LeGrande Jayne Is Not Candidate For Mayor Of Morehead

Announces Withdrawal This Morning; 2 Full Council Tickets Out

GARAGE MANAGER WAS ON CITIZENS TICKET

Carr, Patton, Cecil, Roberts, Ramey Seek Municipal Office

LeGrande Jayne, Manager of the Midland Trail Garage, a candidate on the Citizens Ticket for Mayor announced today that he had withdrawn from the race. Mr. Jayne's withdrawal leaves Warren C. Lappin without opposition for the position. Ed Williams withdrew from the council race.

Municipal contests for the city of Morehead this year developed this week, although it had been generally supposed that no opposition would be offered to the Peoples Ticket that was filed a week ago.

The new ticket has LeGrande Jayne, heading the ticket as a candidate for Mayor. No one is on the ticket for Police Judge, but the ticket carries a full slate of the Council, consisting of Otto Carr, John Cecil, Mort Roberts, Ed Williams, E. D. Patton and Carr Ramey.

Since there is no opposition to Lee Stewart for Police Judge he is certain of holding the office for the next two years.

"The ticket was filed Monday night, a short time prior to the deadline for filing. One oddity of this year's municipal election is that E. D. Patton appears on both tickets as a member of the council. Two years ago Mr. Patton was defeated for council by four votes."

The Peoples Ticket, which was filed last week by Warren C. Lappin for Mayor, Lee Stewart for Police Judge and the following candidates for City Council: N. E. Kennard, incumbent; S. P. Cassell, incumbent; B. B. Bedding, incumbent; E. D. Patton and Frank Havens.

KAPITOL KOMMENTS

When the Messrs. Garr of Oldham County had ceased their Henry H. Denhardt, soldier, gentleman farmer and politician, on the main thoroughfare of Shelbyville last September 13, a vacancy had been created in the ranks of the 78th Infantry Brigade.

"Whether he takes it or not is up to him... The job lasts a lifetime and comes through approval by Congress..."

These Kentuckians who pay an income tax and who have chosen to pay the tally on the installment plan, within the next week will see the installment plan, to be collected approximately $5,000,000. It has already totaled $4,946,967.97 into the till through income tax since that law passed.

Morehead Football Team Has Highest Advance In Nation

Dr. Littenhaus Says Club's Rating Goes From 6.7 To 53.3 Percent

400 OF STATE'S STRONGEST MACHINES

No Other Team Has Gained As Much In 2 Years

Dr. E. L. Littenhaus, University of Louisville Professor, whose ratings on all college football teams compile the "Difference-by-Score Rating System" than any other team in the United States.

Morehead's lowest rating in the 1935 season was 6.7. Those of Ky. Library say those in the Louisville-Journal said today that during the past two seasons that the Morehead College Eagles have shown a greater advance in the "Difference-by-Score Rating System" than any other team in the United States.

Judge D. B. Caudill Issues Injunction In School Action

Boards Serving Prior To 1932 Charged With Mis-Handling Morehead Funds

A temporary injunction restraining the Sheriff from turning over the money in the hands of the Morehead Consolidated School district, was granted by Circuit Judge D. B. Caudill, last night at the term of Rowan Circuit Court.

The injunction was issued after County Attorney W. E. Proctor filed a petition charging that approximately $150,000 belonging to Morehead Consolidated School had been diverted to other funds by county officials.

Earl Sparkman Is Accident Victim

Injured Man Crashes Over Bank And Is Not Found For Three Hours

Injuries, sustained in an auto mobile accident Friday night, caused the death of Earl Sparkman, of near Morehead, in an Ashland hospital Saturday morning. Mr. Sparkman lay in the car, injured, for three hours before he was found. He was alone at the time.

City Loses In Civil Actions To Collect Paving Claims

Actions Against Mrs. Una Bruce and Mrs. Lyda Messer Caudill Are Heard Here

By Special Judge J. B. Hannah

Two hearings before Special Judge J. B. Hannah over the Morehead Street paving cases, which have been carried through legal tangles for several years, resulted in partial victories for property owners and a loss for the city of a portion of the money allegedly due them which in turn is owed to the contractors who built the streets here.

In the case of Mrs. Una Bruce, a jury valued her lot on Railroad Street at $700. Judge Hannah, ruling from a decision of the Court of Appeals, held that the City could collect an amount not exceeding 50 per cent of the evaluation on each side which had street fronting.

Morehead Tallies 66-0 Victory In Saturday's Game

Holbrook Fails To Threaten As Eagles Ring Up 4th Win Of Year

Scoring almost as they pleased an aggressive Morehead College football team ran up the largest score in the school's history here Saturday, beating little and helpless Alfred Holbrook College 66-0.

A small crowd, numbering about 1,200, seemed to find more pleasure from the game played at Morehead, led by beautiful Linda Lee Eaton, drum major of Jackson, Mich., which performed between the halves than they did in seeing the Eagles smother the Holbrook team.

Grand Jury Says That Signs Should Be Placed At Intersection Of Clearfield Road And 60

Twenty-five Indictments, the Smallest Number in Several Years, Was Returned by the Rowan County grand jury at the October term of Circuit Court.

The complete report of the grand jury stated that all public officers were found in good conduct in the report on the proper stop signs at the intersection of U. S. 60 and the Clearfield road.

Mrs. Perry Matberry Dies At Smile, Ky.

A two-year illness resulted Saturday in the death of Mrs. Perry Matberry, of Smile, this county. Burial was made in the Purvis Cemetery near Smile. She is survived by her husband.

Four Are Sentenced To Penitentiary

Two Men Draw Sentences On Charges of Storehouse

Four prison sentences were meted out by Juries during the October term of Rowan Circuit Court which convened last Friday.

Eddie Vell was given 1 year on a charge of breaking into the store of J. K. McDaniel at Ellettsville, Orville Brown, 16, convicted of being a companion and accessory of Vell's in the robbery, was sentenced to the reform school until 21 years of age.

Two Men Held Up, Robbed By Thugs

Clifford Moore, Paintsville, and Ernest Coster, Salversville, told sheriff's officers Sunday they were held up, robbed of $15, and shot on the highway near Finchburg, by two masked men accompanied by a woman.

GLASS OFFICERS ARE ELECTED AT MSTC

Class officers elected at the Morehead State Teachers College during the week are: Seniors: Athel Wyatt, president; Jarrell Vinson, vice-president; and Leora Hodge, secretary-treasurer.

BALLOTS PUBLISHED FOR NOVEMBER 2 ELECTION

Appearing elsewhere in the columns of this issue of the Intelligencer are the four ballots that will be voted on at the November 2 election. There is also an article in the Intelligencer bearing the title "Ballots to be voted on a separate ball."

Court House

On the west side of the Court House we find the tower in a very dangerous condition. It needs to be properly placed and fastened. We recommend that we do not rely on this, we have no further suggestions as to the care of our property.

Public Offices

We find the public offices in good condition. However, the men's toilet needs repair and water should be kept off the floor. The coal bin should be cleaned up. The paper removed and locked. The old worn out mattresses in the lower part of the jail should be burned and the cells cleaned up.

PARNELL
SERIALIZED FROM THE HARRINGTON-ROBINSON
BY
ED BEES MITCHELL

SYNOPSIS—Charles Stewart Parnell, leader of the Irish Nationalist Party, has fallen in love with the estranged wife of a new fellow Irish member of Parliament, Captain Willie O'Shea, who has induced his wife to pay his election expenses under threat of living with her again. He also induces her to invite Parnell to dinner to further his political ambitions. The result is that Katie O'Shea falls in love with Parnell, nurses him in her home when he is ill, is the means of clearing him of the charge of complicity in the Phoenix Park murders. And now she and Parnell are awaiting the reception at which Gladstone is to announce his bill for Irish Home Rule.

CHAPTER NINE

OUT OF THE FOG
As Parnell and Katie left the Parliament building they found themselves in a fog so thick that they could distinguish nothing more than three feet away. She absorbed were they in each other, so happy that Gladstone had introduced their Irish Home Rule bill, that they quickly lost their way. They wandered on unseeing, for in the fog they felt

"I see, just walk in. Well, it's a fine sight for a walk for them that likes it. When you're courtin' I s'pose it's 'You and me together love never mind the weather love.' Good luck, sir. Good luck, liddy."

"They wandered on, Katie snuggling against Parnell's arm. "Charles Stewart Parnell, the man who won Home Rule for Ireland, and Katie O'Shea, walking along eating hot potatoes!" she laughed. "I know now, it's what I've always wanted to do—eat hot potatoes with you."

She pressed his arm close. "We are courtin', Charles. Wasn't that charming? What do you imagine made him think so?"

"Only fools or lovers would be out on a night like this."

"It is strange, us two together in the fog, lost out in the world. There isn't any world, Charles. They have taken it away."

"I wish they had—cleared it all away like a sheet, so you and I you like to go on walking in the fog like this until we walked right out of it and left it all behind forever!"

"This from a man who has achieved his life's ambition!" she cried.

"That's just it. I have realized it and now I don't want to go on. Now I'd like to let someone else take over and just walk away into the fog with you until we came out somewhere in the sunshine by ourselves, on a blue and gold morning."

It was some hours later when at last they reached Ebbw Vale. They left themselves in. Aunt Ben held up a finger for them to be quiet.

"Willie is here, in the drawing room. He's been here an hour. He wants to see Charles."

"I'll go in and see him," said Parnell, and accepted to Katie's request to be with him. They found Willie talking with Clara. Katie got rid of her sister by saying that Aunt Ben wanted to see her.

"Congratulations, Mr. Parnell," said Willie. "That was a great triumph for you today. You're bigger than ever now."

"Thank you. What did you want to see me about?"

"I called at your office but you had gone. It's about myself. Just at that time something happened at me."

"Happened to you?" Parnell feigned not to understand.

"I feel that I should be something better than a mere E. P. by now. After all, I'm pretty close to you. You've been our guest here for the last four months. Everyone knows that Doris I deserve a little recognition. Some more important position?"

"She's as . . ." Parnell observed.

"You'll have the right to nominate Chief Secretary when you have your own Parliament in Ireland," Willie said coolly.

Parnell's astonished "What?" and Willie's extraordinary "Willie" were spoken simultaneously.

"Well, don't I deserve it?"

"I don't think so," retorted Parnell.

"I should for your triumph, Charles. The great night is here at last! Can you believe it?"

"I can when I see you looking like that."

As Aunt Ben, elaborately gowned, wearing all her jewels in honor of the occasion, joined them they heard a man's voice at the door asking Nora.

"Does Mrs. Katherine O'Shea live here?"

"Yes, but she's just going out."

Parnell stepped into the ante-room. "Who are you? What do you want?"

"I want to see Mrs. O'Shea."

"I've got a paper for you, sir. I can't see, but . . ."

"Once again, Mr. Parnell, what do I get?"

"I think you are making a mistake. I thought we could be friends. If we can't . . . there are others who don't think me as unimportant as you do. The Irish aren't the only party. Willie occasionally picked up his hat and left them."

"That was a thrust," said Katie, something near panic in her voice.

"Yes, I know!"

It was the night of the reception at which Gladstone was to announce his Home Rule Bill for Ireland. Katie O'Shea had dressed for the triumphant occasion in the white dress, with the white roses. Aunt Parnell loved it.

"Katie, I've never seen you look so lovely," he murmured.

"I should for your triumph, Charles. The great night is here at last! Can you believe it?"

"I can when I see you looking like that."

As Aunt Ben, elaborately gowned, wearing all her jewels in honor of the occasion, joined them they heard a man's voice at the door asking Nora.

"Does Mrs. Katherine O'Shea live here?"

"Yes, but she's just going out."

Parnell stepped into the ante-room. "Who are you? What do you want?"

"I want to see Mrs. O'Shea."

"I've got a paper for you, sir. I can't see, but . . ."

"Once again, Mr. Parnell, what do I get?"

"I think you are making a mistake. I thought we could be friends. If we can't . . . there are others who don't think me as unimportant as you do. The Irish aren't the only party. Willie occasionally picked up his hat and left them."

"That was a thrust," said Katie, something near panic in her voice.

"Yes, I know!"

It was the night of the reception at which Gladstone was to announce his Home Rule Bill for Ireland. Katie O'Shea had dressed for the triumphant occasion in the white dress, with the white roses. Aunt Parnell loved it.

"Katie, I've never seen you look so lovely," he murmured.

Extensive vaccination checked hog cholera on Whitley county farms after two outbreaks.

Still Coughing?

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Cromulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with any remedy less potent than Cromulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel the germ-laden phlegm.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged. Try Cromulsion. Cromulsion is one word—not two, and it has no hyphen in it. Ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Cromulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

SEE KENTUCKY FIRST!

LOUISVILLE has its share of attractions, and we hope that sooner or later you will enjoy them all. But whatever else you do, see Kentucky this year . . . If you've never seen Mammoth Cave, by all means do so. And Lincoln's birthplace at Hodgenville. And The Old Kentucky Home at Bardonia, and Harrodsburg's Fort Harrod, and the Capitol at Frankfort, and the dozens of interesting sights in Danville. And Berea, and Cumberland Falls and all the other places and things that Kentucky offers . . . We have a wonderful State. Let's know and enjoy it.

You are Cordially Invited to attend the Grand Opening of the greater SHILLITO'S IN CINCINNATI

Tuesday Evening, October, 26th
8 to 10pm.

LIKE a great feast, like a Hollywood premier of a super cinema—Cincinnati's oldest department store—a greater Shillito's—will hold its Grand Opening. Lights, Music! Action! With Alfred Segal, noted columnist, as Master of the Ceremonies to be broadcast over WCKY right from the store. With gorgeous spectacles of color and arrays of merchandise brought from the four corners of the world!

Special mannequins in the windows, too—the much talked of, Paris Exposition mannequins like nothing you ever saw before. Rough plaster goddesses, seven feet tall—vital symbols of the new fashion outlook!

Visit every department of this magnificent new building—occupying seventeen acres of floor space. Step behind the scenes and learn how a big department store "makes the wheels go round". See the four dining rooms under one roof—and their spotless kitchens. Inspect the Shillito hospital with its nurse in constant attendance. Pause a moment in our unique laboratory for testing fabrics, materials and the many items which the greater Shillito's tests before recommending.

Come . . . See . . . Enjoy! . . . Come! A friendly store invites you!

★ If you can't attend the Grand Opening in person, tune in WCKY, Cincinnati, Tuesday October 26—8:30 to 9:30 P.M.—a full hour of entertainment with a noted orchestra, Alfred Segal, and comments by your friends and neighbors. You'll thrill to listen because it's History In The Making!

Red Cross To Have First Aid Station

Designed Primarily For Assistance of Motorists Injured On U. S. 60

The Rowan County Chapter of the American Red Cross is making plans for establishing a Highway Emergency First Aid Station at Rodburn, two miles east of Morehead on U. S. Route No. 60. The American Red Cross out of its experience of many years knows that with proper immediate first aid care many of the lives lost as a result of highway accidents might be saved and the suffering and further serious results to others greatly reduced.

Intelligent first aid care saves lives and puts the victims of accidents into the hands of the medical profession with a much better chance for recovery than otherwise. Arrangements have been made for the training of station personnel in Red Cross First Aid. Not less than two persons for the station are required to have completed the Standard Course in Red Cross First Aid before it can be officially designated.

- a. Not less than two persons trained in Red Cross First Aid.
- b. One 24-unit Red Cross First Aid Kit.
- c. One half-rising splint for leg fractures.
- d. Ready reference telephone directory of medical, hospital, and ambulance service available.
- e. Three highway station signs.

The training of the station will be on a volunteer basis. Dr. Everett Blair, Dr. Thomas A. E. Evans, and Mrs. Nellie Raymond, Rowan County Public Health Nurse have volunteered their service in training the station personnel. It must be understood that Red Cross First Aid is meant in no sense to take the place of medical care. In every instance the person suffering injury should be advised to obtain medical care. No recompense may be received by anyone giving First Aid and a second treatment of an injury must not be given. All subsequent requests for assistance should be referred to a medical doctor. This is not an experimental effort. The value of Highway First Aid Stations has been proved in several of the countries of Europe and to a more limited degree in Canada and the United States. Our own rapidly increasing toll of highway accidents and fatalities point to the necessity to immediate action on a more extensive scale in this country than Swedish in 1926 than in any other year since 1825. Not less than 53,268 weddings were registered, or $51 per each 1,000 inhabitants. In 1825 the same figure was $49. At the beginning of this year the total population in Sweden was 6,286,856, or 16,392 more than in 1935.

More people were married in Sweden in 1936 than in any other year since 1825. Not less than 53,268 weddings were registered, or $51 per each 1,000 inhabitants. In 1825 the same figure was $49. At the beginning of this year the total population in Sweden was 6,286,856, or 16,392 more than in 1935.

heretofore. The establishment of each new station, such as the one to be placed at the filling station operated by Mr. U. W. Waltz at Rodburn, can be considered another link in a great chain of volunteer cooperative service in the name of the Red Cross that the roads may be made safe for all who travel them. The Rowan County Chapter is to be congratulated for doing its part in making our highways safer.

Entries are from Herd at State House of Reform in Greendale. Entries from the herd of Holstein cattle of the Kentucky House of Reform at Greendale, one of the foremost herds in the United States, were successful in capturing a total of seven first prizes and three championships at the Kentucky State Fair, according to Frederick A. Walls, Commissioner of the Department of Welfare, only 10 cattle of the 110 in the Greendale herd, were exhibited as representatives and the prize-winners competed against cattle selected from Holstein herds of national importance. All cattle included in the Greendale dairy are products of the farm of the institution where R. H. Orr, of Stanford, a dairyman with many years of experience, is in charge of the dairy division. No cattle have been bought by the institution for a number of years although some are sold when not found to meet the requirements of standard maintained by Mr. Orr. Cows failing to produce 50 pounds of milk when at their prime are disposed of and breeding under the supervision of Mr. Orr is effected scientifically for type and production. Through a process of elimination none but purebred Holstein stock is included in the herd. Among cows now at Greendale are two daughters of Lady Rose D. Collinge, former World Champion Holstein cow, which was also a product of the farm at the institution. The famous cow died several years ago at the age of 17 years.

Canning demonstrations attracted large attendance in Letcher county, where tomatoes, beans, corn and other vegetables are being canned.

Kentucky To Vote On Amendment To State Constitution

If Adopted All Courts Below Circuit Bench May Be Abolished

Few voters are aware of the fact that a constitutional amendment of far-reaching effect is to be voted on at the coming November election. Under the provisions of this amendment, the General Assembly of the State of Kentucky is given power to re-distribute the powers, duties and functions of some, abolish all courts inferior to the circuit court, provide the method of selecting all officers and fix the compensation of each officer. In short, the State Legislature would be given the power to entirely reorganize the city and county governments from top to bottom. However, it is a matter for the voters to decide, and for their enlightenment, we are publishing below the amendment in full which will be voted on at a separate ballot November 2, 1937.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT WITHIN THE TERRITORIAL CONFINES OF COUNTIES. As now Existing or as Hereafter Established. Section One. The General Assembly may by legislation of state-wide application or of application according to classification based on population, retain, modify, and consolidate any and/or all governmental bodies, offices, agencies and institutions; may enlarge, curtail, modify, consolidate, redefine and redistribute the powers, duties, functions and jurisdiction of governmental bodies, offices, agencies, institutions and may provide for the number of judges for such courts; and may abolish all governmental bodies, offices, agencies and institutions, and may abolish all courts inferior to the Circuit Court and may set up new ones in their stead; and may provide the method of election of all officers, their compensation and the means and method of their election. Provided, no legislation hereunder shall affect any elected officer during his term of office. The provisions of this Constitution are retained limiting the powers of public corporations and quasi-public corporations to tax, incur debt and to impose pre-existing debts on territory thereto free therefrom or to release from pre-existing debts territory theretofore liable therefor; except that the General Assembly, in creating any new public corporation and/or quasi-public corporation may classify it by population in respect to taxing and borrowing powers as are classified by this Constitution.

Section Two. This amendment shall be published and submitted to the voters of the State for their ratification or rejection at the time and in the manner provided under Sections two, hundred fifty-six (256) and two hundred fifty-seven (257) of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and under Section one thousand four hundred fifty-nine (1459) of Goldwin's Revised Edition of Carroll's Kentucky Statutes as amended, thousand nine hundred thirty (1930), official edition; provided that this amendment shall be submitted on a separate ballot.

Section Three. This amendment shall be published and submitted to the voters of the State for their ratification or rejection at the time and in the manner provided under Sections two, hundred fifty-six (256) and two hundred fifty-seven (257) of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and under Section one thousand four hundred fifty-nine (1459) of Goldwin's Revised Edition of Carroll's Kentucky Statutes as amended, thousand nine hundred thirty (1930), official edition; provided that this amendment shall be submitted on a separate ballot.

KENTUCKY FARM NEWS

Homestead Morgan, a Metcalf county farmer, reports threshing 85 bushels of winter barley from four acres. The best acre produced was 35 bushels. Considerable barley will be sown as a cover crop in the county.

Mammoth clover has made remarkable growth on the Lee county farm of S. L. Spencer. Some of the plants are 9 feet high. A plot treated with superphosphate has made more than double the growth on the untreated part of the field.

Two Fleming county farmers are going together to buy a carload of Rambouillet ewes, following a county-wide meeting in which advantages to the farmers of the ewes were pointed out. Only one farmer on the county now has this breed. B. F. Hildreth, a Letcher county farmer, is starting a herd of purebred Herefords. He recently bought seven 4 cows, two 2-year-old heifers, two heifer calves and a bull. "I've tried purebred stock before, and I know they're profitable," Hildreth says.

Let's Get At The Truth! THE PURPOSE OF THIS STATEMENT IS TO GIVE YOU, AS VOTERS AND CITIZENS, THE TRUE FACTS REGARDING THE MOST IMPORTANT QUESTION BEFORE THE VOTERS THE PRESENT BOARD AND SUPT. CORNETTE HAVE KEPT FAITH WITH THE TAXPAYERS, SCHOOL CHILDREN, AND TEACHERS OF ROWAN COUNTY. HERE ARE A FEW OF THE LAUDABLE AND INDISPUTABLE ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF SUPT. CORNETTE'S ADMINISTRATION 1. The records since Supt. Cornette took office in July, 1934, are in perfect condition and have always met full approval of auditors from the State Department of Education. 2. No new indebtedness has been incurred during the administration of Roy Cornette, and more than $9,500.00 has been paid by him on old debts incurred prior to his administration. 3. Three modern school buildings are now being constructed by the Board in conjunction with the W. P. A., and four new rural school buildings have been constructed and paid for by the present administration without any new taxes or debts. This building program was made possible through persistent effort and strict economy on the part of the present Board and Supt. Roy Cornette. 4. The STATE LAW provides that no school shall operate with less than 50 pupils in the school census. Through the special efforts of Supt. Cornette and the present Board SPECIAL PERMITS have been obtained during the past three years to operate 20 RURAL SCHOOLS having less than 50 census pupils, in order that NO RURAL SCHOOL BE CLOSED OR CONSOLIDATED. This should be sufficient evidence to show that the present Board and Supt. Cornette do not and have never wished to close or move any rural school. 5. EVERY PENNY that has been spent by the present administration has gone for the improvement of educational opportunities as provided for in their annual budget approved by the Rowan Fiscal Court and the State Department of Education; and EVERY PENNY of this expenditure CAN BE EASILY AND ACCURATELY ACCOUNTED FOR by looking at the records of the County Superintendent. ALL INTERESTED PERSONS ARE URGED TO INSPECT ANY AND ALL RECORDS, IN THE OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION, PERTAINING TO THESE MATTERS.
