CHRONICA

BUREAU OF RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT
MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY
Morehead, Kentucky
FOREWORD

The Bureau of Research and Development (R and D) of Morehead State University has functioned as a service agent in the Appalachian Region since 1965. R and D's role since inception has been to relate the resources of the academic community to the needs of the greater society in which the University is situated.

During this period many individuals have become involved in the awareness-research-implementation-dissemination process that has evolved for community growth and change. Various studies and reports have been developed by R and D for the purpose of sharing our experiences with those performing similar tasks. Our information is available upon request.
