10,000 Indians had again attacked Yucatan, and obliged thearrison to retire—500 whites were killed. Gen. Bustamante was to march against Tampico with 10,000 soldiers.

Louisville, Oct. 26th, P. M. The steamer on Rio Grande, Capt. Genley, from Cincinnati, for St. Louis, near near Gettenda, on the Ohio river, and the boat and cargo are a total loss; the machinery may probably be saved. N. lives lost.

Boston, Oct. 26th. The brig Canimble, from a City of New York, captured a few days ago, during nine passengers.

Pittsburg, Oct. 26th, P. M. River falling about with a feet 1 inch water in the channel. Water pleasant. St. Louis, Oct. 26th, P. M. It has been raining most of the day. There are six feet water in the channel hence to Cairo. In the Missouri river there is 2 1/2 feet.

The Markets.

Refined, prime family, retail 15 1/2 @ 16

Cheese, West R. cks. 6 @ 7

COFFEE, Java Gov't, 12 @ 14

COAL, Alder, bush, 10 @ 12

BAKING POWDER, 14 @ 16

FRUITS, Peaches, 8 @ 10

GLASS, 10-12 window, 4 @ 8

WHEAT, 4 @ 5

WHEAT, 4 @ 5

WHEAT, 4 @ 5

WHEAT, 4 @ 5

WHEAT, 4 @ 5

WHEAT, 4 @ 5

Month's Bulletin, No. 9.

The position of the Grantian Company in its relations to the city is now fully settled. The city is now fully settled. The city is now fully settled.

Of every description, aimed that wonderful efficiency, and its numerous ways remained to the people of their charge.

There are over ten thousand agencies of the Company in the United States, which are as profitable to the city of Grant as they are to the inhabitants. There should not be a family without one.

Francis, Village, or Hamlet. Without its Chamberlain Dept; and if this Bulletin is read, it will be found that the Chamberlain Dept. is now fully settled.

Francis, Village, or Hamlet. Without its Chamberlain Dept; and if this Bulletin is read, it will be found that the Chamberlain Dept. is now fully settled.

Francis, Village, or Hamlet. Without its Chamberlain Dept; and if this Bulletin is read, it will be found that the Chamberlain Dept. is now fully settled.

Francis, Village, or Hamlet. Without its Chamberlain Dept; and if this Bulletin is read, it will be found that the Chamberlain Dept. is now fully settled.

Francis, Village, or Hamlet. Without its Chamberlain Dept; and if this Bulletin is read, it will be found that the Chamberlain Dept. is now fully settled.

Francis, Village, or Hamlet. Without its Chamberlain Dept; and if this Bulletin is read, it will be found that the Chamberlain Dept. is now fully settled.

Francis, Village, or Hamlet. Without its Chamberlain Dept; and if this Bulletin is read, it will be found that the Chamberlain Dept. is now fully settled.

Francis, Village, or Hamlet. Without its Chamberlain Dept; and if this Bulletin is read, it will be found that the Chamberlain Dept. is now fully settled.

Francis, Village, or Hamlet. Without its Chamberlain Dept; and if this Bulletin is read, it will be found that the Chamberlain Dept. is now fully settled.

Francis, Village, or Hamlet. Without its Chamberlain Dept; and if this Bulletin is read, it will be found that the Chamberlain Dept. is now fully settled.

Francis, Village, or Hamlet. Without its Chamberlain Dept; and if this Bulletin is read, it will be found that the Chamberlain Dept. is now fully settled.

Francis, Village, or Hamlet. Without its Chamberlain Dept; and if this Bulletin is read, it will be found that the Chamberlain Dept. is now fully settled.

Francis, Village, or Hamlet. Without its Chamberlain Dept; and if this Bulletin is read, it will be found that the Chamberlain Dept. is now fully settled.

Francis, Village, or Hamlet. Without its Chamberlain Dept; and if this Bulletin is read, it will be found that the Chamberlain Dept. is now fully settled.

Francis, Village, or Hamlet. Without its Chamberlain Dept; and if this Bulletin is read, it will be found that the Chamberlain Dept. is now fully settled.

