

Professional Cards

R. H. Stanton, Thos. A. Heppner, STANTON & HEBBER, Attorneys at Law...
JOHN N. JEFFERSON, Attorney at Law...
THOMAS Y. PAYNE, Attorney & Counselor at Law...
P. M. MAJOR, Attorney at Law...
WILL practice in the various Courts held...
V. J. A. Monroe, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW...
WILL practice in the counties of Owen...
G. A. MORROW, Commissioner for the State of Indiana...
Lawrence S. Trimble, ATTORNEY AT LAW...
EMERY WHITAKER, ATTORNEY AT LAW...
WILL practice in all cases...
D. K. WEBB, ATTORNEY AT LAW...
FREDERICK RAND, ATTORNEY AT LAW...
J. M. BARNES & J. M. Alexander, ATTORNEYS AT LAW...
WILL attend the courts of Fleming, Macon...
FORD & CLARK, Attorneys at Law...
DENTAL SURGERY...
J. Call...
Botanical Medicines...

Hots and S. Boats

BEVERLY HOUSE, LATE OF THE FRANKLIN HOUSE...
MANSION HOUSE, And General Stage & Steamboat Office...
PARKER'S HOTEL, Second St., near Wall, Maysville, Ky...
THE BOYD HOUSE, Steamboat Landing, Concord, Ky...
BOARDING HOUSE, JOHN G. PAYNE, Jr., Proprietor...
NEW BOARDING HOUSE, JOHN G. PAYNE, Jr., Proprietor...
REGULAR PORTSMOUTH, MAYSVILLE, & CINCINNATI PACKET...
MAYSVILLE & CINCINNATI PACKET...
BOON FASHIONABLE CLOTHING STORE...
DENTAL SURGERY...
J. Call...
Botanical Medicines...

The Kentucky Flag

Taylor will receive the support of fifteen States, giving 165 electoral votes, and that Cass has also fifteen States, giving only 137 electoral votes...
The present number brings the publication of the CAROLINA FLAG to a close for the present...
From the Campaign Flag. The next controversy in Kentucky...
As the "naive and confusion" which attended the late Presidential election of passed away, we suppose the next subject which will engage the minds of the people...
We have made these desultory remarks for the purpose of calling the attention of our readers to the subject of the Convention, and to put them on their guard against any undue enthusiasm...
The general result of the election...
Arkansas 3 Connecticut 6
Alabama 3 Delaware 3
Indiana 15 Kentucky 9
Maryland 9 New York 36
Michigan 6 North Carolina 11
Ohio 23 Pennsylvania 20
Tennessee 15 Virginia 10
West Virginia 10 Wisconsin 10

Political Articles

To the Convention Men of Kentucky...
It is necessary to insure the ratification of the new Constitution...
We have made these desultory remarks for the purpose of calling the attention of our readers to the subject of the Convention...
The general result of the election...
Arkansas 3 Connecticut 6
Alabama 3 Delaware 3
Indiana 15 Kentucky 9
Maryland 9 New York 36
Michigan 6 North Carolina 11
Ohio 23 Pennsylvania 20
Tennessee 15 Virginia 10
West Virginia 10 Wisconsin 10

Presidential Vote-Official

Table with columns: Counties, Taylor, Cass, Van Buren, Total. Lists election results for various counties including Adams, Anderson, Boone, etc.

Scrap and Scales

Parson—Gov. Young has returned from prison at Blackwell's Island...
A young girl, arrested in Philadelphia at night, refused to give any other name than that of "Rough and Ready"...
A young girl, arrested in Philadelphia at night, refused to give any other name than that of "Rough and Ready"...
A young girl, arrested in Philadelphia at night, refused to give any other name than that of "Rough and Ready"...

Scrap and Scales

Parson—Gov. Young has returned from prison at Blackwell's Island...
A young girl, arrested in Philadelphia at night, refused to give any other name than that of "Rough and Ready"...
A young girl, arrested in Philadelphia at night, refused to give any other name than that of "Rough and Ready"...
A young girl, arrested in Philadelphia at night, refused to give any other name than that of "Rough and Ready"...

Wednesday - December 6, 1860. By an oversight in making up the copy of today's paper, about one half of the edition bear the last week's date. The inside date is correct.

MEETING OF CONGRESS.—Both Houses of Congress were to have met on Monday last, and, no doubt, did so; but we have yet received nothing from Washington since. The Message will probably come on hand on Friday or Saturday, when we shall issue it without delay, in an Extra.

TO S. F. P. and others. The usual premium will be given for the best and most appropriate Address for the Carrier of the FLAG, forwarded to this office previous to the 25th inst.

ST. ANDREW.—The will of the late Gen. James Taylor, of Newport, has been made up by the Probate Court of Campbell county, without being subjected to record. The reasons why we have not fully related.

O'REILLY'S TELEGRAM.—The New Orleans papers speak of the completion of the line from Louisville to that city, with the exception of some of the instruments.

OFFICIAL VOTE OF KENTUCKY.—Our thanks are respectfully tendered to W. Finnell, Esq., editor of the Commonwealth, for the full official vote of this State, excepting for the counties of Letcher and Pike. We presume that the people of those counties forgot the day of the election, and had no returns to send in.

STORM.—On Friday night last, we were visited by a severe storm of wind and rain, which lasted during the greater part of the night. It was much such a night as that on which Tom O'Shanter made his exit from the town of Ayr, and which is so beautifully described by Scotland's immortal Poet.

The wind blew as hard from the East. The rattling snow 'ras on the black ice. The Taylor flag, (which was so long lost, but which came to light after the election,) was split in twain, by the fury of the wind, and has been again blown down. A wag at our elbow says it is a lamentation of the incoming Administration, for that, he thinks, will be split worse than the Taylor banner, before a twelve-month.

We have heard of no other damage done; but it is said the farmer's fencing in the county, suffered considerably.

NO. 50.—The death of LEVI J. NORRIS, the unrivaled epicurean, which has been extensively published, is now said to be a mistake. He is yet alive.

GEN. HAYLOR was 64 years old on the 24th ult. He was born in Orange county, Va., on the 24th Nov. 1784.

The lifeboat will sail the truth upon each other's heads.—No Whig.

The same may be said of some whigs, especially those of certain towns in Ohio, where a certain whig editor formerly figured.

MISSOURI.—Official returns from all but seven counties in this State give Cass a majority of 3021 votes.

GEN. ALEX. and the same may be said of about thirty Whigs.

All the intelligence, &c. Whiggery has, hitherto, laid claim to "all the decency, all the intelligence, all the respectability," &c. of the land; but it seems from an anecdote we are going to relate of the whig papers, that some of that party are about as ignorant and illiterate as the most uneducated rustic democrat who ever went to the polls.

The anecdote is said to have been sent by Gen. LESLIE COLES, (of pole memory,) in a letter to a gentleman in Albany, and runs thus:

"A plain old countryman, an inhabitant of one of the interior counties in Kentucky, had been called at the district post office for the election of the President of the United States, and was very desirous to vote, but he was so much embarrassed by Philip Moore, that he did not know what to do. When asked for whom he voted he replied, 'I voted for Moore and Philip Moore.'"

ALABAMA U. S. SENATOR.—The Governor has appointed E. G. VANCE the Vice President U. S. Senator, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Hon. Dixon B. Lewis.

THE STEAMER WYANDOTT was wrecked, about Vicksburg, on the night of the 21st ult. The boat is an entire loss, and the crew perished.

About the same time, the De Kalb was sunk by the Cotton near Cumberland river, and completely capsized—no lives saved.

Official Returns.

The editor of the S. MARY'S, Ohio, Standard has again run the names of Cass and Butler, as Democratic candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States, in 1862; and the editor of the Hickman, Ky., Standard, has the name of the gallant WILLIAM O. BRANTLEY for the office. We do not object to this course, on the part of our editorial brethren, although we shall not, this early, declare our preferences for any individuals, by placing their names at the head of our columns.

It may be well to agitate the question early, but it does seem to us that the public mind must be prepared, after the turmoil and excitement which has attended the late struggle; and although, we shall not censure our friends for exercising their judgment, in relation to the subject, we hope that none of them will think that we are less devoted to the cause in consequence of our declining, for the present, to follow the example which they have set.

It is well known that, in the late election of the Baltimore Convention, we only got one of the men of our choice—that we had accordingly been in favor of the lamented STANLEY WAGNER for the Presidency. We will not, however, deny the fidelity; and that after the death of the former, we run up the name of the gallant Gen. WILLIAM J. WORTH, of N. York, as our next choice to Mr. Wright; and we are free to declare that our opinion, as to the merits of those distinguished gentlemen, has undergone no change, since the Baltimore Convention; and that we are now to express a preference, we do not unhesitatingly declare for WORTH and BUTLER, as our candidates in 1862.—That they could have been elected, in 1848, we sincerely believe;—at the time of using their names in connection—that they would have triumphed, hundreds, nay, thousands, are ready to admit, and regret that they had not been put in nomination.

But the battle is now over, and it is useless to grumble about that which cannot be remedied. We have ever believed, and do still believe, that General Worth was the next best man to shake the rascal with Gen. Taylor, and had he been the nominee of the Baltimore Convention, we should have triumphed, as certain as it is that Gen. Taylor is now the President elect, so, were we to raise the banner of any man for the next term, it would be his. It is not our intention, however, to expound the cause of any particular man in the next issue; but, keeping the great principles of the party steadily in view, we shall throw our best efforts into the fight, whenever the right time, in our opinion, shall arrive for action. The time is not yet.

TWO COUSINS REWARD.—We give a reward of two couplings, with the name 'em, to any one who will point out, in the columns of the Standard, the Eagle of this city, a single measure, which has been proposed or advocated by either of said papers, since the nomination of Gen. Taylor to the Presidency. The first abandoned the old issue, about one year ago, and has never yet suggested any new ones. The latter plays second fiddle to the Log Cabin Journal, and cannot speak out, until after it has been published.

THEY ARE FACTS.—The Cleveland Plaindealer says, 'I generally believe, and extend over every State in this Union. If so, it will liberate more white slaves than black.' That is as true as practice, and the editor deserves a place in Taylor's Cabinet, for having made the discovery.

ELECTION FRAUDS.—It seems that extensive frauds have been committed upon the ballot box in Philadelphia, at the late election. While New York, with a population of 400,000 gave a vote of 53,135, Philadelphia, with a population one-third less, gave 53,627, or 468 more than the city of Gotham. This was the result of pipe-laying, fraud, and the use of money, by the whigs of the latter city, in conjunction with the eastern manufacturers of Pennsylvania was made the baited ground, and such men as Truman Smith were the chosen demagogues to cajole and deceive the unsuspecting. It is said that hundreds of thousands of dollars were sent into Pennsylvania, by the manufacturers of New England, for electioneering purposes, and it is not surprising that the best possible advantage to promote the cause of the whig candidate. The triumph of whiggery, however, is not for a brief period, in that good old Commonwealth.

HEAVY BETTING.—It is said, (upon whom we know not,) that the Hon. JOHN SHELLEN, of New Orleans, bet and won no less than $50,000, on the result of the Presidential election in Ohio. He was not the only one who has won heavily on the same result.

THE editor of the "Spirit of Jefferson" thinks we are "foes" or "friends of the Herald" about a "fist." Well, that is far enough to penetrate any vegetable substance.

HON. THOMAS W. BARTLET, of Ohio, was married on the 7th ult., to Miss Susan D. SHEPARD, of Mansfield, in that State. No man is more deserving of complimentary bills, and we wish that he might live to enjoy the full fruition of this joy.

Table with columns: County, Cass, Butler, Total. Lists counties like Adams, Adams, Adams, etc.

Table with columns: County, Cass, Butler, Total. Lists counties like Adams, Adams, Adams, etc.

Table with columns: County, Cass, Butler, Total. Lists counties like Adams, Adams, Adams, etc.

New and Cheap!

W. W. COLLINS, of the Standard, has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

BRANDT'S PILLS.

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

Enriched Hemp.

WE have the honor to announce that we have just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

WE have the honor to announce that we have just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

WE have the honor to announce that we have just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

WE have the honor to announce that we have just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

WE have the honor to announce that we have just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

North Carolina.

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

South Carolina.

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

Virginia.

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

THE Editor of the Standard has the honor to announce that he has just received a large quantity of the best quality of... (text continues)

EDITED BY SAMUEL PIERCE

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1888

The very good that this city presented a low and lively appearance on Monday morning...

Why is it that our city authorities do not make some arrangement by which the Mayville Packets can land at a wharf boat?

Happy Merry Christmas is near at hand! We know this fact from having received the customary DECEMBER XMAS.

The immense picture sheet of Messrs. Wilson & Co.—the double mount portraits—has been featured with good results in New York.

Another accident.—The Ohio Whig states that "two men were seriously injured by a fall from a scaffold on the evening of the 20th inst. at the construction of the cannon, during the night celebration."

It seems that an unusual number of such accidents have occurred, since those who are engaged in the construction of the cannon, during the night celebration.

It is a fact that the Ohio Whig has taken in its column the names of those who were present at the election, in honor of Old Zack's election, but they do not say that there is any thing ominous about it.

Much ado is making amongst the whig corps editorial, in order to ascertain who was the first of the tribe to mention the name of Old Zack in connection with a Presidency.

It is a fact that the Ohio Whig has taken in its column the names of those who were present at the election, in honor of Old Zack's election, but they do not say that there is any thing ominous about it.

Much ado is making amongst the whig corps editorial, in order to ascertain who was the first of the tribe to mention the name of Old Zack in connection with a Presidency.

It is a fact that the Ohio Whig has taken in its column the names of those who were present at the election, in honor of Old Zack's election, but they do not say that there is any thing ominous about it.

Much ado is making amongst the whig corps editorial, in order to ascertain who was the first of the tribe to mention the name of Old Zack in connection with a Presidency.

It is a fact that the Ohio Whig has taken in its column the names of those who were present at the election, in honor of Old Zack's election, but they do not say that there is any thing ominous about it.

Much ado is making amongst the whig corps editorial, in order to ascertain who was the first of the tribe to mention the name of Old Zack in connection with a Presidency.

It is a fact that the Ohio Whig has taken in its column the names of those who were present at the election, in honor of Old Zack's election, but they do not say that there is any thing ominous about it.

Much ado is making amongst the whig corps editorial, in order to ascertain who was the first of the tribe to mention the name of Old Zack in connection with a Presidency.

It is a fact that the Ohio Whig has taken in its column the names of those who were present at the election, in honor of Old Zack's election, but they do not say that there is any thing ominous about it.

Much ado is making amongst the whig corps editorial, in order to ascertain who was the first of the tribe to mention the name of Old Zack in connection with a Presidency.

It is a fact that the Ohio Whig has taken in its column the names of those who were present at the election, in honor of Old Zack's election, but they do not say that there is any thing ominous about it.

Much ado is making amongst the whig corps editorial, in order to ascertain who was the first of the tribe to mention the name of Old Zack in connection with a Presidency.

It is a fact that the Ohio Whig has taken in its column the names of those who were present at the election, in honor of Old Zack's election, but they do not say that there is any thing ominous about it.

Much ado is making amongst the whig corps editorial, in order to ascertain who was the first of the tribe to mention the name of Old Zack in connection with a Presidency.

Who's Governor of Ohio?

This is a question which, at this time, exciting no little interest among the people of our neighboring State, and the matter seems to be involved in doubt, notwithstanding the Whigs have been claiming the election of General Ford, by a majority of between two and three hundred.

This supposed majority seems to have been based on illegal votes, in this manner to wit: Three years ago the Whigs passed a certain Registry Law for the cities of Cincinnati, Columbus, and Cleveland, and, subsequently, a similar law for Circleville, and perhaps some other towns.

The law in said cities should, a certain number of years ago, have been repealed, but their names registered in a book kept for that purpose, and that no man should be permitted to vote at any State election, whose name might not be found thus entered.

Several unsuccessful efforts were made by the Democrats in the Legislature, to repeal said law, but the Whigs refused to do so, and the law, in full force and effect, remains to this day.

This year, it occurs that Whiggy thought proper to disregard said law, and throw aside its binding obligations. The result is that the votes cast in those places are illegal, and must be thrown out of the count, when the result is properly made up.

Another accident.—The Ohio Whig states that "two men were seriously injured by a fall from a scaffold on the evening of the 20th inst. at the construction of the cannon, during the night celebration."

It seems that an unusual number of such accidents have occurred, since those who are engaged in the construction of the cannon, during the night celebration.

Much ado is making amongst the whig corps editorial, in order to ascertain who was the first of the tribe to mention the name of Old Zack in connection with a Presidency.

It is a fact that the Ohio Whig has taken in its column the names of those who were present at the election, in honor of Old Zack's election, but they do not say that there is any thing ominous about it.

Much ado is making amongst the whig corps editorial, in order to ascertain who was the first of the tribe to mention the name of Old Zack in connection with a Presidency.

It is a fact that the Ohio Whig has taken in its column the names of those who were present at the election, in honor of Old Zack's election, but they do not say that there is any thing ominous about it.

Much ado is making amongst the whig corps editorial, in order to ascertain who was the first of the tribe to mention the name of Old Zack in connection with a Presidency.

It is a fact that the Ohio Whig has taken in its column the names of those who were present at the election, in honor of Old Zack's election, but they do not say that there is any thing ominous about it.

Much ado is making amongst the whig corps editorial, in order to ascertain who was the first of the tribe to mention the name of Old Zack in connection with a Presidency.

It is a fact that the Ohio Whig has taken in its column the names of those who were present at the election, in honor of Old Zack's election, but they do not say that there is any thing ominous about it.

Much ado is making amongst the whig corps editorial, in order to ascertain who was the first of the tribe to mention the name of Old Zack in connection with a Presidency.

The Convention again.—A good suggestion.

Since an article on this subject, in the other column of the 17th inst., 1878, we have received the Frankfort Express, containing an excellent article in relation to it, which we copy below, in the hope that it will meet the approbation of our readers generally, as it does our own.

We are decidedly in favor of a general meeting of the original friends of Constitutional Reform, at Frankfort, on the 15th inst., and sincerely hope that the friends of the cause will rally there, upon that occasion. Let every press, in favor of Constitutional Reform, speak out. Let there be no dodging of the question. Those who are not for it, are against it, of course.

PROPOSED CONVENTION. It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

TALK OF A TUB.—The following droll story appears in the St. Joseph Times.

There was a man who had been in New Orleans for some time, and was about to return to his home in New York, a young lad of about 14, from a naturally foolish disposition, and of a very bad character, had been in the city for some time, and was about to return to his home in New York.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

MARKETS.

New York, Dec. 1st, P. M.—The market for Flour is firm, with a good demand for the same. The market for Corn is also firm, and the price of the same is about 12 1/2 cents per bushel.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

REASON & EARLY AGENTS.

As the result of the late election, and the success of this great medicine in relation to the cure of the various diseases, it is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

It is evident to us that the old enemies of Constitutional reform in this State are now making a desperate effort to prevent the great body of the people from making their voice heard.

The Markets.

Table listing market prices for various commodities including Flour, Corn, Wheat, and other goods. Includes sub-sections like 'Mayville Prices Current' and 'Further intelligence by the Cambridge'.

RESTORED TO HEALTH.

Text describing a medical case where a patient was restored to health after a long illness, mentioning the use of a specific medicine.

COVER SEED.

Text advertising 'COVER SEED' for agricultural use, highlighting its benefits for crop protection and yield.

