Mix This Simple, Helpful Receipt at Home and Try It, Anyway.

Get from any prescription pharmacist the following: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Sassafras, one ounce.

Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime. The above is considered as the most certain prescription ever written to relieve Backache, Kidney Trouble, Weak Bladder and all forms of Urinary difficulties. This mixture acts promptly on the elementary tissues of the Kidneys, enabling them to filter and strain the uric acid and all other waste matter from the blood which causes rheumatism.

Some persons who suffer with the affliction may not feel inclined to place much confidence in this simple mixture yet those who have tried it say the results are simply surprising, the relief being effected without the slightest injury to the stomach or other organs.

Who says and give it a trial. It certainly comes highly recommended. It is the prescription of an eminent authority, whose entire reputation it is said, was established by it.

A druggist here at home, when asked, stated that he could either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription for our readers, also recommends it as harmless.

THE CHOICE OF THE PEOPLE NOV. 3d

WILLIAM H. TAFT. JAMES S. SHERMAN.

A SPIRIT OF CONFIDENCE

New York, Nov. 3.—A spirit of confidence in the present and hopefulness for the future was present in the financial district last week and found its reflection in the firm undertone of the stock market. The action of that index of official opinion was affected by the near approach of the national elections, owing to the fact that that event had been looked forward to as marking a definite period of repression and withholding of orders in all departments of industry, which would be released for execution. It would not be easy to exaggerate the part this feeling has played in the long continued accumulation of stocks and the substantial advance in prices which has occurred. So much having been achieved in the adjustment of values to the expected results, it was natural that there should be a disposition to pause on the eve of the arrival of the period. There was even perceptible a tendency to anticipate the event by the further postponing speculative profits accrued, which caused some uneasiness at times in the price movement. The stock market gave proof that the effective control in which it is held and which is believed to be exercised by groups of the wealthiest capitalists in the country was not relinquished. The stocks in which the advanced prices were based on the general tone of the market advanced to new high levels for the year. It is necessary to go back to the closing period of 1907 to find a record of prices higher than those touched last week by those stocks. In January of last year Union Pacific touched 125 compared with 127 1/2 last week, and the high price of United States Steel at that time was 50 1/2, compared with 48 1/2 last week.

The tonnage of unfilled orders on the books of the United States Steel corporation on Jan. 1, 1907, was 8,489,718, and on Oct. 1, 1908, that item stands at 3,421,977. Earnings for the December quarter of 1906 were $41,750,125, while for the quarter just passed they amounted to $71,460,274.

That much has been accomplished toward restoration of a price level for securities commensurate with the recovery in business is inferred from such comparisons, and this inference was a motive for the sales to realize profits on holdings of securities which were perceptible during last week in the stock market.

TAFT AND SHERMAN ARE ELECTED.

Republicans Carry New York, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and West Virginia. Successful Candidates Will Have Large Majority in Electoral College.

New York, Nov. 4.—The next president of the United States will be William Howard Taft, Republican, of Ohio. The next vice president will be James Scherer Sherman, Republican, of New York.

This is the verdict returned by the majority of the 15,000,000 voters of the United States. The Republican candidate has repeated Mr. Roosevelt's feat of carrying every northern state excepting his own clear majority in the electoral college of 113 over William Jennings Bryan, the Democratic candidate. Mr. Taft will receive 238 electoral votes to Mr. Bryan's 153. The latter also lost West Virginia, which went to Mr. Roosevelt four years ago, but has gained one electoral vote, while Maryland gave to the Republican candidate in 1900. Oklahoma, the state created since the last presidential election, has enrolled itself as elected in the Democratic column.

The states considered doubtful before the election have gone as follows: Maryland, Democratic; Indiana, Republican; Nebraska, Democratic; New York, Republican; Ohio, Republican; and West Virginia, Democratic. In most of these states the vote is close. Especially in New York where Charles Evans Hughes, Republican, has been re-elected governor by 54,000 votes. Taft has carried the state by 100,000.

Pennsylvania has gone Republican by 250,000 majority and New Jersey by 75,000, the figures in 1904 being 565,519 and 80,598 respectively. Connecticut has gone Republican in a few cities and towns, but Congressman George L. Lilley, the Republican candidate for governor, ran behind Mr. Taft.

The lower house of the Sixty-first congress will be Republican by about its old majority. The senate will remain Republican. Speaker Cannon has won his bid for re-election by a substantial majority.

Most of the great cities of the country have gone Republican, with the exception of New York and Chicago. In both of these cases, however, the rural Republican majority has been sufficiently large to offset the Democratic urban vote. St. Louis has gone Republican, while the rest of Missouri is heavily Democratic.

Central States for Taft.

Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, the great central aggregate of approximately sixty-five electoral votes, have gone Republican despite the fight made to bring them into the Democratic column. Governor Deneen of Illinois, the republican candidate for re-election, retained his seat, but Thomas R. Marshall, a Democrat, will succeed Higham in the governor's chair. In the gubernatorial contest last year, the greater part of the state's congressional delegation will be Democrats.

The Far West, with California, Washington and Oregon, have given their votes to the Republican candidate, but Nevada, which voted against Taft, has elected a Republican in the gubernatorial contest last year. The Dakotas and Minnesota are again Republican, but Governor Johnson's personal popularity is still strong. He will again in the gubernatorial chair of the North Star state. Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa and in fact the entire West and Northwest are Republican, but, as noted above, by lowered majorities.

The South Still Solid.

The "solid South" is still solidly Democratic. Mr. Bryan polling the usual large majority. Only in Maryland has the Republican party made serious inroads on the Democratic vote, and in that state not sufficiently to change the independence party candidate for governor made a good showing, though running far behind the vote of Thomas L. Hisgen last year. New York city has been carried by Taft, the first time the Republicans have carried the greater city since 1896.

PENNSYLVANIA IS REPUBLICAN

Party's Vote Cut Down in Cities Where Labor Element is Strong.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—Pennsylvania has given Republican a majority of 250,000. In 1904 Roosevelt carried the state by 505,519, and two years ago Democrat, was elected governor by 48,000. This city, Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Altoona and other cities gave Mr. Taft pluralities, but Scranton, Wilkesbarre and towns in which the "solid" labor vote is strong have one Democratic.

The election in Pennsylvania turned almost entirely a national issue, the highest state officer voted for being a Judge of the superior court. For that office William D. Porter, Republican, has been elected by a majority of about 50,000 over Webster Grim, Democrat.

The vote in the country districts was, as usual, heavily Republican. The state's representation will again be Republican in the Sixty-first congress, the Democrats having gained only one seat. The figures will be as follows: Republicans, 24; Democrats, 3.

BYRAN CARRIES HOME STATE

Democrats Win in Nebraska by Small Majority.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 4.—Nebraska has gratified the hopes of William Jennings Bryan by going Democratic.

Governor George L. Sheldon, Republican, has been re-elected by a majority of 19,000. The personal popularity of Mr. Bryan in his home state and of Mr. Sheldon accounts for the difference between the governor's vote and that of Mr. Taft. The state's representation will be Republican in the Sixty-first congress, the Democrats having gained only one seat. The figures will be as follows: Republicans, 24; Democrats, 3.

Bryan Silent on Election.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 3.—"I do not desire to discuss the result of the election at the present time," said Mr. Bryan after the returns were received here. "At a later date I shall probably have something to say, but now I must beg to be excused." The Democratic candidate's own city gave Mr. Bryan a majority.

CONNECTICUT FOR TAFT

Carries State, but by Greatly Reduced Majority.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 4.—Despite the efforts made by the Connecticut Democratic column, the state has given its vote to the Republican candidate. Mr. Taft's majority, however, fell far below that of Mr. Roosevelt four years ago. Congressman Lilley has been elected governor by 5,000 despite the opposition to him on account of the singularly hot matters and the opposition to him in his own party. Five Republican congressmen have been elected.

Close Vote in Colorado.

Denver, Nov. 4.—Colorado, which gave Mr. Roosevelt a majority of 34,582 in 1904, has gone Democratic, but by less than 5,000. Jesse P. McDonald, however, has been elected lieutenant of the Republican ticket, and three Republican representatives have been chosen.

North Carolina.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 4.—The Democratic national ticket has carried North Carolina by a majority of 50,000. The Republican ticket making gains throughout the state. W. W. Kitchin has been elected governor.

His Great Idea.

Gilbert, the small son of a minister, was one day trying to construct a church with his building blocks, but found he hadn't enough blocks. "Say, papa," he inquired gravely, "can't you get up your congregation for me to finish my church?"

M. F. Moore, Druggist.

A druggist at Westminster, Kan., M. F. Moore, by name, writes that he can get affidavits from customers saying that they were cured of chronic constipation, indigestion, flatulency, by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin the great laxative and tonic. He says further that he has been a druggist for 25 years, but has never known of a better remedy for these troubles than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which he also uses in his own family.

It is absolutely guaranteed to do all that is claimed, and if you want to try it before buying, send your name for a free sample bottle to Pepsin Syrup Co., 110 Caldwell Bldg., Mpls., Minn. It is sold by Wilhoit Drug Store, at 50c, and $1 a bottle.

AN HONEST GRFTER

A Glimpse into the Future of Municipal Ownership.

A Thumb Nail Sketch of a "Practical Politician" - The profits of an All Around "Servant of the People, Who Seen His Opportunities and Took 'Em."

"Honest graft" will reach its highest level when, as predicted by the enthusiasts, the principles of municipal ownership are accepted by New York and the city controls the trolley lines, the electric light and gas works and all the ferries as well as the water works and the police, the fire and the street departments.

"Then such patriots as George Washington Plunkitt, for many years organizational leader of the Fifteenth district in New York, will reap rewards of greater magnitude than they have ever been able to gather under the present order of things.

Perhaps you have never heard about Mr. Plunkitt's "honest graft" schemes. He told about them himself in a book published last year, which was introduced by a paragraph lauding him as a "retrograde leader of the organization," signed by its greatest chief.

Plunkitt was sore because there were some objections to graft being made out of the city by men like him, and in the first chapter of his book he uttered a vigorous protest. "Blackmailers' gamblers, saloon keepers, disorderly people, etc.," he admitted, "to be wrong. That was 'dishonest graft.'

"But," he added, "there's an honest graft, and I'm an example of how it works. I seem my opportunities and I took 'em."

Mr. Plunkitt's explanation of how he did these things will illuminate the possibilities of future municipal ownership days, if they ever come.

After elucidating the ways he was "tipped off" at various times by members of his party - the party in power when new bridges, new parks, new jails were to be opened, so that he did invest in real estate likely to rise in price after the improvements contemplated, he adds: "I haven't confined myself to land. Anything that says 'skin my line', then he gives a specific instance."

Learning that the city was about to repave a certain street and so would buy several hundred thousand dollars of paving blocks to sell, he was 'out hand to buy' and he 'knew just what they were worth.' But a newspaper 'tried to do him' and put out some outside men from Brooklyn and New Jersey to bid against him. Mr. Plunkitt's own words tell the story best:

"Was I done? Not much. I went to each of the men and said, 'How many of those 250,000 stones do you want?' One said 25,000, and another wanted 15,000, and another wanted 10,000. I said, 'All right; let me bid for the lot, and I'll give each of you all you want for nothing!'"

"They agreed, of course. Then the auctioneer yelled, 'How much am I bid for these fine paving stones?' 'Two dollars and fifty cents,' says 'I.' 'Two dollars and fifty cents'."

scrambled the auctioneer. 'Oh, that's a joke. Give me a real bid.'

"He found the bid was real enough. My rivals stood silent. I got the lot for $250 and gave them their shares. That's how the attempt to do Plunkitt ended, and that's how all such attempts end."

It is hardly necessary, in the light of this authentic statement of "honest grafts" workings, to enlarge upon the extended opportunities that would come to the men of the Plunkitt stamp were the dream of municipal ownership to come true. Plunkitt says "most politicians who are accused of robbing the city get rich the same way," he did.

"They didn't steal a dollar from the city. They just seen their opportunities and took 'em."

While in the legislature Plunkitt introduced the bills that provided for the outlying parks of New York, the Harlem river speedway, the Washington bridge, the One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street viaduct, additions to the Museum of Natural History and many other important public improvements. He is now a millionaire. Under the proposed order of things, with city control of everything, he might become a millionaire.

Under municipal ownership of all public utilities in New York - and in most other cities in fact - politicians like Plunkitt, who at different times has been elected state senator, assemblyman, county supervisor and alderman by his fellow citizens, besides serving as police magistrate for one term, and who boasts of his record in filling four public offices in one year and drawing salaries from three of them at the same time, would flourish like a whole grove of green bay trees.

Go Slow on City Ownership.

Until politics in America is purified far beyond its present condition any large experiment in government ownership might be called a "trial breeder" with much safety. The more authority here is vested in the hands of politicians (with all due deference to our national administration) the more corruption there will be. It is a shortsighted citizen who would take more business out of private hands and commit it to the tender mercies of the politicians - Troy Press.

Another Plant Abandoned.

After many years' trial of its municipal electric lighting plant Alexandria, Va., has finally leased the works to a private corporation for a period of fifty years. The lease was $3000 for the plant, which had cost the city $17,000.

Caracazones, Not Graft.

At a local government board inquiry held at West Ham, London, to sanction the borrowing by the corporation of $100,000 for electricity extensions it was stated that the electrical undertaking up to the present had resulted in a loss of $7,200, which had been charged to the ratepayers. The inspector pointed out that loans of some thousands of pounds had been sanctioned by the board for purchasing various machines, and he said the company had been asking for money to buy machinery for which they had already received the cash.

The Great Problems of Today

By JOSEPH C. CANNON, Speaker of the National House of Representatives
ATENTION recently has been riveted upon abuses in the transportation of the products of our farms, mines and factories. In spite of all that has been said, it is true that they are transported at half or LESS THAN HALF the charge demanded by carriers elsewhere in the world.

Perhaps the most serious complaints grow out of PREFERRED freight rates allowed by the transportation companies to certain favored shippers, not because the companies desired to give them, but because great shippers DEMANDED SUCH CONCESSIONS as a condition precedent to their patronage, and went elsewhere if their demands were refused. In my judgment most, if not all, the ills complained of and which we are seeking to remedy had their initiative in the practice of allowing discriminations in favor of certain shippers.

ALL POLICIES, AND I MAY SAY ALL LEGISLATION AS WELL, THAT MAKE FISH OF ONE AND FOWL OF ANOTHER ARE UN-AMERICAN AND DESTRUCTIVE.

But the people of the United States, competent for self government and NEVER SO COMPETENT AS NOW, have always met with courage problems as they arise, and, guided by wisdom, patience and patriotism, have solved them. The problems confronting us today are BY NO MEANS THE MOST TRYING and difficult ones ever presented to the American people for solution. The achievement of our independence, the formation of the constitution, the abolition of servile labor, the preservation of the Union, the keeping of the public faith have all involved questions MORE DIFFICULT OF SOLUTION THAN THOSE WE FACE TODAY.

The "Labor Trust"—and Others

By C. W. POST, Battle Creek, Mich. President National Citizens' Industrial Association

A TRUST is organized for the production and sale of its commodity and to force an INCREASED PRICE for what it seeks to sell. Apply this to the oil, beef, harvester, paper or LABOR trust.

The labor trust, like all others, seeks first to control production, keep down the number of apprentices and prevent all men but TRUST MEMBERS from selling their labor. When great demand occurs, as in the attempted rebuilding of San Francisco, this trust sends word to the world to keep away—that the situation is controlled by the labor trust and no outsider will be permitted to work.

Competition in the sale of labor is cut off, and the price is run up to $9 and $10 a day and KNOWLEDGE HELD BACK from the masses.

Given further and complete control, there seems no reason why this trust will not run the price up $12 or $15 or ANY PRICE decided on by the managers.

At this time threats are openly made by members of the labor trust that a strike will be ordered in the government printing office and the government work tied up until the "instructions" or "orders" of the trust are obeyed.

This is an insult to the people which rouses the deepest feeling of PATRIOTIC RESENTMENT and is a defiance which must be met by the most thorough house cleaning possible to bring about.

IF CAPITAL TRUSTS ARE PERMITTED TO EXIST, LABOR TRUSTS MUST ALSO HAVE A PLACE, BUT BOTH ARE ORGANIZED TO FATTEN OFF THE PUBLIC. THEREFORE THEY MUST BE REGULATED AND RESTRAINED BY THE PUBLIC.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

All Right in Theory, but Breaks Down in Practice.

Theoretically there is so much in municipal ownership of public utilities that the practical carrying out of its attractive features appears simple and of no serious moment.

It is the failure to assure the practicality that works the evil for municipal ownership is a general ownership, and a general ownership results too easily into being no special business of any kind.

Their indifference and neglect on the part of taxpayers to take note of municipal affairs which make municipal ownership of public utilities a matter of indifference.

THE GREAT TRANSITION.

Public Property Wasted Because "It Costs Nothing." "Hello!" said I. "What's that?" and I stopped to pick it up.

A DAY OF RECKONING. You Cannot Fool All of the People All of the Time.

The recent condemnation as unfit for further service of a number of gas and electric lines has caused the closing down of some of them at a dead loss to the taxpayers.

Go Slow on City Ownership. Until politics in America is purified far beyond its present condition any large experiment in government ownership will be a chief headache.

Another Plant Abandoned. After many years' trial of its municipal electric lighting plant Alexandria, Va., has finally abandoned the works.

TIGER AND SNAKE VICTIMS

In India Alone 20,000 Human Beings Perish Yearly.

The annual death rate from snake bites in India is from 15,000 to 20,000. This represents a greater mortality than results from the epidemics of some diseases there.

At the last competition tigers averaged an annual killing of 150 adults, while the man-eaters and wolves between them made a man-eating and wolf-ber of children.

There are tigers—and tigers. In fact, there are three different sorts of tigers in India. One is the Bengal tiger, the killer, a powerful, bushy-bearded, as cunning as a fox, as lithe as a steel rod, and with teeth and claws that rip through the hide of any animal.

Once a man-eater, always a man-eater. A man-eating tiger is almost invariably an old tiger whose teeth and claws are beginning to lose their pristine agility.

When an imperial mail carrier falls victim, then the government becomes interested and all the great snails for miles around become busy.

Poisonous snakes literally swarm in India. Cobrae live in dooryards, and a man will find a snake in a kitchen.

Enormous Reservoir. One of the largest works of man's hands is the artificial lake or reservoir, in India, at Rajpootana.

Snake-bitten dead street continues 32 houses, which so soon will enter because of the abnormal death rate that has prevailed there in the past!

Negro Judges in Chicago Lynchings in Mississippi

A Texas paper says that "Chicago is just awakening to a realization of what it means to have a negro Judge, and the howl of protest which began yesterday the 8th gained in spirit today the 9th, when it was announced that Frederick L. Barnett, the Judge in question, would not be assigned exclusively to the trial of cases involving persons of his own race."

General Shafter Succums to Pneumonia

Bakersfield, Cal., Nov. 13. - Major General William R. Shafter, U. S. A., retired, died at 12:45 p. m. yesterday at the ranch of Captain McKittrick, his son-in-law, twenty miles south from this city, after an illness of seven days.

While returning from the polls last Tuesday, Gen. Shafter contracted a severe chill which developed into an acute attack of pneumonia that baffled the best medical skill.

Interment was in the Post Cemetery at San Francisco.

Bill Arp says: "I never took a paper that did not pay me more than I paid for it. One time an old friend of mine started a paper 'way down south and sent a copy to me. I subscribed just to encourage him, and after a while it published an order to sell a lot at public auction. So I inquired about the lot, and told a friend to run it up to $50. He bid the lot off at $38, and it sold in less than one month for $100, so I made $62 clear by taking the paper. My father told me that when he was a young man he saw a notice in a paper that a school teacher was wanted away off in a distant country, and he went and got the situation, and a little girl was sent to him, and after a while she grew up sweet and beautiful and he married her. Now, if he had not taken that paper, what do you suppose would have become of me? I would have been some other fellow, or maybe I wouldn't have

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup

Pleasant to take and does not gripe or nauseate

Cures Chronic Constipation, Stomach and Liver Trouble

Stimulation Without Irritation.

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup is a new laxative syrup combined with the delicious flavor of fruits, and is very pleasant to take. It will not gripe or sicken, and it is much more pleasant and effective than Pills, Tablets and Saline Waters, as it does not derange the Stomach, or irritate the Kidneys, Liver or Bowels.

Constipation.

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup will positively cure chronic constipation as it restores the natural action of the intestinal tract. Ordinary cathartics may give temporary relief but the stomach is upset and the bowels are irritated without any permanent benefit having been derived.

The condition of the patient remains unchanged. The Stomach, Liver and Bowels have not been stimulated and in a few days a stronger purgative may have to be taken. This is why Pills and Aperient Waters never give permanent relief. Their violent action results in an unnatural movement of the bowels and it is necessary to keep taking them indefinitely.

Why ORINO is different.

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup is the only preparation that really acts upon all of the digestive organs. Other preparations act upon the lower bowel only and do not touch the Liver. It can very readily be seen that a preparation that does not act upon all of the digestive organs can not cure Chronic Constipation, Torpid Liver, Indigestion, Sour Stomach, etc.

For Biliousness and Sick Headache.

Take ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup. It sweetens the stomach, aids digestion and acts as a gentle stimulant on the liver and bowels without irritating these organs.

Clears the Complexion.

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup stimulates the liver and thoroughly cleanses the system and clears the complexion of pimples and blotches. It is the best laxative for women and children as it is mild and pleasant, and does not gripe or sicken. Refuse substitutes.

OUR GUARANTEE Take ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup and if you are not satisfied your money will be refunded.

THE TEMPTATIONS OF THE FATHER OF MONASTICISM.

What were the temptations of St. Anthony? St. Anthony was one of the earliest names placed on the calendar. He is called the father of monasticism because his life and teachings were really the foundation of the many monkish orders of a mediæval times. He was born in a city of Egypt in 251 A. D. of parents who were both wealthy and pious, and he early decided to give his life up to religious contemplation. He went into the wilderness, taking up his solitary abode in an old ruin on a high hill, where he disciplined himself in austerity. But his devotions were interrupted by a protracted series of sadly irrelevant hallucinations, believed to be sent by the devil to tempt him aside from his holy life. He was visited successively by visions of all the idolatries of the early world, by the princes and potentates of history and other interesting characters. According to the legend, his devoutness at last broke the power of the visions, and they leave him forever. He remained twenty years in his lonely ruin, then, yielding to the wishes of other anchorites, went to Memphis and there founded the first monastery, which was little more than a group of cells. After six years of teaching he returned to his desert home and at last died there at the age of 106 years. The French novelist Gustave Flaubert has written an entire volume on "The Temptations of St. Anthony," giving all his visions with most elaborate descriptions. A decided slipshod, not to say profane, poem bearing the same title and in the style of the "Inglorious Legends" is sometimes included with these humorous pieces. But the poem did not write it. It was the work of one Tom Sellers, a much inferior scribbler.—Housekeeper.

INHERITANCE OF LEGAL TERMS.

Tarrantia Tom—Why did Bill call up the tenderfoot?

Lava Red Pete—It all come up Bill's distress' ignorance of legal terms.

T. T.—How 'uz that?

L. B. F.—Well, Bill owed the short-shorn some money an' was sorter sold about payin'. So the stranger witer him a letter sayin', "I will draw on you at eight." An' Bill thought that meant a gun play, so when he meets up with the stranger he draws first. It was a misunderstanding.—Cleveland Leader.

How Spongers Are Propagated.

There are a great many things which the scientists of today are endeavoring to explain and a great many others over which they have frequent discussions swing to a difference of opinion. The method by which spongers are propagated when left to themselves is one of these mooted scientific questions. Some declare that they are reproduced from true eggs; others are equally positive that they are propagated from eggs.

OBESITY A DISEASE.

It is not, as a rule, the result of laziness or gluttony.

It is a mistake and an injustice to many persistent folk to assume that all fat persons are gluttons or lazy eaters. Very many excessively corpulent people, especially women, are small eaters, while some of the most doughy trenchermen are gaunt and thin.

It is not the quantity so much as the quality of the food one eats which determines the putting on of flesh. You it is not always the kind of food that makes the obese, for some stout people eat very sparingly of sugars and starches, while there are large consumers of sweets who never put on flesh. In such cases it is a question of constancy in the use of heredity and not at all, or very little, one of diet.

Another prevalent error in regard to fat people is that they are inert or lazy and never exercise. Of course exercise does increase the process of nutrition and so leads to the burning up of superfluous fat, but at the same time it causes more of the appetite to be directed to the digestion of a greater quantity of food. So one thing balances the other, and want of exercise does not have a very potent cause of obesity. Many very fat persons are it is true, sluggish, but they have become so since putting on their flesh, for it makes a great difference whether one carries 150 pounds about when one walks or whether it is necessary to propel half as much again or even double the weight. It is a tremendous handicap, and there is small wonder that the lightweights do the most exercising.

Obesity, indeed, is usually a disease and not merely the result of laziness or gluttony. Its cause lies deep down in the animal economy, in among those systematic chemical changes by which the food we take into the mouth is converted into blood and bones, fat, muscles, skin, hair and brain cells. It can often be ward off by a proper diet and mode of living, especially if taken in hand from the very first; not allowed to get the upper hand, but the tendency to stoutness will generally persist through life and can only be modified, but never removed.

Any treatment for the radical removal of flesh should be carried out under the advice of a physician, as violent measures directed to this end may be productive of terrible harm to the constitution.—Youth's Companion.

ROBBERING A BANK SAFE.

THE EXPERIENCE OF AN OLD TIME EXPERT CRACKSMAN.

He Was Hired to Do the Job, and He Did It Well, but the Reward Was Not What Had Been Promised by His Unscrupulous Employer.

"One day in the fall of 1874," said an old retired detective, "one of the most finished and successful bank burglars that ever was in this country was walking across Sixth avenue, New York, enjoying his parole and the fresh sunshine. There were a whole lot of indentments hanging over him, of course, but they didn't worry him any, for he happened to be on pretty fair terms with some of the men attached to the municipal administration at the time. As he swung along he was coasted by a prosperous looking man whose address he did not know, although the citizens addressed him as the burglar by his right name. The man, finding after some stalling that the man who knew his name wasn't a detective, took him into a cafe and asked him some things.

"In the first place, how did you know me? he inquired of the stranger.

"Well, it appeared that the burglar had been pointed out to the stranger by a detective who was so shabby that he never had time for superstitious, extending aid and comfort to the gang, one of the old time bands of New York crooks.

"Are you the right," said the cracksmen then.

"Now, I don't suppose you are seeking my acquaintance for the sake of being introduced into society or for the enjoyment of my winning ways. What's your lay?"

"Then the stranger up and told the burglar what his graft was.

"'In the cashier of a bank a bit up the state,' said he to the burglar. 'The directors' don't know anything about it, but I'm short in my accounts. The only one time for me out of it. The bank will have to be robbed by professional cracksmen. That will let me make my addition I'll expect to get my share of the robbery. I want you to rob the bank. You'll find $50,000 in cash in it on the night you arrange the job. I'll attend to that. Of course I want my bit out of that, $20,000 at least. I've always heard that you're square in these divisions of plunder, and therefore I'll trust you to hand me my share after you've done the job for putting you on it.'

"This sounds good enough to eat," said the cracksmen. "That is, it's so sweet that it's almost cloying. Now I've heard your proposition. You give me a couple of days to investigate you, and then we'll talk business."

"They arranged another meeting at the same place a couple of days later, and in the meantime the cracksmen, whose facilities were the best, looked into the job. He found that his man really was the cashier of an up state bank in a town not more than an hour's run from New York. So when the cashier called at the appointed time the burglar was ready to talk business.

"You'll have a hard night's work," said the cashier, "for in order to avert suspicion I'll have to leave the vaults and safe locked tighter'n a drum, as usual. You'll need several assistants."

"That's my end of it," replied the cracksmen. "You just let me handle those little details. Every man to me there. They don't make 'em so strong that I can't get into 'em."

"Then all of the details were arranged and the robbery was fixed for a certain night in the following week. The cashier was especially sullen that he should get his share of the proceeds of the crib cracking. The cracksmen assured him that if there was $50,000 in the job $25,000 would be enough for himself and his associates and the cashier would get the rest. On the night fixed the cracksmen and three of his best men went up to the town and pulled off the job. It was a matter of four hours before the gang after overpowering and gagging the watchman got into the main safe. They found it empty. Then they tackled the smaller safes. These, too, were empty. The top notch cracksmen was pretty mad, naturally.

The safe had been played for a good thing and he knew it. The cashier had simply looted the bank himself, and the job was over, which he had arranged was to cover up his own trail. There have been hundreds of instances without number developed from among bank cashiers, but I never heard of a safer job than that.

"Of course the cracksmen and his pals had nothing for it but to pack their kits and get back to New York. They weren't, of course, in a position to say anything about how they'd been done. The top notch cracksmen had tucked in the afternoon papers the third accounts of how the bank had been robbed of cash and securities approximating $100,000 in amount and granted credit and cuss. The bank's failure was announced a few days later.

"The cashier? Oh, within a dozen years he died a beggar on the streets of New York."

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

The only way to see a people know their way.

Hospitality is often nothing more than loquaciousness.

The secret of being safe after some time is to know your safe after some one knows you have it.

If you are naturally rude it's pretty hard to disguise the fact.

Are you so conceited that you believe people never talk behind your back?

The trouble is some pushers are not liable to push on the wrong side as of the right.

Watch your side issues. Don't give them so much attention as to ruin your main issue, which makes you a living.

Don't be mad if you are interrupted when you are talking. It may have prevented you from saying something foolish.—Atchison Globe.

Why They Got No Mail.

An official of the postoffice department at Washington tells of a new postoffice that was established in a certain small town. A native of the place, the proprietor of a grocery, was installed as postmaster. It was not very long before complaints were made with the department that no mail was being forwarded from the new office. An inspector was detailed to investigate the matter. When he called upon the postmaster and asked why no mail had been sent out, the former pointed to a large mail bag hanging up in a corner and said:

"The mail's in that bag. I sh'n't send it out yet because the bag ain't no whinerish full."

Bill's Generosity.

One of the many persons whom Alfred Bell, the diamond multilionaire, had befriended, made him very grateful and abuse. Later the indigent fell on evil times. Though down in the gutter, he still had a little shame and would not ask Mr. Bell for help and help.

The South African diamond magnate sent for one of the unucky one's friends and said: "Go and see So-and-so. Ask if he wants any help and give it to him, but don't let him think it is from me. I have had differences with him, and perhaps it would annoy him."
