THE INDEPENDENT.

PITCH & CO., Publishers. OFFICE—Upper Williamson Avenue at Fourth Street. TERMS—$20 per year, in advance.

THURSDAY, MARCH 13, 1884.

Our editorial friends in W. Va. send us a statement that the late Mr. W. C. Miller, who was a prominent citizen of that State, has been elected to the office of Governor of that State for the year 1884.

We repeat this statement from an authority that appears to be reliable. It is a fact that the late Mr. W. C. Miller has been elected to the office of Governor of that State for the year 1884.

For the purpose of the present article, we have not space to repeat it all, but we will say that the late Mr. W. C. Miller has been elected to the office of Governor of that State for the year 1884.

Monday next, March 17th, at Parkersburg, in the city of West Virginia, a public meeting will be held for the purpose of organizing a new party.

This little news we find in a city paper. It is a report that the late Mr. W. C. Miller has been elected to the office of Governor of that State for the year 1884.

The President of the Cincinnati National Convention has been elected to the office of Governor of that State for the year 1884.

The daily paper of the Cincinnati National Convention has been elected to the office of Governor of that State for the year 1884.
