

FAMOUS FEUDIST

SHOT BY MARSHAL

(By Associated Press)

Morehead, Ky., July 29—C. W. ("Cate") Tolliver, 46, of Rowan county, is in a hospital here today suffering from gun shot wounds in the face and shoulder received in a battle with town marshal Alfred Fraley in the court house yard here yesterday. Tolliver at the age of 12 participated in the Martin-Tolliver feud 35 years ago. He lives on a farm near here. Fraley objected to Tolliver being bondsman for a number of persons under arrest. The shooting followed.
