Paupent in Born.—In St. Petersburg is a story in circulation of a reply the Charles Napier gate the Grand Saise stantine. The latter, after letting Sir Chee all the arrangements and the editre error of Uronsted, saided him in a chickling so manner: Well, Admiral.

"My good woman," said the colporteur, as he offered her a tract, "have you got the Gos-pel here!"
"No sir, we haven't," replied the old lady "but they'e got it awfully down in Kansas brother Beecher sent it there."

When the Duke of York was obliged treat before the French, Sheridan gave toast, "The Duke of York and his brav-lowers."

Without decision of character, no man or woman is worth a button, por can be. With out it, a min a becomes at once a good-nature nobedy; the poverty-stricken posersor of but one solitary principle—that of obliging every body under the sun merely for the seking.
