

Tuesday morning, Dec. 12, 1848.

THE MARKETS.—We have no changes to note from yesterday—prices remain firm.

COUNTY COURT—was in session yesterday; but we know of nothing interesting which transpired there.

FINE FURNITURE.—Mr. JONES, on Sutton street has a most splendid assortment of extra fine furniture, which he will sell low. Call and see him.

A CHANGE.—Our old friend Mr. ROBERT COOPER, who has been so long and favorably known to the citizens of Maysville, and the public generally, has sold his Livery stable to Mr. WEEON, who will conduct it as formerly, on fair principles. This should have been noticed sooner.

THE TELEGRAPH—is still unrepaiied, and we do not know now, at what time the wires will be put up across the river. A Battery has, however, been taken over to Aberdeen, so that despatches can be received as usual, by crossing over. We hope this state of things will not long exist.

More attraction—The Shaker Family coming!

From a letter received yesterday, we learn that the inimitable "Shaker Family," who have been attracting full houses, all over the country, will be in this city on Friday and Saturday evenings next, and give exhibitions of their extraordinary performances. Their advertisement will be found in this morning's paper, and a further notice will be forthcoming on their arrival. The lovers of amusement will have a fine opportunity to enjoy themselves, on the occasion.

VOTE OF DETROIT.—We learn from the Free Press that in 1844 there were cast in that city 1937 votes for Presidential Electors, and at the last election 2663; being an increase of 726 votes in four years. Of this number the democrats have gained 401, and the whigs 284.—Our readers will recollect that Detroit is the residence of Gen. Lewis Cass.

A FEW ON 'EM.—There were no less than sixty coal boats, all in sight, yesterday, wending their way from Pittsburg to the Queen city, to supply the Cincinnatians with fuel. Though we did not get to see them, it is said they were a sight.

NEW WHARF BOAT.—Our enterprising Councilmen have purchased a new wharf boat for the upper landing. She was brought down from Manchester yesterday, and placed where the old one formerly floated. Huzza for the City Council!

GONE!—The old wharf boat, which had been cabled at the foot of Market street, for some time past, broke loose yesterday morning, and made off for New Orleans, Salt river, or somewhere else. It probably took umbrage at the anticipated arrival of the new one which came down from above, soon after.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday was cool, clear, and pleasant, and we had a slight freeze last night and the night before, which will operate favorably upon the pork business.

MURDER—Mr. Clark, in the employ of the Western Railroad Company, was killed in Springfield, Mass., on Friday night last week, by some person unknown.

Enlargement of the Daily Flag. Having now procured the necessary mechanical assistance, and ordered the material for the purpose, we shall, on Monday next, or sooner, issue the Daily in a new dress, on an Imperial sheet, about twice as large as the present size. We are resolved that no one shall get ahead of us in the way of enterprize, industry, and promptitude in giving daily news; and if the public will give us that liberal patronage which the size and character of our paper will merit, Maysville can boast of as good a Daily as any of our neighboring cities.

We shall spare neither labor nor expense in endeavoring to make our sheet eminently worthy the patronage of ALL, and especially of the business men of the city; and as we were first in the field with a Daily, and have incurred a considerable expense, in order to meet the demand of our citizens, we cannot think they will be so ungenerous as to let the enterprize fail. They have hitherto sustained two Tri-Weeklies, and we did not ask them to support the third; but, as we have been time and again urged into the experiment of a Daily, and have now commenced it in good earnest, we do think that our friends are in duty bound to use great exertions in our behalf, and we believe they will do it.

There is no mistake about it—we shall enlarge to Imperial size; and if that is considered too small, and our neighbor thinks proper to increase the size of the Morning Herald to Double-Medium, we shall enlarge ours to a Mammoth, even if we have to procure a Power Press and twenty additional hands to enable us to do so. We are not to be beaten, friend Chambers, "no how you can fix it!"

Our thanks are respectfully tendered to Capt. A. MITCHELL, Postmaster at Aberdeen, Ohio, for a number of names to our Daily. May we not have the pleasure of receiving a large accession from Flemingsburg, Washington, Mayslick, and other neighboring towns! What say you, friends? If you want the last Telegraphic news, daily, just send in your names for the Daily Flag, and you can obtain it at a small expense.

HOLDEN'S DOLLAR MAGAZINE—for December, has come to hand, in all its beauty and usefulness. We have spoken of its merits so repeatedly that we know not what to say more, by way of commendation, and therefore make our notice brief. Why is it that any one should be without it, when it is published at the low price of $1?

We are willing to do all in our power to aid friend Holden in extending the circulation of his excellent Monthly, but must respectfully decline his proposition to publish his Prospectus, upon the terms mentioned. Our advertising space is too valuable to give in exchange for portraits of Horace Greely, or any other dough-faced Whig.

FIRE.—The extensive and valuable buildings of the Female Seminary, at Washington Pa., were entirely destroyed by fire on Thursday week ago.

DEATH.—Wm. Smith, aged about 15 years, was killed while amusing himself and others with a railroad car, near Baltimore, a few days ago. The car ran over him, and caused his death soon afterward. Another lad had a leg broken. Boys should be careful.

GONE ABROAD.—Mrs. Washington, mother of the present proprietor of Mt. Vernon, has recently set one of his slaves free, and he has gone, with a wife and ten children to Liberia.

CONVICTED.—Frederick Zimmerman, of Pittsburgh, was convicted on the 11th of September last, for the murder of his wife. His own son was the principal witness against him.

"GOD AND LIBERTY."—These words end the Message of President Polk, as telegraphed to Cincinnati; but it seems that they were not in the original, and were added by some jack-a-napes in the telegraph office, as may be seen from the following article, which we clip from the Cincinnati Enquirer:

The Telegraphers east, not wearied by their herculean labors in sending through the President's Message, in an extraordinary short space of time and with unusual correctness, have volunteered an interpolation, over President Polk's signature, of those memorable words, "God and Liberty." We struck out the words in printing our copy, confident that they were placed there, by some dirty whig partisan, who enjoys a situation in the Telegraph office, somewhere east.

Mr. O'Reilly will consult his own interests, if he gives the author of such a witty conceit, his "walking papers." If the Telegraph wires are to be the conductors of party spleen, when transmitting state documents, it is time the public was made aware of the fact.

DAILY MORNING HERALD.—This is the title of a daily which made its appearance in our city on yesterday morning, a number of which we found upon our table. It hails from the office of our sprightly neighbor, down street, is of respectable size, and presents a fair appearance.—It is in every respect, a counterpart of the sheets which have hitherto emanated from that office under the name of the Tri-Weekly Herald, only of smaller dimensions; and like them, we suppose the daily will be well calculated to edify, instruct and amuse the citizens of Maysville, to a man!

We wish the enterprising editor and proprietor great success in the undertaking, with the assurance—that as we were first in the field, we shall be the last to quit it; having resolved to act upon the Taylor principle—"never surrender!"

TEA.—The Brazilians have already commenced the cultivation of the tea plant.

NEWS.—There are already twenty one news papers printed in the State of Texas. That is doing well. The "Lone Star" out shines Kentucky in the way of newspapers, if in no other particular.

The slaughtering of hogs has commenced in earnest. The most active operations are going on at all the establishments. Last night the river commenced rising rapidly. From the snows and rains we have had for the last few days, a boating stage may be anticipated.—Terre-Haute (La.) Journal.

Some few democrats who affect to believe that the election of Gen. Taylor has been a disastrous defeat to their party, have, in consequence, been higher up towards the head waters of Salt River than the balance. They report that all the improvements found there, left by late occupants, were a race-track, a ball-alley, a set of ten pins, and a jack of spades, with some skeleton notes of a speech on the back of it in favor of distribution!—Terre-Haute (La.) Journal.

GEN. CASS AT HOME.—The vote for Gen. Cass in the Ward in which he resides, which has been the strong hold of whiggery since the organization of Wards in the city of Detroit, which was largely whig last spring, and in the State of Michigan, is a eminent indeed. The city and State, has given a larger democratic majority, than at any previous election.

Every paper we receive speaks of the result in this State with pride. As one of our exchanges remarks: "the vote he has received at home from his neighbors—the citizens of Detroit and Wayne county will be enduring evidence of the esteem for him at home."—Detroit Free Press.

WHOLESALE FORGERY IN PENNSYLVANIA.—The leaders of the Taylor party, issued, a few days ago, an extra newspaper, purporting to be "The Republican," the free soil paper of Philadelphia, and in imitation of it, paper, types, advertisements, and all else, save and except that in the forged copy was inserted an article calling on the friends of free soil and Mr. Van Buren to vote for Gen. Taylor.—Detroit Free Press.

What will Gen. Taylor do?

We amused ourselves a few evenings since by the reading of all of Gen. Taylor's letters on political subjects, together with the one acknowledging the press of a fine horse, and we must say we enjoyed them far more than we should Bulwer's best. We thought, now that the election is over, and all prejudice laid aside, we could arrive at something near his opinions on the leading questions of the day. We believe we have done so, and we will give our conclusions to our readers and they can test the correctness of them by waiting for future developments.

Gen. Taylor refused to be the candidate of a party or the exponent of the principles of any party. He refused, to declare his opinions to the world, or rather admitted that he had not made up his mind on several of the important questions which have and do still divide the parties. He said, if elected, he would endeavor to shape his course after the earlier Presidents, referring undoubtedly to Jefferson, to whom he is indebted for his first commission, and to Madison to whom he is indebted for his first promotion, and Jackson to whom he is indebted for a compliment, which was generally made use of during the late campaign. He also said he had "no friends to reward or enemies to punish," meaning, undoubtedly, that he should make no removals for opinions. He declared, also, that he would have accepted the nomination of the Baltimore convention, thereby confirming his previous declarations that he would not be the exponent of the principles of whiggery. Gen. Taylor accepted the nomination of South Carolina democrats "with great pleasure," doubly confirming his declaration that he would not lend himself to party schemes.

Gen. Taylor has taken the democratic side of almost every question. He sustained the country in its difficulty with Mexico, and said those who sympathized with Mexico, against the United States, were "worse than Mexicans." He advised the asking of territorial indemnity, and the crossing of the Rio Grande. In short he performed his duty well, and nobly sustained the cause of his country.—The fact that he is a Louisiana planter, is evidence sufficient, to our mind, that he is unfriendly to the protective system asked for by the New England federalists. The Louisiana people are, without distinction of party, opposed to a United States Bank, and it is fair to presume that Gen. Taylor is not alone its advocate.

The only conclusion that we can arrive at is, that Gen. Taylor is, a States right Republican, which is the opposite of Northern and Eastern whiggery. We believe he is just as much a democratic republican as was John Tyler. Mr. Tyler differed with the democratic party on many questions, but differed with the whigs in toto, and, while we do not expect Gen. Taylor to agree with us in all matters, we believe he will be found to differ more widely with the whigs than he will with the democracy. We have always believed that the whigs were destined to bring about their own ruin by following strange Gods, and we shall be greatly disappointed if the race does not become extinct during the administration of Gen. Taylor.—Detroit Free Press.

DEATH OF AN OLD SOLDIER.—The Oswego Times records the death of one of the oldest citizens of that place. Major James Cochran, a soldier of the Revolution. His father was the friend and Surgeon General of Gen. Washington, and the Major himself was connected and associated with the great men who achieved our Independence, and whose names adorn the annals of our country. Major Cochran was a member of Congress with Harrison Gray Otis and Albert Gallatin in 1787 during the administration of the elder Adams, and has held many posts of honor and distinction, which he filled with credit to himself and advantage to his country.—Detroit Free Press.

CHOLERA.—The ship New York, Capt. Lines arrived on Friday night, in twenty two days from Havre, with 327 steerage and 17 cabin passengers. She had a fine run to the neighborhood of Cape Sable, but was there delayed by light winds.

On the fourth day out, a case of sickness called cholera, appeared among the steerage passengers, and at the time of her arrival here, there had been nineteen cases, of which some had proved fatal. Two or three have also died since they have landed at Quarantine.—in all six have died.—Jour. Com.

Hemp Magazine.
THE undersigned having with regard to cost, built the most extensive Fire-proof Henry Warehouse in Kentucky, are now ready to bale and store hemp or such as desire to employ them in this service. The doors and windows of the house, are cased with plate iron while the frames of both, are cast of solid metal. The roof which is of Tin, will be finished by the application of two coats of metallic paint and every other precaution, calculated to secure its contents from fire, adopted. Under the Ordinance of the City regulating the Storage of Hemp, no fire in any shape is permitted to cross the door sill of a Hemp house, and the stringent requisitions prescribed by them in the construction of the house having been complied with as will be seen by their Certificate published below, we now tender the use of it to Farmers, Dealers and Shippers upon terms which are deemed satisfactory, and will be made known upon application at their Store on Market street.
I. P. DOBYNS & CO.
Messrs. J. P. DONOVAN & CO. have now ready and complete a Fire Proof Warehouse, suitable for the Storage of Hemp, and such as the ordinance of the City Council of the City of Maysville, has required. We therefore give this certificate that it is at liberty to bale and store Hemp in said House.

Fruits, Candies and Cakes, JOHN BROSEBE.

KEEPS constantly on hand all the various articles usually found in a Confectionery Store—all manufactured by himself and warranted pure.
Weddings and Parties of all descriptions furnished at the shortest notice, and in a style not to be surpassed East or West of the Mountains. As his terms are very moderate, he invites all to give him an order "passing call" before purchasing elsewhere. His Store is still
"NO. 3, HERALD BUILDINGS," and not "Flag Row," as announced in one of our city papers. When the three houses composing the row were finished, it was agreed by the owners and occupiers to call them the "Herald Office" and the fact that the "Herald Office" has been removed, and the "Flag Office" taken its place, does not change the name of the buildings—and like Old Zack, I never will surrender. My Store is still in the "HERALD BUILDINGS," No. 3. JOHN BROSEBE.
