Historical Information: The Kentucky Folk Art Center was established in 1985 as part of the Morehead State University as part of the growing folk art collection. The collection was relocated from the campus Art Department museum to the Garred House in 1992 and again in 1996 to the Union Grocery Store building on First Street in downtown Morehead.

Scope and Content: Collection consists of newsletters, brochures, art exhibit catalogs, newspaper clippings and ephemera published by the Kentucky Folk Art Center from 1991 to 2000. Included with the collection are newspaper clippings from regional papers, published annual reports and a copy of an application that the KFAC building be added to the National Register of Historic Places in 1997. The KFAC houses a permanent collection of nearly 1,400 pieces of self-taught art.
