the names received by us which have been appended to the call for a meeting on Monday, up to the present time, numbers of the signer as than 968! It is the greation of the signer are about to move in a matter in which their interests are deeply involved.

The list is, however, far from being complete, as we know of many subscription papers out with names attached, which have not been returned in time for publication. Enough are presented, nevertheless, to answer every practicable purpose, and it is hoped that as many of the signers as possible, will be present at the great meeting on MONDAY NEXT, at the Court House. It only be the better pleased—if upon Whigs, our efforts in the cause will be zone the less vigorous. The issue is not one of party, but principle, in which every Kentuckian has an interest. Let every voor of Old Mason, then, rally to the recue on Monday next, and take such steps as may be thought best calculated to secure their rights in the approaching Convention!

Taunts of the Northern Abolition is s.-Let Emancipationists pause and reflect.

It has ever been our own oninion tha

they are told that "the slave interest is not strong enough to dissolve the Union," and otherwise taunted by those who have no more business to interfere in our State institutions than our people have to say to those of New York and Ohio, that they S L Srout have no right to own horses and cattle.

Unite upon your best men—those whose sentiments and opinions upon all the issues involved are known to be, not only pure, but beyond suspicion.—Lay aside the priguidice of former political distinctions, and lay hold upon the questions which our adversaries are endeavoring to force upon us, and let your whole undivided strength be put forth in the contest.

With union and harmony amongst those who have recorded their names in this paper, we cannot fail to succeed in the undertaking, and cause victory to perch upon our humers in August next. Without union and concert we may lot such.
