Cooking School Will Be Given May 25-27 By The Independent

Prizes To Be Awarded Housewives Present At Feature

There is always something new under the sun. Entertaining proof of that statement will be presented May 25, 26 and 27 by the Morehead Independent, which is bringing to the Cozy Theatre a feature picture that pioneers in fresh, stimulating entertainment of the oldest and most important subject in the world—Homemaking.

Long ago the cooking school graduated from a curiosity to a popular necessity in many parts of the country. Now it has graduated again, leaping this time to Hollywood stardom.

For this is no routine lecture, but a methodical demonstration which the Morehead Independent will give to the women of the community for three days with a charge, starting Tuesday, May 25.

The Independent takes a genuine pride in being among the first to sponsor "The Bride Wakes Up," a full-length feature picture, directed and filmed in Hollywood, with a competent cast to interpret the appealing story.

Women young and old, and men too, will appreciate the humaneness of this romantic story, in which home problems have been approached from an entirely new angle. Entertaining, profitable instruction, humor and romance are woven deftly into a production which abounds in interesting and profitable instruction.

The Independent has modernized the cooking school by manufacturing its benefits, also none of its hospitable, friendly charm.

In fact, there are close-ups of a marbled chocolate layer cake and lemon chiffon pie that are destined to send the hungry audience bustling home to duplicate the culinary triumph. Free recipe sheets each day will provide added incentive.

Experienced housekeepers will thrill to the adventures of the winsome bride, whose husband begins to boil when a mobile kitchen can't even boil water. But this bride is blessed with resourceful determination, even though the faithful servant in her girlhood home made every effort to spoil her.

What happens after the honeymoon is over? What happens when the bride becomes aware of the world?

Expert Witnesses Testify In Hearing

General Denhardt On Trial For Murder Of Fiancee At New Castle

Dr. F. A. Miller of the University of Louisville told the jury yesterday that New Castle the pistol that killed county Vera Taylor was held more than 18 inches from her body.

The reply from the man classed by the Commonwealth as an expert on the matter after the morning session had been spent in conference over the admissibility of the question as placed.

The Commonwealth, trying portly 61-year-old Brig. Gen. Henry H. Denhardt on a murder indictment charging he shot and had failed previously to get the question answered. Denhardt had expressed belief that his own military Circuit Judge Charles Marshall permitted it in another form, despite the defense's objection.

The typewritten question that took 20 minutes to ask, was read to Dr. Miller.

Pausing and in a slow, deliberate voice he said:

"Judging from the character of the wound and of experience with other cases, in my opinion the gun was more than nine inches from the body and probably more than 18 inches from the center of the body."

Courts To Rule On Income Tax Passed By State Assembly

Decision Is Not Expected Before Deadline For Payments On May 15

SPECIAL COURT TO SIT ON APPELLATE BENCH

Governor Chandler Shows No Inclination To Speed Up Procedure

A final appellate court ruling on the constitutionality of Kentucky's new income tax act before the deadline for making payments, May 15, appeared improbable this week.

The ruling must be given by a special court of appeal and Governor Chandler showed no inclination to speed up appointment of the court upon his return from the deadline for making payments. Lieutenant Governor Keen Johnson, acting as governor in Chandler's absence, declined to appoint a special tribunal while serving as chief executive.

The seven regular members of the court of appeals disqualified themselves from hearing the case when it was presented to them on grounds that a ratification certified the court's action to Acting Governor Johnson on the same day. The appellate court members, however, stated that they had a direct and special interest in the outcome of the case since the production of the question involved in the case was made available to officials in office when the law was enacted.

Circuit Judge William B. Ardery of Paris held that the tax could not be levied on salaries of public officers and employees. He ruled, would be, in effect, to diminish the salaries in contravention of the constitution. His general, Judge Ardery upheld the tax.

Magistrates Order New Voting Place

Brushy Split Up Because Of Road and Geographical Conditions

Inaccessibility of the voting house in Brushy precinct number 18, which was divided last week as the Fiscal Court created a new precinct known as Brushy 19, was the reason.

The order of the court declares that the new precinct is created because of the road and geographical conditions in Brushy precinct 6.

The boundary lines of the new precinct are described in the court order as follows:

Beginning on the west side of where Mel Curtis now lives, and running a southerly course to Big Brushy creek; thence with the meanders of Big Brushy creek to where the North Fork road crosses Big Brushy creek; an easterly course with said North Fork road to the Cranston boundary line; thence with the Cranston boundary line a northerly course to the Old Brushy boundary line; thence with and including all voters in the watershed of the Big Brushy original line, back to the place of beginning.

Rowan County now has 20 precincts, an increase from 17 two years ago. Last year the court created precincts known as Morehead number 18 (county garage) and Morehead number 19 (city hall).

Dave C. Caudill Almost Certain Democratic Candidate For Important Post

I. E. PELFREY SEEKS G. O. P. JUDGE'S SPOT

Forming Of Primary Lines May Get Under Way During Fortnight

Although no definite announcement was made, it was deemed today a virtual certainty that Dave C. Caudill, president of the Peoples Bank of Morehead, would be a candidate on the democratic ticket for County Judge.

That Caudill declared this morning that he would make the race. His announcement, friends said, came after a concentrated effort had been made to get him into the field.

I. E. Pelfrey of Elliottville, present member of the Rowan County Board of Education, announced on the Republican ticket for County Judge. Whether he will have opposition is not known, but so far there are no prospective candidates, following Judge C. E. Jennings statement that he was not a candidate.

Additional Money Coming To County For Road Work

Highway Department Announces That Rowan Will Receive Over $700,000

By virtue of conservative operation in the administration of the Rural Highway Department, each county in Kentucky will have additional funds for rural highway work this year, according to Cecil Williams, Rural Highway Commissioner. Less than one-half of the amount allotted to the department for administration purposes was withdrawn from the budget during the last fiscal year. The $700,000, which was the $1,822,611 appropriated, has been apportioned among the 120 counties in the state, Mr. Williams announced today.

Rowan County's apportionment of the refund adjustment was $115,561.36 set up from the 1937-38 expended fund, with the $1,822,611 unexpended balance from the 1936-37 allotment added to the $1,822,611. The total amount of the 1938 program gives the county a total available allotment of $13,685,033.

When the Rural Highway Department was inaugurated April 1, 1936, after the General Assembly had made available $2,000,000 for use on secondary and feeder roads, ten per cent of the fund or $200,000 was set up for administration purposes, only 4.8 per cent was used. Administration costs included salaries of Central and District office employees, traveling expenses, office equipment, workmen's compensation and incidental items.

When the department's fiscal year ended March 31, the administration division had used but $1,000,000.

Bases Established For Rowan Farmers

The County Committee of Rowan County Agricultural Conservation Association has completed its plans for participating in 1938. This year the county farmers who will or may participate in the 1937 program. These bases have been approved by both the state and national offices and the county office is preparing statements for individual farms of the county. These statements will be mailed to the farmers within the week.

A total of 644 farmers are participating in the 1937 Listing Sheet and these farmers have an opportunity of earning approximately $35,000 by full cooperation with the program this year. Approximately $20,000 was received by 438 Rowan County farmers for their participating in 1936. This sum has been received and distributed with the exception of about $800 which will be paid at once.

Victory Bell To Be Consecrated

The huge bell that for many years tolled at the old Morehead Normal School has sounded its last peal, but the memory of it may bring back to those who heeded its sound will not be buried by time.

The bell will repose in an exalted place on the Morehead campus. It is being donated to the Campus Club by John T. Trumbo of Morehead, who procured it when the old buildings were razed.

Under the supervision of W. H. Rice, superintendent of Buildings and Grounds, the bell has been removed from the old buildings which will be built and the old Normal School bell will be placed in the new building.

A tear will probably fall from the eye of many Morehead alumnus as he views the "Victory Bell" with reminiscences of the "good old days."

Upper Ohio River Basin Menaced By High Flood Water

Kentucky To Feel Little Effect Is Report of Water Bureau Today

An expected continued rise in rivers and streams, already flooded, has led to the prediction that the Alleghenies, alarmed residents of the state.

Ohio—Swelling for 900 miles from Pittsburgh to Cincinnati, a forty-three-foot level predicted at East Liverpool, Ohio, which would halt street car and interurban traffic.

Allegheny and Monongahela Rivers spilled into the fringes of Pittsburgh's "golden triangle" business area while residents of the steel center prepared for a possible major flood.

More than 30 hours of continuous rainfall brought the city, with a population of 700,000, to grips with the worst April high-water threat in its history.

The rivers surged four feet over the 25-foot flood stage tonight and continued to rise slowly toward the crest of their peaks.

Cenonahugh—Schools closed, trolleys stopped, and business at five auto centers feared drowned.

Numerous highways covered with water. Trains rerouted away from washed out tracks. Several villages isolated.

Allegheny and Monongahela—Rising a half a foot an hour and spilling into the Ohio at Pittsburgh, the city is being called upon to put forth every effort during these days in order to dress Morehead up for spring.

The clean-up program is issued around this time each year, and has, in the past proved a successful venture. It is held in conjunction with a national clean-up campaign.

Mayor Blair said that garbage trucks would be provided the last three days of the week May 6, 7 and 8. Garbage will be hauled away free, but it must be placed in a convenient spot for the trucks to pick it up.

In the proclamation Mayor Blair said: "City officials will work with citizens in this worthwhile enterprise, and it is earnestly urged that every resident of Morehead put forth his best effort during this clean-up campaign."

THE BUILDING PROGRAM IN MOREHEAD THIS YEAR

An almost infallible indication of a growing and driving community is the number of houses and business structures that go up each year. Last week the Independent carried a resume of the private building program in the City, disclosing that this spring may mark the time when there will be more residences and store businesses go up than ever before.

One sentence in that story should read well to Morehead people who are interested in the advancement of our city. The sentence reads: "It has been noted that the type of homes that are now being built and those that have been constructed during the last year were of better materials and of higher-type construction than those which marked the mushroom building program of a few years ago."

It is regrettable that during that "few years ago" program small structures, many of them about the size of an average garage were built. In a sense the owners could not be held at fault, for at that time there was little in putting a considerable amount of money into a house since any kind could be rented at a figure far above that of any other eastern Kentucky town.

However, many of these types homes remain. Their usefulness will have gone however, when the city catches up and supplies a better grade house that is at a fair rental figure so as to enable the renter to take a fair profit, but at the same time give the renter a home in comparison to the amount of rent he pays.

SPRINGTIME IS CLEAN-UP TIME

You can see signs of spring fever almost everywhere. Farmers are plowing and sowing their fields. Suburbanites are planting their gardens. Housewives are cleaning and revamping homes. Communities are starting improvement projects.

Winter is apt to be a time of general neglect—partly because of severe weather and partly because of the press of other matters in that busy season. Vacant lots, yards and even streets become unsightly. Now is the time for a thorough spring cleaning, extending through the community. In the interest of health, safety and civic progress.

Such a clean-up campaign is a splendid activity for civic clubs, chambers of commerce, Boy Scouts and similar groups to sponsor. Every town should emulate those communities which, through a spirit of fine cooperation, have succeeded in gaining the name of "Spottestown."

When a movement to paint up, clean-up and beautify sweeps the community, it leaves in its wake a healthier, happier town. From the standpoint of fire safety alone, the movement pays big dividends—as the records show, many a disastrous fire has been caused by rubbish and litter. Drop a cigarette or a cigarette butt into an accumulation of trash and a conflagration may follow—furthermore, piled rubbish is always susceptible to spontaneous ignition.

Carry out the clean-up campaign by carefully burning all trash in incinerators and under close supervision. Every citizen and every business will benefit—socially and economically.

WHAT IS TRAFFIC CONTROL?

A noted traffic authority recently discussed the traffic accident problem in terms of three types of safety. The first is personal safety, the necessity for protecting the limbs and lives of us all.

The second is moral safety, the necessity of building an appreciation of values of proper regulation. Motor vehicle traffic inevitably involves the law and law observance.

Disregard for the laws of the road, even the minor ones, breeds contempt and disregard for more serious rules of society, especially among the young, for in the early stages disrespect for law masquerades as adventure.

The third is the need for protecting the economic benefits which accrue from the widespread use of the automobile. Traffic accidents not only cost millions of dollars directly through lost earning power, lost time, hospital expenses and repair bills—but also push down property and rental values, slow up business turnover, reduce the value of investment portfolios, lower and limit value of insurance.

Our understanding of the traffic problem might be better served, if in thinking about it we substitute for the relatively narrow term "traffic safety" the broader term "traffic control." Traffic control is the application of certain logical principles to motor vehicular movement which will at once ease congestion and reduce hazard.

An important step in the direction of effective traffic control is the publication of the handbook, "Creating Safer Communities." Published by state motor vehicle and safety authorities in 24 states in cooperation with the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters, the handbook tells how to set up a community traffic safety organization and presents a series of procedures for reducing accidents by removing their causes. It describes how essential accident information is secured. It gives instructions for developing enforcement, engineering and educational programs in line with advanced tested methods of making traffic safer and less congested.

In just this kind of coordinated community approach to traffic problems can we hope to achieve mastery of a grave menace to the nation's personal, moral and financial safety.

SOME INSURANCE LOSSES

(Note: This article was written for the editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal for publication in a reader's column titled "The Point of View."—Editor)

I'm a young physician and I suppose I've filled out over 100 of the so-called "Sickness and Accident Policies" for colored people mainly, in the last four years, and to date, I've never been made aware of one being paid.

First let me explain: The agent of one of these companies calls upon a prospective purchaser and merely explains along the lines of the following: "We will pay you $12 a week for illness or accident."

Of course, the individual never reads the policy, for it is generally someone he or she knows that's selling it. The cost is represented as only 10 cents a week. As a general rule the policy is sold with the above understanding. Evidently, the above is all there is to the matter, for, as I stated, I've filled out a large number of these policies and I've my first one to know of being paid.

When I am called in to see one of these policyholders he or she usually states that, "When this policy I want you to fill out is paid I will pay my bill for your services." I immediately try to tell them how little chance they have of collecting. However, they always come back with, "No, Doctor, the man who sold it to be told me I would get $12 a week while sick." Poor, deluded fools!

Mr. Editor just you read one of these policies. It's the most dastardly holdup ever perpetrated upon anyone and these companies are making thousands of dollars a week from our poorest citizens. The usual procedure is as follows:

In the first place, the policy is necessarily limited to a small amount. Now let us assume a colored woman in good health has purchased and paid for one of these policies for a matter of three years. Suddenly she gets sick and calls in a physician, and the doctor makes a diagnosis of acute pyelitis, which means inflammation of the pelvis of the kidney. The patient asks the doctor to fill out her policy, which he does, and she turns it in, expecting $12 a week income while ill. The representative of the company investigating the case, the first time the woman is made aware of the contents of the policy. The agent informs her that she isn't entitled to a payment under the terms of the contract. However, he will turn her premiums which she has paid for the last three years if she will sign a release.

She should decide to sue, a lawyer is necessary and will charge half of what she is due under the contract. Therefore she accepts the premiums, which amounts to money saved only. Otherwise she runs a risk with no more gained. Even if she does sue she doesn't get any more than if she just accepts a premium payment of all she has paid in.

Now, Mr. Editor, I hope you and the public get the meaning and gist of the matter. Several of these little companies are taking more money from the poor of Kentucky than all the other gambling devices combined. I've talked to several State and national representatives, but nothing is done.

HERE IS AN ENVIABLE RECORD

Every citizen of this country who takes an interest in current affairs has heard thousands of words of "political" criticism of the electric industry, along with various pleas for putting the government into the power business as a competitor as well as regulator.

These citizens might be interested in also hearing some facts concerning the industry that can't be hidden by political prejudice or specious theories.

Regarded purely on a dollar and cents basis, the industry is one of our major national possessions. Its value is about $12,000,000,000—the second largest investment of any American industry. It serves 26,000,000 customers. Its annual taxes are well in excess of $250,000,000. It has millions of security-owners. Its annual construction budget runs into the hundreds of millions and, according to spokesmen for the industry, would spend a billion were it free from political persecution.

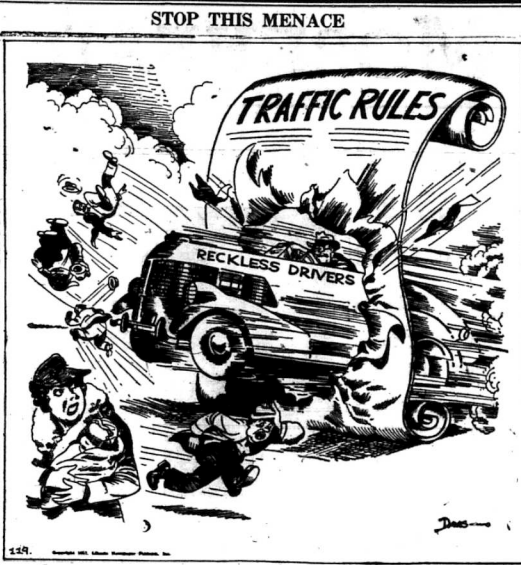

NOW A LIFE INSURANCE CONTEST

As a major contribution to 1937 Life Insurance Week the National Association of Life Underwriters has announced a contest whereby students in secondary schools throughout the country can compete for prizes for the best letters on life insurance topics.

This contest will serve a valuable purpose, in providing a useful interest in insurance, and a wider understanding of its services to the public.

Fewer candidates have announced for county offices this year than at any corresponding time in the past. Perhaps the people are beginning to realize, after all, that this game of politics is a tough one to beat.

The Cumberland Forest now consists of 413, 443 acres. We wonder if the government will leave it a place in which to live.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, The Independent: I have come across the following clipping, taken from a paper many years ago. Will you please publish it, as it is a real help to some one to see themselves as they are. It is as true today as the day it was written.

MRS. L. A. ELLINGTON, Salt Lick, Ky. I AM ALCOHOL I am the greatest criminal in history.

I have killed more men than have fallen in all the wars of the world.

I have turned men into brutes. I have made millions of homes unhappy.

Harlan 'A Nation Unto Self'—Brown

Chairman LaFollette (Pro-Wis.) of the Senate Civil Liberties committee introduced Chandler's executive order of January 17, dismissing misfeasance charges that were brought against Middleton during the governorship of Ruby Laffoon.

Laffoon had accused the sheriff of hiring ex-convicts and "dangerous men" as deputies and conspiring with Harlan coal operators to suppress the miners' union by violence.

Just before LaFollette made his assertion about dismissal of the charges, former Congressman John Young Brown told the committee that Harlan county was a "nation to itself and that its citizens had no civil rights."

Chandler's dismissal order asserted he had been "unable to locate" any of the records concerning the charges against Middleton.

Committee investigator Allan Rosenberg then took the witness stand to testify that he had found all the records intact in the office of the Kentucky secretary of state.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers and head of the committee for industrial organization, found a seat in the hearing room a few minutes after the session opened.

Brown testified that as he arrived in Harlan for the grand jury hearing, "a man showed me six bullets."

"He said that a deputy sheriff near Verda had fired them into his automobile," Brown said, "for no reason except that he was wearing a farmers' union button."

A. T. Arnett, organizer for the United Mine Workers, testified Deputy Sheriff Allen Bowling had warned him that "knugs" hired by the Harlan coal operators would kill anyone who tried to form a miners' union.

"I told him that we were going to organize peacefully, and that our men wouldn't even carry a 'but' or 'Arnett testified.

"But Bowling just replied 'I'm warning you—those fellows are going to kill you!'"

Arnett said that the union organizers were followed continually by heavily-armed deputies which they undertook an organizing campaign last January. He said the officers "talked rough and mean to our men."

I. E. Pelfrey Announces For County Judge On Republican Ticket; Pledges Economy If Elected

TO THE VOTERS OF ROWAN COUNTY: I wish to announce to the people of Rowan County my candidacy for the office of County Judge, subject to the action of the Republican Primary August 7.

To those who may not know me I wish to say that I invite your investigation of me and my record. To all voters I wish to say that your earnest consideration of my candidacy will be appreciated.

I have spent practically my entire life in Rowan County, and have been associated with and am acquainted with most of the people. I am familiar with the mercantile business at Elliottville for a number of years, have farmed and dealt in farm land and real estate for about thirty years, and taught in Rowan County schools for some twenty years and member of the Rowan County Board of Education, which position I now hold. I feel that my familiarity with economic and business conditions and the problems of the farmer and the tax-payer generally together with my business experience and educational qualifications fit me to give the people the office which I seek.

L. E. PELFREY

THE GOVERNOR can defer the appointments indefinitely. Others think the appointments must be made as soon as the fact of disqualification is certified to him.

As long as the case is before the court and no disposition of collections from the income tax will be made by the department of protest, as payments made under protest, as payments have been made, it differs as to whether it is mandated to refund payments not made.

As soon as the special court hears the case, it is expected to give a quick decision. Contestants, however, have 30 days after the decision is given to file a petition for rehearing, and such a petition is disposed of, the court's action does not become final.

More than a million dollars already have been collected under the income tax act. Up to the middle of the week returns from 3,950 individuals had yielded $356,204.47, an average of $90.18 per return; returns from 1,029 corporations had yielded $329,800, an average of $320.57 per return.

Courts To Rule On State Income Tax

Since it was obvious, in the light of previous court rulings in kindred cases, that the section of the act undertaking to tax officials already in office would have to be held invalid, the regular members of the appellate court were understood to have felt that they would be subject to public criticism if they should knock out the part of the law that affected their own purses. So they declined to sit.

How long Governor Chandler may wait before appointing a special court to settle the issue is a subject on which legal opinion differs. Section 117 of the act under constitution provides that the governor, when as many as two of the judges disqualify themselves, "on the fact being certified to him by the chief justice, shall appoint to try the particular case a sufficient number of judges to constitute a full court of seven members."

Some of the governor's legal advisers have expressed the opinion that the act is unconstitutional.

Edward Robinson Film To Be Shown

"Thunder In The City" Is Feature At College Theatre This Week

Friday, April 30, the feature is "Thunder in the City," starring Edward G. Robinson. This is a film in which Robinson takes the part of a forceful young American salesman who is fired in New York just because he had hired "chumps" to sail over the city dropping leaflets advertising his products. He goes to England where he tries out his novel ideas on the English, and meets some very "country" English relatives. He finds that these relatives own mines full of a new ore, Magnolia, which he proceeds to exploit with his American ideas. He also falls in love with a Duke's pretty daughter, Patricia Glenavon, and in the confusion of Dukes, pretty girls and mines full of Magnolia ore finally works out his difficulties and into the arms of Patricia.

The film is much more comedy than drama and is splashed with broad satire aimed impartially at English and American idiosyncrasies.

With Nigel Bruce as the Duke of Glenavon and Lodi Deste as Patricia, and a good supporting cast, the film is rated as excellent entertainment. Future great shows at the College include "History is Made at Night," "The Woman I Love," "Shall We Dance" and other splendid productions.

Additional Money Coming To County

At the end of the year the Rural Highways Department had actually expended in cash for road work $1,117,759.29, constructing more than three thousand miles of grade and drain, two thousand miles of surfacing along with the erection and repair of a large number of bridges.

Nearly $800,000 allotted and obligated to the county but unexpended due to the fact that the 1936-1937 program was late starting will be available for road construction this year of the $1,800,000 set aside for actual road work, $682,445.29 was not used. This with the $123,164.56 unexpended funds in the administrative budget gave an actual refund of $765,609.85.

Mr. Williams said that the policy of the department would be to surface the three thousand miles of grade and drain roads before additional grade and drain work would be undertaken.

Engineers of the Rural Highway Department are now busy contacting county officials and laying plans for the 1937-1938 program. Contracts for these programs which include new work along with the completion of projects started last year have been centered into the county by the following counties: Fourth District—Brentwood, Pendleton, Gallatin, Oldham, Pendleton, Trimble, South District—Bourbon, Boyle, Clark, Fayette, Jessamine, Madison County.

Morehead -- This Week

QUALIFIED: That Dave C. Caudill will be a candidate for County Judge on the Democratic ticket seemed almost a certainty today. Mr. Caudill, queried about whether he would be a candidate, gave the information to the Independent that "I, no doubt, will be."

For some time, it has been known that a number of leading Democrats have been seeking to have the president of the Peoples Bank make the race. Mr. Caudill's name has been mentioned on numerous occasions as a candidate for the post, but not until today did he give any assurance of his candidacy.

Whether Mr. Caudill will have opposition is a matter of conjecture. Many leaders of the party have expressed an apparent financial desire to get behind one man and put him over in both the primary and the general election. Democrats have eyed Republican majorities in the past in the county, which according to registration, is democratic, with alarm, and it is doubtful if the president of the Peoples Bank will have opposition in the August 7 primary.

As those who have studied county affairs closely, know the principal and by far the most important phase of the county judgeship is the handling of the financial affairs of the county. With him and the Fiscal Court lies the responsibility of spending practically all of the money coming from taxes.

There is no question but that Dave Caudill is possibly better qualified than any man in Rowan County in the handling of finances. For more than 25 years he has been president or cashier of the Peoples Bank and the growth of that institution, made possible through sound banking practices and a wide knowledge of the handling of money, is ample proof of his ability.

Looking at the situation from a cold stand-point of protecting the money of the tax-payers and spending it wisely, Mr. Caudill is well qualified. After all that is what the voters and taxpayers of Rowan County should be interested in.

Honesty, integrity and dignity all play an important part in the judgeship. Likewise, these assets of Mr. Caudill are unquestioned.

Kentucky Official Jailed By Ardery

filed the information whereby the poorly official was cited for contempt, when they met in the latter's office.

"You are trying to interpret the law to suit yourself," he told Smith. "It seems strange to me that this is the only county out of 120 in the state where any trouble of this nature exists."

Smith, on the other hand, blamed J. J. Johnson, assistant auditor, for the mix-up.

"He's setting himself up as the circuit court and the court of appeals as well," the clerk said. "I'm simply trying to follow the law," Shannon contended. "I don't want to act until I know what it is."

Governor Chandler expressed regret at the court's action, saying he thought the court "could have avoided" jailing an elective official. Meredith likewise said he thought Judge Ardery's action was hasty.

"The Bride Wakes Up" is an entirely new and different kind of Cooking School. It has romance, humor, glamour—it will hold your interest every minute you are in the audience.

For the first time at a Cooking School you will be able to see every single one of the important steps in the preparation of a recipe. Mixing, blending, stirring, baking—all the many and varied points essential to successful cookery are shown in close-up on the screen.

And lots of new and interesting recipes are demonstrated in the model kitchens especially built for this picture.

The picture will be entertaining as well as instructive. The various characters in the picture are portrayed by talented actors and actresses—the picture was made in Hollywood.

You will see real-life situations—similar to the ones you encounter every day—actually re-enacted on the screen. You will understand the problems of a bride and see how she adjusts herself to her new life as a wife and home-maker.

There will be daily gifts for some fortunate women, and of course free recipes for every one.

GYPSY HEART

I can not stay in the house to-day With the plum tree white and the winds at play, The Gypsy wakes in the heart of me, So where are my hat and shawl? I care not where the wild paths lead, By the forest's edge or the flower mead, The Gypsy heart is awake in me And I must go, that is all. What a timeless thing is the Gypsy blood That flows through my veins like a scarlet flood, I have no will but the winds' wild will, I drift like a leaf in the Fall. Now, the Spring is here, and the plum blows white, I hear a call through the starlit night— The Gypsy heart is awake in me! I must take to the road, that's all.

"Gypsy Heart" was written by Mrs. Marguerite E. Rosebery, of Louisville, who is second vice president of the Louisville branch, National League of American Pen Women.

Following the presentation of the program, refreshments were served in the basement of the church by members of the Club.
