The rain fall last Sunday night was most refreshing, and the rain farmers are beginning to make preparations for their fall seeding.

Mrs. J. F. Farmer has been a visitor in Marion recently.

ROBERT B. BROWN—August 7, 1888, to Mr. O. Thomas and wife a daughter.

The Rev. Mr. Phil. Parent and wife are on visit to friends in Spencer county.

The County Superintendent of Schools, Thomas Hunter, was in our burg last Saturday.

Regular services at South Beno Church were held, on Tuesday, at eleven o'clock each morning.

J. W. Jenkins and C. H. Par- rish recently recovered from their recent illness.

Mrs. Sally Henrie Parrett, who has been in Nashville, on sick list for a week or two, is convalescing.

Miss Betty Roberts, of Bagdad, graced our village with her presence last week.

Messrs. Jonas Robb (Buck) and Wm. Smith, of Mercer county, were here last Sunday and Monday.

The building of the P. G. & F. Church is progressing rapidly and is expected to be completed in the near future.

Three cheers and a tiger for enterprise and improvement.

Messrs. Dudley and Arthur Bolling are returning home from a visit to relatives in this neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. S. and sister, Miss Sue, have returned home from a visit to relatives in Indiana, accompanied by their cousin, Miss Libbie Wilburn, of Wood.

Miss Emma Russell left for Bloomington, Ind., where her parents are residing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. and sister, Miss Sarah, will soon remain some time visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Layman.

MARRIED.—At the residence of Mr. Daniel Powers, in this county, on Tuesday evening, August 7, 1888, Mr. Lloyd, Geo. D. Chadowine and Miss Matie E. Bradley.

A large number of out of town friends have been in our village and vicinity for several weeks, last week Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. J. H. Smith, of the county, where he will remain some time visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. R. E. Hawkins, of the Farmdale neighborhood, is bringing some of the finest watermelon in the county, and they are large, fully ripe and unusually sweet.

HELD TO ANSWER.—Charles H. Jones, who spent the Sabbath in this place, on Thursday evening, charged with stealing a horse, was under the bond of $500 to appear in court to answer.

Frank Fisher, a colored man, living near Elminville, Franklin county, returned this week, after being away in Indiana for four months, but came on to Georgetown on Saturday night, and arranged to leave here on Monday for $35. After disposing of any horse he started out to have a good three days fishing, and was taken in by Marshal Cole and locked up. He had an examining in court at Bloomington on Tuesday, and was held to answer at the arresting term of court.

He died. Mr. L. Jackson, of Franklin county, who had that he took on a supply of whisky as a means of support and, replenished on reaching Georgetown, and has no recollection of what occurred after that. When he waked up and found himself in confinement.—Georgetown Times.

Letter from Zeke Yocum.

MOREHEAD, ROWAN CO., Ky., August 4, 1888.

Dear nephew:
The court now being held here is a farce and won't result in any good. The jurors, witnesses and sheriffs are all afraid to do their duty. I beg to tell Knott to send another peace officer to Clendenin. If he does not send them, they propose to wait until Buckner takes his seat as Governor of Kentucky, when we will have him at the Toller's pole. Not that Simon Girty is a coward, but is so in a way as to be natural. You remember that he has been going about in the mountains, but the Central Committee made him run. They told Buckner that it would be his chance at that war. They told him to run, but he was so mad about Gov. Knott, McKenzie & Co., that he pulled out in Franklin county and left. All in Frankfort remember the time when Knott and McKenzie & Co. were standing on a whisky barrel and spreading a lot of lies about the speech they fixed up. It was plain that he could not do it. But, Buckner is the same way. The Buckner trainee gave up in despair, and were told to send to Frankfort to take to Buckner's place. But it is said that they are going down stairs for Mr. Tolin, who at one time had been on the State Central Committee, but who now refuses to help them out of trouble. The committee informed him that he must learn a speech of any kind, and, that if he would not go, he would be missed because Hewitt had furnished Buckner with the facts in regard to the trouble.

After hearing all the facts about the case, Tolin last for two hours with an old man. He was the picture of despair. He at length came to the conclusion that the committee that they must watch for something more than his talk. Buckner was mad at that, that it would never do to let Buckner have a chance at Buckner was the man that in 1880 and 81 frauded a very small Majority that Buckner received. Without his advice, Braddock made Buckner at least forty thousand.

If I was still in the Democratic party, I would make Tolin and Jeff the State Central Committee, and get the petition on the paper that ought to be filed away, and see what the effect of this will have on the hold olds days officers during their lives.

There are a number of old patriots in our State that have retired from active life with a pension for services rendered to the State, and I have not enough to name them, but here in Old Kentucky they are the old soldiers and the audacious duties imposed on me by our good Gov. Knott, and I will not neglect them.

A FEW SUGGESTIONS

For the good of all parties, and especially for my friend John E. Yocum, who is likely to be mistaken in Miles' make up. A little bravery, honorable, upright gentleman. But recently my faith has been awakened to the fact that Mr. Miles would not tell the truth, or that he would misrepresent matters, and that he was always taught, from my in- troduction to politics, to be brave to strike a fall for what I believe in. My reference to the railroad matters, Wilkins and Flat Creek are concerned. The voters of the above named places might have known about it a long time ago. It appears to Zeke Yocum that Mr. Miles ought to let a little of this get out about the Campbellite religion, and let the people know how they are going to forgive when our members confess their faults. I would suggest to Buckner and the other friends to let all the parties meet for the purpose of telling their feelings. That all of above parties meet at Tom Kesler's, near Jack knob, and let the parties confess their faults and forgive each other. At the same time invite the Turn- pers, Cowperns, Yocums, Bolling, Gurneys, slope hands and forgive each other. Kesler take his gate from across the road, and let the pipe run and that's all, and take up the matter at said meeting. If you should meet your approval, gentlemen, and deserve the present, is Morehead, Rowan county, Ky., Toller's pole, and a plain way to fix up Rowan county troubles.

Finally, the State Central Committee will keep Buckner in the state legislature for Congress. Some might doubt the legality of doing so, but we are not afraid of it. Such a move will make the sacrifice for the good of the party. I beg to let you know that the object to let, Proctor Knott act as Governor pro tem. He is the man to run the county and for us. The parties need it, we must make them our enemies, and we must make them our friends. We can, and we will. Nullify all the laws that the people who need it, then ship away thousand of the people, and then let the people that have come divide them out among the citizens, and let them finish up the job, if Buckner took the same position of county a territory; import about a thousand men from the western Mcabes; abolish the marriage institution which we have carried on in the state for years.

I don't charge anything for this letter, because I love my native State. Great mistake.

I'm known here as Dr. Dundar- go. I'm making some money trading in cattle, and I'm a friend of Bald Knob, Benson, and Flat Creek? Any more deaths there.

I can't tell what will be the outcome of our troubles in Rowan county, but I cannot think of any personal friend, I would be disposed to quit the Democratic party and embrace the order of affairs in regard to Morehead troubles. His veto of the marriage law was a good one, I remember. As a matter of course I'm under no obligations to him, as a party maker. He did not give me a commission, so I must look for personal considerations, but solely on account of my ability. I support the marriage law, and I tender my vote on my marriage.

If the Democratic Central Committee would have the satisfaction of the Electoral College, then predictions, Braddock will be left out.

It is thought by many that the MannIGIN will make a stand for the honorable man in making arrangements for Buckn's inaugural, before it was cool and foggy.

Please advise me privately as to arrangements to be made. If the Democratic Central Committee of Franklin—if there has been any deaths in said party recently—might like to hear from news of home will be thank- fully received.

John L. Braddock.

John L. Scott, Rodman, Dehoeny and Mannigag. Do they still rank as the best of the death of my friend W. T. Reed. Will his spirit come back again? His recovery? How is B. H. Hamilton? I was told, before he left for the State legislature, that he was at home but one day in six weeks. He went to his church last Sunday, and was overcome by a long absence from church. He went to his church last Sunday, and was overcome by a long absence from church. He went to his church last Sunday, and was overcome by a long absence from church. He went to his church last Sunday, and was overcome by a long absence from church. He went to his church last Sunday, and was overcome by a long absence from church. He went to his church last Sunday, and was overcome by a long absence from church. He went to his church last Sunday, and was overcome by a long absence from church. He went to his church last Sunday, and was overcome by a long absence from church.

ZEKE YOCUM.