COLLEGE HEAD DEFENDS SELF
Bolton Says Hands Were Tied in Conduct of Morehead School.

MORRISONVILLE, Ky., Feb. 2 - Dr. Henry H. Bolton, president of Morehead State Normal School, today made a statement asserting in regard to that institution that every effort was made to provide the best education possible for the students. He said that the school was doing all in its power to provide a good education and that it was doing more than the average school in the state. He added that the school was doing all in its power to provide a good education and that it was doing more than the average school in the state.

In his statement, Dr. Bolton said that the school was doing all in its power to provide a good education and that it was doing more than the average school in the state. He added that the school was doing all in its power to provide a good education and that it was doing more than the average school in the state.

Dr. Bolton said that the school was doing all in its power to provide a good education and that it was doing more than the average school in the state. He added that the school was doing all in its power to provide a good education and that it was doing more than the average school in the state.

Dr. Bolton said that the school was doing all in its power to provide a good education and that it was doing more than the average school in the state. He added that the school was doing all in its power to provide a good education and that it was doing more than the average school in the state.

THIRTY-ONE JOIN BROADWAY CHURCH

Mr. Robert Todd, an old member of the church, and Mr. John H. Smith, a prominent citizen of the town, were elected as william P. Sallee, former minister of the church, who left the town several years ago.

In the election of Mr. Todd and Mr. Smith, the membership of the church was increased to thirty-one persons. The new members were welcomed by the congregation and were introduced to the new minister of the church, William P. Sallee, who left the town several years ago.

In the election of Mr. Todd and Mr. Smith, the membership of the church was increased to thirty-one persons. The new members were welcomed by the congregation and were introduced to the new minister of the church, William P. Sallee, who left the town several years ago.

In the election of Mr. Todd and Mr. Smith, the membership of the church was increased to thirty-one persons. The new members were welcomed by the congregation and were introduced to the new minister of the church, William P. Sallee, who left the town several years ago.