Powell County Illiteracy Commission

The following letter has been received from Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, with the request for publication:

Snpt. Kate S. Bohannon, Rev. J. C. Hanley, and Dudley Caudell, of Stanton, and Miss Betsey Bowen, Bowen, and M. P. O’Mara, Clay City, have been appointed as members of the Powell County Illiteracy Commission to represent the State as generals in the war against illiteracy in this county. The Kentucky Illiteracy Commission has made no mistake in commissioning these men and women to this important work. They receive no pay, but they have the work of statesmen and heroes in their hands. Let every man, woman and child rally to their support, and remove illiteracy from Powell county this year, and then be ready to help wipe it out of some of the other counties, if they need help, before 1920.
