LOCAL ELECTIONS OF COUNTY BOARD AND CITY OFFICIALS TAKE CENTER OF POLITICAL STAGE HERE

Two City Tickets Filed And Six Candidates Out For Board.

Six candidates for the office of member of the Rowan County Board of Education, two complete city tickets as well as two additional candidates for the office of police judge, will keep the voters of Rowan county in general and of Morehead in particular fairly busy on election day, Tuesday November 5. This means that in Morehead each voter will receive three ballots on which to vote when they enter the booth.

The state ballot this year is unusually large with a number of parties in addition to the two great ones represented. Naturally little or no attention will be given to any but the Democratic and Republican tickets.

In Morehead two full city tickets are in the field, the old council headed by J. C. Walls as Police Judge. In addition to the two full tickets, Scotch Mitters and Melvin Johnson have filed as independent candidates for Police Judge.

On the ticket with Mr. Walls are S. P. Caudill, Robert Bishop, W. H. Rice, W. C. Lippin, N. E. Kennard and J. T. Trumbo. The new ticket filed includes J. L. Holbrook, Ern Patton, S. M. Caudill, S. P. Wheeler, Mort Roberts and J. B. Calvert.

Filed for the office of members of the county board of education are six men from various sections of the county. These six are D. B. Leebetter, present member of the board running for re-election; Oscar Hall; Herb Bradley; Robert Cornette O. J. Clay; and Sam C. Caudill.

Two members of the board are to be elected this year, no every voter is urged to remember and vote for two of the six candidates. In addition to the state ticket, voters in two of the districts will be asked to vote for candidates for that office. Vacancies caused by the death of the elected magistrates, makes the election this year necessary at both Farmer or Magisterial District No. 2 and at Haldeman or

Horton Directs Initial Broadcast

Foster Choral Club Will Sing On First Of Either Series.

Morehead State Teachers College will inaugurate a series of weekly radio broadcasts over station WCML, Ashland, Kentucky, next Thursday afternoon, Oct. 24, at 2:30 Central Standard Time. The station, which operates on a wave-band of 1310 kilocycles, will air Morehead's weekly programs every Thursday at this hour.

This program will feature the Foster Choral Club, composed of twenty-four students, under the direction of L. H. Horton, head of the department of music. The group will sing a varied program of both accompanied and unaccompanied choruses. They will be assisted by Dorothy J. Riggs, instructor of piano; Jane Scott, accompanist; Evelyn Harburn, cellist; and Cesar Horst, futeist. Harry J. Beattie and Alene Huff, soprano, and Crawford Adkins, bass, will be soloists.

In addition to the above the chorus consists of Janet Judd, Darlyn Williams, Kathleen Shepherd, Virginia Harburn, Katherine Blair, Kathleen Shinkle, Marjorie Briscoe, Thelma Carmichael, Leola Caudill, George Rarchoff, Clyde Smith, Dallas Cornette, John Paul Nichol, Helen O'Drury, Leo Oppenheimer, Harold Blair, Gordon Hackney, Austin Alfrey, Sam Bradley, and Howard Moore.

This chorus sang at a Century of Progress Exposition in Chicago in August, 1934 and has broadcast from WEAS, WLW, as well as over both NBC and CBC chains.

CRITICISM OF CAFETERIA HEAD AND BAND LEADER ENTIRELY UNJUSTIFIED BY FACTS

In this issue of the News appears the final report of the Grand Jury for the October term of the Rowan Circuit Court. The first few paragraphs of the report are the usual discussion of the conditions of the county as found by the Grand Jury, together with recommendations as to means and methods of improvement. The final paragraph however, evidently added after the report was ready for submission, and as an after thought, is not only unfair to the men mentioned, the director of the band and the director of the cafeteria at the college, but indicates a lack of close investigation on the part of the members of the Grand Jury.

While the report itself does not go into details of the investigation which resulted in the criticism, an article published in the Courier-Journal of Sunday, October 20, states that "the Grand Jury criticized D. J. Gammage, manager of the cafeteria for entertaining Lieut. Gov. A. B. Chandler at a lunch here on the afternoon following Mr. Chandler's address, at which several leaders of the Democratic party were present." Mr. M. E. George, director of the band was also criticized for playing at both the Republican and Democratic rallies on the days on which Swann and Chandler spoke. Neither Mr. Gammage or Mr. George was mentioned by name in the report.

In our opinion, humble as it may be, neither Mr. Gammage nor Mr. George is entitled to the criticism, nor are the college authorities. A close and complete investigation would undoubtedly have put the entire situation in a different light.

For this condition, the members of the Grand Jury could not be blamed, since they could not know who to summons before themselves for information.

For the benefit of the members of the Grand Jury as well as of the people at large who may have been given the wrong impression we wish to explain the situation.

FIRST THE CAFETERIA. There has long been a ruling made by the Board of Regents of the college that any member of the faculty was privileged to entertain visiting guests including eminent men of the state at the cafeteria. Lieut. Gov. Chandler is one of the eminent men of the state, who has a number of personal friends on the faculty of the college. When he visited in Morehead Mr. Gammage DID NOT entertain him. His friends, in view of the fact that the Board of Regents had made the ruling permitting it, years ago, simply arranged a lunch in his honor following the speaking. The lunch was paid for by those who attended, including Mr. Chandler and Howard H. Anderson, press representative of the Courier-Journal. As a matter of fact he guests paid a higher rate for their lunch than that usually charged for the cafeteria service.

Mr. Gammage was not at fault at all certainly was not entitled to criticism. He was not indulging in politics and was not entertaining Mr. Chandler. He was doing what he had a perfect right to do, in accordance with the ruling of the Board of Regents.

It would have been just as easy to have called Mr. Gammage before the Grand Jury as it was to call some of the help. Evidently it suited the purpose of someone, not a member of the Grand Jury to leave the wrong impression in their minds and to pass it on to the public.

There is but one conclusion possible. If anyone is to blame, and in our opinion there is no blame attached, then it is to the members of the Board of Regents who made the ruling permitting eminent guests to be entertained, not at the expense of the state or cafeteria, but at the expense of the visitors themselves.

ABOUT THE BAND THE band at the Morehead State Teachers College is an organization which has "no visible means of support." It is a really good organization which deserves the support of the entire community. College authorities in view of the fact that the band has no means of defraying expenses, such as uniforms and trips with the various teams, have sanctioned the use of the band for various occasions, such as the fair, political gatherings and the like. The band in each instance is paid for its services and the fact that the two parties in question between the two parties is proof enough that the director is not playing politics. Incidentally the members of the band are members of both parties and played for both rallies.

The cause of the entire investigation unquestionably lay in the fact that it had been rumored about that Mr. George favored the Democrats by charging them less than they did the Republicans. It is said that the Republicans paid the band $25.00 for its services, while charging the Democrats but $10.00. That again will bear explanation, since it is far from the truth.

In November 1934, the band was anxious to go to Richmond to play for the annual home coming day there. They had no funds. The Editor of the Rowan County News went down in his pocket for $20.00 and by calling on a few friends succeeded in raising enough funds to send the band to Richmond. At that time Mr. George agreed to furnish the music for a concert at a time selected. That engagement was filled when Mr. Chandler spoke here. Since the editor of the News is a Democrat he feels no compunction in saying that the band was paid, not $10.00 by the Democrats, but was paid $30.00 for the music they furnished when Chandler spoke here.

Personally we do not even know the politics of the director of the band. Neither do we care. He obligated himself to no political party and to no candidate by hiring his band to them. We can see no justice in the charge of political activities attributed to either Mr. Gammage or Mr. George. And we sincerely hope that the college authorities will assume the attitude they should assume by completely ignoring the criticism made so unjustly.

Mother Of L. H. Horton To Hold Carnival At Dies At Cleveland High School Oct. 30

Mrs. C. M. Horton, of Cleveland, Ohio, died at the home of her daughter Tuesday of this week. Death was due to arthritis. Mrs. Horton had been in failing health for a long time, and her death at the age of 70 years was not unexpected.

Morehead High School will sponsor a big Halloween Carnival in their gymnasium on Wednesday, October 30, at 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. Horton was the mother of Prof. L. H. Horton of this city, and had spent the past year with her son and family in this city, where she had built up a large circle of friends. Recently she went to Cleveland to make her home with her daughter there.

Numerous attractions will be offered, including the Hall of Terror, Fortune Teller, Bingo Stand, and Freak Show.

BUDDY ALFREY GIVEN SENTENCE OF 21 YEARS AS THREE OTHERS GET PRISON TERMS IN OCTOBER TERM

A. O. STANLEY TO SPEAK HERE THIS AFTERNOON

Senator A. O. Stanley, former United States Senator and former governor of Kentucky will speak here this evening at 7:30 in the interest of the Democratic ticket. Senator Stanley is one of the most forceful speakers on the platform today, and has been heard on many previous occasions.

Wilson, Alfrey, Wright And Shingles Are Taken To Frankfort

The October term of the Circuit Court adjourned Saturday after a two weeks session during which four men were convicted and received prison sentences, while many more received fines for misdemeanors and minor offenses. Of the four to receive prison sentences Buddy Alfrey was charged with the heaviest, being given twenty one years in the reformatory at Frankfort for the killing of Everett Sweeney. Others to receive sentences were Edward Wright, charged with shooting and wounding, one year; Otis Wilson charged with murder of Harry Pultz, two years; and Davis Shingles, charged with grand larceny, two years.

Alex Baldrige Dies Of Blood Poison Tuesday

Alex Baldrige died at his home in Clearfield on Monday of this week. Death was caused by blood poisoning.

Burial was made in the Morgan Park Cemetery, with the funeral to be preached on the third Sunday in November.

Mr. Baldrige was at the time of his death aged 53 years, having been born on October 1, 1882. He is survived by his wife, and eight children three girls and five boys.

C. P. Duley Wins Coveted Post

C. P. Duley was elected grand junior warden of the Grand Lodge of the Masons of Kentucky, Wednesday, after an afternoon of balloting at the Strand Theatre, where both the Grand Lodge and the Grand Chapter were holding sessions.

There were six aspirants to the coveted post of junior wardenship which automatically puts its possessor in line for the office of grand master.

A slight increase in the membership of the Masonic Lodge was reported by the retiring grand master, Hebert Henderson, Irvin. Other reports disclosed that a water main had been laid from Shelbyville to the Old Masons' Home and that the Masonic Widows and Orphans' Home now has its own postoffice.

The Grand Lodge held its final session Thursday morning when its executive officers and committees to have one of the strongest teams were installed.

Transylvania Team To Meet Eagles Friday

The Eagles meet Transylvania here Saturday afternoon. Transy is said to have one of the strongest teams they have had in years and are set to complete the season's record by defeating the Eagles. In spite of the lack of $150 sustained by the Eagles last Saturday the local birds are planning on giving their utmost to win this battle and to get ready for the coming homecoming tussle against Eastern the following Saturday, Nov. 2.

In the meantime the Eagles, Bill Scroggins' little boys will meet Eastern at Richmond on Thursday of this week. The yearlings have a record of 10-0, having taken it on a road from Kentucky 20 to 6, a really remarkable record and having tied an air minded Georgetown team that outweighed the locals several pounds to the man. Georgetown incidentally over the Circuit College by a score of 7-6 which would give Morehead an edge over Centre, if and when they meet.

The four were taken to Frankfort on Monday of this week, following the close of the court on Saturday.

Other cases tried with their results, since last Wednesday were: Bernard Harris, charged with drunkenness, fined away.

John Black, Otis Eversole, Jack Tackett, John Saunders and Sam Alfrey, charged with drunkenness, continued to the next term.

Clint Bowling and Marion Vanderpool, charged with drunkenness, fined away.

W. B. Keeton, charged with shooting and wounding, continued to first day of March term.

Anthony Reynolds, charged with shooting and wounding, continued to second day of March term.

Charles Denniston, charged with unlawful conversion of property Bond forfeited for failure to appear and bench warrant issued.

Wayne Brown, charged with carelessly knowing women under 18 years, not guilty.

Grand Jury Turns In Report Saturday Scores College Folk For Alleged Participation In Politics

The Grand Jury for final report we have been in session 9 days. We have made and produced in open Court 55 indictments for violation of the law. We have endeavored to cover most of the country during our sittings and when the facts authorized it, reported true bills.

We have given special attention to the road situation and find many of the county roads in a deplorable condition. The road between Cogswell and the Harlan Ellington place is in need of attention and repair. In fact it is so unfit for travel that the mail man in delivering the mail has to leave his car and either carry the mail or horseback or walk a very considerable distance, and report has come to us that unless this road is put in condition suitable for travel for the persons carrying the mail, the people are liable to lose the benefit of free delivery service.

The North Fork of Triplett road is badly in need of culverts and bridges; in like manner Ramey Creek road, and the road intersecting with the Morehead and Peachburg road on the south side of the county for a distance of four miles along the river is in bad condition. The road on Three Lick Fork in some places has to follow the creek bed, where it would be an easy matter to change the course of the road along higher ground and provide a suitable road for travel. In like manner the Clear Fork road is in bad condition.

Unless something is done, and the money properly apportioned to these needed improvements, the people residing along these highways will be deprived of the opportunity to

Seventeen Years Ago--And Now

The following article is particularly appropriate, coming as it does just seventeen years after the signing of the armistice which was regarded as the close of the "war to end war." Seventeen years ago, on November 11 the armistice was signed. There is grave possibility that by the time November 11 rolls around again this year, Europe will again be embroiled in a war of elimination. The article follows:

The roar of guns is heard among the Ethiopian outposts. Shells fall from the sky, raining death and destruction. It is 17 years after the Armistice of the "war to end wars."

On that memorable day, November 11, 1918, a surge of joy swept over the civilized world.

New hope for the future rang out from centers of government everywhere and was reiterated from the mouths of statesmen.

President Wilson appeared in person to deliver his artifice message to Congress:

"Armed imperialism such as the men conceived who were but yesterday the masters of Germany is at an end, its illicit ambitions engulfed black disaster. Who will now seek to revive it?"

The casualty lists of the American expeditionary forces were still appearing in American newspapers when leaders in all walks of life and prominent statesmen of the world took up the cry.

Senator Harding of Ohio saw "the dawn of a new era in the world."

Senator Swanson of Virginia said: "From now on autocracy and military depositism will cease..."

Senator Key Pittman, Nev.: "From that (Peace) conference, will come the establishment of the principles that he (Wilson) has advocated and which will mean an enduring peace."

Senator France, Maryland: "We have forsaken the flesh pots of narrow sectionalism, of selfish, rampant, and corrosive individualism, of national materialism."

Representative Harrison, Miss.: It (the Armistice) is a second Declaration of Independence for the world, a magna Charta for oppressed peoples in every clime."

Lord George of England addressed President Wilson and the American people: "...this greatest of democracy's achievement, I thank you and the people of the United States for the high and noble part which you have played in this glorious chapter of history and freedom."

Allied Generalissimo Marshal Foch (getting American's D. S. M. from Pershing: "We have gained sacred cause—the liberty of the world.")

ed the greatest battle in history and saved the most Wilson's Thanksgiving Day proclamation. "God has in His good pleasure given us peace. It has not come as a mere cessation of arms, a relief from the strain and tragedy of war. It has come as a great triumph of Right. Complete victory has brought us, not peace alone, but the confidence promise of a new day as well, in which justice shall replace force and jealousy intrigue among the nations."

General Jan Christian Smuts, African soldier statesman: "Old Europe is dead and a new world is slowly emerging."

Guns roar along the outposts of Ethiopia. Bombs rain from the sky, bringing death and destruction. Seventeen years ago, the armistice of the war to end wars was signed and a rejoicing world hailed it with new hopes for the future.

From The State Capital

By Howard Henderson From The Courier-Journal

Politics like many other contests in which men engage, is governed by a set of rules governing good but with the difference that the rules, governing "good politics" never have been compiled in book form, while those governing their fights, but breaking the self, or bridge or in business has access to text books and even teachers.

Some say, when some gatekeepers together the "Dont's" which politicians should guard against high in the list will be these two: "Don't attack too many men." "Don't get mad."

Those two are fundamental. Men have won political contests in which they lost their tempers, but not because they gave way to anger. And men who have brought under their political fire a large group of individuals have now and then won established rule did not win for them.

Swope Falls Into Error.

The Democratic nominee for Governor followed the rules more closely in the primary than his chief opponent, rated the superior politician. And this fall, as the campaign developed, Judge King Swope, the Republican nominee, fell into the error of Thomas S. Rhea in the Democratic Party under fire. He attacked in turn Gov. Ruby Laffoon, Mr. Rhea, Ben Johnson, former Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, Percy Haly, Dan Talbott, Zach Justice, A. P. Plummer, Billy Blair and the Courier-Journal and The Louisville Times.

His attack has shifted somewhat in recent months. Six months ago he was more bitter in his attack on Governor Laffoon's administration than any candidate in either the Democratic or Republican primaries. Recently he has attempted to put the blame for all that happened under the Laffoon administration on Lieut. Gov. A. B. "Happy" Chandler, who for three years was not in the confidence of the Laffoon leaders.

Swope Speech Recalled Mr. Swope spoke at a Lincoln Day banquet in Glasgow on February 9. Nothing Mr. Chandler said in the primary campaign approaches the bitterness of Mr. Swope's attack on Governor Laffoon and the Laffoon administration. For instance, Mr. Swope said:

"The Governor, while posing as a friend of the down trodden man, took a stand early in his administration for relief—that is, relief for himself. After selling his backyard to the State for $15,000 of the taxpayers money and keeping the house and front yard and renting them to (Governor Laffoon) never made such a profit as real estate transaction with the State until he became Governor, and he would not have been able to negotiate that deal if he had not been Governor."

Unworthy, Is Charge "Any man who would use the prestige of the office of Governor to put over a contemptible and unscrupulous deal like that is unworthy of the high office of Governor yet, unworthy of the lowest and meanest office in the State."

"If any Republican Governor had been guilty of such a disgraceful transaction he would have been impeached, and I would have been the first to say that he deserved it. Roosevelt says he stands for the New Deal, but Uncle Ruby is firmly pledged to the Backyard Deal."

"But that is not all. At a time when he was doing nothing for the needy and suffering and was turning them over to the Federal Government to feed, he bought a $4,000 Cadillac for his own use, out of any authority of law whatever for so doing, all of which is a sad commentary on their platform declaration that "honesty, competence, and fidelity are prime essentials in public office."

"Crisis" Laid to Governor Regime In the same speech Mr. Swope said the State had reached a crisis. Then he said:

"This crisis was not brought about by the rank and file of decent Democracy. They regret it as much as we do. It was brought on by those political barons of the Laffoon regime who betrayed not only the State of Kentucky, but also the Democratic Party for a mess of patronage, and converted the State Capitol into a clearing house for the barter and sale of public office and the settlement of public obligation."

"It really is ruining all my hopes of a career," she sighs. "Nobody wants me to do anything but nagging women. They don't believe I can play sweet, sympathetic roles. But for Mr. Fields, that's different. I think he is a true genius, and if he wants me to play his utterly un- speakable wives in his pictures, I'll do it as long as he asks for me."

Others in the cast are Mary Brian, Gertrude W. Hoffman, and Grady Sutton, Clyde Bruckman directed.

The thrills are engendered by the many attempts the hero makes to escape the police who are trying to arrest him for a murder—he has not committed.

At a music hall where the hero is a spectator a brawl is started; and in the excitement that follows the hero finds himself accompanying a young woman from the theatre. She begs him to take her to his apartment. Once there she tells him that she is a spy, that an attempt was being made to kill her, and that there was danger of valuable government information being sent out of the country. During the night she is murdered and the hero realizes that in order to clear himself he must find out who is behind the plot. By following clues left by the murdered girl he meets with many exciting adventures and is forced to dodge the police who are attempt- ing to arrest him for the murder of the girl.

During his adventures he meets the heroine who innocently becomes involved with him. Eventually he proves his innocence and uncovers the plot of the international spies. The heroine who at first had no faith in him is in love with him by this time and readily accepts his marriage proposal.

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed. How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs is one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal cleansers, thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus also.

Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds. Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family pack and only ten cents for the individual tablet. (Adv.)

PIONEER TEAM IS GREATEST IN MANY SEASONS

C o a c h Monk Simons Has Beat Transy Team In 14 Years.

The Pioneers of Transylvania come to Morehead next Friday and will try to clip the wings of the Eagles. Transy has a great team this year and will be hard to stop. Under the coaching of Monk Simons, former star at Tulane University, the Pioneers have organized the best team that they have had in fourteen years. The All-American star has a wealth of material. The Transy squad is heavy and their forward wall is one of the best in the state.

Sylvania holds a 7 to 6 decision over the University of Louisville. The score would probably have been more if the game had been on home soil.

If Morehead comes out of the Union game with no injuries, they will have a good chance to take the Pioneers into camp. The loss of Dale has crippled the team considerably and should any other backfield stand-bys receive an injury, the team will be in a serious plight.

Morehead has a small squad, with only from 19 to 21 varsity men reporting for practice and this of course weakens the team. However, the Eagles will be in there fighting and will give the fans a good game, whether or no. Probable starting line-ups:

Morehead	Pos.	Transy
Thompson	LT	Napier
Triplett	LT	Griggs
J. Wyant	LG	Franc
Sparks	C	Duncan
Henderson	RG	Hutsel
Addington	RT	Ewalt
Farney	RE	Lacey
Ryan	QB	Fitzpatrick
Watson	LH	Danehower
Vinson	LH	Britt
J. Taylor	FB	Tucker

C. C. C. Camp Has Teaching Projects

C.C.C. Camp Lochege at Clearfield has six teaching projects by Rowan County teachers. It is one of the few camps in the state that has access to help from the regular federal educational program.

Mrs. Olive Goodman is teaching the beginners and Miss Katherine Jackson is teaching the intermediate classes. Mrs. Douglas Johnson is conducting an art project for the enrollees. Misses Anna Lee Martin and Atlas Freyer are giving business

'M' Club To Sponsor Amateur Hour Fri.

The annual banquet of the "Alumni M Club" of Morehead State Teachers will be held on Friday night before Homecoming at the Midland Trail Hotel. Reports coming in to President Roy E. Cornette assert that there will be about one hundred former lettermen present for the yearly session.

President Harvey A. Babb will be one of the speakers and it will probably be his first after taking the oath as President of Morehead State Teachers College. The club plans to give President Babb a big reception.

The "Alumni M Club" is sponsoring an amateur radio hour at the college theatre Friday, November 1st at 6:30 p. m. in the evening which will have Dean Falls of the college in charge. There will be a meeting of old letters and the football squad in the gymnasium at six o'clock whence they will go as a unit to the amateur radio hour program.

Morehead and Rowan County will have the largest delegation at the "Alumni M Club" banquet closely followed by Boyd County. Every varsity letterman now living in Rowan County should get in touch with Roy E. Cornette at once.

courses courses that include typing, bookkeeping, shorthand, business English, spelling, and business math. The newspaper work is in charge of Elwood Allen; the camp publishes a twelve page weekly paper for the enrollees. All of the Journalism work done by the enrollees and the Cozy Theatre gives one pass to every show to one of the boys working on the paper.

Mr. Earl May has many other projects for every boy in camp and the boys are taking every possible advantage of the opportunities given them. County Agent Goff is giving a general agricultural course that has attracted many of the enrollees.

EXAMINATION FOR POSTAL CLERKS TO BE GIVEN

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an open competitive examination for Railway Postal Clerk.

Applications may be filed with the civil service district office nearest the applicant, or with the U. S. Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications must be on file not later than October 28, 1936.

Applicants must have reached their eighteenth but not their thirty fifth birthday on the date of the close of receipt of applications, except to persons granted military preference. Applicants must measure at least 5 feet 6 inches in height in bare feet, and must weigh at least 130 pounds without clothing. They must be in sound physical health and capable of enduring arduous exertion.

Persons interested should apply at once for information to Secretary of the U. S. Civil Service Board of Examiners, at the post office or customhouse in this city.

Clay Is Candidate For County Board

To The Voters Of Rowan County: I am asking your support in my race for the office of Member of the Rowan County Board of Education on the following platform.

I am in favor of strict economy consistent with the improvement of the schools and of keeping the schools as close to the children as possible.

I am not in favor of consolidation of schools, because at the present time it is not practicable.

I am in favor of employing teachers strictly on their merits and not because of family connections.

I am in favor of giving every one connected with the schools of the county a fair and square deal, with out favors.

I am not connected with any slate or anybody, and your vote cast in my favor will be a vote cast for an independent candidate who is interested in the schools first, last and always.

I have three children in school at the present time, one of whom is attending high school, so my interests are the same as the interests of every parent in Rowan county, in giving our children the best opportunity to obtain a real education.

O. J. Clay

Morehead Defeated By Union 31-0 At Barbourville Saturday

For seven minutes the Morehead Teacher College Eagles held Union marker, intercepted a pass and racing thirty yards to the 20. A pass, Sullivan to Buckanan, good for seventeen yards, was not allowed because of a penalty. Buckanan, on the next play, skirted around end and placed the ball on the 3-yard stripe, from where Young scored the second marker. The try for the extra point failed. A few minutes later, a pass Sullivan to Buckanan, placed the oval on Morehead's 20. On an end run, Sullivan took the ball to the 4. Franz went over from there for the third touchdown. Again the try for the point failed. The victors did not score in the third period during which time their substitutes were in the game. Early in the fourth, however, Young intercepted a pass and raced to the Morehead 20. An aerial, Sullivan to Young, put the ball on the 3. Miracle hit the line for the fourth marker. Young kicked the extra point to make the score 25 to 0. A 3 yard pass, Sullivan to Horrell, added the fifth touchdown. The try for the point failed.

Lawrence Carter was also injured in the contest, suffered a sprained elbow and shoulder. Carter who is expected to be a basket ball ace this season, will be out of future games so as to be in shape for the basketball season.

Late in the first quarter, Franz, quarterback, drove through from the 8 yard line for the first touch down. The try for the point failed. The same player, early in the second marker, intercepted a pass and racing thirty yards to the 20. A pass, Sullivan to Buckanan, good for seventeen yards, was not allowed because of a penalty. Buckanan, on the next play, skirted around end and placed the ball on the 3-yard stripe, from where Young scored the second marker. The try for the extra point failed. ### Announces For County Board

To The Voters Of Rowan County: At the urging of numerous friends in all sections of the county, I have decided to make the race for the office of Member of the Rowan County Board of Education, subject to the general election on Tuesday November 5. In announcing my candidacy, I wish to state that I am thoroughly familiar with the needs of the schools of Rowan county. I have three children who are now attending school and am like all parents particularly interested in the future improvement of the school system.

I am opposed to the consolidation of the rural schools at the present time. Because such consolidation would work a hardship on those who live in the rural districts where the roads are unimproved and would prevent many of the most deserving children in the county from getting their education.

I am in favor of keeping the high schools at Farmers and Elliottville to three years if attendance permits.

I am also in favor of retaining the sub-district trustee system.

I believe in complete economy in the administration of the school system of the county. At the same time I do not want the schools injured by failure to spend the amount necessary to keep them up. If I am elected I expect to apply my business experience to the administration of the schools.

I am an ex-service man and have taken a prominent part in the activities of the local service men's organization.

I am not on any state or any group of citizens, but am making this race solely in the interests of the schools of the county as a whole, and not for any individual for any purpose.

Yours for bigger and better schools.

get out from their homes during bad weather, and we urge that every possible step be taken to put these rooms in suitable condition for travel at the earliest possible date.

These are two instances in which personal injury has been suffered, likely by foul means. We are referring to the instances of death of Marion Smith and the wounding of Orville Adams; also the explosion near the home of Bob Howard. We have been unable to develop facts upon which to base an indictment. These cases should be referred to the next Grand Jury to continue the investigation, and indictment if an indictment is authorized.

We have examined the public property and have a few suggestions to make that we believe will be helpful.

The jury room should be provided with chairs. There were many good chairs inside of the bar of the court room, but they have been misplaced, and the chairs now used are not the kind that should be provided for the court room.

The officers are well kept insofar as we are able to observe, and the officers are doing their duty.

The city jail is in good condition and carefully kept. The accommodations are limited but we understand the needed parts will be enlarged to accommodate the inmates.

We have given much thought to the superintendent's office. Its location, list of employees, and the expenses in connection therewith, it is our judgment that this office should be maintained in the Court House, thereby save the rental of at least $240.00 per year, and the extra expense of heat and light, and if space cannot be provided in the Court House, then it seems to us it would be good business for the County Board of Education to buy a piece of property that is suited to its use and this rental be applied to the payment of the purchase price and upkeep.

There seems to be, in addition to the Superintendent, two special helpers at a salary we are not advised as to the amount. It is our understanding that in most counties of equal population to our county that only one salaried employee is used. We urge that this department of our County Government economize in order that the taxpayers and their children get the benefit of the taxes they pay, and that the County Board of Education meet at the earliest possible date and try to carry out the suggestions herein made.

As to the county jail we have examined carefully the toilet connections on the second floor and find them in bad condition and unsanitary. Prisoners who are not chronic criminals are entitled to out of cell privileges but when out of the cells it is an easy matter for them to escape. We believe if the county will erect a heavy net wire fence some eight feet high with the tops of the posts turned inside and with barbed wire strung on the top edges of the posts such an arrangement will make it impossible for people to get to the jail and provide tools or means for the inmates to escape, and at the same time those who might get out of the jail will find great difficulty in getting outside this fence. This will be an effective temporary relief at least. We recommend that this be done, and further, that it will not be an expensive investment to put electric lighting around this fence line from which lights may be provided also. The top wire could be electrified to prevent escape of prisoners.

It has further come to our notice that the leader of the Band and Chef in the Cafeteria of the Morehead State Teachers College have been engaged in political activities in the present Governor's race and we disapprove of the infliction of politics in our State maintained educational institution, and that means be taken to suppress it.

R. C. Bradley, Foreman.

$3,600,000 IN STATE TAXES

THE revenue from taxes on alcoholic beverages is now the State of Kentucky's fourth-largest single source of income. . . . In addition to eight forms of taxes paid to the State, the distilling industry in Kentucky now pays seven forms of taxes to the Federal Government, four forms to counties, and four to cities within the State. . . . Unless you vote "Yes" on November 5, all this revenue will be lost, and the taxpayers of the State will be forced to make up the deficit.

What the Distilling Industry Does for Kentucky

COAL . . . Kentucky distillers bought over 200,000 tons of Kentucky coal last year. The mining of this coal provided an entire month's work for over 2000 Kentucky miners—work which may be lost forever if you vote "No" in November.

GRAIN . . . Kentucky distillers purchased 9,000,000 bushels of grain last year, at a cost of over $10,000,000. This market for grain will be lost to Kentucky farmers if the distilling industry is driven from Kentucky.

LUMBER and COOPERAGE . . . Kentucky barrel manufacturers sold 800,000 barrels to Kentucky distillers last year. These barrels were made from 80,000,000 feet of white oak lumber—at current prices, worth more than two and a half million dollars in cash.

OTHER INDUSTRIES . . . In addition to those mentioned above, dozens of other industries and occupations in Kentucky derive some if not all their business and income from the distilling industry in Kentucky. Railroads, hotels, equipment manufacturers, bottle makers, printing houses, newspapers, merchants of all sorts, everybody in Kentucky owes some benefit to this $100,000,000 industry.

If you want the State to continue collecting $3,600,000 per year in taxes from the distilling industry instead of from you and your neighbors—if you want the State to retain all the other benefits of this $100,000,000 industry—

CHAPTER FOUR

Twenty minutes of five in the morning, Captain Alan Gaskell drowsily buttoned his peajacket, was shocked into paralyzed attention by a shriek of agony which rent the silence. It had come from the wireless house. He rushed there and found Sparks coughing out his life.

"Look out, sir—Malays," gasped the operator thickly. Gaskell turned too late. Malays were at the door covering him with guns. He raised his hands grimly. From the deck came sounds of battle. David, the third mate, found on gun clubbed out of his hands. Bently the pirates brought the club down on both his wrists, shattering them. His hands dangled helplessly. Bleeding in agony, he crawled to a lifeboat and hid within.

The decent of the pirates was complete in his surprise. Passengers, solely aroused, were herded into the saloon by the booters. In the wheelhouse a Malay jerked the whistle cord as a signal. A half hour later a fishing junk drew up alongside the Kin Lung and the pirate leader, Nrah, climbed a rope ladder to the steamer.

Gaskell helplessly suffered himself to be herded into the Pursuer's office by four armed Malays. His brows met in a straight line as he stared at the rifle which prodded him. It was from the Kin Lung's arsenal!

"I don't see how they could break down those steel doors," he muttered to the Pursuer. Gaskell went toward the arsenal, his eyes narrowed as he saw drops of blood falling from the interstices of a lifeboat hanging overhead. Nrah, a lean and sinister Malay, arrived at the Pursuer's office. It developed that none of the pirates understood English. Gaskell said loudly: "Look here, whoever's in the lifeboat—there are two pouches of Mills bombs in the seat locker in my quarters. Watch your chance and get them."

Nrah, not understanding, shook his head. Gaskell ordered James McArdie summoned as interpreter. It was the gold shipment in the safe that was wanted, James said. The Pursuer opened it at Gaskell's command. The grinning Malays hurried out several wooden boxes, ripped off the covers—and discovered them to be filled with sand.

Apparently the bank patronized some other line," said Gaskell with relief. "Lucky bank!"

"Nrah says," reported Jamesy, "it's going to be very bad for you if you do not immediately show him where the gold is!"

both halves of the hundred-pound note." He produced two torn sections of a banknote, "One half of the note was found on a dead pirate. The other half was hidden in my cabin—in one of China Doll's cigarette tins."

Sir Guy who had been listening quietly; fitted the two halves together.

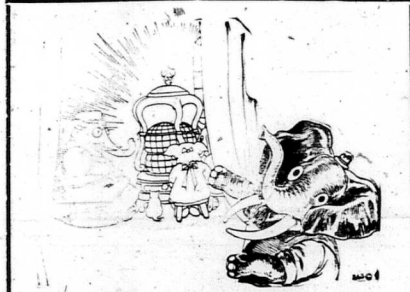

"These Chinese characters seem familiar."

"They're McArdie's shipping symbol," snapped Gaskell.

"What does that prove?" asked Jamesy. "What harm would I be doing against anyone?"

"Save your breath, McArdie. We caught two of your men. They talked," Gaskell turned with cold anger on China Doll. "And you—you gave him the arsenal key. You're the only one who knew where it was. You were in with Jamesy all the time."

"That's a dirty, stinking lie!" flared China Doll. "I'll sue the line for this. And I'll get plenty. You defaming a lady's character that way—"

VINSON TOUR FOR CHANDLER MAPPED

FRED M. VINSON. Congressman Fred M. Vinson and Joe B. Bates, Greensburg, conferred over Mr. Vinson's speaking itinerary in behalf of Lieut. Gov. A. B. Chandler and the Democratic ticket, shortly after Mr. Bates took his post as chairman of the Democratic Speakers' Bureau at State headquarters at the Kentucky Hotel. Both Congressman Vinson and Mr. Bates were Rhea supporters in the primary elections the latter having charge of the Rhea campaign in Eastern Kentucky and the Big Sandy section.

activities of the Laffoon administration. Mr. Swope denounced so bit had not been in sympathy with the party in February.

Chandler Senses Weakness

The trouble with an attack on everybody in sight, a good politician will tell you, is that the voters cannot tell who is being shot at, or why. Mr. Chandler, sensed the weakness of Mr. Swope's position two weeks ago, when he began telling audiences he wished he could get "an opponent who would run against me, for, though you cannot tell it by his speeches, I am the man he is running against."

"All the time in the primary," Mr. Chandler said, "I found my opponent running against some of my friends whom he charged would boss me. Now King Swope is doing the same thing, running against men who are not even in the race."

"All the time in the primary," Mr. Chandler said "I found my opponent running against some of my friends whom he charged would boss me. Now King Swope is doing the same thing, running against men who are not even in the race."

Mr. Swope, from January to October, found such serious fault with all elements of the Democratic Party as to leave the average voter bewildered as to who the Republican nominee was fighting, and why. His attack first on Governor Laffoon and his administration when popular opinion conceded them victory in the primary, and later on Mr. Chandler when he was wretchedly the nomination away from Mr. Rhea, gave his campaign the aspect of an opportunist seeking votes on either side of the question, developed the outstanding weakness of Mr. Swope, but his anger on the stump has of Mr. Swope as a campaigner. In contrast, Mr. Chandler is always in good humor. Mr. Swope's outburst at Bowling Green, when he asked an officer to bring Emory Dent, a citizen, before Swope, and Mr. Swope's demand that Mr. Dent not be permitted to "slink out like a pup," is in point.

Anger Reported Unrestrained.

Persons who heard Mr. Swope at Bowling Green said his anger was referred to a group of young Democrats who published questions for unrestrained. Later, this week, he Mr. Swope as "mice."

Mr. Chandler took up the two incidents coupled them with reports one speech when a person in the of Mr. Swope's irritation during audience opened a window, his rebuke to a woman who asked, some questions at another meeting.

From these Mr. Chandler drew a picture of Mr. Swope as a haughty, intolerant man, who had no sympathy or patience with the mass of the people. There was little doubt that his portrayal, fitting in with stories that have scattered over the State from the Fayette Circuit Court, was effective.

Democratic leaders feel certain now that a "split" vote will never reach large proportions. The county politicians, around whom Mr. Rhea's primary organizations were built, are about as quick to sense the pulse of the people as any set of politicians. Everywhere Mr. Chandler has gone the Rhea leaders in the counties have been as willing as men could be to get out in front for Mr. Chandler, so the voters could see that they were being regular.

Some State Leaders Disgruntled.

That has left some of the State leaders still disgruntled. But even here the presence, of three Rhea men on the ticket has placated most of the State leaders. Late this week, in a meeting at Madisonville, the Governor and Mr. Rhea continued to display their personal disappointment with a new attack on President Roosevelt and James A. Farley, Postmaster General.

Included in the list with whom Mr. Rhea and Governor Laffoon are displeased are the President of the United States and the National leader of the Democratic party, Mr. Farley, chairman of the Democratic National Committee; Mr. Chandler, nominee of the Democratic Party Governor in Kentucky; United States Senator Albert W. Barkley, Former Governor, J. C. W. Beckham, Ben Johnson, former Congressman and former chairman of the State Highway Department, State Auditor J. Dan Talbott, Judge Robert W. Bingham, Ambassador to Britain; Percy Haly and The Courier Journal and the Louisville Times.

FOREST RESERVE

During the past week Mr. S. F. Anderson, the Forest Supervisor, Tillman, Winchester, who is Staff has been delivering a series of illustrated lectures at the C. C. C. Camps at Clearfield, Frenchburg, Bowers and Ravenna. The fire and how they pave the way for portraying the disastrous effects of Lantern slides were used, vividly destructive gully erosion in addition to destroying standing timber and young growth after the burning of mountain forest lands. A forest fire crew under Foreman Hays at the Ravenna C. C. C. Camp, assisted in combating the flames which were enveloping the garage and wood shop of Pr. Price Tipton on Friday, October 11. Smoke from this fire was cited by the Forest Service and the timely arrival of the forest fire crew resulting in the saving of the adjoining buildings.

All the requirements have been met by the Morehead State Teachers to obtain admission to the Southern Association. It is believed that admission will be granted to the college at the December meeting in Atlanta.

Persons who really want to reduce their weight, eat less of such fattening foods as potatoes, breads, butter, cream, fat meat, sugar, pie, cake and other pastries, jams and jellies. They eat lean meat, cheese, eggs, vegetables and fruits, and use saccharin instead of sugar.

In planning the garden for next year it is well to arrange to change the location of all vegetables, since there are numerous diseases that can be controlled only by crop rotation. It is good practice to move each vegetable to different ground each year.

Laughing Around the World

With IRVIN S. COBB

Tribune Where Tribune Was Due

By IRVIN S. COBB

YEARS ago in one of the smaller cities along the Eastern seaboard, the local leader of the dominant political party was one Mr. Mike Dempsey. Mr. Dempsey carried the organization in the hotel, as the saying goes, of his hand. True, there was a selfish motive behind his activities, because he held the most lucrative local office within the gift of the populace.

As might be inferred from his name, he was of Celtic antecedents. Naturally, what with his powers of leadership and his compelling personality, he was the idol of all the Irishmen among his constituents. Those among them who had come, as he had a penniless greengrocer from the Old Country, regarded him as the greatest man in the state if not in the nation.

In the fullness of time, and largely through his patriotic efforts, a bond issue was voted for the erection of a new county building. On the day after the construction of the new structure had been laid, two of his followers chanced to pass the spot. Upon the face of the stone in the customary Latin numerals, the year had been engraved, as follows:

MDOCCXCLX

One of the passers-by stared at this curious inscription. He spelled out the letters. To him they had no meaning.

"Larry," he said wonderingly to his companion, "what's the purpose of that?"

"Simple enough," said his learned friend; "that MD stands for Mike Dempsey and that CLX is a row means Clerk of the County Court. It's merely a deserved tribute to Mike that's been carved here."

"Yes," said the first speaker, thoroughly convinced, "and what does the rest of that mark stand for?"

"Oh, that!" said the scholar, "that's just to keep track of the times when he's licked the damn Republicans!"

Now on display! THE NEW 1936 PONTIAC Silver Streak SIXES and EIGHTS

More beautiful than ever and BUILT TO LAST 100,000 MILES!

ALL THAT'S BEST OF ALL THAT'S NEW

- 1. Solid Steel "Turret-Top" Body by Fisher. 2. Improved triple-acted hydraulic brakes with new chrome-plated alloy pistons. 3. Improved Suspension on "V" and De Luxe "G". 4. Smoothest of "L" and "T" cylinder engines with silver-alloy bearings and full-pressure mechanical lubrication. 5. All-steel, light-weight steel-alloy pistons. 6. All-steel Sycro-Mesh transmission. 7. Simplified steering with automatic shocks. 8. Concealed luggage and spare tire compartment. 9. New full-length water-jacketed cylinders. 10. Even stronger double E-T frame.

YES, the new Pontiacs are actually more beautiful than before, with a new front end, new headlight mounting, a different hood, different running boards, and a decidedly different rear-end. And that's only the outside story. The inside story is even more remarkable. The 1936 Silver Streaks are built to last 100,000 miles. The brakes are triple-acted hydraulics with warp-proofed drums of fused iron on steel. The solid steel "Turret-Top" Fisher Bodies and No-Draft Ventilation, insulated roofs, and built-in luggage and spare tire compartments. Clutch, brakes, and engines are even smoother, while the Sycro-Mesh Transmission is silent in every speed. And the even more economical engines feature cooling and lubricating systems that are models for the entire industry! See the new Pontiacs—and keep an open mind until you do.

...but, after all is said and done, it's the cigarette itself that counts
... the question is, does it suit you?

Now, when it comes to a cigarette that will suit you... you want to think whether it's mild, you want to think about the taste

That Chesterfields are milder and taste better is no accident...

The farmer who grows the tobacco, the warehouseman who sells it at auction to the highest bidder, every man who knows about leaf tobacco will tell you that it takes mild, ripe tobaccos to make a good cigarette.

In making Chesterfields we use mild ripe home-grown and Turkish tobaccos.

Outstanding
.. for mildness
.. for better taste
