Gold mines of Virgini are likely to rival those of California, if we are to believe the accounts which we see in some of the Virginia papers.

PROSCRIPTION.-Because the publishers of the Ohio State Journal have been de-prived of the Public Printing, (the same prived of the Public Printing, (the same having been given to a more worthy paper), they have, as we are informed, discharged every Democratic journeyman from there employment. This is Ohio Whiggery; but we are happy to say that such a spirit does not prevail here to any great. extent. Nothing better could be expected of one so utterly reckless in political affairs as is WILLIM B. TREAL, the Smite Journal. f the State Journal.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—From the Cincin-ti Chronicle of Tuesday, we learn that the extensive Mills and Distillery of Mr. Kughler, above Millford, Ohio, were des-troyed by fire, on Mouday morning last. Loss estimated at $20,000—partially in-

SUIT GAINED .- The great suit, which has been pending in the Supreme court of Pennsylvania, in which the Bank of Kentucky was plaintiff and the Schuylkil Bank defendant, has been decided in favor Bank defendant, has been docuted in lawor of the plaintiff. The surt was brought by the Bank of Kentucky, for the recovery of the value of stock fraudulently issued by said Schuylkill Bank, some years, ago, while that Bank was an agent for the Bank of Kentucky. By this decision the Bank of Kentucky. By this decision the Bank of Kentucky saint, it is said, severe Bank of Kentucky gains, it is said, sever al hundred thousand dollars.

BARTLETT'S COMMERCIAL COLLEGE .- It BASTLET'S COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.—II gives us pleasure to see that this Institution, (of which we have repeatedly spoken before,) is still going a head, in all its departments. There is, probably, no school in the West at which a young man nabe prepared to enter upon a business commercial life in so short a time, and small as repense, as at this College, and parents and guardians would do well to patronize it more generally.

We are gratified to see that our young friend, Mr. S. S. Packard still retains his situation there, as professor of Penmanship, and that a Ladies' class, in that ship, and that a Ladies' class, in that beautiful and ornamental art, has been formed, under his instruction. He is one of the rery best penmen of the day, and his personal good looks and accom-plishments, will be almost certain to give him a host of admmirers amongst the la-dies who may be his neutil. ho may be his pupils.

Odd Pellows Procession. We learn from a private letter to a gen the dearn from a brivate letter to a gen-tleman in this city, that the Odd Fellows are to have a grand procession at Frank-fort, during the contemplated visit of Gen. Taylor to that city. No doubt it will be anyior to that city. No doubt it will be a rich time; and we presume the Fraternity of Mayaville will be there, in their tull wirength. The Orientals would turn out, but for one reason—the town of Frankfort would have to be enlarged, before they could all awares there. fore they could all quarter there.

The same paper, a day or two since, made a flourish of trumpets because Mr. Clay happened to fall down and bump his head!

MURDERERS APPREHENDED .- Two n gro men have been arrested in Fayette county, and lodged in the Lexington jail, charged with the murder of Henry Yell man last December. They were arres-ted on Saturday last, and had confessed the foul deed.
