Did any body farnish him with a so-cret pass? The newspapers stated that he had arrived at Havana from Europe and would proceed, by the first stammer, to Mexico. This information appeared personal control of the control of th of peace.

The Administration has, at last, called out six mor regiments of volunteers for the war—one from Ohio, two from Teniessee, two from Kentucky's and one from Indiana. Why were they not called out six months ago! Colonel Barers, the gallant leader of the Illinois regiments at the battle of Cerro Gordo, after General Surerra was wounded, was here a fow weeks since, and, I learn, propose to the President that he would forthwith raise a brigade of volunteers, if they were wanted, and the reply war, many propose to the Administration is sure enough to do something towards the conquest of the whole of Office.
