Babb To Take Office Friday
As Head Of Morehead School

MOREHEAD, Ky., Oct. 31—Harvey A. Babb, superintendent of schools at Mt. Sterling for the last 16 years, will take office Friday as president of Morehead State Teachers College. He was named president of the school at a meeting of the board of regents in Lexington Oct. 7.

Dean W. H. Vaughan, who has been acting president at Morehead for some time, will resume his position as dean of the college.

Mr. Babb, born in Crittenden, Ky., Sept. 19, 1894, received his bachelor of arts degree from the University of Kentucky in 1911 and his master degree from the same institution in 1932.

After graduation from the University in 1911, Mr. Babb taught in the high school at Springdale, Ark., for two years, Henderson high school for three years, served as principal of that school for one year, and in 1920 became superintendent of schools at Mt. Sterling.

A faculty reception will be held in the college gymnasium Nov. 11 in honor of the new president. He was the guest of honor at a faculty dinner in the school cafeteria last Monday night.

Members of the board of regents of the college are James H. Richmond, Murray, chairman; Judge Earl Senff, Mt. Sterling, secretary; Judge D. B. Caudill, Morehead; Dr. J. W. Rose, Olive Hill, and Dr. A. O. Taylor, Maysville.
