LETCHER COUNTY, KY: The co's. most distinguishing top. feat. is Pine Mt. extending from sw to ne, marking the s. bound. betw. Letcher & Harlan Co's and Letcher & Va's. Wise Co. All settlements have been in stream valleys. (McGrain & Currens, Topo. P. 47); Benjamin Webb, son of Engl. immi. & Rev. War vet., Jas. Webb of NC, settled at the head of N.Fk. in 1804. In 1805 he marr. Jennie, d of pion. John Adams. Benj.'s children incl. Nelson, Enoch A, Jason L, Miles, Wiley, etc. (Wm. Savage, WPA); Other early families: Browns, Dixon Lewises, Colliers, Whitakers, Wrights, Boggs, Potters, Halcombs, Crafts, Bates, Holbrooks, Bentleys. (Ibid);
LETCHER COUNTY, KY: 95th co. org. 1842 from sects. of Perry & Harlan Co's. 339 sq. mi. Rugged, hilly terr. Settlement in mostly narr. stream val's. Headwaters of 3 major streams (Cumb, N.Fk. of Ky R, & BS (Elkhorn Ck of Russell Fk. of Levisa). Coal, oil, timber. Little land devoted to comm. agri. First known settlement 179 by Peter Whitaker on (the present) Whitaker Br. In 180 Geo. Ison II settled his family on Line Fk. Other pions. were Benj. Webb (from Md.), Jas. Caudill (from Va), Wm. Stamper (from NC). Every val. settled by 1806 Rapid growth before C.W. Greatest concentration in the Mayking area, 2 mi ne of Whitesb., but lost co. seat to the latter. Coal dev. began with mineral rights acquisitions in the early 1900s. Till then it was one of Ky's. most isolated areas. Pop. losses 1940s-1950s. Mining remains the co's. chief means of econ. support. Little non extractive manu. opps. 1990 pop. = 27,000, down from 30,700 in 1980. (KY ENCY. 1992, Pp. 546-7); A county-wide dev. plan that would have included the incorporation of 5 former coal camps: Neon, Fleming, Hemphill, Haymond, and McRoberts as one city was withdrawn from Fiscal Ct. consideration in July 1972. (LCJ 7/26/72, P. Bl:1-6); The law creating L. Co. was enacted by leg. 3/3/42. Co. assumed its present bounds on 5/15/84 with org. of Knott Co. 339 sq. mi. 85th co est;
It's believed that the first settlement in Letcher Co. was made by an Adams at the mouth of Pert Creek, just above Whitesburg. "Several efforts have been made to move the county seat to the old settlement at the mouth of Pert Creek and Colly Creek, but they were all unsuccessful." (sic) (Wm. Savage, "Scenic Attractions--Letcher Co." WPA ms); In 1881-2 that section of L. Co. drained by Elkhorn Ck. was removed from Pike to Letcher Co. (Bowles, P. 53); By 1815 these families had settled in L. Co: Banks, Maggard, Day, Fields, Morgan, Collie, Blair, Breeding, Frazier, Baker, Halcomb, Hogg, Combs, Mullins, etc. (Cornett, 1967, P. 14);
LETSCHER COUNTY, KY: 339 sq. mi. "This co. was est. in 1842 from parts of Perry and Harlan Co's. and named for Robert P. Letcher (1788-1861), US Congressman (1823-35) and gov. of Ky. (1840-44) who later served as Minister to Mexico (1849-52)." (Book-P. 170); Created as 340 sq. mi. from Harlan & Perry Co's on 4/1/1842. Gained 60 sq. mi. from Perry Co on 2/3/58. Gained 10 sq. mi. from Pike Co. 4/24/84. Lost 80 sq. mi. to Knott Co. 5/15/84. By then had reached 330 sq. mi. (Long); In L. Co. are the headwaters of the Cumb, BS, & Ky. R's; The co's. 1st settlers were Caudells (sic), Crafts, Adamses, and Holbrooks, joined in 1810 by the Bateses. (KY EXPL. Vol. 10 (5), 10/95, Pp. 84-6);

⇔ H(ah)d"). Creek that forms part of the Pike-Letcher Co. line, just past Jenkins. DPI
Mining: Beth Elkhorn has several mines there. Evidently one or more tanning operations there at one time. But dk who ran these. Mullins & Wright families prominent there. DK who named it. Now: "A worked out mining commu." Lost much pop. in the past. Some re-turning now, locating trailers there and trying to secure jobs with nearby revitalized mines in the area. Bad flood in 1975 and serious erosion problem reduced amt. of available land for settlement. Much stripping did too. Until recently most of the pop. was older people. They tend to have greater loyalty to & contact with Elkhorn City & Pound, Va. & even Jenkins than W'burg. They're in the Elkhorn Creek watershed... (Wm. Terry Cornett interview, 12/24/1977); BEEFHIDE (Pike Co., Ky): On 3/5/1881 W.H.C. Johnson (while still pm of Long Fork PO) pet. for the est. of a po to be called Beefhide for the creek which joins Shelby Creek just above the prop. po site, on the e. bottom of Shelby Creek. On 6/14/1909 Benj. Hall, then pm, pet. for move (c. 650 ft.) w. of the creek, 2 3/4 mi. nw of Myra and 3 mi. se of Virgie. (Site Location Reports);
BEEFHIDE (Pike Co., Ky): "Hunters passing through this area killed a wild bull. They couldn't carry it all so they skinned the bull and climbed a big tree to stretch the hide so the animals couldn't get to it. They needed the skin so they put wood ashes in a pit and put the skin in there with the heavy side out. This made the hair come out. They worked the skin until it got flexible and made clothing, tents, etc. from it. Some other hunters come through and saw the hide in the tree and said that creek would be known as Beefhide because of the big beef hide." (Source: Malvray Johnson to his son-in-law, Rodney Tackett, for Leonard Roberts, Pikeville Coll., 1970)
BEEFHIDE (Pike Co.) (F357) 37°14'30" (Lat), 82°37'15" (Long); "Camp site of strategy patrol during the Civil War. They killed the beef of residents or settlers on the creek and left the hides. Acc. to Chas. F. Moore who remembered his father, John Moore, telling about going over to view the hides that had been left." 11/11/1974 (Leonard Roberts);

BEEFHIDE CREEK (#98-068) (F189sw) 37°17' (Lat), 82°36'15" (Long); Location of a slaughter house long ago. Named for all the beef hides that were always hanging from barns. (Ibid.)

BEEFHIDE Creek (Pike Co.) (F357) 37°14'30" to 37°15'(Lat.), 82°37'15"(Long); Heads in Letcher Co. and is a trib. of Shelby Creek. Named for the Beefhide Hol. (Chas. Moor 11/11/1974, via Leonard Roberts); Beef Hide Creek (sic) is mentioned in Floyd Co. Deed Book A, 11/4/1818; Thos. Williams acquired 50 acres on Beef Hide Creek (11/24/1832) (Bk. B-2 P. 387) (Jillson, 1971, I, P. 767); BEEFHIDE (Pike & Letcher Co's., Ky): "This scattered settlement extends for nearly a mile along Beefhide Creek, for which it was named. Its citizens claim somewhat greater loyalty to Pike Co. since they are now served by the Lionilli PO, and access to Pikesville is easier than to Whitesburg. Though a Beefhide PO was est. on 4/17/1901 with Merdelia Potter, pm, local traditions refer to a settlement on the site before the CW. As to one acct. of the name, a CW patrol had camped on the creek, killed some local livestock, consumed the beef, and left the hides. Others suggest that the name derives from a 19th cent. slaughter house in the vic. or possibly (from) one or more tanning operations maintained by local families. The most commonly heard accts. are of travelers who named the creek for the many slaughtered beeeses seen hanging in local barns and farmyards." (Book-P. 18, from Terry Cornett, 12/2/1977 & Leonard Roberts' Pike Co. notes)

When apprehended he revealed where he had hidden the hide and the people who found it called the place Beefhide. (Source: A.S. Johnson, Dorton Creek area, age 80, to Johnny Vanover, Pikeville Coll. student, for Leonard Roberts); Men would kill beef and hang the hides up to dry. (Patsy Bowling for Ibid., 1970);
BEEFORK (Letcher Co., Ky): po est. 4/8/1907, Wm. Banks Disc. 6/15/1909 (mail to Jeremiah) (POR-NA); Unknown pm, July 1907, reported that this po was 4 mi e of Roxana po, 3½ mi w of Smoot Creek po. The rest of the microfilmed data is too light. (SLR); ["bee/fawrk"]. Is this on Bee Tree Fk? If so, it might be a shortened form of it based on someone's having found a honey tree in that vic. (Terry Cornett, 12/24/1977); Acc. to Van (1908 map), the Beefork po was on Smoot Creek, in the vic. of the mouth of Bee Tree Fk; A sch. at the mouth of this fk. was in the home of its tchr. Wesley Banks. (dk when). How were Wm. & Wesley related?; BELLCRAFT (Letcher Co.): "A coal operator named Craft was very fond of his wife. Her name was Belle and forty-five yrs. after his camp was completed a crumbling dilapidated ghost town is still called Bellcraft. (Harry Caudill, NIGHT COMES TO THE CUMBERLAND, 1963, P. 105); ("B(eh)l/kr(ae)ft") The coal camp was right next to Marlowe on Sand Lick Creek. Named for Belle Craft, wife of the man who built the camp. The camp is now totally defunct; the last 2 houses there are being torn down now. SE Coal Co. recently bought some of the mineral rights and they're trying to mine there again. Pretty active coal camp, a jerry built operation, some 20-25 yrs. ago. A very depressing slummy kind of place now. Now just a suburb of Whitesburg, just one big trailer court. (Terry Cornett, interview, 12/24/1977);

BLACKKEY (Letcher Co., Ky): "This vil. with po on Ky 7, at the confl. of Rockhouse Fk. and the N. Fk. of the Ky. R, 7 1/2 (air) mi w of Whitesb., was once a rail shipping pt. for area coal mines. It is believed that this is the site of the co's. earliest settlements, called Indian Bottom for the many Indian relics once found in the long bottom strip along the river. On Sept. 10, 1908, the Blackey po was est. with Jas. H. Brown, pm, presumably named for Blackey Brown, a re­spected local citizen whose nickname denoted his dark complexion. It closed in 1913. Some 63 years before, however, Stephen Hogg had est. the po of Indian Bottom 1/2 mi above the mouth of Rockhouse Fk. This had a non-continuous existence until, on Nov. 12, 1919, it moved to the Blackey site and assumed that name. There is nothing left of a commu. called Indian Bottom though the name has been preserved in 2 nearby chu's. (Book-P. 25); Jos. Preston ("Joe Blackey") Brown (1860-1943), son of Wm. & Letitia (Day) Brown. A carpenter and name source of this commu. Buried at the family cem. at the mouth of Cowan Ck. Bro. of James H. BLACKEY (Letcher Co.): (Pron. "Bl(ae)k/ee") 1st called Indian Bottom ("(IH)n/dyən B(ah)t/əm") at the confluence of Rockhouse Creek & Ky. R. One of the county's earliest settlements. Called I.B. because so many Indian relics were found there in the early days in the long bottom strip that runs along the river there. I.B. name was applied till 1915 when the chartered as a small city and called Blackey. Was a trading ctr. for a no. of area mining commu's. Named for a Mr. Brown who was very dark-skinned. He was called "Blacky" for short. DK his 1st name. His brother, James Brown, was a carpenter there.
who built many homes. He was called "Black Brown" because he was so dark-skinned. Local people liked him and decided to name their town for him. It grew up very fast; had an auto dealership, a no. of stores, small bank, theater. Flood of 1927 almost wiped it out. In the early 1930s, a no. of fires destroyed wooden bldgs. that were never rebuilt. Now: mostly homes with several small stores, 1 or 2 rest., 2 churches. Joe Beagle, who married the daughter of Charley Caudill who ran C.B. Caudill's gen. store. Very vocal & outspoken about stripmining & other area issues....(Wm. Terry Cornett, 12/24/77
BLACKEY (Letcher Co., Ky): 15 mi n of Whitesb. Area lots owned by Jeff and Mary Ison were sold in the 2nd decade of the 20th cent. for businesses and homes. The Indian Bottom sect. grew in anticipation of coal dev't. and the coming of the rr (in 1912). Investors bought up area land, selling it off to coal developers and by 1916 coal camps had been est. in the area. e.g. the Blackey Coal Co. (1917) at the mouth of Elk Ck., a camp of some 25-30 homes. Six other co's. thru 1920s. The local rail stop was called Tayma for its 2 Harold Taylor and Lewis Madden. On 11/12/19, R.B.
Caudill, storekeeper, became pm and had the Indian Bottom po name ch. to Blackey. The I.B. po was est. in 1856 with Stephen Hogg, pm. A Blackey po was est. 9/10/08 and closed 2/28/13. Jas. Brown was the 1st pm 1908-13. It was named for Joe P. Brown, called Blackey. This po was slightly below Indian Bottom. Inc. as the 6th cl. city of Blackey by 1919. Many businesses, stores, and service est'mts. Econ. decline caused by "devastating flood, depressed coal ind, and the great depression." and a couple of fires in 1926-7. Pop. may have peaked at 800. Official pops: 269 (1920) 349 (1930). (Bobby Jean Collins "Blackey: Its Growth & Decline, 1912-1932" ESSAYS IN E. KY HIST. ed. by Stuart Sprague, msn (1984, p.1-3)
BLACKKEY (Letcher Co.): Named for Joe Blackey. Indian Bottom (the old po name) was named for an old Indian campground there. (N.M. Webb, Editor of the Mt. Eagle of Whitesburg, Ky. in a letter to Wm. G. Steel, 4/22/1922); Now: a gen'. store run by Joe & Gaynell Begley. (cf. to them for info. She was a Berea Grad., pre-WWII) The store still bears her father's name: "C.D. Caudill, Gen'l. Merchandise". On Ky. 7. (ele.-sch.) Many years ago, this was a rr center for nearby coal mines. Peak before fire of 1927, Caudill's store destroyed in fire was rebuilt at present site in 1934. (Irene Nolan, "The Begleys Care for the Mts. and its People" CJ&T, 8/11/1974, Pp. G1:1-6, G_:1-6); BLUEFIELD (Letcher Co., Ky): A very small coal camp nr. Letcher, serving a very small mine. Named for the coal company which Terry thought was named for the town in W.Va. Many oldtimers still refer to the sect. betw. Ulvah and Blackey as Bluefield. It's also called Red Star for the local Red Star mining co. mine. (Terry Cornett, 12/24/1977); Ulvah Coal Co. at Bluefield (ca. 1923); BLUEFIELD (Letcher Co., Ky): po est. 4/17/1920, Chas. W. Murphy; 5/24/21, Oscar W. Frazier; 5/8/28, Wesley Collins, acting; Disc. 7/31/28 (mail to Ulvah) (POR-NA Acc. to John F. BO-FORK OF KINGDOM COME CREEK (Letcher Co., Ky): Named for a resident of the fork, Mr. Boenerges Frazier who everyone called Bo and Bo m. He married Nancy (Nance) Frazier, the daughter of Solomon H. (Nigger) Frazier from whom she is said to have inherited the fork. Bo was the son of Daniel & Evaline White Frazier and brother of Zachariah Frazier, the gt. grandfather of my informant. Bo Frazier was a prosperous farmer. His home was visited by John Fox, Jr. who used this vic. as the setting for his "Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come." Nigger Frazier was so called for his fair complexion and white hair. (Mrs. Marie Frazier Day, Kingdom Come Creek, c/o Whitesburg PO, letter to me, 8/31/1987) n.w. n.f. of my R. system. 1 3/4 mi. long. Jones Creek 2 mi. above Osceola.
BOONE FORK (of North Fork of the Kentucky River) (c. Letcher Co., Ky. Field #358).
Named for Boone's name carved on a tree. (Acc. to Harry Caudill, 7/26/1971)
BOTTOM FORK (Letcher Co., Ky): "During the depression... people passed through Mayking, Ky. seeking the mining town of Jenkins in search of a job. The inhabitants of Mayking often gave the travelers the direction of following the bottom fork of the Ky R.... When a post office was set up the direction of Bottom Fork became the name of the post office." (Franklin Absher, 62, Mayking, Ky., to Kenny Garrett for Leonard Roberts of Pikev. College;
BURDINE (Letcher Co.): (Pron. "Ber/d(eye)~ (ah)n") Named for Burdine Webb, a local resident. When the coal camp was built, it was started c.1913 very close to the Pike Co. line. Tho' technically a part of Jenkins from the beginning, local people consider it a separate town. On US23. Flooded in 1923 when a slate dump gave way...Terry thinks this is where the foreign born mostly lived in the early days....PO is still in the old company store. The Webbs are one of the oldest families in the co. and have always been prominer socially & financially...DK anything about Burdine. nor why the commu. was named for him
Most of that land in those days was owned by the Wright family--Bad John Wright owned most of the present site of Jenkins (q.v.). Terry does not think that Burdine Webb lived there at the time the camp was built tho' he might have lived there later. (Wm. Terry Cornett, interview, 12/24/1977); Acc. to 1910 Census, Burdine Webb (34) and wife Ida (20) & his mother Loudema (55) and a daughter Edna (1) live in the E. Whitesb. Prec.;
BURDINE (Letcher Co., Ky): "This coal town, located on US 23/119 and Elkhorn Ck, 12½ (air) mi ene of Whitesb., is a part of Jenkins. Local people, however, consider it a separate town, and it does have its own po, which was est. on 1/25/1898, 13 yrs earlier than Jenkins'. General consensus is that it was named for Burdine Webb who carried the mail from Whitesburg." (Book-P. 41); Burdine Webb, in 1908, marr. Ida Franklin' (nee 1892) (L. CARBON GLOW (Letcher Co.): "A lot of the smaller coal corps. wanted to give a kind of name to their coal co's. that denoted the quality of their product. And glowing coal, of course, meant it was good quality coal. And they didn't want to just say "coal glow"... They decided it would sound fancy, I guess, to say 'Carbon Glow'. Maybe to some extent it sounds a little bit like a Welsh mining name. A lot of Welsh mining towns have "Glo this or that" in it...." (Terry Cornett, 12/24/1977)
CARBON GLOW (Letcher Co., Ky): "This com. with epo lies at the head of Caudills Br, 2 mi from its confl. with Rockhouse Ck, and 7 (air) mi ne of Whitesb. Once a large coal camp, it was built in the 1920s by, and named for, the Carbon Glow Coal Co. On 2/16/1926 the po of David (which had been est. on 12/26/08 by Wm. Caudill and named for David Caudill) was moved 3/4 mi up the branch and renamed for the new coal camp. It has been suggested that, in seeking a name to connote the superior quality of its product, the company modified 'glowing coal'--which had that connotation--with 'carbon' as a fancier rendering of coal, reversed the words for a catchier name, and can up with Carbon Glow. Or the company may have wished to trade on the success of the Welsh mining towns called Glo thus—-and-so, as did a firm in neighboring Perry Co., which had founded and named a camp Glomawr a decade before. In any case, the slate dumps are now the only evidence of the mining that characterized the vic. in the past." (Book—Pp. 49-50)

It was one big coal camp mostly to/ the head of Caudills Branch, a^3/2 mi. long hol. The camp was built in the 1920s. A few of the orig. homes are left. As far as he knows, there's never been a po there named David. A racially-integrate camp with little friction. Now, Pvt. homes & one or 2 of the old camp houses. Except for the slate dumps there's no evidence of any of the mining that went on. Much coal stripping in the vic. now tho'. Much coal striping in the vic. now tho'. Caudills Branc ("K(ah)d(olz Br(ae)nch") was named for one of the very early families that had settled there. (Why Carbon Glow name?) "A lot of the smaller coal corp's. wanted to give a kind of name to their coal co's. that denoted the quality of their product. And glowing coal, of course, meant it was good quality coal. And they didn't want to just say 'Coal Glow' even tho' there was a town in Perry Co. which had that name. They decided it would sound fancier, I guess, to say 'Carbon Glow'. Maybe, to some extent, it sounds a little bit like a Welsh mining name. A lot of Welsh mining towns have a "Glow" this or that' in it and it even carried over to this country like in Perry Co. we have Glomawr..." The SE Coal Co., the biggest coal pvt. co. in the co., has bought the land opp. the mouth of Caudills Branch and may be planning to build a modern coal camp on that site. DK how true this is (Wm. Terry Cornett, interview, 12/24/1977);

PO. Disc 1957
CARCASSONNE (Letcher Co.): A settlement c. 7 mi. wnw of Whitesburg. PO name changed 1937 from Gander. Thus appeal made to BGN for an official n.ch. (Submitted by POD, N.R. Grant, 9/16/1949...); po est. as Gander, 3/27/1907, Harrison Banks...(NA); (Pron. "K(ah)r/kə/z(əw)n"). On top of Elk Creek Mt. sometimes referred to as either Gent Mt. or Bottle(ch) Mt., out from Blackey. Originally called Gander ("Gh(ae)n/der") until c.1935. Not sure how Gander got its name. He thinks Hendricks Caudill named it that for the many wild geese there at one time. "The n.ch. took place when Marie Campbell, Virginia Dare Bryson, and 2 or 3 other settlement school tchrs. decided that that was not a proper name for their sch.

Around 1922 or '3, there had been a settlement sch. there called The Carcassonne Comm Ctr. and my mother graduated from hi.sch. there. It had a hi.sch. and grade sch., and it was in operation--at least the grade sch was until about 7 yrs. ago. When my mother graduated from hi.sch. in 1932, it was still called Gander. But about a yr. or 2 after that, it was changed to Carcassonne. And this was how it came about. When Marie Campbell or whatever teacher was there--I'm not sure that I'm giving you the right name but--the tchr. who named it first saw the place--when she got her job there and she rode up on horseback to find her a place to live, the school she noticed was surrounded by a lot of big rocks and cliffs, and she said "Ah, it looks like the walled city of Carcassonne in France" and she had been there the summer or two before. (sic) And so because of that, she thought that would be a nicer name and she talked them into it. And in a little while, it had that name.... The school is no longer in existence. It is now used as a commu. ctr. and once a mo. they have sq. dances there... It is very difficult to get to...." Ruby Caudill is the pm now. (Terry Cornett, 12/24/1977);
CARCASSONNE (Letcher Co., Ky): Hendricks Caudill ne 1886, married Anna Dixon in 1906. He was the son of Jas. D. Caudill and Lucinda (Burton) Caudill who were wed in 1873. Hendricks was a surveyor, carpenter, Ag. ext. agent, and Bap. preacher. Est. the Carcassonne Schools in 1923. They were named by him after he had read a poem about and saw a picture of of a mt. top vil. in France "surrounded by cliffs". The site of the sch. resembled the French vil. seen in the photo. It was operated as a hi. sch. from 1924 to 1946 serving that sect. of Letcher & neighboring Knott Co. The el. sch closed in 1974. The Carc. Com. Ctr. est. 1966. (Clifton Caudill, his son in KY EXPL. Vol. 9 (6), 11/94 pp. 41-47)
The one room Pine Grove Sch. on Bull Creek (1904-23) was the forerunner of the Carcassonne School (1923+). In the 1930s the P.G. School bldg. was home to the James Mem'l. Chu. of Old Reg'l. Baptists. It was named for Jas. Dixon and Jas. D. Caudill. The P.G. Sch. was 1\(\frac{1}{2}\) mi from Jent Mt. The road past the sch. was the Big Dug Rd. because it was hand built. Flat Hollow. (Clifton Caudill of Carcassonne in KY EXPL. Vol. 11 (5), 10/96, Pp. 58-60);
CARCASSONNE (Letcher Co., Ky): The old school here is now a commu. center where monthly square dances are held. Acc. to Clifton Caudill, 72, the mgr. of the dances, his father, H.D. Caudill, Sr. had "cleared the land for the Carcassonne School in 1923 (he even named the place after a town in France he'd read about)....At one time it boasted dormitories for boys and girls, classroom buildings, and a gymnasium." The high sch. here was disc. in the 1940s and the ele. sch. in the early '70s. The square dancing started in 1966. ("Coming Full Circle Square Dances Make a Comeback in Letcher" by Jim Warren, LEX. HERALD-LEADER, 5/17/1986, Pp D1-2) on file: MSU Newsp. Clip. files. Letcher Co
CARCASSONNE (Letcher Co.): Marie Campbell & Miss Virginia Bryson came to Gander as it was called then in 1926 to teach in the local sch. Local people had built their own sch. & had asked the school on Caney Creek to send them 2 tchrs. from outside the region. "In th Gander commu. the mt. slopes were steep, the valleys scarcely wider than the creek beds." Subsistence farming and some men supplemented this for cash by working in area coal mines. 1933-4=the last yr. Ms. Campbell taught at the Gander sch. (Pp. 11-3) (Marie Campbell, TALES FROM THE CLOUD WALKING COUNTRY, IU Pres Bloomington, 1958);
CARCASSONNE (Letcher Co.): Renamed from Gander in 1924 for Carc., France by Hendrix D. Caudill, founder of the Carc. Commu. Ctr. a boarding school for hi.sch. students. (The pm, Ruby Caudill, in a letter to Delphine Haley, 6/26/1975);
CARCASSONNE (Letcher Co., Ky): "This small settlement with po is on Elk Ck. (or Gent Mt. (sic)), 9 (air) mi w of Whitesb. The po was est. as Gander on 3/27/07 with Harrison Banks, pm, and was named, it is believed, for the many wild geese found there at the time. In the early 1920s a settlement school was opened there by Hendrix D. Caudill. The large cliffs surrounding the sch. are said to have so reminded one young tchr. of the walled city of Carcassonne in s. France that she succeeded in getting it named the Carcassonne Com. Ctr. In 1937 the po was renamed Carcassonne."

COLLY (Letcher Co.): po est. 6/17/1886, Jas. B. Stallard; Disc. 10/24/1887 (papers to Whitesburgh); Re-est. 8/6/88, Ibid. ...(NA); (pron. "K(ah)l/ee") There are 2 Collys in the county. One is Crafts Colly ("Kr(ae)fts K(ah)l/ee") which is 3 mi. n. of W'burg, just off US23 which was named for early settler Archilus Craft. Mostly a truck mining commu. plus Snake Valley Lake, a pop. summer fishing lake...The other Colly is 7 mi. from W'burg, just off Ky. 15 to Hazard. DK how either place got its name. Seems to be a typical Irish name, maybe derived from Colleen or some other girl's name. Each commu. is on a creek of this name. The one on Ky. 15 has always been called just Colly and the other one is Craft's Colly. The former is just a collection of homes, most of whose residents are in mining. Had been some truck mines in the vic. Used to be on the main rd. betw. W'burg & Hazard until the new hiway 15 was built. Growing; new homes and trailers but not a really progressive or active community. Ditto for the other Colly. (Wm. Terry Cornett, interview, 12/24/1977);

Had been a big camp with painted houses in the bottom nr. the tipple and "flimsier shacks" on the hill that had hurriedly been built to "crowd more men into the pits". By 1933, the "windows were boarded..." Over 3000 persons lived there at peak. After the mines shut down most of them left. (Malcolm Ross, MACHINE AGE IN THE HILLS, NY: Macmillan, 1933, Pp. 20-1); DALNA (Letcher Co., Ky): The po took its names from the commu. and the Dalna Coal Co. One of the company's owners was a Whitesburg atty, David Hayes and the mine was named for his oldest daughter who later married Whitesburg banker Herman Hale. The local sch. was then nr the mouth of Johnsons Fk. of Smoot Ck, nr the old Van B. Frazier store. In 1920 another company bought the mine, commu. po, and sch. and everything took the new company's name, maybe that of a female relative of one of the officials. Most of the local stores were in the vic. of the mouth of Johnsons Fk. The commissary was across the ck. from the present G. Bennett Mem'l. Bap. Chu. Two other stores: Van Frazier's and Jas. Combs'. Other stores were at the mouth of Smoot's Ck, etc. The Elsiecoal Mining Co. was disc. in 1930 but the mines reopened 2 yrs later as the Hot Spot Coal Co. owned by John P. Gorman of Hazard and the po and sch. took that name. The comp. and po were renamed Premium in the early 1940s when the company was bought by D.J.E. Johnson of Stone, Ky. and D.E.M. Howard of Harlan, Ky. (Hot Spot School: Recollections of a Ky. Mt. Sch., 1920-1964, Letcher Co. Hist. Soc. 1998, passim);

DEFEATED CREEK (Letcher Co.): "On Line Ford Creek, almost at the Harlan Co. line. It was named by my gt. gt. gt. grandfather in the 1790s. Wm. Cornett and Geo. Gideon Ison came over here from Va. on an exploratory mission to see whether this area would be worthy of moving into. And so they were hunting to try to pay their trip over here and they were keeping pelts to take back to Va. to sell. And they, one night, were all camped there on that little creek and some Indians attacked them and stole all their pelts and shot at them and all this sort of thing. They didn't get any of their pelts back on their horses. And so, in 1804, when they came back and decided to settle--both the Ison family and the Cornett family--supposedly Wm. Cornett was going by this creek and he made some comments 'Ah, that's where we were defeated; that's the old Defeated Creek.' And from that day on, it's been called that." Never a po there. Bird Ison ran a gen'l. store at the mouth of the creek. (Terry Cornett, 12/24/1977).

DEMOCRAT (Letcher Co.): (F452w) "It would seem that Democrat, Ky. was so named because Ky. as a whole is traditionally Democrat. The fact is, however, that at the turn of the century, when first established, this small community was a Republican stronghold with one lone staunch Democrat among them. Thus, when the time came to choose a name for their p.o., the residents voted for 'Democrat' as a joke, more or less. Today, the Democrats are a little more numerous, but the Republicans still hold the majority." (Dorothy Mahan, Williamsburg, Ky. in THE AMERICAN MAG. 2/1948, P. 132. Vol. CXLV, No.2);
DEMOCRAT (Letcher Co.): "When the po was est., no Democratic voters in the precinct so name was applied." (Hardy, thesis, 1949, P. 83);

"D(ah)n/oh/lə") on Big Cowan Creek, 7-8 mi. fro Whitesb. Not sure how it got its name. Heard that it was named for some prominent woman in the commu., probably a Blair. The Blairs, Maggards, & Bankses were among the very early families there. It's very near the mouth of Little Cowan. ("K(ow)/ən"\(\text{\textregistered}\)=1\(\text{\frac{1}{2}}\) syl. or even "K(ow)n"). In 1808, 2 brothers, Thomas and (dk his given name) Cowan came to this area and patented a strip of land on Cowan Creek and gave their name to the creek. But the 1st settlers on the creek were Blairs, Robinson Blair & others. But they retained the Cowan name even tho' the Cowans never came back to reclaim their lane. Big Cowan Creek=c10 mi. long and Little Cowan Creek=c.4 mi. long. PO is Dongola. The 1st pm might simply have thought the name "poetic" and adopted it. Truck mining. Many area residents work at the big area mines like Scotia. Cowan Ele. Sch. with some experimental ed. projects. (Wm. Terry Cornett, interview, 12/24/1977);

FLEMING (Letcher Co.): The merged city of Fleming-Neon was reclassified as a 5th class city by H.B. 539, passed by Ky. G.A. 3/1978, Bill sponsored by Rep. Bill Weinberg. (FCT, 3/8/1978, Sec. 2, P. 6:3); RR serv. started 1913. On Wrights Fk. of N. Fk. of Ky. R. Named for Geo. W. Fleming, son of ex-gov. A.B Fleming of W. Va., the 1st pres. of the Elkhorn Coal Corp. Town built by the co. 1913-14 for its employees. Pop=c.1250 by c1949; by then the homes were owned by their miner-occupants; acquired by them (by sale) in 1946 ...(FIRST TRIP: Lex. to Fleming of the Highwa PO, 9/1/1949, P. 17);
FLEMING (Letcher Co.): Coal co. town. In the 1920s, a clean town with paved streets, electricity, church, theater, h.s., p.o., hosp., fire dept. On the Elkhorn Div. of the L&N RR. 6 mi. from Va. line. Considered "the most prosperous mining town in the section, Fleming is noted as the cleanest, and boasts a civic pride hardly equalled in rival towns." Before est., it was "practically wilderness (with) an occasional log cabin." Founded by G.W. Fleming, Pres. of the Elkhorn Coal Co. and named in his honor.

V Serves as div. hqtrs. for 7 mines producing c. 1 mil. tons of coal annually (5000 tons a day). pop(7/1922)=150. By 8/1923, pop=3000. (LOUISV. HERALD, 8/19/1923);

Named for another official of the Elkhorn Coal Corp., one of their gen'l. mgr. Started 1913 and finished 1914 & largely built by for. born labor. The L&N RR completed its extension up to the No. Fk. of the Ky. R. at McRoberts on 11/28/1912. Fleming is on the Wright Fk. of Yonces Fk. of the No. Fk. of the Ky. R. The land was supposedly owned at one tim by Bad John Wright and thus named for him. The Fleming site was also owned (at-one-time) by one of Whitesburg's great entrepreneurs, J.H. Frazier. He sold much of it to the Elkhorn Coal Corp. Some of the land had also been owned by John C.C. Mayo interests. When lst opened, it was one of the really active coal camps. High quality of life tho' not as fancy or cosmopolitan as Jenkins. Most of the coal seams played out by the late 1940s and the company sold many of its bldgs. Some like the old Commisary, were recently torn down & replaced. A racially mixed commu. with a no. of black families; people seemed to get along pretty well... (Wm. Terry Cornett, interview, 12/24/1977);

HAYMOND (Letcher Co.): settlement on Potters Fork, 2 mi. e. of Neon; (pron. "Hā/m(uh)nənd") (Wm. Terry Cornett, interview, 12/24/1977); PO there was called Cromona (Pron. "Krə/moh/nə") Most co. residents d.k. it by this name but refer to it by the name it was given c.1911 when the coal camp was built, Haymond ("Hā/mənd"). The Elkhorn Coal Co. started building Haymond in 1916 and finished it some 2 yrs. later. It was visited many times by reporters as a typical App. coal mining commu. In 1968 Robt. Kennedy visited....Named for Thos. S. Haymond, one of the gen'l. managers & later veep and maybe pres. of Elkhorn Coal Corp. Was confirmed by Candill Nerc, p. 105.
a very dashing figure. He was instrumental in the dev. of Fleming 2 yrs. earlier (qv). He stayed in the co. for a no. of yrs. He was the model for Hammond in Frank Harvey's book "Nightmare County". Dk whatever happened to him. When the coal co. was sold, c1950 (check date), they decided that since it was no longer a corp. setup, it should be renamed and it was called Cromona and Terry has never been able to find out why. But most people, even younger ones, say they live in Haymond. Still a mining commu. A lot of the older homes have been torn down in the last few yrs. and replaced by newer homes. Was a pretty big camp at one time, going up several hollows. It's on Potters Fork Creek and the Letcher Co. Community Press is printed there, another big employer. (Wm. Jerry Cornett, interview, 12/24/7.)

HAYMOND (Letcher Co., Ky): "This coal town with poor extends for nearly 2 mi along Potters Fk. of Boone Fk. of the N. Fk. of the Ky. R. and up its several branching hollows, from a pt. about a mi e of Neon Jct. to the mouth of Ramey Fk., about 8 (air) mi ne of Whitesb. Tho' the town is officially identified by its po name Cromonq, the Haymond name is preferred locally, and has been associated with the place since it was 1st applied to the coal camp begu there about 1916 by the Elkhorn Coal Corp. It was named for Thos. S. Haymond, a gen. mgr. and later vice pres. of the company, who had been instrumental in the development of nearby Fleming 2 yrs. before. The po was est. as Cromona on Dec. 14, 1916 with Samuel N. Hall, pm, for reasons unknown. Curiously, another po called Cremona was in op. from 1902 to 1906 somewhere in the vic. of Roxana, to which its papers were transferred when the Cremona po closed."

(Book-P. 134); Haymond is now known as Cromona. (KY EXPL. Vol. 12 (9), 3/1996, P. 33); Had a pop. of 75 in 1930;
HEMPHILL (Letcher Co., Ky): "This coal town with pol min of Neon and 8½ (air) min ne of Whitesb., lies at the mouth of Quillen Fk. of Yonts Fk. Though officially known as Jackhorn since the po was est. with this name on Nov. 17, 1916, it is now locally called Hemphill. It is not known why it was first called Jackhorn or why the po continues to bear this name. The Hemphill name was applied to the camp built by the Elkhorn Coal Corp. ca. 1920 and honors Alex'r. Julian Hemphill (1856-1920) of Hemphill and Associates, a Wall St. firm that financed the Elkhorn operations." (Book-P. 137);

HEMPHILL (Letcher Co., Ky.) Named for Hemphill & Associates, a Wall St. firm which financed the Elkhorn Coal Corp. (Harry Caudill, 7/26/1971); Named for Mr. Hemphill, NY banker and "controller of coal lands in the area." (Hardy, thesis, 1949, P. 74); Three mi. up the road from Neon. Also built by the Elkhorn Coal Corp. Completed by c.1920. "Named for the fact that supposedly when the camp was being built, they found a lot of wild hemp growing and even now, acc. to people who know such things, one of the places where it's easiest to get marihuana in Letcher Co. is still Hemphill which seems to be very fitting, I guess." Still called Hemphill though the town has officially been Jackhorn for the past 30 years. ("H(eh)mp/h(ih)l or H(eh)mp/h(ih)l" and "Dj(ae)k/h(aw)rn") The hiway "goes practically in the doorstep of everyone who lives there except there are a couple of little hollers that go off to the side. It's a very typical worked-out community; not much is going on." Had a school and a company store torn down. Very little going on now. DK how got the name Jackhorn. No one by that name there. Never heard anyone say... These are the same place. DK why n.ch. Probably when "the coal companies were selling a lot of their communities out to pvt. individuals, there was just a kind of sense that 'well, this is our place, let's rename it,' you know, kind of ownership pride, I guess, that caused a lot of these places to be renamed even tho' they (the new names) never were used after they were renamed. Oh, people know where Jackhorn is and they can tell you but you automatically set yourself up as an outsider if you ask where Jackhorn is because everybody in this county calls it Hemphill still. Later Terry admitted he'd heard of the possibility of Hemphill being named for a coal co. official but never had verification of it. This makes more sense since hemp was not a common plant around here. Besides it's not really on a hill either. So he discounts his first acct. (Wm. Terry Cornett, interview, 12/24/1977);

HOT SPOT (Letcher Co., Ky): "This resi. settlement with po, a former coal camp, is on Ky 160, about ½ mi up Smoot Ck. from the N. Fk. of the Ky. R, and 4 (air) mi w of Whitesb. At or nr. the site of a com. that may have been aptly called simply The Mouth of Smoot Creek, with a po called Smoot Creek in opera­tion from 1890 to 1914, a Tenn. man arrived to dev. a local coal seam. Acc. to trad., he named his camp Dalna for his girl friend Dalna Hayes. Here the Dalna po was est. on 7/1/1918 with Wm. B. Price, pm. When his ardor for Dalna had cooled and a new flame named Elsie had come to replace her in his affections, the young developer renamed his company, camp, and, in 1923, the po Elsiecoal. Shortly after this camp closed, John A. Webb and David Hayes's Hot Spot Coal Co. began operations about \( \frac{1}{2} \) mi up Smoot Ck. In 1932 the po moved to the new camp site and was renamed Hot Spot. Ten yrs. later it became Premium, tho' the Hot Spot name survives in local usage for the com. Why the Smoot Creek and Premium names were applied remains a mystery." (Book-P. 145);
HOTSPOT (Letcher Co.): Elsiecoal, Dalna, Hotspot, & Premium is the succession of names for the same place. Now, the camp is gone exc. for 2 or 3 houses. (Harry M. Caudill, letter to me, 1/13/1981);

HOT SPOT or PREMIUM (Letcher Co.): 1st called the Mouth of Smoot Creek, one of the older settlements of the co. c. 1915 a Va. or Tenn man (dk his name) came in here and decided to build a coal camp and he was dating a woman at that time whose name was Dalna Hayes. (He) decided that he would name the coal camp after the woman he liked and so it came to be called Dalna, Ky. Well, this love didn't last too long and he decided to rename it for the woman he liked at that time and her name was Elsie and so the place became known as Elsie Coal Co. Well, after that, things were booming.
there so well that the name began to be changed again, from Elsiecoal to Hot Spot and I dk if he sold out or what.... Later, when the coal camp was sold and people bought their homes, the name was changed to Premium, the po name..... At first the coal company didn't have a specific name which was typical then of the smaller financed co's. Only the commu. was known as Dalna. But later the company was called the Elsie Coal Co. after the girl. DK her last name... Tho' the po is still Premium, most local people still refer to the place as Hot Spot...." Never able to find in court records any mention of an Ice Coal Co. Doesn't think a company of that name ever existed. Whatever company was there evidently locally financed. Terry's theory: "Since the No. Fork of the Ky. R. takes a big bend just below Ice and knowing the stories I've heard about how the water used to freeze in the winter time, particularly during that terribly severe winter of 1917-18, I have a feeling it was named for that...I've heard that in that part of the river that the water froze in Nov. and wasn't broken up until March and that was kind of a rarity...And that was about the time the camp was being built. And it was a very small camp, one of the smallest in the county, just right on the rr. I don't even think they had a road to it as such." (Wm. Terry Cornett, interview, 12/24/1977); Jenk. has had the reput. throughout the region "as being one of the cleanest, most progressive coal towns anywhere. It kept that reputation until recently, partly, I think, because recently a lot of people have moved away or died and the town is much smaller. In its hayday, in the (twenties) thirties, I guess, it boasted about 3500 people...only one was bigger in this area and that was Lynch at that time. (sic) But now it's a rather quiet place.

and most of the people there work for Beth Elkhorn or some other Union mine nearby. The Union feeling is very strong there. They have a very active local. And recently a number of other businesses have come in to supplant just that one industry. But for a coal town, it's still, I think, a very pretty town. It has an interesting place called "Lakeside" where most of the bosses have lived from the time the camp was built..." Town had 4 times the pop. of Whitesb. in 1930; Consolidation Coal Co. was org. 1864. Area land was acquired by them ca. 1910, Much of it was owned by John Wright and his family. Town dev'd. by co. 1911-12 and named for Balti. banker Geo. C. Jenkins, one of the company's key investors. Co. built Sandy Val. & Elkhorn RR from Elkhorn City to this area. Over 2000 residents by 1915 Mines here opened 1912. Coal trademarked as Cavalier Coal. Progressive, enlightened, and model coal town. Creek dammed, creating a 15 acre lake and park. The area's small native work force led to importation of workers (and their families) from other areas, incl. foreign countries. Town grew, reaching 4700 by 1920 and over 8400 in 1930. Dunham, Burdine, etc. were est. as separate commu's. and only later became a part of Jenkins' incorporated area. Area was victim of depression and WWII with decreased demand for coal and mechanized prod'n. reducing the need for miners. Better roads and autos. reduced the need for towns in the vic. of mines. Company homes were sold to occupant and co. got out of the service business. Jenkins as a town and the neighboring commu's. were sold by Consol. in 1946. Many families moved away, finding jobs in n. states. Local job opps. dwindled. Pop. down to 3200 in 1960. (Mostly from Scalf & Beachley);

KINGDOM COME CREEK (Letcher Co., Ky): The creek was surveyed by the bros. Geo. & John Ison who had rec'd. land grants for a 7 mi tract. Geo. settled the lower and John the upper. Frazier Fork was patented by and named for Solomon Frazier. Frazier Fk. is now aka Grant Ison Hol. for the man who acquired most of it later. U K.C. is now Hurricane Branch of K.C.C. It was settled by John Ison and heired by his family. Cites Bowles' acct. of its name. Marie Day strongly disagreed and attributed the name to "The Lord's Prayer" by highly religious settlers. In her research she never found any Kings in that val. till the 20th cent. The Isons and Frazier were the 1st settlers. Other families married into these pioneer families or bought land from them. 19th cent. residents also incl: Banks, Caudills, and Brashears. Early 20th cent. families incl: Boggs, Roarks, Browns, and Fields. (Thelma Garrett in Sprague. See Oscaloosa notes...);
KINGDOM-COME-CREEK (Letcher Co.): A Kings Creek ("K(ih)ηz Kreek") was named for the man who allegedly gave his name to Kingdom Come Creek. "Instead of being named for the Bible and the religious sense of Kingdom Come, Kingdom Come Creek, in one story I've heard was named because later settlers on the creek said, 'Who came here first? Who settled here first?' And they'd say, 'Oh, King done come.'" ("K(ih)η/dəm K(uh)m Kreek") (Terry Cornett, 12/24/77); po of Kings Creek est. 1/8/1877, David D. Fields ...(NA); KINGDOM COME CREEK (Letcher Co., Ky): Name may have been derived from the Lord's Prayer. (Marie Frazier Day); The creek may have been named for the man who allegedly gave his name to Kings Ck. Instead of a Biblical basis & the religious sense of "Kingdom Come", this creek in one story I've heard, was named because later settlers on the creek said 'who come here first?, Who settled here first?' And they'd say 'Oh, King done come.'" (Terry Cornett, 12/24/77); The ck is 3 mi long and joins N. Fk. 8 mi below Whitesb. Oscaloosa is a short distance from its mouth. 1st settled by Fraziers, Isom, Joneses, and Kings. "The creek's unusual name is generally believed to have been taken from the words of the Lord's Prayer by an early religious-minded settler. (It) may also be a corruption of 'King Done Come', the response given in pre C.W. days to the question of later settlers: 'who come here first?'" (Wm. Terrell Cornett, KY ENCY. 1992, P. 519) Kingdom Come Creek, Letcher County, Ky.

"It is said that in the beginning of the settlement of Letcher County a man by the name of King was the first to settle on Kingdom Come Creek. Subsequently other families came and on one occasion when the first settlers were discussing what to name the creek, one of the group related that when he moved into the community, King-done-come to it. Another said, 'There you have it. Kingdom Come.' So that's how the creek got its name." (HISTOR OF LETCHER COUNTY, KENTUCKY: Its Political and Economic Growth and Development, by I.A. [name redacted]).
Bowles of Hazard, c1949, P. 72. (UK Libr=976.92/B681).
KINGDOM COME (Letcher Co.): "On what is now Kingdom Come Creek a man by the name of King chose to settle. This creek derives its name, it has been said, from the fact that when later settlers into the area asked who had come first the reply was 'King done come.' Evidently the name stuck and was later somewhat altered into 'Kingdom Come.' The creek could have just as easily though gained its name through the use of 'Kingdom Come' as a characteristic mountaineer expression. Kings Creek also rec'd. its name from this same settler." (Wm. T. Cornett, LETCHER CO., KY.: A Brief Hist., Prestonsburg: State-Wide Printing Co., 1967, Pp. 13-4);
KINGDOM COME and OSCALOOSA (Letcher Co.): The name of the creek and the commu. is Kingdom Come while the po is called Oscaloosa. The po was est. 7/27/1900 and Harvey Ison was the 1st pm. (Marie F. Day of Whitesburg, Ky. in letters to BGN, Wash., 12/14/68 and 12/26/68); Oscaloosa may be related to the Oskaloosa town name in Ill., Iowa, & Kansas. Acc. to Gannett, Oskaloosa was the wife of Mahaska of the Iowas. Other experts assume that she was the wife of Osceola, the chief of the Seminoles... Or the name may be a corruption of the Creek Okaloosa meaning black water. Or, acc. to Vogel, from ishki (mother) and Lusa (black): thus black mother for a wife of Osceola, Che-cho-ter (Morning Dove) is said to have had black blood and was enslaved for this reason.

KPR (Letcher Co., Ky.) Named either by the L. & N. RR or a member of the Potter family who owned a lot of land in that area. Before the rr came thru, W.H. Potter petitioned for a p.o. at the mouth of Boone Fork of the N. Fork of the Ky. R. He was appointed p.m. and was given the privilege of naming the new office. "Mr. Potter's children happened to be studying Latin at the time and they suggested Mater, meaning 'mother.' The post office was so known until about 1921 or 1922. Earlier, Mr. Potter had deeded to the Railroad about one mile of right of way, on the condition that a station be established near his home.
However, the Railroad (didn't care for) Mater for some reason.. (it may have too closely resembled nearby 'Mayling' in the writing of train orders) and so 'Lula', honoring one of Mr. Potter's daughters (now Mrs. Jesse Holbrooks, of Millstone, Ky.) was proposed instead. The railroad station was so known for some six or eight months; then someone discovered that there was already a town by that name in Kentucky." (then)...the station was named Kona, and later the p.o. was given that name too. (Acc. to S.A. Mory, Sr. of the Elk-horn Coal & Co.) d.k. why Kona. Possible that it might have derived from "Kona mi" a Norweg. expression meaning "old lady of mine" but no evidence of connection.
Acc. to Charles Hewett, general auditor of the Clinchfield RR Co. of Erwin, Tenn., Kona may have been named for the station of Kona on his railroad line in No. Car. The Caroline station was a compo name, for the symbols for potassium and sodium, K and NA, respectively, the chief component of feldspar, a local product. (Ibid., 7/1950, P. 23:1).

When US23 went thru Jenkins it bypassed Kona. The site of the "so-called Boone Settlement on Boone Fk. of the No. Fk. of the Ky. R. where he's supposed to have camped during 1780 visit to his relatives here. Right there at Kona is the Martha Jane Potter Conley (ch. sp.) Sch. and on that property was where the old Dan'l. Boone inscription is supposed to be found." (sic). The Kona name was applied probably just after the camp was built, c. 1920. The po is now in the McCaully (ch. sp.) Gen. Store, not a part of the coal camp. (Terry Cornett, 12/2/1977);
KONA (Letcher Co., Ky): Acc. to Martha A. Potter, 6/13, the proposed name for this new po was Kona H---? and it would be ca. 50 yds from the Kona Sta. on the L&E RR, 50 yds w of Ky R, on Boones Fk, 2 mi ne of Craftsv. po, 4 mi s of Chip po, 5 mi w of Bilvia po. It was called Mater// In Apr. 1919, Wm. H. "The name Kona was suggested either by the L&N RR Co. or some of the mining interests. The origin of the name is not definite but acc. to some of the info. furnished, in the Norwegian language, 'Kona Mi' is a slang ex­pression meaning 'That old lady of mine.'..." (FIRST TRIP: Lex. to Fleming of the Highway 9/1/1949, P. 16); The govt. named Mater. (N.M. Webb in his Steel letter, 4/22/22);
KONA (Letcher Co., Ky): "This deteriorating coal town with poor lies at the mouth of Boone Fk. of the N. Fk. of the Ky. R, 4½ (air) mi ne of Whitesb. Acc. to S.A. Mory, Sr. of the Elkhorn Coal Corp. at Kona, the name was applied by either the L&N RR or a member of the Potter family, owners of much of the local land. On 5/24/1913, W.H. Potter est. a po at the mouth of Boone and name it Mater, as suggested by his children who were studying Latin at the time. Martha Jane Potter was its 1st pm. By the Mater name it continued to be known until 11/1/25 when Wm. H. Potter, then pm, had it changed to Kona. Sometime after 1913 Potter agreed to deed the right-of-way to the L&N if their station would be built nr. his home. The Mater name was rejected by the rr and Lula, for one of Potter's daughters, was suggested instead. This name lasted only until some one learned of another Lula in Russell Co., when the station was renamed Kona. The name may have been derived, for some unknown reason, from the Norwegian expression 'kona mi', meaning 'that old lady of mine.' Yet Chas. Hewitt, an officer of the Clinchfield RR Co. of Erwin, Ten, some 30 yrs ago, felt that Kona could have been named for a sta. on his rr in NC, whose name may have been an acronym of the symbols for potassium and sodium (K) and (Na), the major components of feldspar, a local product." (Book-Pp. 162-63);

Day after day the conductor would say to the passengers, 'Put your knee on and get up.' And that is how Neon got its name."

Neon was founded in 1913 as a trading ctr. for the just established towns of Fleming, Hemphill, and McRoberts. It was 1st served by a po called Chip, ½ mi n of the forks of Boone Ck, which began 12/11/1902 with Ibby V. Holbrook, pm, and was disc. in Apr. 1915 when its papers were transferred to Fleming. The name Chip may have some connection with early timbering in the area; why it was not retained is uncertain but it may just be that the name lacked the degree of sophistication desired for an aspiring econ. ctr. But the reason for the Neon name is the most problematic of all. It has been suggested that the name was first applied to the local rr stop, reflecting an old black conductor's command to passengers boarding the train on what at that time may have been an old tree stump to 'put your knee on and get up; knee on....' Acc. to trad., this became known as the 'knee-on' place. A more plausible explanation is that some early merchant bought a neon sign for his business, a rarity in those days. The town was inc. in 1917 and the active Neon pc was est. on 5/5/1926 with Willie M. Quillen, pm." (Book-P. 211);

On Kingdom Come Creek. He's asked a no. of local persons how it got its name and they're not really sure. Some say it was named for the town in Iowa. Had to find another name for the po. Couldn't call it Kingdom Come since it would confuse it with the Kingdom Come Settlement over on Line Fork Creek. DK why they decided to call it Oscaloosa. The community is dying. The only one rm. sch. left in the co. will probably be closed at the end of this yr. Many residents have moved away. Stripping has taken their land. It's too far from town. They have to drive in the creek bed, part of the way. Road is really bad. Residents still refer to their home as "over on Kingdom Come." Oscauloosa name was just applied to the post when it was established. (Wm. Terry Cornett, interview, 12/24/1977);

Whitaker, 10/21/1881, this proposed po would be on the Ky R and Elkhorn Ck (the rest of the info. on the film is too light. (SLR); Acc. to 1883/4 Gaz, this was an unimport. po; It was named for the nearby gap which was 1st called POUND Gap. The Shawnees are said to have called the area "the country about the hollow mt." referring to the hol. sound horses' hooves made going thru the gap. This was probably derived from the underground caves in the mt. "Sound" may also have been derived from what sounded like a blow on a basedrum when someone would strike the bedrock with an iron implement. Pound Gap replaced Sound(ing) Gap after the name Pound was given to one of the Big Sandy's head forks in Va. This name was given by early visitors for the horse pounds or enclosures along this stream. (Connelley & Coulter's Hist. of Kentucky, P. 128, adapted by Ladd for WPA ca. late 1930s.) The gap is on the state line. "Sounding Gap" was so identified on the 1st road survey of that region (acc. to Bowles' Letcher Co. hist.) "Sounding Gap" was also in use during the C.W. Another explanation for the Pound name is an early pestle and mortar corn mill, horse-powered. (Sandy Val. Heritage, Vol.
3 (9), Autumn 1985 as "Pound Gap in Legend and Hist.' Pound was named for Pound Gap which borders Ky & Va. Several accts. of the name: Acc. to one, it was originally called The Sounding Gap and this was given on old maps. "The story is that the Indians would ride their ponies across it and it would sound very hollow and they would call it the Sounding Gap. And the early settlers would pick that name up. Another story has it that there was a pound, a big grist mill of a thing that the very early white settlers used down there at the base of the mt., about where the Almira turnoff is now, on the Va.
side, and so it was called The Pound. And another... when the whites and Indians would ride their horses across there it would pound and it (was) called Pound Gap because of that...." (Terry Cornett, 12/24/1977); Pound Gap is said to have been discovered in 1751 by Christopher Gist and eventually became the main pt. of entry for early Ky settlement. Overlooks the city of Jenkins; The gap's elev. is 2,380 ft; PREMIUM (Letcher Co.): (Pron. "Pree/mee(uh)m" =2½ syl) is the present name of a site that ch. its name several times. It was 1st called The Mouth of Smoot Creek ("Smūt") but dk why that was so named. Not common family name in the co. This was one of the older settlements in the co. c.1915, a Virginia or Tenn. man "came in here and decided to build a coal camp and he was dating a woman at that time whose name was Dalna..Hayes ("D(ae)ln/ə")....(He) decided that he would name the coal camp after the woman he liked and so it came to be called Dalna, Ky. Well, this love didn't last too long and he decided to rename it for the woman he liked at that time and he renamed it Elsie.
And so the place became known as Elsiecoal ("(Eh)l/see/K(oh)l") because of the Elsie Coal Co. Well, after that, things were booming there so well that the name began to be changed again, from Elsiecoal to Hot Spot. (sic) ("H(ah)t Sp(ah)t") and I d.k. if he sold out or what... I d.k. for certain if the coal co. was ever called Hot Spot Coal Co.... A train wreck there in c.1925 with several fatalities. And the 1927 flood did considerable damage to the camp. Later, when the coal camp was sold and people bought their own homes, the name was ch. to Premium, the po name but dk why. For years, the po was in the... old commissary bldg. and that was moved, and last yr. the commissary was torn down. The is now in a small privately owned gen. store. At first the coal co. didn't have a specific name, which was typical then of the smaller financed companies. Only the commu. was known as Dalna. But later the co. was called the Elsie Coal Co. after the girl. DK her last name or that of the man who started the co. Though the po is still Premium, most local persons still refer to the place as Hot Spot. Only a few refer to it by its now official name of Premium. (Wm. Terry Cornett interview, 12/24/1977).

R., they found a no. of trees marked Thornton Crawford and the date was 1772-74.... Many times, instead of saying Thornton Crawford, the tree would say 'T. Crawford' and the date (sic) and this is... probably right. The name Thornton has not been a common surname here and it seems to be more likely to be a xian name of some sort." A no. of small coal camps quoting from Terry.
were built there, mostly by the Slemp family from Tenn. In the 1920s, it was called Sergent ("Ser/djænt"). In a no. of small hollers from here, small mines were opened and camps established. In a short while, the commu. came to be known as Thornton and the coal co. may later have assumed this name (but I'll need to check on this)... Still a mining commu. tho' most of the coal camps has been dismantled. Many people who had left are returning and it's not losing its younger people as much. (Terry Cornett, 12/24/1977); (q.v. UZ (Letcher Co., Ky): "This one-time L&N RR sta. and depo were on the N. Fk. of the Ky. R, 2 (air) mi w of Whitesb. This was the scene of the early frustrations of W.S. Morton, Jr., the resi. eng. responsible for laying the E. Ky. Div. tracks thru L. Co. in 1911-2. From the very beginning, wrote Mr. Morton some yrs. later, 'the rr encountered tough sledding at and around what is now Uz. Property owners forbid surveying parties to cross their land; then the right-of-way could not be bought at a reasonable price; ground for a depot was hard to obtain; the contractor was always behind in his work; bootleggers kept the construction camp in an uproar; and the contractor and
and the resi. eng. were always squabbling.' Finally, one day, after J.E. Willoughby, the L&N's supervisory engineer, 'had listened to a recap of Mr. Morton's troubles,' he suggested the analogy to the biblical Job's difficulties in the land of Uz. Morton asked 'if he could honor Job's homeland and name the sta. Uz. This was done and it has been Uz 'ever since, tho' always locally pron. 'yuzee'. The local po was est. as Field on 3/2/1906 on the N. Fk. of the Ky. R, just above the mouth of Dry Fk. In 1914 the po was renamed Uz when it was moved down the river to the sta. site.' (Book-P. 302);

Uz (Letcher Co., Ky.:) Station on the Eastern Kentucky Div. of the L. & N. RR. Derived from the Bible, being the Land of Uz where Job lived. Founded by W.S. Horton, retired locating engineer, living, c1949, at Spring Hill, Tenn. and J.E. Willoughby, "one-time chief engineer for construction" of the L. & N. RR. Says Morton, the name commemorated the fact that the troubles the RR had when it was being built were similar to those Job had. Morton was (then xxxxx) a div. engineer of construction during the construction of the No. Fork Ext. in 1911-12. "From the very beginning, writes Mr. Morton, the Railroad encountered tough sledding' at and around what is now Uz. Property owners forbid surveying parties to cross their land; then the right of way could not be bought at a reasonable price; ground for a depot was hard to obtain; the contractor was always behind with his work; bootleggers kept the construction camp in an uproar; and the contractor and the resident engineer were always squabbling. Finally, one day, after Mr. Willoughby had listened to a 'recap' of Mr. Morton's troubles, he said: 'Morton, did you ever hear of a man named Job?' Mr. Morton replied that he had and that he doubted that Job had half the trouble he had, but that he was willing to give him the benefit of the doubt. However, he would (laughs) like to name the station in honor of Job's homeland and thus, according to Mr. Horton, "Uz wur." Pronounced U-zee by some people. (R.R. South, "Our Station Names—Their Family Trees" in L. & N. EMPLOYES' MAGAZINE, 10/1949, P. 14-5)

VILAS (Letcher Co., Ky): po est. 2/23/1901, Cora L. Venters; 7/19/06, Litewell B. Tolliver; 2/14/08, John H. Polly; Disc. 12/31/1911 (mail to Craftsville) (POR-NA); Acc. to Cora Lee Venters, 1/31/01, the 1st name proposed for this new po was Leland and it would be on Ky R, 1 1/2 mi e of (too light), 4 1/4 mi w of Bilvia po, 3 1/2 mi sw of Wright po, 4+ mi nw of Craftsv. po// move (but too light for all data, incl. date & pm. Probably Tolliver or 3/98 (?)// Acc. to John H. Polly, 8/15/08, it was on s side of Ky R, 3/4 mi s of Boone Ck, 2 1/4 mi from Craftsv. po, 2 1/2 mi w of Tonny po, 4 mi w of co. line. (map) (SLR); VILAS (Letcher Co., Ky): Could it have been named for Wm. F. Vilas, the US Postmaster-General, 1885-88? (check on him....); WHITCO (Letcher Co.): Whitesburg Coal Co.
(N.M. Webb, editor of the Mt. Eagle, Whitesburg, Ky., in a letter to Wm. G. Steel, 4/22/1922); po est. 1/22/1918, Edward L. Williams .... (NA); (Pron. "W(ih)t/k(oh)"). c. 3 mi. fro Whitesburg. Named for a coal co. Maybe the Whitson family. Very small camp. Has heard it described as an Alpine vill. because of the way it slopes down the mt. Most of the old camp houses were torn down some 20 or so yrs. ago. Now almost residential, working class suburb of W'burg. Commu. has changed a lot as result of flooding & a no. of fires over the past few yrs. An effort to incorporate it inti
W'burg....No active mines there tho' most of the residents still make their living in mining. Remains of some of the old diggings can still be seen. (Wm. Terry Cornett interview, 12/24/1977); Acc. to Ed L. Williams 9/17/17, this proposed po would be serving Whitco Sta. and a town of this name given to it by the rr (with a pop. of 60), 300 ft s of N.Fk. (Ky, R), 2 mi w of Whitesb po, 2 mi e of Ice po, 65 ft s of rr. No agent at the st (SLR);
WHITESBURG (Letcher Co.): Est. 1842 as co. seat of Letcher. Named for Lt. Gov. Dougherty White. In the latter 19th cent. W'burg was a lumber milling ctr. 1st pm=Wm. Carole, 2/10/1843.... (FIRST TRIP: Lex. to Fleming of the Highway P0, 9/1/1949, P. 15); Named for Daugherty White of Clay Co., father of John D. White who was the US Congressman. Daugherty intro. bill in Ky. Leg. (MT. EAGLE, 5/28/1931); The W. po will be rebuilt at Ermine in a few yrs replacing the Ermine office. (Susan Adams, 8/800)
WHITEBURG (Letcher Co.): "A story that comes through my family's trad. is that my gt. gt. grandfather, Judge Jos. E. Cornett, who was the 2nd co. judge here, was the man who was given the responsibility to lay the town of W. out (sic) as the co. seat since there was no co. seat town there when W. was 1st named. (sic) And when they got ready to do the surveying work, a big snowstorm came up and the ground was white for days, and the story was, jokingly, my gt. gt. grandfather named it Whitesburg because of that. Now that's just a legend; I've never heard that anywhere confirmed. (Terry Cornett, 12/24/77)
WHITESBURG (Letcher Co.): Named for Daugherty White of Goose Creek who helped get Letcher Co. est. in the Ky. Leg. (Marilyn Cornett, ms. for ALC-OH and me, "P.N. In Letcher Co." sent to me, 10/25/1972); Two communities competed for the co. seat: Whitesburg and Mayking. Stephen Hiram Hogg owned the site of W'burg. His offer of the site was accepted. And he deeded the land for the co. seat...(P. 13) City named for Cong. White who lived on Goose Creek, Clay Co.... (P. 14) (Isaac A. Bowles, HIST. OF LETCHER CO., Hazard, Ky., 1949); Inc. 3/6/76 (Act 1876, Vol. 2, p. 36);
WHITESBURG (Letcher Co., Ky): "This 5th cl. city and seat of Letcher Co. is on Ky 15 and the N. Fk. of the Ky. R....It was founded in 1842 as the seat of the newly co. on land offered for this purpose by Stephen Hiram Hogg. It was named for Daugherty White of Clay Co. who as a st. leg. had succeeded in getting the co. org. that yr. The po was est. as Whitesburgh Court House on 2/10/1843, with Wm. Carole, pm. In 1892 the term. 'h' was dropped. The town was inc. in 1876. A folk acct. of the name, now hardly taken seriously, refers to an early snowstorm that blanketed the site of the future town for days." (Book-P. 316); WHITESBURG (Letcher Co.): PO est. as Whitesburgh C.H. 2/10/1843, Wm. Canole (?)...Disc. 11/8/1865; Re-est. 6/12/66, Stephen G. Reid...n.ch. to Whitesburg, 1/7/1892...5/19/1914, Nehemiah M. Webb...(NA); (pron. "W(eye)ts ↔ W(ah)ts/berg"). Two accts. of naming: (a) Namec for Daugherty White, one of the Clay Co. fami who was in the Ky. Leg. in 1842 when the co. was created. (b) "A story that comes through my family's trad. is that my gt. gt. grandfather, Judge Jos. E. Cornett, who was the 2nd co. judge here, was the man who was given the resp to lay (but) the town of W. out as the co. seat town since there was no co. seat town there.
when W. was (was) 1st named (sic). And when they got ready to do the surveying work, a big snowstorm came up and the ground was white for days, and the story was, jokingly, my gt. gt. grandfather named it Whitesburg because of that. Now that's just a legend. I've never heard that anywhere confirmed."

DK that Daugherty White was a Congressman. He was involved with the White saltmaking family on Goose Creek, Clay Co. Was pop. in Letcher Co. especially after the co. was created since there was some opp. to this in the Leg. then. Stephen Hiram Hogg, an early land owner in central Letcher Co. including most of the W'burg site. To get the seat est here rather than nr. the site of Mayking, he offered the co. his land...DK when he died but he lived in W'burg and had many descendants in co. DK when W'burg was 1st settled; perhaps by the Caudills. Never had another name. Inc. as a town in 1876, 34 yrs. after it was 1st settled. A quiet trading town til the rr' came and then it became trading ctr. for the area coal camps. Due to its physical situation betw. the hills, its "possibility for expansion is slim"--cant grow much. Cosm town and well known mostly due to Harry Caudill. (Interview with Wm. Terry Cornett, 12/24/77);
John White, not John Daugherty White was the source of Whitesburg. (1802-1845, Ky. Hse. of Reps.) (See Kozee, P. 833)...

The vil. of Whitesburg was 1st called Summit City, beginning ca. 1836. Hiram Hogg, landowner, gave 10 acres to locate the seat there. (Arthur Dixon "When Letcher Was Young" in Mt. Eagle ca. 1976, in Letcher Heritage News Vol. 1 (1), 9/1990, Pp. 5-7, 6); No Wm. Canole or Carole in 1850 Census but there were several Wm. Caudles or Caudills in the Whitesb. area. Perhaps its 1st pm was a Caudle;
WHITESBURG (Letcher Co., Ky): APO (2000); had a pop. of 1804 (1930); On Ky 15 and N.Fk. (of Ky.R) Till the building of the coal camps and the arrival of the rr's after 1910, it was the county's only real town. It was named the co's. seat on its inception. Was surv. and laid out in 1843. Named for John Daugherty White o Clay Co. Local story that the town was jokingly named when it was platted on a snowy day in 1842-3. In 1842 the center of the present town was owned by Stephen who donated the site for the co. bldgs. as an "induce-ment" to locate here rather than on nearby Pert Ck. The 1st ct. was held at the latter site. The city was inc. in 1867. By (late 1920s) had become the co's.
major shipping pt. and trading center. One of the region's cultural and media centers with Appalshop and public radio. 5th cl. city. Slow but steady growth after 1970. Pop. (1990)=1636.
