Monday morning, Feb. 18, 1840.

We have given up the space usually devoted to editorials, to the sensible and well-timed communication from 'ONE OF THE PEOPLE.'

FIRST ARRIVAL.—It will be seen on our advertising columns, that Messrs. COVINGTON & BENDER, Hardware Merchants, on Market street, have received their Spring stock of goods in advance of all others.

MAKING A WHISTLE OF A MAN'S TAIL.—Married on the 7th ult., in Chenango County, N. Y., by Rev. Mr. Solvaber, Mr. Jonathan Whistle to Miss Sadutha Pigtail.

For the very handsome compliment thus paid to the humble merits of our journal, we ought, perhaps, to say something about the worth of the Flag, but we fear it would be to no purpose.

We have ever looked upon the Plough as one of the most fearless and unflinching democratic papers in Kentucky, and hence we desire to see it perpetuated.

The Editor of the Centre State American thinks that we must have a poor exchange list, if it is the best paper, which comes to our office.

Gen. Taylor, it is said, will arrive in Cincinnati on the 14th inst., or St. Valentine's day. He will pass up the river about Friday next, when we hope, our citizens will have an opportunity to see him.

We have received the splendid print of the Washington family, promised by friend SERRANUS, and it is certainly one of the prettiest pictures ever published.

Gen. TAYLOR is expected to reach Frankfort on next Wednesday. The ladies of that city have had a splendid charity manufactured in Louisville, expressly for a present to the old Hero, under the impression no doubt, that the seat hereafter occupied by our Presidents, would prove an uneasy one for Gen. Taylor.

An ENTERTAINER.—We learn from the Hickman (Ky.) Newsletter of the 29th ult., that there was quite a quaking of the earth in those "digging" on Wednesday morning, which caused some of the citizens to "turn on" sooner than usual.

An UNFORTUNATE OCCURRENCE.—We have heard of a very unfortunate occurrence in Winchester, on the morning of the 15th inst. A difficulty occurred between Sen. Hanson, Jr., (son of Samuel Hanson, LAWRENCE, bar keeper at Mrs. Kelly's Hotel, when Hanson drew a pistol and fired it at Lawrence, the ball striking Lawrence in the neck and lodging in the throat. Lawrence was not dead yesterday morning, but about 4 o'clock, but it was thought could not survive.

The Oriental Evanc Order of 3031. This benevolent order consists of the winning golden opinions from the public and bids fair to outstrip all other Institutions, in its onward march to fame and usefulness. A Bill has already been reported in the General Assembly, for its incorporation and its praises are on every tongue.

We look upon this as highly complimentary to Maj. Buckley, and hope that he may yet succeed in accomplishing his undertaking.

The thanks of the Auditors were also voted to RICHARD HENRY COLLIS, Esq., Editor of the Mayville Eagle, for the favorable notice taken of the Institution in the article which we append below, and a committee of three appointed to tender the same in person.

The Evanc Order 1001. We notice in the Commonwealth that Capt. Buckley has reported in the House of Representatives, a Bill to incorporate the Grand Auditors of the Oriental Evanc Order of 1001 in this City.

It is in his own U. S. Congress, we vote for Electors to vote for President and Vice President. And why? Some insist it cannot be otherwise, as long as the principle of three-fifths of the colored population is changed.

It can be easily changed; but the people suffer evils, while they are tolerable, sooner than risk a change. Some think it was so framed, because the Electors were voted for by Districts, like members of Congress; and every man would be able to lay his hand upon the man he elected to carry his vote, and could, therefore, be trusted to vote for him for President, &c.

And thereupon, said committee reported the following Resolutions: Resolved, That the names Guthrie, D. R. Haggard, John P. Bruce, W. Clites, and John A. Goodson, be a committee to revise the constitution of the permanent organization of this meeting.

Resolved, That it is practicable and desirable to elect all the officers of the Commonwealth by the people.

Resolved, That a committee of ten, one from each Congressional district, be appointed to report business for the consideration of the Convention.

Resolved, That the officers appointed to preside over the Convention, be retained and continue as the officers of this meeting.

For the Daily Flag. The people look to the Newspapers, and Lawyers for information, on their right to vote for all officers, State, District, county, and precinct. We know they have the right, when making a new Constitution, unless they choose to surrender it to the Government, or the General Assembly, as they did in the old one.

Some are ever opposed to our right to elect judges—our District or Circuit Judges. They desire to elect magistrates, sheriffs, constables, and clerks; but mercy upon us! they say, keep us from electing judges! I find many good men as much alarmed at the idea, as we were.

to vote directly for them ourselves, leaving them to fill vacancies, if any occur, until the next regular term—which should, in no instance, exceed five years.

Tell them of this, now they have received upon a Convention, and prove to them their rights, so plain that none can doubt.

action on the part of those who concur with them in the choice of delegates to the Convention.—Therefore, I am persuaded, that we do not desire to contemplate any change in the relative condition of master and slave in the new Constitution, and intend a firm and decided resistance to any such change.

Resolved, That we desire to change the term of office, as now exists, to a prescribed term of years.

Resolved, That we desire to change the present mode of appointing many of the officers in the State, and as far as practicable, consistent with an efficient government, to restore the appointment to the people.

Resolved, That we desire, biennial sessions of the Legislature, and the legislation restricted to general laws operating alike upon all.

Resolved, That we desire to provide for the payment of the present State debt, and vest the Legislature in the power to contract debts.

Resolved, That we desire to make it imperative to establish a system of public instruction and provide for the education of its people.

Resolved, That we have no objection to a proper provision for colonizing the present free colored population, who shall hereafter be set free, but protest against abolition or emancipation without the consent of the owners, unless upon full compensation and certain provisions.

Resolved, That we favor a provision in the constitution, that shall not go into operation until it shall be approved by a vote of three-fourths of the Legislature.

Resolved, That the question of constitutional reform is one for the whole people, and is not, and should not, be made a party question.

Resolved, That we recommend to the friends of constitutional reform, in the several counties, who concur with us in opinion upon the subject of slavery, and in opinion upon the other subjects of reform, to hold conventions and select convenient candidates favorable to their views, and sustain them without regard to former party distinctions.

Resolved, That consultation of the selected candidates, and union of action, is essential to success in the desired reform, and that no party ambition should be allowed to mar the prospect of success.

Resolved, That the preamble, and resolution No. 1, 2, and 3, passed unanimously, and No. 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12, adopted unanimously.

Resolved, That it is practicable and desirable to elect all the officers of the Commonwealth by the people.

Resolved, That a committee of ten, one from each Congressional district, be appointed to report business for the consideration of the Convention.

Resolved, That the officers appointed to preside over the Convention, be retained and continue as the officers of this meeting.

Coughs, Colds, &c. Consumption is a disease which is destroying its victims to the number of thousands, without being arrested in its progress by the best medicine known to man at the present time. A single day is costing and losing thousands of dollars, and is not only giving rise to the most distressing and dangerous diseases, but is also the cause of the most distressing and dangerous diseases, and is also the cause of the most distressing and dangerous diseases.
