YOUNG RITES TO BE THURSDAY

Services for State Senator Will Be Conducted in Auditorium of Morehead State Teachers College

BODY WILL LIE IN STATE

MOREHEAD, Ky., Feb. 19 (AP)---The body of State Senator Albert W. "Allie" Young arrived here today as final arrangements were made for his funeral at the auditorium of Morehead State Teachers College at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

The Rev. W. S. Irvin, pastor of the Christian church at London, Ky., former pastor of the Christian church here and an old friend of Senator Young, will conduct the services.

The body will lie in state at the auditorium from 10 o'clock Thursday morning until the funeral.

Active pallbearers will be Judge Earl W. Scott, of Mt. Sterling, secretary of the board of regents of Morehead State Teachers College; Dr. John Howard Payne, president of the college; Judge Clyde Alexander, of Bath county; Sam Estill, of Owingsville; E. C. O'Rear, of Frankfort, and Sherman Goodpastor, of Frankfort, secretary of the Kentucky Jockey Club.

Honorary pallbearers will be members of the Kentucky state senate and the bar of the Twenty-first judicial district, including Rowan, Bath, Montgomery and Menifee counties. Twenty-four college students from Morehead will form a funeral guard of honor.

Morehead State Teachers College will be dismissed all day Thursday. Business houses in Morehead will close Thursday afternoon for the funeral. Those in charge of arrangements said they were at a loss to know how to accommodate the 5,000 people expected for the funeral, as the auditorium seats only 2,000.
