WHERE DOES THE MONEY COME FROM?—NEGROES ARMED WITH BRITISH GUNS.

What can be more insulting to the honest workmen than to have large sums of money distributed to a few negroes who have been idle for years? It is a disgraceful sight to see a man who has spent his life in idleness, and who has done nothing to earn his money, receiving a large sum of money from the government.

THE DAYTON CONVENTION! The Whig press in all this region of country, has teemed with a glowing account of a great meeting at Dayton, Ohio, at the...

THE CHILlicothe MEETING. The following account of the Whig caucus at Chillicothe, held on the 17th, is taken from the Advertiser at that place, of Saturday last. So far as we can learn from all sources, it was a perfect failure. It did not come up to the expectations of the party by about seventy-five thousand persons.

THE WINGWIG SHOW. The time has at length arrived that the Whigs of Chillicothe have been long anxiously expecting. For about a week they have been calling weekly in their papers, for the people of this, and all the surrounding States, to assemble in Chillicothe, on the 17th, to elect a delegate to the National Convention...

Business, was extensively circulated, and found an important circulation. The document in the most extraordinary political content for the last nine months. Mr. Webster is a late speech at Saratoga, New York, in alluding to this subject, and with special reference to the charge made by Mr. Davis upon Mr. Buchanan, we acquire the following: "I think injustice has been done to a Senator from Pennsylvania, who has been made to bear a large share of the responsibility of suggesting such a policy." So we have Mr. Webster's testimony, that John Davis, in imputing to Mr. Buchanan, the famous speech in reference to "his country," which was at such a figure in the present canvass, did Mr. B. injustice,—it cast, misrepresents and stultified his remarks for political purposes.

HARRISON VICTORIES IN THE SOUTH! A negro insurrection in one of the parishes of Louisiana, broke out on the 6th of August, but fortunately was soon quelled. About four hundred negroes were supposed to have been engaged, twenty of whom were taken, and nine of the ringleaders were executed. The insurrection was confined to Southern Virginia and northern abolitionists, and that mild and conciliatory tone which marks the bearing of the Whig party generally towards these desperate fanatics.

When the Whigs suffer such rank and noble abolitionists as the Rev. Arthur W. Elliot, of Ohio, to attend their political meetings and give speeches, of which they make a great deal, as they have done in the Cayahoga District, is it any wonder that the slaves of the South should take courage at such things and manifest it by an insurrectionary outbreak.

MR. HARRISON'S ATTEMPT TO INFLUENCE THE REPUTATION OF COL. JOHNSON! We learn from the Chillicothe Advertiser, as well as from other Ohio papers, that Gen. Harrison, in his electioneering speeches, attempts to detract from the well-earned reputation of Col. Johnson by claiming for himself all the merit of the victory of the Thames, and holding out the idea, that Col. Johnson's want of military knowledge, precludes the opinion that he was at that time competent to have done what his friends have ascribed to him in reference to that battle.

Since the publication of Col. Ogden's letters, the public have been startled to find in high eulogy, Col. Harrison's claims to justice and magnanimity, and sure we are, this is a pitiful and contemptible effort to injure as gallant an officer as ever drew a sword in defence of his country, will not contribute to what estimate it is to him in reference to that battle.

Who are they? What are their principles? Let their leading system under Hamilton speak; by which millions of dollars were skillfully placed in their pockets at the expense of the war-torn States, and our country were purchased at two shillings and less in the pound, which, when funded, rose to par. This was the first great speculation originated by the representatives of a free people for the benefit of the designing, cunning, watchful stock-jobbers, who forever pursue the captives of our land, and by which they are encouraged to a species of legislation by which land-planters may be legalized in robbing their more honest and unsuspecting countrymen.
