The Cincinnati Enquirer says John Shorten has been put into a salaried place as "Pretty Boy" Miller's editor, and that John may be leaving.

Nice addition of Ashland, a town with 2,000 inhabitants, to the list of towns that have no fire engines.

The principal points to be taken into consideration in the selection of a town, district, and state for the post office, are the number of people, the number who are in one more writing for consideration, and the distance from the post office.

There are two classes of post offices, to be created by the particular user and business.

We have a good many towns where people are economically bound up, and we are frequently in need of information on this subject.

There is general satisfaction among leading men in the country. The new law, however, leaves much to be desired. The common schools and making more radical changes in the public school system, the teachers, but the whole community in general, will be well pleased to see it. It will be impossible to give the law entire, but it will be instructive to twenty-four pages, but this week we will give an abstract of the law, and the important points.

We learn that there is a man here, who has recently come to town, from the Southern Expression management at Louisville, and he is a man of great ability. From August 1st to October 25th, he has had two thousand copies each day from funds not otherwise available. He is a man of great ability, and the first time moral sentiments were given to the public, he was the first to repeat the suggestion that every year should make the expense of printing in this way.

Notwithstanding the fact that one of Ashland's principal industries is now extremely promising, and that our people are more numerous than ever, not only very sparingly of the time they have, but also of the money they have, to make the present state of trade. The fact is, however, that the natural advantages give them a decided advantage over us.

Diplomatic Journal.

The newspaper, which gives considerable prominence to foreign politics, has been very popular, and it is now in its second year.

They think that things are not going to be well, and that the world is in a state of suspense.

The paper is well written, and the editor is interested in their little opinion.

They think that an editor who is a good writer, and a good editor, is a good editor.

CORRESPONDENCE.

CINCINNATI.

Hobson has been out again in our city. On last Tuesday night about 12 o'clock, Hobson, a man of about 40 years of age, was at home at about 11 o'clock at night. At 12 o'clock he was at the corner of Broadway and Main Street. When he was there he learned that his house had been broken into. Hobson took right before any harm was done.

Frank Grimes and George May longed to help Hobson, but were unable to do so.

THE ASHLAND Independent.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE,

JUST $1.50 A YEAR!

The INDEPENDENT is no small patent business, but it is a solid newspaper, of Independent principles. Its merits during the past years have met the wants and approbation of the people, and has been the means whereby they could gain the information so much needed by liberty-loving Americans.

RELIGION, POLITICS AND EQUAL RIGHTS!

The INDEPENDENT is ready to endorse the causes of Religion, Politics and Equal Rights; and its voice—as loud as the thunder of Sinai—may be heard in their defense. It is no bigoted, metropolitan undertaking, but is satisfied with the sphere in which it exists. It is neither vain nor proud, yet it seeks to please and afford those with whom holds weekly converse an opportunity to see the beauties of life as they may be presented by a First Class, Wide Awake Country Newspaper.

OUR POLITICAL FAITH.

Our politics are of the most pronounced type, and our religion of the broadest principle. The twenty-fifth verse of the sixty-sixth chapter of Isaiah is our "Rule and Guide of Faith." [LET] The INDEPENDENT has never been called to call a man's thumb but he had a fair trial before a jury of his peers, and received a life sentence. Upon such a one will we be bound with all the carnal savagery of a Siberian bloodhound—by saying nothing—only allowing the "sour grapes" eaten by the parents to set the children's teeth on edge.

THE PUBLIC AND POLITICAL ISSUES

Upon the public issues—such as hunting for the North Pole, the Tariff, Free Trade and Sailors' Rights, Civil Service, and the prospects of the Sun coming in contact with the Earth—[LET] The INDEPENDENT takes a lively interest, and hopes Old Sol will yet spare this terrible gloom by electing a good man for President in 1884.

JOB WORK. JOB WORK.

In the way of Job Work we are always ready to supply the trade with anything from a visiting card to a Mountain Howitzer. (This is the truth and no charge.) Blanks, Posters, Bill Heads, Letter Heads, Statements, Envelopes, Cards, Dodgers, Streamers, Garter Snipes, and everything in the way of printing black or white in artistic and neat style.

[LET] It is with a degree of gladness that in writing this we will have a chance to address a few words to Correspondents. There is not a single reader of a newspaper in Eastern Kentucky but who can give an item each week for publication. Do not be afraid to send us items. If any one in your immediate neighborhood is sick, gets hurt, has moved, etc., write it on a postcard to [LET] The INDEPENDENT and it will be published. To those who write regularly we have a word. Be careful what you write, for if it proves to be libelous you are equally responsible with the paper publishing the article. Do not use "WE" and "US" for the simple pronoun "I," and always let the preposition "ON" precede the name of the day of the week. And last, ALWAYS TELL THE TRUTH!

Home and Foreign Advertisers.

We present you a medium through which you can reach a very great portion of the people throughout Eastern Kentucky, and a good portion of Ohio along the river. For any further information desired
