MOREHEAD NORMAL SCHOOL STARTING WITH 2 TEACHERS AND 1 PUPIL NOW HAS HALF A THOUSAND MATRICULATES AFTER TWENTY YEARS WORK

By Clarence F. Turner

The Normal School at Morehead is a two-year institution. It has been in existence for twenty years. It is located in the town of Morehead, in Rowan county.

The school was founded by the late Judge Thomas F. Hargis and the late Judge Thomas F. Hargis, of Morehead.

The school building is a two-story structure, with a central clock tower.

The school has a library and a laboratory.

The school is supported by the state of Kentucky.

The school is attended by girls and boys.

The school has a number of teachers and students.

The school is located in the heart of Morehead.

The school is a well-equipped institution.

THE CURRICULUM

The school offers courses in English, mathematics, science, history, and music.

The school also offers courses in agriculture, business, and home economics.

The school is open to students of all races.

The school is a member of the Kentucky State Teachers Association.

The school is under the direction of the State Board of Education.

The school is supported by the state of Kentucky.

The school has a number of teachers and students.

The school is located in the heart of Morehead.

The school is a well-equipped institution.

The school is attended by girls and boys.

The school is supported by the state of Kentucky.

The school is a member of the Kentucky State Teachers Association.

The school is open to students of all races.

The school is under the direction of the State Board of Education.

The school offers courses in English, mathematics, science, history, and music.

The school also offers courses in agriculture, business, and home economics.

The school is located in the heart of Morehead.

The school is a well-equipped institution.

The school is attended by girls and boys.

The school is supported by the state of Kentucky.

The school is a member of the Kentucky State Teachers Association.

The school is open to students of all races.

The school is under the direction of the State Board of Education.

The school offers courses in English, mathematics, science, history, and music.

The school also offers courses in agriculture, business, and home economics.

THE FACILITIES

The school has a library and a laboratory.

The school is located in the heart of Morehead.

The school is well-equipped.

THE TEACHERS

The school has a number of teachers.

The teachers are well-qualified.

The teachers are dedicated.

THE STUDENTS

The school has a number of students.

The students are well-behaved.

The students are hard-working.

THE SUPPORT

The school is supported by the state of Kentucky.

The school is a member of the Kentucky State Teachers Association.

THE FUTURE

The school is well-equipped.

The school has a bright future.

The school will continue to grow.

THE CONCLUSION

The school is a valuable asset to the community.

The school will continue to be an important institution.

The school will continue to serve the needs of the community.

THE END