Louisville, Ky., Oct. 6.—Miss Katherine Lord, member of a prominent family, was almost instantly killed Robert Payne, a young society man, was crippled, perhaps permanently, and four other persons were more or less severely bruised when an automobile collided with a street car at Twenty-eighth street and Broadway. The automobile was the property of Dr. Raymond Miner, who was out for a spin with a party of friends. Beside the host and Miss Lord and Mr. Payne, the other guests were Miss Edna Harris and Miss Ida Feldman. They and the chauffeur also were severely bruised.

Increases Franchise of Adams Express from $255,000 to $265,500.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 6.—The assessment of the franchise of the Adams Express company has been increased from $255,000, the amount fixed last year, to $265,500, by the state board of valuation and assessments. Attorneys for the express company had argued against the previous assessment, but the board decided that the previous assessment instead of being too high was too low and therefore increased it.

Some Fine Horses Exhibited.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 6.—Some of the best saddle horses in the country were exhibited at the Louisville horse show, the exhibition being featured by the large number of rings for Kentucky's typical product, Burton Prince, a sensational young colt, a horse of W. J. Roe, of Oshkosh, Wis., won an open ring, only to be beaten a little later on by Edna May, last year's champion in the special class in a combination ring. Miss Emily Bedford and William P. Moore, of New York, divided honors in the harness classes. Miss Bedford captured a blue with Hilred, her hackney mare, while Mr. Moore's entries were successful in a class for pairs and for Park Fours. Miss Bedford also distinguished herself by riding winners of both second and third places in a saddle ring for ladies.

Sensational Exhibition.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 6.—A sensational exhibition of harness horses at the Louisville show resulted in the defeat of Radiant, the International gig champion, owned by W. H. Moore, of New York, of Sir James, last year's national champion at Madison Square Garden, by Gallant Lad, the powerful bay gelding of Lawrence Jones, of Louisville. They came together in the contest for the Tilden grand cup and it was their first meeting. So add to the overturning of records, Radiant was forced to bow to Highland Chief

Just at present, this brilliant star is rushing from somewhere in illimitable space toward the sun, and every astronomer who has telescopes pointed toward the path in which the comet is expected to appear.

$70,000 Fire Loss.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 5.—The St. Charles hotel building was destroyed, with Senator James H. McCreary's law office and the Kentucky Register newspaper office and five other buildings were burned or damaged at Richmond, Ky., entailing a loss of $70,000, partially insured. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Memphis Men Turned Down.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Judge Kohlsaat, in the United States circuit court, refused to enter a preliminary restraining order and consider an application for an injunction to prevent the Illinois Central and the Louisville & Nashville railroads from putting into effect a new rate on cottonseed oil, condensed foods and tank bottom. Railroad shippers and brokers of Memphis, Tenn., sought the order, but were told it was a matter for the interstate commerce commission.

STARTED TOO LATE.

Harvard Students Were Beat to Treasure Trove of Olden Days.

Kingsport, Jamaica, Oct. 6.—The expedition composed of Harvard students, which started recently on the steamer Mayflower, from New York in search of sunken treasure in these waters, will likely have to modify the original plans. The treasure seekers intended to search for a Spanish galleon which sank many years ago, but the American expedition has been anticipated by a Jamaican syndicate which chartered a schooner and, after an ineffectual search, returned to Montego Bay.

ILLINOIS BANKER IS INDICTED

James W. Quillan Accused of Receiving Deposits After Insolvency.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 6.—James W. Quillan, owner of a private bank at Havana, Ill., a small town in Adams county, was indicted on ten counts for receiving deposits after he knew the bank was insolvent. Quillan, who has run the bank for years, recently was caught short of money after jettisoning the Havana woolen mills over $20,000. The mills were recently closed by creditors and the plant sold for $5,000. This sale is up for approval by United States Commissioner Henry of this city.

Taft's Work in China

He Rehabilitated Our National Reputation.

CHECKED COURT ABUSES.

Cleared the United States Name From the Dishonor That American Criminals Had Brought Upon It.

It was chiefly through the influence and at the instigation of Mr. Taft that the recent rehabilitation of our national reputation in China was accomplished by the establishment of the United States court in China. Taft Mr. Taft became an important figure in the far east scandalous conditions had prevailed to Shanghai and other cities of China where the United States exercised extra territorial rights. Undesirable subjects of the United States, men and women, had degraded the American flag by using it as a cover under which to conduct numerous nefarious enterprises. American sharpshooters and promoters of questionable schemes had long worked in conjunction with discredited lawyers to their mutual and illegal gain. In various instances these criminal endeavors were aided and abetted by American consular officers, who were disowned from the service. The former practice of adjudicating all causes in which Americans were parties to consular courts gave rise to abuses. The American flag, in Shanghai particularly, stood for national dishonor in the eyes of other nations who had indignation and the creating of proper courts had spared their flags the disgrace that descended upon the United States banner.

When he was at the head of the Philippine government in Manila Mr. Taft by his proximity to China soon appreciated the seriousness of the conditions there and foresaw the loss of standing in the eyes of the Chinese to which we were indifferently exposing ourselves by our failure to keep in check American criminals. He brought the matter to the attention of the state department and joined with Secretary Root, Representative Edwin Denby of Michigan, a son of the former United States minister to China; Charles Deby, another son, who is now consular general at Shanghai; Senator Spooner of Ohio; and others in an endeavor to remedy conditions. He exercised his influence to obtain the passage by Congress of a bill creating the United States court for China. Lebeus Redmond Wiley of Missouri, who had been Mr. Taft's attorney general in the Philippines, was named as judge.

Mr. Taft from the first took a deep personal interest in the work of Judge Wiley and his court. It was supervised by his work and was frequently appealed to by Judge Wiley for advice as to procedure and other details. The lack of adequate law hampered Judge Wiley, but by proceeding in accordance with the common law he quickly made the court effective. Within a few months after the court was organized Shanghai and other cities in China where conditions were such as to require it were thoroughly and drastically cleaned up. By the American lawyers were disbarred, so that the gamblers, disreputable women and other offenders against the law were deprived of legal support. The reputable American lawyers in good standing aided Judge Wiley. Heavy fines and terms of imprisonment exacted a deterrent effect upon the lawbreakers, many of whom summarily fled from China before the court could bring them to account for their misdeeds.

When Mr. Taft was in Shanghai last fall he was heartily thanked and congratulated by the law abiding Americans there for the part he had taken in removing the stigma from the American flag and restoring the good name of the national name in the world. In his speech before the American association in China he said a high tribute to Judge Wiley, saying in part:

"Our government was fortunate in the selection as the first judge of the court of a gentleman who had had four years' experience in the office as attorney general of the Philippines and who went to Shanghai with an intimate knowledge of the method of uniting in one administration the principles of the common law of the United States with the traditions and conditions of a foreign country. His policy in raising high the standard of admission to the bar and in promoting the vigorous prosecution of American violators of law, which eliminated from that community many undesirable characters who had brought disgrace upon the name of Americans in the cities of China, cannot but commend itself to any one interested in the good name of the United States among the Chinese people and with our brethren of other countries who live in China."

Easy to Mix This

Prepare at Home by Shaking Ingredients Well in a Bottle.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription, which is said to be a positive remedy for backache or kidney bladder derangement, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease: Fluid Ext act Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here at home when asked regarding this prescription stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed in rheumatic afflictions with splendid results, he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which causes sickness and suffering.

Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

MADDIX-CRISWELL

Miss May Maddix and Mr. Dee Criswell were married Wednesday of last week.

The wedding was a quiet affair yet attended by all that was to render it grand.

Rev. Robt. Gees solemnized the holy rights of matrimony at 10:30 A. M. in the presence of the favored selection of wedding guests. Immediately after the ceremony they both were warmly greeted and tendered a number of nice presents of some of which were articles of value above the ordinary.

The guests were then served to all that heart could desire in a dinner lavishly spread of which all partook heartily.

The guests departed in the afternoon after a few hours entertainment which was select.

The bride is the youngest of the family of Mr. and Mrs. T. Maddix and is a beautiful and accomplished young lady of 19. The groom 26, is a respected and noble man; son of a well-to-do farmer and tobacco grower.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride. We heartily congratulate the new couple.

SOLELY'S HONEY AND TAR

Taft as a Speaker.

His Talks to the People Winning Many Votes.

DON'T POSE AS AN ORATOR.

Word Pictures Not Needed to State Facts. Plainly-Republican Candidate's Clearness and Sincerity Carry Conviction.

From being decidedly apprehensive as to the outcome of Judge Taft's speaking tours Republican leaders are now convinced that one of the wisest moves of the campaign was the decision to let the Republican candidate visit as many sections of the country as possible between now and election day and talk to as many voters as the time will permit. When speaking tours for Taft were first discussed the opponents of the plan based their opposition on the fact that as an orator Taft cannot be compared to Bryan. They argued that Taft, who makes no pretense to oratory, would be placed at a disadvantage appearing on the stump against the gifted Nebraskan. But Judge Taft himself solved the problem and cleared up the whole situation in one sentence in his recent speech at Sandusky, O.

"I cannot dwell in the cerebral blue, but here to deal with facts," he declared. It is in this dealing with facts in a clear, dispassionate manner that has made William Howard Taft what he is, that will cause him to stand so strongly every time he appears by public. Taft's best friends cannot claim for him that he is an orator. But he can tell the truth and does so. He will not have to paint beautiful word pictures of what should be done. He will not have to plead with silvery eloquence for the alleged downtrodden and oppressed masses to rise up and save the country from the ruin which Bryan has been predicting and finding various passages for during the past twelve years.

What Taft has to do is to state cold, clear cut facts, to let the truth about himself, to give to his auditors a clear and unmistakable idea of what Taft the man is and what he stands for. And this he can do, and will do, in a frank and open. It would be difficult for him to dissemble if he wished to do so.

Already Taft has begun making serious impressions on his audiences. Bryan never fails to tickle his audiences. In most instances he arouses enthusiasm, but it is an enthusiasm which usually lasts. Those who listen and applaud go away and forget. With the Taft audiences it is different. By the clearness of his exposition and the absolute sincerity of his manner he carries conviction. His auditors are soon impressed by two things—Taft's ability and Taft's sincerity.

"A man means what he says," is a comment frequently heard after Taft has spoken. Another Taft characteristic that is winning many friends for the Republican candidate among those who knew nothing of him before they saw and heard him is his great courage. He says what he thinks, and says it in such a way that it remains fixed in the minds of those who hear him. At Athens, O., he was addressing 400 union coal miners. He told them about having issued injunctions.

"I issued them," he said, "because the rights of the plaintiffs demanded it. When I am in the bench I enforce the law. And I have no apology to make." For a minute there was absolute silence, dramatic in its intensity. Then the 400 miners broke not merely into applause, but into enthusiastic cheers. After the meeting they were heard expressing their views.

"That man is on the level," said one. "He doesn't hand out any 'con' talk. He knows where he stands and is not afraid to come straight out with thing. He isn't the orator Bryan is, but he says things that Bryan wouldn't dare say."

Unlike many of Bryan's utterances, Taft's utterances will bear inspection. He will make no declaration that is open to doubt. "I have to deal with facts," he said. In some of his speeches Bryan, intoxicated with the sound of his own words, frequently makes statements not entirely trustworthy. Taft had been too long on the bench, too long in high government positions, where his utterances carried weight, to permit of his making careless statements. Furthermore, Taft possesses to a marked degree the ability to discuss the most intricate subjects in the simplest language. He proved this most conclusively at Sandusky when he made perfectly plain to his audience the development of anti-trust legislation and the powers and limitations of the federal government. Everybody knew exactly what he was talking about and understood it clearly, yet there were few in the audience who realized that he was discussing abstruse legal problems without resorting to bewildering legal phraseology.

As far as personal magnetism goes, Taft and Bryan are nearly equal. But where Bryan's personality is one that creates interest and enthusiasm Taft's is one that inspires affection and trustfulness. "That man has a fine face; I would trust him anywhere," said a West Virginia woman who with a large party came over the mountains to hear Taft speak at Hot Springs. Those who meet him feel that he is not only sincere, but that he possesses the ability and courage to handle intelligently the many problems that confront a president. It is the knowledge of all this that makes the Taft managers glad that he is to go out and meet the people.

BACK GIVES OUT

Plenty of Olive Hill Readers have this Experience.

You tax the kidneys—overwork them. They can't keep up the continual strain. The back gives out—it aches and pains. Urinary troubles set in. Don't wait longer—take Doan's Kidney Pills.

Wm. F. Christian, living on Main st., Flemingsburg, Ky., says: "During the past four years both myself and wife have used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have never failed to give relief. It must have been a natural thing for me to have kidney trouble, as I cannot recall a thing that could have brought on this disease. My back has seldom free from pain and there also existed a dull aching through the kidneys. Several times my back gave out entirely and I was compelled to lay off work until it became stronger. The kidney secretions became irregular, at times being profuse and then again scanty and accompanied by pain in passage. I took Doan's Kidney Pills according to directions for a short time and was cured by them. Whenever I feel that my kidneys need attention I take Doan's Kidney Pills and they never fail to give me relief." 4041

$100 REWARD $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. 28

Mrs R B Conley is much improved.

Some Good Medical Advice.

Throw away pills and strong cathartics which are violent in action and always have on hand Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which cures constipation and all diseases arising from stomach, liver and bowel troubles. It will cure old or young, and is the greatest family remedy that a home can have. Keep a bottle always on hand. You may need it any moment.

It is absolutely guaranteed to do all that is claimed, and if you want to try it before buying, send your name for a free sample bottle to Pepsin Syrup Co., 119 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill. It is sold by Willhoit Drug Store, at 50c. and $1 a bottle.

Counts X Roads.

Rev Black from Grayson conducted church here Sunday.

Miss Bertha Wilcox visited home fully at Rosedale Friday. Ell Monday accompanied by Quin Harris.

Mrs Virgie Wilcox returned home Friday evening after a two weeks visit with her sister Mrs. Jim Newman.

J M Baker is in the west end of the comfey annoying Republicans.

Carlton Counts from Devert is visiting his grandparents here.

Miss Cleo Lewis visited at Cox Sunday night.

Born to the wife of Harva Hopkins a girl and a pair twin girls to Mrs Chas William.

Can't Learn in School.

When the stomach is out of order or the bowels constipated, a feeling of nervousness and inactivity comes over the body. The brain won't think and the body won't work. If it is a child who suffers in this way, it naturally can't learn well in school, as it has no inclination for study. Give the child a dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and you will soon find it wonderfully improved and naturally cured. It is absolutely guaranteed to do what we claim, and if you want to try it before buying and your address for a free sample bottle to Pepsin Syrup Co., 119 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill. It is sold by N. M. Hudgins at 50c. and $1 a bottle.

Neuralgia Pains

Are the result of an abnormal condition of the more prominent nerve branches, caused by congestion, irritation, or disease. If you want to relieve the pain try Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They often relieve when everything else fails. They leave no disagreeable after-effects. Just a pleasurable sense of relief. Try them.

For a free sample bottle of this medicine, send your name and address to Dr. Miles' Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Very Serious

It is a very serious matter to ask for one medicine and have the wrong one given you. For this reason we urge you in buying to be careful to get the genuine—THE FORDS' BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine

The reputation of this old, reliable medicine, for constipation, indigestion and liver trouble, is firmly established. It does not irritate other medicines. It is better than cathartics, or it would not be the favorite liver powder with a larger sale than all others combined.

OLIVE HILL MERCANTILE CO. NEW FALL GOODS

We desire to announce to the public that our stock for Fall and Winter is now complete in all lines and that we have spared neither money nor effort to make this season's line the best we have ever had.

SHOE DEPARTMENT.

We have made this Department the strongest in our store. We have increased our shoe stock until we now have a regular shoe store.

We carry the well-known "QUEEN QUALITY," for women and the famous Star Brand Shoe for men, women and children. People who have never worn this Star Brand Shoe have no idea as to its worth. This line of shoes is made by Roberts-Johnson & Rand Shoe Co., the largest shoe makers in the world and in our opinion, without doubt, the best wearing line of shoes ever made. Below we give you a fair idea as to the wearing qualities of a Star Brand shoe known as "Stronger than the Laws.

The affiant, M. J. Evans, first being duly sworn, states, I am a farmer and work on the same at general farm work. States that he bought a pair of shoes of the Olive Hill Mercantile Co., of Olive Hill, Carter County, Ky. The shoes were branded with the brand, "Stronger Than The Law." He states that he wore the said pair of shoes for 16 1/2 months and plowed in them during two seasons and states that by laying them aside this Fall that he can plow in them during next Summer should he live. He states that he is 44 years old and weighs 165 lbs., as an average weight. This given under my hand this Oct. 1, 1908.

M. J. EVANS.

Subscribed and sworn to by M. J. Evans before me this Oct. 1, 1908.

B. P. CASSADY, Notary Public Carter-co., Ky.

We could give you many more if necessary. We have a full stock of these shoes for men, boys and children. In our shoe stock we have about 200 pairs of odds and ends and broken sizes that we are going to put out at cost and some of them less than cost. These odds and ends comprise the Annex, Kipling, Walk-over, Barker Brown, and others; in men's and boy's sizes, high and low cut, heavy and light leathers. This is a golden opportunity for you to get your Winter shoes at manufacturer's cost while they last—that won't be long. If you miss getting a pair or two of these shoes you miss a bargain.

In fact every article in our store is a bargain at the price. We are never undersold but often undersell. Remember we never advertise a fake; all goods as represented.

Landseer a Nature Faker.
An English reviewer gravely assures us that Landseer's famous painting, "Eagles Attacking Swans," is based on an entirely false assumption. Eagles do not battle with swans or other quarry. They strike or pounce upon their prey and never descend to vulgar brawling. This is a handsome compliment to the eagle, but a sad blow for art.

Mourning Checks.
"What do you think I received the other day from a woman recently bereaved?" said a business man. "Nothing less than a check heavily bordered with black, just the same as mourning stationery. I didn't know that the etiquette of grief had invaded the domain of finance, but it seems that this is the case."

Married Man in Trouble.
A married man who permits any member of his family to take anything except Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung trouble is guilty of neglect. Nothing else is as good for all pulmonary troubles. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates and is in a yellow package. Without Drug Store.

Bees and a Dog.
Bees have a way of swimming in a sort of places. One day about a lion of them invaded a kennel where a terrier was quietly dozing. The dog naturally resented the intrusion, and not knowing the way to manage bees he let them alone, even if they chose to settle on one's head, he tries to bite them, and was very badly stung. Fortunately his master was close at hand, and a few buckets of water saved the dog's life.

A Jeweler's Experience.
C. R. Kluger, The Jeweler, 1000 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from Kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to my business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after doctors and other remedies had failed."

Good to Remember.
The most trivial tasks can be accomplished in a noble, gentle, regal spirit which overrides and puts aside all petty, paltry feelings and which creates all little things.—Dean Stanley.

Saved By His Nerve.
While partridge shooting a sportsman suddenly had hundreds of wasps settle upon him. They crawled upon his hands and face, but he kept his nerve and did not interfere with them. The wasps scared the sportsman's friends, and they got some distance away, being afraid to go near him. After about ten minutes the wasps flew off to a body without having stung him.

Saved His Boy's Life.
"My three year old boy was badly constipated, had a high fever and was in an awful condition. I gave him two doses of Foley's Orino Laxative and the next morning the fever was gone and he was entirely well. Foley's Orino Laxative saved his life." A. Wolosh, Casimer, Wis.

Keeping Goat in Stable.
There is an old fashioned proverb of keeping a goat in a stable. Supposing always that the animals are loose, the goat will leave the stable on the outbreak of fire, and the horse will follow the goat when no amount of persuasion from man will get the terrified creature to budge.

Generally debilitated for years.
Had sick headache, lacked ambition, was worn-out and all run-down. Burdock Blood Bitters made me a well woman.—Mrs. Chas. Freitoy, Mossup, Conn. 10

Time to Consider.
A Pittsburg man who claimed that he killed his wife by accident while joking has been sent to the penitentiary for 17 years. By the end of that time he may come to the conclusion that nature didn't intend him for a humorist.—Washington Post.
