

THE WAR IN CARTER COUNTY.

GRAYSON, KY., Sept. 10.—Reports are received of further trouble in Carter County, Kentucky, the old Underwood battle ground. As 'Squire Holbrook and his son, Miller, were going to a pasture ground they were fired upon by men in ambush and 'Squire Holbrook instantly killed. His son returned the fire, but without effect. Holbrook was the head of the party arrayed against the Underwoods two years ago. This occurred on Friday and on Monday Billy Underwood was shot dead by some of the Holbrook party. Both parties are now armed and organized and say they mean to fight till one party or the other leaves the country. Two brothers of 'Squire Holbrook have returned from the West and are marshaling the forces on that side and Alf. Underwood has returned from the Black Hills to lead his party. Serious trouble is expected, but the scene is in the interior and news is slow in getting to the outside world.
