Based on the conviction that creativity is fundamental to both living and education and that the result of the creative process is a kind of knowledge deserving of the utmost attention whether it is approached from the standpoint of the writer or reader, the Writers' Workshop is designed to perform two important functions: (1) stimulation and direction of the writer, and (2) understanding of creativity and its various forms of expression for the interested person.

The workshop will provide a program of conferences, discussions, suggested readings, courses in poetry, fiction, nonfiction and play writing, and evening lectures under the guidance of experienced personnel that should be valuable to the participants whether the desire is for critical evaluation of manuscripts, methods of teaching writing, or keener insight into the creative process and its techniques.

Visiting faculty will include: Robert Francis, Jane Mayhall, Dayton Kohler, David Madden, Hollis Summers, Robert Hazel, and others.

For additional information write: Mr. Albert Stewart, Morehead State College, Morehead, Kentucky.
