Wayne D. Andrews
Wayne D. Andrews, President and his more than 70 publications in refereed journals are truly extra ordinary accomplishments for a research mathematician.

Dr. Fricke began his undergraduate studies at the University of Bonn, Germany, in 1966; three years later he received a master's degree from the University of Kansas, and the Ph.D. degree from Kent State University in 1971.

DISTINGUISHED TEACHER

Dr. Layne Neeper, professor of English, specializes in 19th and 20th century American literature. He teaches courses ranging from basic writing to graduate seminars, advises students, serves on thesis committees and has developed several new courses.

An active scholar, he has written several articles for publication. He has made presentations at more than 30 conferences across the country. During a sabbatical leave in the spring of 2008, he researched novelist Stephen Wright which yielded two articles that were accepted by respected journals.

Active in various academic organizations, he holds membership in the Modern Language Association and its affiliates and the Kentucky Philological Association. He is a member of the Sigma Tau Delta and Phi Kappa Phi honor societies. His service beyond the University includes a long association with the Advanced Placement English Literature Exam serving first as a reader and now as a table leader for the Educational Testing Service.

On the campus, he has served on various committees within his college and department, as well as the college's Graduate Committee and Student Media Board. He completed two consecutive terms on the Faculty Senate; has served on the EFLP Tenure Committee since 1998, which he chaired from 2004-05; has served on the English Graduate Faculty Committee since 1993, which he chaired from 1998-2000; and now serves as the interim chair of the Department of English.

He earned a bachelor's degree from Baylor University, master's degree from Texas Tech University and the Ph.D. degree from Pennsylvania State University.

Welcome new employees!

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Celebration of Student Scholarship

The Fifth Annual Celebration of Student Scholarship will be held in ADUC on Wednesday, April 21, 2010. Last year, 241 students engaged in original research, scholarship, and/or other creative activities under the mentorship of 98 faculty from all disciplines presented 126 scholarly papers, posters, and/or performances. Please plan to help us grow this exciting event by personally attending, sponsoring student presenters, and encouraging all of your students to attend. Everyone is welcome! For more information, contact Dr. Bruce Mattingly, Associate Vice President for Research, at b.mattingly@moreheadstate.edu or 783-2010.

University Outreach Planning Task Force

A new "University Outreach" unit has been established in the Division of Academic Affairs, and Provost Hughes has selected Dr. Michael Seelig to head it. The President has asked Dr. Seelig and Porter Dailey to co-chair a campus-wide task force during 2009-2010 to establish a 5-Year Vision and Plan for integrating the efforts of MSU's five regional campuses; Adult Education; Adult Programs; College Access programs; Continuing Education; and Regional Engagement programs including P-16, Regional Stewardship, Service Learning, LEAD, etc. Interested faculty and staff will be invited to participate in the Task Force initiative.

CPE Intern

Dr. Adina O'Hara, senior associate in Academic Affairs at the Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education, will be doing an internship at MSU during fall 2009. Dr. O'Hara will learn more about the organization and functions of the work of Academic Affairs at the institution-level while serving as a resource to the Academic Affairs leadership team in the areas of transfer, faculty development and general education. She will be co-mentored by Dr. Karla Hughes, Provost, and Dr. Michael Seelig, Associate Vice President of Academic Affairs for University Outreach.

His association with MSU's Kentucky Folk Art Center led to a five-part series which highlighted the individuals and traditions of the state. The films aired on Kentucky Educational Television and were selected to play at film festivals across North America and at international venues, such as Africa, Europe, and Australia.

The first of the five documentaries, "Chisel," highlighted an African American wood sculptor. It was screened at the refereed Broadcast Education Association's district conference and played at three juried festivals: The Bluegrass Independent Film Festival, Martha's Vineyard African American Film Festival and the George Lindsey UNA Film Festival where it earned an honorable mention for Documentary-Faculty. The documentary was selected for KET's Arts Toolkit, a curriculum and instruction series which KET makes available to K-12 schools, as well as colleges and universities.

Hill received a Creative Productions Grant from the former Institute for Regional Analysis and Public Policy to create a documentary on a sorghum producer in Menifee County. It earned him a James B. Storey Experience Award at the Flatland Film Festival in Lubbock and honorable mentions at the Berkeley Film and Video Festival in Berkeley, Calif., and the Twin Rivers Media Festival in Asheville, N.C. He was invited to share the "How to" at the Films in Competition at the Anchorage International Film Festival in Anchorage, Alaska.

He earned a bachelor's degree in English from Oakland University in Rochester, Mich., a master's degree in communication from Wayne State University in Detroit, and a Master of Fine Arts degree from Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, Ill. Before coming to MSU, Hill taught at SIU and Oakland Community College.

DISTINGUISHED RESEARCHER

Dr. Gerd H. Fricke, professor of mathematics, has published in a broad variety of research areas, which is atypical for a research mathematician. His work includes research in Complex Analysis, Graph Theory, Real Analysis, Topology, Differential Equations, Functional Analysis, Summability Theory, and Physics.

Since coming to MSU, Dr. Fricke's research has generated interest and he has offered seminars for faculty and students and discussed open problems in Graph Theory. The work has resulted in several publications and inspired colleagues to actively pursue research in various areas despite their teaching load. He is very proud that he and his colleagues involved undergraduates in publishable research, something extremely rare in mathematics.

Dr. Fricke has gained an international reputation through his research excellence and his active and engaged research agenda. In 1992, the University of Natal in South Africa and the Hanno Rund Fund invited him for a series of lectures and a three-month visit to Durban. Because of the work with several researchers in South Africa, he served as the unofficial adviser for a colleague who received a Ph.D. degree from the University of South Africa in 2007. He continues to obtain contacts from South Africa and makes frequent visits to Clemson and various universities in Germany and France.

He has given more than 200 invited talks in the United States and abroad, with more than 50 presentations in Canada, Germany, France, Switzerland, Austria and South Africa. Through his partnerships, including those at MSU, he is working with groups at Clemson, University of Tennessee, and in the international arena. He has received external funding for mathematics research, from the Hanno Rund Fund as well as the Math National Science Foundation through Clemson,

AWARD RECIPIENTS

DISTINGUISHED STAFF SERVICE

William H. (Bill) Redwine, assistant vice president for auxiliary services, Redwine was promoted to his current title in January 2007. He has oversight for Environmental Health and Safety and Risk Management in addition to his responsibilities for the EagleCard office, Postal Services, Food Services, Concessions and Vending, Eagle Trace Golf Course and the University Bookstore.

He is a member of the National Association of College Auxiliary Services (NACAS) and its affiliate group, the National Association of College Auxiliary Services-South, of which he is a past president.

A 1979 graduate with a B.A. degree in government and public affairs, he joined MSU in 1981 as a university development officer. He also has served as director of development, director of alumni relations and director of auxiliary services. Redwine was the adviser for MSU's chapter of Sigma Nu social fraternity for many years.

A member of the Rowan County Board of Education since 1991, he is a past regional chairman of the Kentucky School Boards Association and a member of the Board of Trustees of the St. Claire Medical Center Foundation and the Kentucky School Boards Insurance Trust (KSBIT).

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY SERVICE

Sharon T. Walters, associate professor of accounting, teaches accounting courses, and also administers the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program. VITA provides free income tax return preparation assistance for area low-income residents, as well as MSU students.

She earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree with an accounting option at Eastern New Mexico University. Additionally, she holds a Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree from Morehead State. A CPA since 1989 and a CVA since 2006, she has been on MSU's faculty since 1987 and has served as faculty sponsor of the University's Accounting Club since 1991.

Walters is currently serving on the Kentucky State Board of Accountancy, having served two terms as president of the board. She is also currently serving on the Board of Examiners, which regulates the CPA exam for the 50 states plus 5 other jurisdictions.

She is a former director for the Kentucky Society of Certified Public Accountants (KSCPA) and remains active in student related activities sponsored by the society. She is a member of the Kentucky State Board of Accountancy, Kentucky Society of CPAs, National Association of State Boards of Accountancy, and American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

DISTINGUISHED CREATIVE PRODUCTIONS

Jeffrey Hill, associate professor of mass communication, who came to MSU in 2002, has gained international acclaim in film, winning awards in the U.S. and overseas. He has created music videos, narrative films and three-camera studio productions but his specialty is documentaries. Since coming to Kentucky, he has explored what makes the state unique, beginning with the people who represent the rich self-taught artistic tradition of Appalachia.

Center for Regional Engagement

The Center for Regional Engagement will be hosting a "house warming" on Tuesday, August 25, 2009, from 3-5 p.m. at the new location for the Center at 320 University Street (formerly known as the Blair House). Refreshments and music will be provided. We are asking guests to bring a nonperishable food item that can be donated to a local nonprofit agency.

SACS and the QEP

Special sessions entitled "The QEP Conversation" will be held to provide the campus more information on the QEP process. Sessions will be held Tues., Sept. 1 and Wed., Sept. 2, from 3-4 p.m. in the ADUC Cramer Room. Those interested in writing whitepapers for consideration are strongly encouraged to attend.

BUDGETS, PLANNING & TECHNOLOGY

Instructional Services Center

In collaboration with Camden-Carroll Library staff, Information Technology Instructional Services is opening a new Instructional Services Center (ISC) and Student Commons in the Camden-Carroll Library. Phase I renovation is scheduled to be completed in September. The ISC has been created to provide faculty with expanded and improved support services for technology-assisted instruction and to develop and implement a methodological approach to the evaluation and implementation of emerging instructional technologies. The IT Instructional Services staff will be manning an information booth with information about upcoming training and services to be offered in the new center at a table in front of the library during the lunch following today's convocation.

Institutional Profile

The Office of Institutional Research and Assessment is pleased to announce that the 2008-2009 MSU Profile is available online at www.moreheadstate.edu/ira. The Profile is compiled annually for the purpose of providing a convenient and authoritative source of factual information about the University. The primary content areas focus on student enrollment, academic programs and faculty characteristics.

STUDENT LIFE

Volunteer Opportunities for New Student Move-In Day

Faculty and staff are asked to volunteer a few hours on Friday, August 14, to provide leadership to our student organization move-in teams and help greet families and students as they move into residence halls. More information and sign-up forms are available by contacting Margaret LaFontaine, m.lafontaine@moreheadstate.edu, 783-5284 or on the Web at www.moreheadstate.edu/fsportal.

Vehicle Registration/Parking System

The Traffic Office is located in 100 Laughlin Building. Regular hours of operation are 8 a.m.-4 p.m., Monday through Friday. Extended hours are in effect Thursday & Friday, August 13 and 14, from 8 a.m.-6 p.m., Saturday, August 15, from 10 a.m.-2 p.m., and the following week from 8 a.m.-6 p.m., Monday through Wednesday. Address questions to Melissa Davis, m.blankenbec@moreheadstate.edu, 783-2220. Updated regulations are available on the Web at www.moreheadstate.edu/police.

Emergency Preparedness Response

In the instructional setting, the faculty member is the person to whom students look for direction and leadership when emergency situations arise. Faculty are asked to take a few minutes at the first class meeting each semester to discuss emergency procedures with students and refer them to the Emergency Resources Web page at www.moreheadstate.edu/emergency.

Faculty members are asked to document this process by following directions on the Classroom Resources link of the Emergency Resources Web page. Attention should also be given to those students with disabilities or special needs that may require assistance in the event that evacuation is necessary. A general emergency evacuation plan has been developed for each campus building and can be accessed from the University's Emergency Resources Web page at www.moreheadstate.edu/emergency. Evacuation directions may be specific to individual rooms and venues. Please explore the nearest exit route from your classroom prior to having this discussion with your students and share that specific information as you discuss emergency situations.

Some emergency situations will require a shelter in place response rather than an evacuation. With any emergency, the best advice is to be prepared by familiarizing yourself in advance with emergency procedures. More information is available by contacting Madonna Weathers, m.weathers@moreheadstate.edu, 783-2070 or on the Web at www.moreheadstate.edu/emergency.

Student Retention

In order to assist students with academic and social concerns, faculty and staff are encouraged to report matters that might come to their attention. Examples include, but are not limited to, not attending class, changes in personal hygiene, suspicion of alcohol/drug use, and students who appear depressed. In an effort to help faculty and staff, MSU has two convenient reporting mechanisms – EIS and Retention Alert. Individuals can send concerns through the EIS system via e-mail (eis@moreheadstate.edu) or phone (783-2014). In addition, concerns can be shared through Retention Alert by selecting "Contribute Retention Information" in the Faculty/Advisors section of Datatel WebAdvisor. Please contact Kevin S. Koett (k.koett@moreheadstate.edu) if you have questions related to EIS or Retention Alert.

Information Source

The Eagle Student Handbook is the primary source of information for students and the campus community on regulations that govern student conduct and behavioral expectations. It may be viewed at www.moreheadstate.edu/fsportal. For more information contact Kevin Koett, assistant vice president for student life and dean of students, k.koett@moreheadstate.edu, 783-2014.

University Games

News will soon be coming your way regarding the annual University Games. Contact Margaret LaFontaine at m.lafontaine@moreheadstate.edu, 783-5284 and watch www.moreheadstate.edu/fsportal for more information.

Wellness Center Membership

All faculty, staff, and students are eligible for free membership at the Wellness Center. Retiree and faculty and staff spouse annual memberships are $120. Current faculty, staff, student, retiree, and spouse members may sponsor a person of their choice for membership. Annual cost of the One Plus Membership is $240. Guest passes are also available. For more information on memberships, contact Jane Tenyer, j.tenyer@moreheadstate.edu, 783-5152.

Watch Us Grow!

Ground was broken August 11, 2009, on the new Campus Recreation and Wellness Center and the 18 month construction phase of this project will soon be underway. Check out the location at the south end of Eagle Lake Apartments and watch us grow!

Eagle Athletic Action

Season tickets are now on sale for all fall sports. Special $50 rates for football season tickets are available for faculty and staff. Boxes (8 seats) are $500 and parking passes are $15. Volleyball and Soccer season passes are $20 each. Basketball season tickets will be on sale in just a couple of weeks, $120 general admission chairback, $180 reserved chairback, and $90 bleacher. For ticket orders and information go to www.msueagles.com and click on the Ticket Office tab or call Paul Rhodes at 783-2386.

MSS Welcome Back

Multicultural Student Services will host a welcome back activity for students and invite faculty and staff to participate on Wednesday, August 26, 2009, from 5 to 7 p.m. in the ADUC grill. Please RSVP by August 19 to Francene Botts-Butler at 783-2668.

University Family Picnic

Join President and Mrs. Andrews and the University family on Sat., Sept. 5, 2009, 5-6:30 p.m. at Jayne Stadium for a pre-game picnic. Stay for Eagle Football at 7 p.m. against Southern Virginia. To make reservations, contact Ami Courtney a.courtney@moreheadstate.edu, 783-2071.

UNIVERSITY ADVANCEMENT

Career Center

We will be opening a new centralized Career Center this fall at 428 University Blvd. (formerly the Bell House). This facility will have space for employers to interview potential employees for jobs and internships. There will be space for students to take career inventories, meet with a career counselor, and attend career workshops. We hope to provide students with extra services such as a career suit-bank and free store. Move in date and grand opening will be announced soon. For more information or to make an appointment call (606) 783-2233 or www.moreheadstate.edu/career.

MSU is an official 2010 Census Partner.
