GOVERNOR LAFFOON APPROVES ORDER FOR HALDEMAN ROAD; TO BEGIN WORK ON HIGHWAY TODAY

Work On Haldeinan Road To Begin This Morning As Order Is Approved

The work order and the order approving the contract on the Haldeinan highway was approved and signed by Governor Ruby Laffoon Wednesday afternoon and orders issued to begin work at once. By the time this paper reaches you, work will have been started, as the contractor has his machinery on the ground and is ready to start at a minute's notice. Work was actually started this morning.

This is probably the biggest piece of news for the people of Haldeinan community that has broken in some time. The contract for the repair and widening of the Main street of Morehead was awarded to a Lexington contractor for the sum of approximately $27,000 at the Tuesday meeting of the highway commission. However, the work order will not be issued for a few days pending the completion of the deeds for the rights of way. Mr. Warwick, resident engineer, has been working on these, but has not had time to get them all ready. It is to be hoped that they will all be signed within a few days and the work order issued.

About Town With The "NEWS"

Morehead business houses, especially eating places, seem to have done their share of outdoor advertising. Drivers either from Ashland to Morehead or from Lexington east, there is hardly a suitable advertising spot that is not taken up with sign advertising something in Morehead.

Reading The Code. We have heard of several ways of beating the NRA code, but the latest one seems about the best of all. A man was told by a dealer that $125 was all that was allowed on a trade in his '32 car. "Well, I guess I'll just keep my old car," the prospective customer said. "Wait a minute—I'll tell you what I will do. If you make the trade I'll loan you $50 on your own word for an indefinite time, a hundred years or longer to pay it back, and no security or note asked," the salesman said. And the trade was made.

Two Are Injured In Serious Wreck

According to reports received from Kentucky, Kirk, 19, and Calvin Blair, 21, both of Flemingsburg are in a serious condition from being mangled in a motor accident two miles north of Morehead on the Allie Young Highway early Sunday morning. A motorcycle which Kirk was driving and on which Blair was riding, collided with a car driven by Boone Caudill, sixteen year old son of Circuit Judge D. B. Caudill of Morehead. The motorcycle's handlebars struck the front of the automobile and swerved into an embankment. Caudill, a student at the University of Kentucky, was accompanied by two sisters, Delleil, an instructor at Morehead College and Louise, and James Stevens, Sargeant of the Clearfield C. C. Camps at the time of the accident. They had left a homecoming dance at the College.

Baseball Mystery At Cozy Theatre

GASOLINE PRICES IN STATE ARE DOWN

Effective yesterday a two cent reduction in gasoline prices throughout Kentucky, was placed in effect by the major companies. The schedules fix the retail price of gasoline at twenty cents a gallon, regular gasoline at 18 cents, and provide a one cent slash for third grade fuel. These prices include state and federal tax. The reduction marked the first spread of the gasoline price war into Kentucky by company officials as a reflection of drastic downward revision in adjoining states. Announcement of the reduction by the Standard Oil Company of Kentucky, the Gulf Refining Company, Shell Oil Refining Company, Continental Oil Company, Aetna Oil Company and other leading concerns followed a price cut by small independent distributors Monday and Tuesday.

The following statement made to the News by Dr. J. H. Payne's Physician is self-explanatory: "Dr. John Howard Payne's condition looks much improved on the fifth day following a serious major operation. MORE ROBBERIES

In the past Rowan County has been a hotbed for robberies and petty thievery. Last year officers apparently cleaned up most of the rings, and robberies decreased to nothing. With convicted criminals securing freedom by the court of Appeals overruling a conviction because of improper instructions to the jury and similar loopholes, and with the pardon and leniency boards in full action, the robberies are starting again. Fortunately, our officers have the situation well in hand, as attested to by the clearing up of three robberies here during the past week.

A SPORT CENTER

Morehead is certainly a center of sports. At the present time there are four football teams operating and one baseball club in the pennant fight in their league. Soft ball was popular during the summer. As the football season passes there will be just as many basketball teams. The year around Morehead is the focusing point of athletics. Sports are being built up here. Accounts of sports events at Morehead are becoming almost a daily feature of the sport's pages of the state's daily newspapers.

THE MOREHEAD BAND

Every Moreheadian has by this time seen the Blue and Gold clad band of Morehead College in its precise action and colorful performance. This band is not only a musical organization of which the college may well feel proud, but is one of which this community may and should be equally proud. It is the college band to be sure; but it is a decided community asset as well. Not only is that true but it is with out doubt the best band this community has ever had and ranks among the outstanding college bands of the state. However if the band is to be regarded as a community asset it must also be regarded as a community responsibility. They will no doubt be glad to make their organization available for concerts and functions by organizations outside the college if the townspeople and business men show an inclination to encourage them and get behind them in a cooperative spirit. The band deserves much encouragement from the town and the college as any other form of activity; the members of the band are just as much of an asset as the members of the football and basketball squads.

Right now the band is raising money to pay their expenses to Richmond for the annual Morehead-Eastern encounter. This is the big football game of the year for both schools; without the Morehead band it is bound to lose some of its color. Saturday a small collection was taken up at the football game that will only partly take care of the expense. More money is needed and it occurs to the News that now is the time for Morehead to gather round in support of the fine organization that Professor Marvin E. George has built up and is directing at the college. Let's see that the band goes to Richmond and eats when they get there.

COLLEGE HEAD ILL

The student body and faculty of the college learned with regret the serious illness of John Howard Payne, president of the college, who is now in a Richmond hospital where he underwent a major operation Wednesday morning. The best wishes of everyone connected with the college are extended to Mrs. Payne. The Trail Blazer takes this opportunity to express the hope that Dr. Payne will soon recover his accustomed good health and abounding vigor.

Privileges Taken

Bruno Hauptmann, denied permission to converse with his trio of guards, paced his cell in silence, adjusting himself to his new surroundings in the Hunterdon county jail in New Jersey.

New Jersey jail authorities, who will try the Bronx Carpenter next month on a charge of slaying baby Charles A. Lindberg, ordered he should not receive reading matter nor talk with the two state troopers and the deputy sheriff constantly on watch.

Hauptmann continued to eat sparingly, but smoked occasional cigarettes. His breakfast consisted of coffee and an orange.

The warden's wife Mrs. Harry O. McCray followed prison custom in preparing a special Sunday dinner of roast chicken.

Legion Convention Opens

M. memorial, patriotic and religious services swung the 16th annual convention of the American Legion off to informal start in this tropical winter resort by the sea.

Gathering in palm-dotted Bay front park, members of the Legion, and the women's auxiliary sat down by moonlit waters to solemn ceremonies for their respective organizations.

The services, followed business sessions of committees of the two sections that provided a fore-runner to the formal opening of the convention Monday morning. Twelve hundred official and accredited delegates are here for the four day session, accompanied by some 70,000 veterans, members of the auxiliary and other visitors.

Memories of 1917-18 were revived as the men who marched blood-soaked battlefields clasped hands again in remembrance. Broad smiles were upon faces as happy shouts of "Eternal Glory" brought the Legionnaires together.

Pretty Boy "Floyd" Killed

William "Floyd" killed a fugitive in Wilkesville, Ohio, federal agents said was "Pretty Boy" Floyd, wound in his companion, Adam Richetti, was held in the village jail.

Richetti is accused of responsibility, along with Floyd, in the Kansas City Union station massacre of June, 1932.

He was captured and two men were put to flight in a cross country gun battle.

Federal agents from Chicago, Cleveland and Cincinnati joined the hunt tonight.

Richetti told police he was wanted for having jumped $15,000 bail on a robbery charge in Milrecek, Okla. He denied he had been implicated in the slaying of a federal prisoner and four officers in the Kansas City Union station in June, 1932.

Floyd was found late Monday, dead

Infant Saved

A ten pound, three and one half ounce boy, his name and parents unknown, is lying in a crib in the baby ward of the City hospital at Louisville, where he was taken by Patrolman H. E. Eaton.

Abandoned in dirty, scanty clothes on the front porch of a house on South First Street, the brown haired boy was found at midnight by the patrolman in response to a call by Mrs. Harry Linker, who heard the baby's cries.

Borrowing a blanket from Mrs. Linker, the patrolman carried the infant to the hospital.

He will remain at the hospital for several days to insure satisfactory diet and health conditions. He then will go to the Home of the Innocents or some other baby home.

12 Die In Gale

A raging October gale battered through the Pacific northwest Sunday leaving 12 dead in its wake and widespread damage to shipping and property.

The Puget Sound Agency of Seattle carried five men to their deaths off Point Wilson as the coast guard Cutter Haida neared the scene.

The other deaths consisted of two more drowning, two persons crushed by wreckage from buildings, two persons were destroyed when a high-tension line was blown across a radio aerial and a motorist crushed by a falling tree.

The passenger boat Virginia V. plying between Seattle and Tacoma was caught in the gale's fury and dashed against a dock but her 25 passengers were rescued.

Threatens Heiress

A police cordor has been thrown around the home of Mrs. Gloria Moguel Vanderbilt, New York City, it became known, as result of a death threat against her 10 year old daughter, heiress to millions.

The threat, in the form of a crudely composed note, was delivered at Mrs. Vanderbilt's five-story brown stone home just off Fifth avenue last Tuesday. A police guard was posted there immediately afterward.

The child, principal in a court contest between her mother and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, her paternal aunt, was by Mrs. Whitney's Long Island estate pending the outcome of the litigation over her custody.

"If you value the life of your child," the note read, "do not fail to meet me in front of the Metropolitan theatre in Brooklyn at 10:30 p. m. Friday."

"I will be waiting for you," it continued. "If you do not keep the appointment you will hear from me again."

Ash Death Penalty

Death was demanded for the kidnapers of Alice Spowd Stoll this week by William Stoll, brother-in-law of the Louisville Board of law of the kidnap victim, and president.

Certainly the law must take its course if we are to have law and order in this country, he said. The government should have its way.

He spoke as the hunt for Thomas Henry Robinson Jr., named as the kidnapper, was being concentrated north of the Ohio river. Melvin H. Purvis, who tracked John Dillinger to his death, was in charge of a band of federal agents operating out of Cincinnati.

Robinson, his father and his wife, have been indicted in terms that make the death penalty a possibility in the event of their conviction.

The woman is now held in Jefferson county jail in default of $50,000 bond demanded when she was arrested.

REVELLERS ANNOUNCE PLEDGING OF TEN

The Revellers Dramatic Club held its tryouts Wednesday, October 3. Ten new members were chosen from the twenty prospects. The new members are as follows: Nancy Botts, Nelle Cassidy, H. K. Collins, Virginia May, Lettie Pence, and Aileen Waltz. Miss Lucille Caudill, teacher of dramatics in the English department of Morehead College, was elected director of the club to succeed Miss Mary Page Milton, who recently resigned.

Bailey Completes Plans For Meeting

The annual meeting of the student YMCA of Kentucky will convene at Morehead State Teachers College, December 7-8-9, 1934. Plans for this meeting were completed at a meeting of the executive council of the students Y held at the University of Kentucky October 8, 1934. George H. Bailey represented Morehead at this meeting.

The meeting is to open Friday, December 7, with a supper in the cafeteria. After which Ralph H. Hering, pastor of First Baptist Church, Ashland, will give the charge to the Conference on the theme which is to be carried through the meeting. "Changing Conditions and a Change Less Christianity". Following this the group will be entertained at a picture show through the courtesy of the College theatre.

Saturday morning, December 8, the meeting will open with an address of welcome by President John Howard Payne. This will be followed by a special convocation, at which time Dean Thomas Graham of Oberlin will address the student body and conference group. Following chapel, discussion groups will form under the direction of Roy L. Ruth, Union College; Robert Frost, University of Tennessee; and Dr. A. W. Fortune, Lexington. At eleven, Dr. Frank L. McVey, president of the University of Kentucky will address the conference.

The faculty of Morehead will entertain the visiting faculty at a luncheon. Saturday noon, Dean Graham of Oberlin will address them.

In the afternoon, the discussion groups will meet as in the morning. This will be followed by a swimming party in the Senft natatorium.

In the evening the YMCA will hold a reception for the visiting delegates. This will be followed by a meeting open to the public.

At the regular meeting of the Lloyd Debating Club held in the Recreation room of Fields Hall on October 9, the members unanimously decided to sponsor an oratorical contest in accordance with the plans of the Daniel Boone Bicentennial Commission. This move was made after a brief talk by Dr. A. Y. Lloyd on the importance of Daniel Boone in Kentucky history and the celebration of the two hundredth anniversary of his birth. Dr. Lloyd explained that the Daniel Boone Bicentennial Commission established by the 1934 General Assembly, expects to conduct a series of essay and oratorical contests in the upper grades, high schools and colleges and universities. It is important that a representative be chosen at the Morehead State Teachers College in order that he or she may enter the state contest. As the Lloyd Debating Club was formed for the purpose of increasing the interest in forensic activities, the sponsoring of such a contest comes as a natural outgrowth of its extensive work in debating during the past three years.

Application for membership within this club is gained through satisfactory "try-outs" and a majority vote of the club members. This year the membership committee decided that each candidate for membership should make a brief talk before the club prior to an evening. As a result the following program was rendered during the meeting. "The Art of Forensics" by Paul Holman. "Why Kentucky is a Good State in which to Live" by Sherman Henderson. "Collection of Odd Accidents" by Walter Franklin. "State and Local Revenue" by Gared Patrick. "Educational and Business" by Maurice Stout. "Humorous Reading" by John Wells. "Courtesy" by Courtney Botts. "Humorous Story" by Oscar Alley.

WILL ATTEND MUSIC CONVENTION NEXT WEEK

Professor Horton and Professor George, instructors in the music department of the Morehead State Teachers College, will go to Lexington next week to attend this year's first meeting of the Central Kentucky Music Educators Association. Professor George, who is president of this organization, will preside at the meeting.

'ILL FIX IT' TO BE AT COLLEGE THEATRE

Friday, October 26, 'ILL FIX IT' 'ILL FIX IT' is both the name of the show and the favorite expression of the ward-healing politician.

The town's political "Boss" is sure that his philosophy of graft and pull will always work. His son is failing in school. He tries to "fix it" and finds an incorruptible professor. His daughter is in love with what he considers the wrong man and when he tries he finds that love can not be "politically fixed". It is a gay light story of everyday small life that will be so real you can give new names to the characters.

The short subjects include the new Fox Movietone News. Will Mchorney in a two reel musical comedy singing and dancing "She's my Lily, I'm her Willie, and Terry-Toon cartoon and called Jail birds.

It makes even the cripples, Laugh and be merry. Pumpkins and parties, And other good things, That is what Halloween brings. Halloween is a merry time, And here I end my little rhyme.

The first grade is still working on their home and family unit. They are making a picture show of the "House on the Hill" and have added a kitchen and a bedroom to their doll house.

The third grade is continuing its study of the campus. They are learning the history of the college and have made a drawing of the training school.

Kennel Murder Case

Suicide? She turned back to Markham coldly. I wouldn't call it that.

Vance, who had been tending at the rear of the room near the bed, came forward.

Neither would I, Miss Lake, he said.

She moved her head slightly and lifted her eyebrows.

Ah! Good morning Mr. Vance. In the excitement of the moment I didn't see you. You are quite right. It's not suicide. Her eyes narrowed. It's been a long time since you called. Cemeteries and corpses would seem to be the only attraction this house holds for you. I thought I detected a note of resentment in her voice.

Vance ignored the unfriendly criticism.

Why do you repudiate the suicide theory? he asked with pronounced courtesy.

Very simple, she replied. Uncle was too great an egoist to deprive the world his presence.

But egoism, Vance submitted is often the cause of suicide. Boredom a responsive appreciation. Suicide don't you know, the inability to find the egoist his one supreme moment of triumph. Vance spoke with academic aloofness.

Uncle Archer needed no supreme moments. Hilda Lake returned contemptuously. He had such moments every time he acquired a Chinese knock-knack. An utterly worthless piece of soft, Chun porcelain in a silk nest, which was of no use to any human being, gave him a greater thrill than I would get out of beating Bobby Jones. I don't think uncle killed himself.

Forgive me, Vance bowed. You are unquestionably right. But neither Mr. Markham nor Sergeant Heath agrees with us. They are quite ready to dismiss the case as suicide.

She looked at Markham to Heath.

And why not? she asked. It would be so easy and would save a lot of bally scandal.

Markham was piqued by the woman's attitude.

Who, Miss Lake, he asked in his typical courtroom manner, would have any reason for desiring your uncle's death?

I, for one, she answered unhesitatingly, looking Markham straight in the eye. He irritated me beyond words. There was no sympathy between us. He stood in the way of everything I wanted to do; and he was able to make life pretty miserable for me because he held the pursestrings. A nice cold arctic day it was for me when he was appointed my guardian and I was made dependent on him. (Her voice became bitter.) There was a clouded angry look in her eyes, and her square jaw set slightly forward. His death at any time these past ten days would have been a godsend to me. Now that he's out of the way I'll get my patrimony and be able to do what I want to do without interference.

Markham and Heath regarded her in amazed indignation. There was something icily venomous in her manner, a calculating hatred more potent and devastating even than her words. It was Vance's languid and indifferent voice that broke the momentary silence that followed her tirade.

My word! Really, y' know, Miss Lake, you're dashed refresh in your frankness. are we to accept your comments as a confession of murder?

Not at present, was the even reply. But if the authorities are set on calling it suicide, I may come forward later and claim the credit for his demise—by way of upholding the honor of the family. You see, I regard a good healthy justifiable murder in higher esteem than a paltry suicide.

The blood was mounting to Markham's cheeks; he was becoming angry at Hilda Lake's apparent flippancy.

Who besides yourself, he asked, trying to control his feelings, would have had any reason to murder your uncle?

The woman looked up at the ceiling with meditative shrewdness and sat down on the edge of the desk.

VOTE TO CARRY ON CORN HOG PROGRAM

Kentucky farmers in a state-wide poll voted in favor of continuing the corn-hog adjustment program.

On the question, "Do you favor an adjustment program dealing with corn and hogs in 1934?" 8,313 contract signers voted "yes" and 654 contract signers voted "no." A total of 488 farmers who did not sign corn-hog contracts voted for the program next year, while 138 non-signers voted against it.

On the question of a one contract per farm adjustment program, to be made effective in 1936, 6,857 contract signers voted in the affirmative and 1,360 contract signers voted against it. 371 non signers favored the one contract plan and 172 voted against it.

Approximately 24,000 Kentucky farmers signed corn-hog adjustment contracts.

ABOUT THE FARM

Best poultry mature early and begin to lay early. They also lay thru out the year steadily. Do not keep those pullets that mature late and begin to lay late in the fall, and then stop laying early next summer.

Clean irons are necessary for good results in ironing clothes. Common irons can be washed and then rubbed with sand paper, ashes or salt. Rugs can be polished with emery paper and then washed and rubbed with wax.

There is enough fertilizer value in tobacco stalks to warrant storing them under shelter until spring. They should not be spread until about the time spring growth begins. Figured at commercial fertilizer prices, tobacco stalks are worth $10 a ton.

Every child over 2 years of age should have a quart of milk per day to provide for growth and for building bones and muscles. Some of this milk may be eaten in soups, puddings, cereals and cocoa. But milk may take the place of milk if plenty of butter is served.

Oil drained from the crank case of an automobile or tractor may be used to protect parts of machinery that tend to rust during the winter. Apply with a paint brush or cloth. Tongues and other wood parts should be painted in the fall.

Water is the most necessary and yet one of the most inexpensive of livestock feeds. More farmers are putting down wells or improving springs and ponds every year. Write the College of Agriculture at Lexington for concrete water trough plans.

EXPECT GOOD HENS TO BE PROFITABLE

Eagles Outplay Union But Are Beaten 15-8

Union College lacked out on the Morehead Eagles Saturday by pushing over a touchdown in the closing minutes of the fourth quarter to break the 8 to 8 tie and give them the game 15 to 8. Playing before a crowd estimated at 2,000, the Eagles flashed the best brand of football they have exhibited during the season, and should have won.

Sport plurges

The Morehead Eagles have three games to play on their schedule. Two are away and the other is here. Right off the bat, we pick Morehead to win two of these games but just which two we are not ready to say, not knowing the full calibre of their opponents but realizing, at the time, that the Eagles have a grid machine that is packed with power.

On paper, Morehead was vastly superior, making 144 yards from scrimmage to 58 for Union. The Eagles garnered nine first downs to seven for the Barbourville team, and they had a better record on kicking and passing.

Fumbles hurt Morehead's chances of winning from the undefeated Bulldogs. One of the Union touchdowns and the safety came via the fumble route.

Reynolds was the individual star for Morehead, gaining more ground from scrimmage than any other member of the Eagle team and more than the whole Bulldog aggregation combined. On the second play of the game he dashed off tackle to gallop sixty yards for a touchdown.

Symanic, scintillating Bulldog quarter, played outstanding ball for his team. He did all of the kicking, passing, and most of the running, besides calling signals.

Two bad passes from center gave Union their chance for a safety and Captain Mocabee was forced to fall on the ball just over the goal line. Tommy Ryan broke through to kick Symanic's kick from behind the Bulldog goal, and the Eagles gained two points.

The last score of the game came when Captain Mocabee was unable to get his punt off in time and Horral, substitute Unkle back, snatched the ball out of the air and ran fifteen yards for the score.

Symanic added the extra point. Morehead filled the air with a series of passes in the last three minutes of play but were unable to connect consistently.

With one minute of play left, the ball went over to Union and the Bulldogs killed the remaining time with two plunges into the line.

Young, All-American halfback last year at Bluefield, W. V., was unable to play due to an injured shoulder.

Training School Is A Stubborn Loser

The Breckinridge Training School dropped their third game of the season to a heavy Martin High School squad 19 to 12 here Thursday. The game showed a vast improvement in the Morehead team. After being scored on three times the Breckinridge team opened up an offense in the last quarter that scored two touchdowns and threatened a third as the game ended. The running of Fitch and the passing of Ramey featured this attack. Redwine, Hollis, Adkins and Tatum played good ball in the line.

Trailing 19 to 0 going into the last quarter the Breckinridge team turned from stubbornness to offensive aggressiveness to push across two touchdowns and were well on their way to another when the game ended.

After a scoreless deadball first quarter, Evans, fleet Martin halfback, intercepted a pass and galloped 40 yards for a touchdown for Martin with Evans carrying it over from scrimmage. Evans again broke loose on the second play of the third period, for 80 yards around end to rocket the Martin team to a 19 point lead. Evans ran was the best of the afternoon.

Fralei plunged over Morehead's first touchdown in the fourth quarter, after a 50 yard run by Fitch. Three consecutive passes, all of them good from Ramey to Tatum picked up 70 yards for a second touchdown in few plays later.

Evans was the whole offensive show for the visitors. Redwine, Hollis Adkins and Ramey were probably best for Breckinridge.

Transy Will Play Friday Oct. 26

The next foe of the Eagles will be the highly touted Transylvania eleven to be played at Lexington this week-end. The game has all the earmarks of being the toughest on the Morehead schedule as Transy has made 2 great records this year.

Ever since the Xavier battle the Transy team has been tiddled by injuries to the key men of the team. The hospital list included Captain Schwalm, Fred Hammond, Carl Britt, Pete Moore and Luck Lutzler which greatly weakened the Crimson line-up. Some of these men have only been able to play part time in games heretofore but they will all be available for the tilt this week.

Even without the services of Moore and Lutzler the Transy team pulled a major upset when they downed the strong Eastern team 18 to 0. Now with these two stars back in the lineup an especially hard battle is expected for the Eagles.

The Transy team has had little opportunity to display its heralded passing attack but with all hands on deck Coach Shannon has been emphasizing this style of attack indicating that the Pioneers will take to the air when they clash with the Morehead State Teachers. The Crimson have two able throwers in Bill Wilson and Paul Danheizer. Fitch, Patrick, Britt, Schwalm and Lutzler have shown considerable ability on the receiving end.

Bill Wilson can be remembered by the Morehead fans as the one back that caused so much trouble for the Eagles last year. His running mate, a most valuable one, is Captain Schwalm who also played a game at the Jayne Memorial Stadium last year.

Morehead Renews Grid Rivalry With Eastern November 2nd.

For the first time in many years, the Morehead College football team will be favored over their traditional sports rival when they encounter the Eastern Maroons at Richmond November 2.

Morehead has a slightly stronger team than they have had in previous years, while Eastern has apparently suffered a mild let-down in Union 14 to 0 and also lost to Ohio Wesleyan, Transylvania and Georgetown.

Several hundred Morehead students and fans are expected to make the trip to Richmond to see the renewal of this old football rivalry.

The college band will vie for honors with the Maroon and White organization.

The Eagles always appear to suffer from something acute when they play Eastern, so the odds do not mean much. A victory for the Richmond team would not be surprising to Morehead fans, in view of the poor performance they have put up against Eastern in years gone by.

All of Eastern's strength will be thrown in the match. It is their homecoming game. The match is always a homecoming, for every other year, the Morehead school schedules their homecoming for this day.

banquet with Dr. J. D. Falls, Dean of men, delivering the principal address on "Get Your Signals". Dr. Falls stressed the necessity of preparing for football teams of the future years by encouraging freshmen now at the college and influence friends to attend Morehead. He urged that everyone connected with the school "get their signals" for a drive that will send the Morehead Eagle sailing to an eminent position in the educational and athletic records of Kentucky.

Professor E. V. Hollis, toastmaster, delivered the welcome to the alumni and he was answered by the Robert Counts, Carter county attorney and graduate of the college. From the banquet, the alumni strolled over to the gymnasium for the closing event of the day. The dance was pronounced the most successful of many years. "Red" Gutter's Melody Masters played for the dance. Professors E. K. Saff and George Young played with the college boys. A blues and torch singer entertained at intervals.

Professor Clarence Nichell, instructor in the biology department, has been engaged to address the Bluegrass District Association of the Oddfellows at Lexington, Sunday afternoon, October 28. It was announced last week.

Morehead Wins 6-3; Favored As Champs

Vikings Loss To Raceland

Lacking in reserve the Morehead High School made their poorest showing of the year last Friday when they dropped a 40 to 0 decision to a superior and much favored Raceland team.

The Ramebers performed at their highest speed throughout the game, and wore the Vikings down under sheer man power. Only thirteen men accompanied Carl Riddle on the trip and they were all inserted in the lineup.

Mickey Burgess and Raymond Smith turned in beautifully played games. The Morehead boys at times displayed a flashing offense, which led Steve Carter and Alfrey accounted for practically all of the Viking yardage.

The first downs were: Raceland 11; Morehead 5.

The line-up follows:
Smith LE Justice
Steed LT Davis
F. Wilcox LG Prather
W. Wilson C Cornett
Short RG Turner
Whay RT White
C. Vallance RE Johnson
Gibbs QB Carter
Thompson RB Jones
Burgess RH Brown
McCoey FB Alfrey
*Captain.

Substitutions: Raceland, Bradley, J. Vallance, Fely, Harris, Watkins, McBrayer, E. Reed, Truit, Nipert, K. Reed, Howard, Prater, Warren, Estep and S. Wilcox.

Morehead: Hall and Barker. Officials: Referee, Chattin; Umpire, Maggard; Headlinesman, Gordon.

Boyd Co. To Play Here Saturday

Looser in three games, the Vikings of Morehead High School hope to vindicate themselves, in part at least, here Saturday afternoon when they make their first home appearance in a grid match with the Boyd County Lions.

So far the Morehead team has played about as well as predicted, since material is very scarce at the Viking stronghold. They did not quite come up to expectations in the Raceland game Friday afternoon.

Morehead will be anything but the favorite in their game with Boyd County High, but they have a good chance of scoring a win. Experience, that has been gained every game, plus the advantage of playing at home before a favorable crowd, may go a long ways toward a Viking victory Saturday afternoon.

Alfrey and Carter, area-ces of the Viking backfield, are sure to cause the visitors trouble.

The game will be one of two two chances that local fans will be able to see at home. The High School plays all but two of their games this year on foreign gridirons.

Following the Boyd County game they play at Fullerton on November 2, and return here to close their season against Ashland B on November 9.

With the games standing two to one in favor of Morehead, the Pirates and Flemingsburg will renew their series at Jayne Stadium Sunday afternoon. Morehead needs but one victory to clinch the Kentucky State League Championship.

Raymond Rhodes, Morehead, and Wilson have been named as the starting pitchers for the game. Running up a 4 run lead in the first 5 innings, the Morehead Pirates held Flemingsburg at bay Sunday afternoon, to go one rung further toward the Kentucky State League championship. Morehead's triumph was by a 6-3 margin.

The Pirates now hold a lead of two games to one, and need only one more victory for the title.

Morehead peeked away consistently at the offerings of Stumbo. Flemingsburg's starting pitcher, for 8 hits and 5 runs in the first 5 frames Wilson, who relieved him, allowed only 2 hits during the remainder of the game.

McKenzie went the route for Morehead and was effective in the pitches. Each team gathered 10 hits and Wilson was the loopest played match of the season.

The Pirates counted twice in the first inning on walks to Day and Spence and singles by Fraley and Carter. They scored once in the fourth on hits by Spence, Nolan, Butler and McKenzie.

Morehead made 2 tallies in the fifth as Oxyley walked and Spence and Rhodes came through with two base hits. Their final run came in the second inning. They did not score again until the sixth when they counted twice on a base on balls, singles by Kline and Baker and Oxyley's low throw to first base.

Flemingsburg threatened every inning but McKenzie did his best pitching when men were on the sacks. Flemingsburg had fifteen men left on base.

Baker, Flemingsburg second base man, connected for 3 hits for the day's best average. A high wind that blew across the field made fly balls difficult to handle.

Fall Tennis Begins

The Fall Tennis Tournament started last week. Men's Singles only will be played, and fourteen men are entered. First round matches, scheduled for last week due to inclement weather will probably have to be played off this week. It is expected that the finals will be played the first of this week.

The courts are the scene of great activity as everyone is practicing to perfect his game. The favorite at the present date seems to be Roy Lowry who showed rare form in eliminating Lewis 6-0, 6-1. However there are several men entered who are of championship caliber and the writer predicts that there will be numerous upsets. Some darkhorse entry may cop the
