The Carter County Republican Committee met at the court house in Grayson Saturday Oct. 10, for We are authorized to announ the purpose of obtaining wishes of the candidates for county of-fices as to the date of holding

After the expressed wishes of all he proposed candidates had been ascertained it was seen that a majority favored an early proming. The Comm as acted ac mary. The Comm. test acted accordingly and set the date for December 12.

It was soon made manifest to those present that all desired tay aside all personal interest and work for the success of the Parablican person with Republican party until after November election.

The Committee should be com me d'd in asking for the voice of an concerned as to the time of an concerned as to the three and manner of holding said primary. It only goes to further demonstrate that the Bryan fallacy of "Shall the Feople Rule?" is and has always been practice is and has always been practice by the Republican party.

The candidates should be conmended, first, in that they enpressed a desire to serve first their party's interest, believing that the greatest interest of the people of this county, state ann nation depends upon the success of the Republican party. Secon nation depends upon the success of the Republican party. Secon that they, at the instructe arc second appeal of Acty. C. V Z mmerman (candidate for C. Under our announcement head ing you will find the announce ment of C. F. Cooper who solic its the support of Republicans at the coming primary toward his successful candidacy for County Attorney.

Over the entire county almost, -Mr. Cooper is very well known and we do not deem it necessary in order that his candidacy be deeply considered, to speak of him more than to say that he is besides having practiced at our local bar and handled many cases in other and higher courts most successfully a very able lawyer and a man of oratoracle ability, having been a student in the National Normal University of Leb-anon, O., in the law department. He has taught in the county common schools for 16 years and was Principal of High School at Denton, Ky., for 3 years, which say volumns for his educational qualrolumns for his equeational qualifications.
