Historical Information: Isaac Ralph Schwartz was a student at Morehead State Teachers College from the fall 1935 to the spring of 1937. He was born on May 12, 1918 and was a resident of Fort Wayne, Indiana prior to attending classes at Morehead State. He was the member of the college band, president of the English Majors Club, business manager of the student newspaper, and editor of the Quill & Quair journal. During the Second World War, he served as an officer in the United States Army Air Corps, 320th Bombardment Group. He completed 62 missions as a navigator aboard B-26 bombers in the European Theater. When the war concluded he became the owner of three retail furniture stores in Ft. Wayne. He retired to Sea Ranch, California after 38 years in the furniture business. He also was a timpanist in the Ft. Wayne Philharmonic for over 25 years. Ralph Schwartz died on June 6, 2007 at age 89.

Scope and Content: Collection consists of correspondence, newspapers clippings and ephemera retained by Ralph Schwartz, an alumnus of Morehead State Teachers College, from the fall of 1935 to the spring of 1937. The collection contains articles published in the college newspaper by Schwarz, musical and theatrical programs, band performances and various notices and flyers related to campus events.
