NATURAL .- We are told that Old Whiey is very indignant on account of the reament which he has lately received at treatment which he has lately received at the hands of his master and the whig party. He thinks it very hard that his master, who was "a whig, but not an ultrawing," should be made President, while he—"a horse, but not an ultra horse." he has failed to be elected Vice President, Truly, may Old Whitey asy, "Republics are ungrateful!"

That one hundred dollar diamond breast-pin at Boyd's on Market street, is decidedly the most sparkling in the city. The young lady who obtains it, will no go long without a husband.
