And life and beauty face away.

"It this our little lives decil no;
So pass our few and fleeling years;
While stars of hope deluries skince;
Dim through the misty rais of tears.
But when the weary day are gone,
And sorrow's mourned dream is o'er,
Our ayes alice as a holler daw.
And sobier giery than before.

Because thy brow was fair,
Thy beaming eyes o bright,
Because thy genius rare,
Was such a fond delight.
Shall lore, with weak embrace,
Thy Heavenward flight detain t
Ne! deer one, seek thy place,
Amid you angel train.
