Arrangements Are Complete For Inauguration

Prominent Speakers Of State To Include Governor

A. B. Chandler

Governor A. B. Chandler and Dr. Frank L. McVey, president of the University of Kentucky, have been slated for addresses at the formal inauguration of Harvey Arthur Babb as president of Morehead State Teachers College on Tuesday, May 5, Harry W. Peters, state superintendent of public instruction, will preside.

Mr. Babb will discuss the topic, "The Sphere of the Morehead State Teachers College in the Realm of Higher Education in Kentucky," in his inaugural address which will follow the administering of the oath of the Court of Appeals, Judge of office, William H. Rees, Jr. Judge of office, William H. Rees, Jr. Judge of office, William H. Rees, Jr.

Other prominent educators who will have parts on the program are Henry Noble Sherwood, president of George Town College, and John O. Gross, president of Union College. Mr. Sherwood will pronounce the invocation and Mr. Gross will give the benediction at the conclusion of the program.

Dean William E. Vaughan of the College will introduce the official delegates.

The ceremonies will begin at 9:20 a. m. in the College auditorium. The college orchestra and the Foster Choral Club will furnish musical selections during the program.

Mr. Babb before coming to Morehead last fall was superintendent of schools at Mt. Sterling. He was honored with the presidency at a recent meeting of the Kentucky Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

He holds two degrees from the University of Kentucky and has been prominent in state educational circles for several years, having been president of the State Association of Secondary Schools, Principles and Superintendents' last year.

During the few months that Mr. Babb has been serving as president of the College, many changes have been made in administration which have proved to be of value to the school. He has had a remarkable record and has the support of the faculty and student body.

Invitations to the inaugural ceremonies have been extended to all the prominent educators of this territory who are to be in attendance.

Mr. Babb will succeed Dr. John Howard Payne who was inaugurated president of the institution on May 12, 1930, and who was forced to relinquish his post due to continued illness last fall. The new president will be Morehead's third chief executive. Dr. Frank C. Button was Dr. Payne's predecessor and took over control of the College when it was made a state institution in 1923.

Morehead was created a state college at the same time as Murray State Teachers College. Since its creation in 1923, the college has had a remarkable growth and this year will graduate perhaps the largest number in its history. Morehead alumni hold positions of prominence all over this section of the state and many are making enviable records in other states.

Sportsmen To Meet In Ashland 28-29-30

Sportsmen from throughout Kentucky will gather in Ashland May 28, 29, and 30 for the second annual convention of the League of Kentucky Sportsmen. The Northeastern Kentucky Fish and Game Association will be the host club.

NEW SERIAL STORY TO BE STARTED NEXT WEEK

Here is a sparkling, deliciously rosy story of today... of a handsome young publisher who had a beautiful wife at home, and a pretty secretary at the office. It's the century's battle of hearts between them, with the lucky man in the middle! It whisks you from New York skyscraper penthouses to gay Havana night life... with a thrill and a laugh every foot of the way! Read every gay and exciting chapter of this delightful romance.

Homer Conley Is Seriously Stabbed

Homer Conley is in a critical condition at the St. Joseph's Hospital in Lexington, Kentucky, as a result of a knife wound allegedly received at the hands of Bill Brown, his step father-in-law, Sunday afternoon near four o'clock. The stabbing occurred at the home of Brown which is located about three hundred yards off U. S. 60 near Myrtle's Tea Room.

Conley was stabbed just below the heart and local doctors report that he has a very little chance of recovery. The blade just missed his heart and if it had come any closer, death would have been instantaneous. Jean Caudill went to the scene of the crime and arrested Brown and instructed him in the county jail at the instruction of County Judge C. E. Jennings. A date for the examining trial has not been set and will probably not be set until it is determined whether or not Conley will live.

It is alleged that the two men got into a fight over some family trouble and that Conley struck Brown with a knife and that the stabbing, Brown was reported to be drunk at the time of arrest.

It is also reported that Conley had been sick in the home of Brown and that Brown went upstairs where he was in bed and that the stabbing occurred there. Brown's wife who is the only one in the house at the time, was reported to have gone down stairs to seek help and thus there is no eye witness of the crime.

County Agent Holds Important Meetings

Farmers meetings are being held in all parts of the County by County Agent Chas. L. Goff in an effort to acquaint local farmers with the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment program. Meetings have been held recently in the following communities: Hilda, Sharky, Farmers, Perkins, Bluestone, Elliottville, Smie, Cranston, Waltz, Pine Grave, Johnson, Clark, Clearfield and Minor. Meetings are to be held in the following communities before the end of April: Little Perry, Copwell, Wes Cox, Popular Grove and Christy.

The new program is getting well under way and farmer's comment indicate that it will be popular with them, since it offers the following: (1) in carrying out better farm practices. Farm work sheets are being filled out at the County Agent's office now. Every farmer should prepare a worksheet for his farm whether he intends to cooperate or not. This step should be done at once.

JOE PIGG MOVES DOUGHNUT SHOP

Joe Pigg, local doughnut king, has moved his place of business to the front of the Dixie Grill and is ready to serve the public with his culinary art.

Morehead To Open Baseball Season With Flemingsburg

Morehead opens the baseball season Sunday with a battle royal at Flemingsburg where they meet their traditional enemies in a go-round that is expected to be worth the price of admission.

The Morehead team has been revamped and many of the local stars in the past seasons have cavorted for the pleasure of the hometown fans, will again appear in the Morehead uniforms. Manager Dan Parker has surrounded himself with a galaxy of stars who should go places in the local baseball firmament. Many of them are home town boys while others have played with Morehead during past seasons and have made a little baseball history on their own.

Among the local boys who will be in the Morehead lineup Sunday are: Lawrence Freely, Centerfield; Clayton, catcher; Gerald Vinson; Duck Carter, second base; Claude First base; Luther Varney, right field; Arnes, left field; Tommy Ryan, third base; Jones, short stop; Leslie, Pitcher; Dale, pitcher; Fan-

Father Of Mrs. Peratt Dies At Carlisle Home

Mrs. C. O. Peratt received word last week of the serious illness of her father, Dr. Samuel Robert Fisher at his home near Carlisle. He was taken sick on the Sunday before and developed double pneumonia, which proved fatal and he passed away Saturday morning, before Mrs. Peratt, who was ill with the flu at the time, could go.

Dr. Fisher is survived by three daughters, Mrs. O. E. Gaffin of Carlisle, Mrs. T. N. Smith, New York, and Mrs. Peratt. Funeral services, with the Masons in charge were held Monday from the Methodist church in the community in which Dr. Fisher had lived and served the people for so many years. Dr. G. H. Fern assisted in the services.

He was a member of the Christian Church and of the Masonic lodge, to which order he had belonged sixty years.

Prof. Peratt and daughter Frances drove over to Carlisle Monday for the services.

Hudson Attends Art Exhibit In Cleveland

Ralph M. Hudson, art instructor, drove to Cleveland, Ohio, last week-end to see the Van Gogh exhibition at the Cleveland Museum of Art. The exhibition of the work of the modern Dutch artist closed on Sunday and will be sent to San Francisco. 300,000 people saw the exhibition in New York, Boston, and Philadelphia. Hundreds of the people who saw the exhibition in Cleveland were from out-of-the-state, according to reports.

MISS PAULSON TAKES CLASS TO CINCINNATI

Etta M. Paulson, critic teacher, school took some of her fifth grade pupils to Cincinnati last Sunday to see the art museum, zoo, new Union Terminal, and botanical gardens. Ralph M. Hudson, art instructor, accompanied the group.

Next Week Brings Our Big Inaugural Edition

Next week's issue will be the Special Inaugural Edition in honor of the inauguration of President Harvey A. Babb. While it is a trifle early as yet to predict just what this special will amount to, we are expecting to have at least 24 pages devoted to the interest of the college and the community.

We can say at present that we appreciate the sincere cooperation of the business men of Morehead in the undertaking which is intended to cement the spirit of loyalty in the community to the spirit of advancement in the college.

We are printing five thousand copies of this edition which will be widely distributed over eastern Kentucky and which will give the Morehead State Teachers College much well deserved publicity.

Revellers To Offer Play Wednesday

Spring is in the air and the holiday spirit prevails in the forthcoming production of the Revellers, college dramatic organization, who will give Philip Barry's comedy, "Holiday," in the College auditorium Wednesday night at eight o'clock.

One could ask for nothing better than the stars of Philip Barry characters indulging in his special brand of happy-go-lucky nonsense—rich in spontaneous absurdities and extraordinary funny lines. The plot of "Holiday" is concerned with the solvent Stetson family. One of the daughters gets herself engaged to be married to an upstanding youth with no fiscal or social background. The alliance is regarded dubiously but with dignity by the head of the house, a self-satisfied money-man living complacently with and for the Stetson ingots. The young hero, though expert in finance, is one of the belief that life is not one hundred percent bank note, and that there is important fun to be had in other treasures.

He proposes to retire from business when he is young and to work when he is old. These radical impressions disturb both his betrothed and her parent and they set about to rectify them. Friendly to his credo is his prospective sister-in-law and here she comes upon one of the numerous solutions of the play's success.

Howard Hadden plays the part of the youthful financier and Martha Nebbett and Margaret Roberson are

Annual Campaign Opens Here April 27 Closes Saturday

Club Planning Many Features To Arouse Interest Of Citizens.

Under the sponsorship of the Rowan County Woman's Club, Morehead's annual spring cleanup campaign will get underway on Monday, April 27 according to the announcements made and will continue through the week, by those in charge of the plant. It is the expressed hope of the members of the Rowan County Woman's Club that every citizen of Morehead take an active part in this campaign to make Morehead clean and beautiful, particularly at this time, which is just the week preceding the inauguration of President Babb at the college.

Committees have been appointed to take charge of the various departments of the campaign, and arrangements have been made whereby the City Council has agreed to furnish all the trucks necessary to haul away the garbage and refuse, the accumulation of the winter months. The club has also arranged several contests among the students of the two high schools to increase the interest in this most necessary campaign of cleanliness in the city. One, the slogan contest, closed Monday, April 20 at noon. The prize slogan selected by a committee composed of Dr. Adkins, Mr. Robert Bishop, Mr. Lester Blair, and Mrs. Dudley Caudill was submitted by the student, number one. The slogan chosen was "Citizens give Morehead a spring cleanup! Second prize was won by number 108 on "Clean the College City."

The essay is to be not more than 500 words in length. The contest is open to any student in the junior or senior high school of the Breckinridge or Morehead High Schools. It is expected that the essay selected will appear in print.

Instructions request that as you clean your lot, you gather the rubbish in boxes, barrels, etc. and deposit these containers at the front of your lot, or in a place that can be easily reached by the trucks. This will save considerable time and will permit the trucks to cover the city in the shortest possible time.

A prize essay contest is being held, also among the school children. The Prize essay written on the subject "Make Morehead Clean and Attractive" will be selected Friday, by a committee composed of Miss Norma Powers, Miss Thelma Allen, and Miss Lorene Sparks.

The plan at present is to use the trucks for two days, on Wednesday, April 29, and Friday, May 1. These two days have been designated as "Dump Days" the days when the rubbish will be gathered from your property and hauled to the dump.

The Rowan County Club, while sponsoring the "Cleanup" wishes to request the hearty cooperation of every civic organization and of every citizen, in making this the most thorough cleanup that has ever been held. The occasion is one that should cause every citizen to take special pains to have his property looking its best at during the next week. Morehead will have several thousand visitors whose first impression of the city will be received when they see well-kept properties or the

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Written each week by Rev. B. H. Kazee,
Pastor of the Baptist Church

Rev. B. H. Kazee,

SUBJECT: Jesus Looks At Wealth
and Poverty, Luke 16:19-31.
GOLDEN TEXT: "The rich and the poor meet together: the Lord is the maker of them all." Prov. 22:2

If it were possible for a man to be rich without being a slave to his riches, it would be commendable. But the LOVE of money, not money itself, is the root of all kinds of evil. Neither does the lesson teach that there is merit in being poor. Some of the most demoralized people I know are the poorest. But the lesson shows that one can be pious and good, and still be poor; that poverty does not make a man bad, and there is no need of his being so just because he is poor. So, to summarize, riches is no excuse for meanness, and poverty is no excuse for good.

Lazarus, the poor man, lay at the sick man's gate willing to get the crumbs; that is, anything anyone could give him, to sustain him. The sick man fared sumptuously every day. Lazarus was sickly, the dog licking his sores; the rich man was wealthy and commanded the attention of everyone he needed to make him happy. This is a picture of poverty and riches in this world.

After death we find Lazarus resting in a new and glorious surroundings, being transported to Abraham's bosom, and is happy beyond our understanding. But the rich man has been transported to the place of terrible torment. It is trying out to Lazarus as a beggar for one drop of water to cool his tongue. Nothing could be more terrible than the torment of this. Here is a picture of the Paradise to which souls of the redeemed went. Lazarus, the dog licking his sores; the rich man was wealthy and commanded the attention of everyone he needed to make him happy. This is a picture of poverty and riches in this world.

In the case of Lazarus, the reason he went to hell was not that he was rich, but that he went because he trusted in God and his reward was a better because he had a better in the world. In the case of the rich man, he went to the torments of Hades, not because he was rich, but because he trusted in his riches instead of in God and sold his life to them, but his suffering was greater because he had enjoyed the luxuries of a rich man's life.

The rich man proved that Lazarus should go to hell and was his five brethren not to come to that place. Some think this is a missionary spirit. Now get it. No man in hell wants any one else to fare well; they are all mad, raging mad! What he was afraid of was that if those brothers who had doubtless been led by him, come to that place, they would accuse him for bringing them there and that would add to his torment. It was self-defense that made him say this never.

Riches could not buy him one drop of water here and Lazarus needed nothing to buy with where he was. Thus Jesus sounds the truth about poverty and riches.

NOTICE

To all citizens of the Johnson cemetery near the Isaacs home. Especially to all those who have friends buried there. You are all invited to meet at the cemetery the first day of May, 1936, to clean up the grounds, in respect to our friends who are buried there. Bring tools to work with, axes, rakes and hoes.

Refreshing Relief

When You Need a Laxative
Because of the refreshing relief it has brought them, thousands of men and women, who could afford much more expensive laxatives, use Black-Draught when needed. It is very economical, purely vegetable, highly effective. Mr. J. Lester Robinson, 1117 W. 12th St., Baltimore, dealer at Morehead, Va., writes: "I certainly can't say enough for Black-Draught as a household medicine. I have taken it for constipation and the cold feeling that follows, and have found it very satisfactory."

CHANGES IN THE HOUSING PLAN

By Act of Congress, signed by the President April 3, 1936, Title I of the National Housing Act, extended to April 1st, 1937. Changes which may be of particular interest to you are noted as follows:

1. Modernization loans may be made only to owners of improved real property or to lessees of real property who have a lease extending for a period of not less than six months beyond the maturity of the modernization credit loan. This eliminates new construction in unimproved real property from consideration under the Modernization Credit Plan, and eliminates loans to tenants except as noted above.

2. Modernization loans in the amount of $2,000 or less, for purchase and installation of equipment or machinery upon any type of improved property are eliminated, except for additions to the real property. Machinery and equipment that become additions to real property as heating, plumbing and wiring systems, including such items as furnaces, oil burners, stokers, water heaters, and so forth would be eligible for modernization loans. However, movable equipment such as refrigerators, stoves, washing machines, ironers, and so forth would not be eligible. The same reasoning would apply in the commercial or industrial field as in the domestic field, except that on loans from $2,000 to $50,000 on Class A property it is not required that the machinery or equipment become an addition to the property. In cases of this sort, the old eligibility ruling still applies.

We feel that with the momentum already gained, Title I will continue during the coming year to play an important part in stimulating production and employment in the building industry.

This will mean, of course, more real estate activity, greater demand for construction materials of all kinds, with financing agencies and the public alert to the new tide of business life throughout the country.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Last Sunday, in spite of vacation, was a good day at the First Christian Church. The division leaders in the campaign made, as usual good reports. The Bible school had the best attendance. There were two confessions at the morning service at the close of the Bible school hour.

The night combination service beginning at 6:30 o'clock was an interesting service. Elijah Hogge, was the leader for the young people. Upon count it was found that Robert Humphrey's division is in the lead in count of attendance. Next Sunday closes the contest for attendance. At the conclusion of the service Dr. Fern immersed eight candidates. There have been additions to the church right along month after month.

COZY THEATRE

One of the happiest, scrappiest family pictures of the year is "Every Saturday Night," the new and hilarious Fox comedy-drama of a typical American family, which plays at the Cozy Theatre Friday and Saturday of this week.

The hilarious comedy-drama of a house-and-buggy had driven frantic by a gang of sleep-on-the-gas kids features June Lang, Thomas Beck, Jed Prouty and Spring Byington.

The story of "Every Saturday Night," which is based on the play written by Katherine Kavanaugh, depicts the trials and tribulations found in the Modern American home.

The Evers family, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Evers, two daughters, three boys and a granny, are all up to the times except dad. He has old-fashioned ideas as to how to bring up his children and his continual lecturing dampens the fun of his big brood.

Every Saturday Night proved to be a thorn in Dad Evers' side. Late dates, reckless driving and the high speed activities of his children kept him in sour humor throughout the week. One particular Saturday night the Evers home is beset with a series of critical situations and when Dad Evers sees how his children shoulder the responsibilities he begins to ral-ize that in comparison to his peep-bers children, his proof is not as good as he made them out to be.

Under James Tingling's imaginative direction, the cast of "Every Saturday Night" turns in sparkling spontaneous performances. In addition to the engaging performances of Jed Prouty, June Lang, Thomas Beck and Spring Byington, there is the finished acting of Florence Roberts, Kenneth Howell, George Ernest and June Carlson.

SUNDAY SHOW

Mary Burke, one of the two teachers in the little red schoolhouse at Hilldale, lives in a small cottage with her two brothers: Frank, sixteen years old, and Dickie, about seven years of age. Frank, now in the graduating class, is tired of school and is anxious to go to work.

The other teacher at the school is Roger Owen, an ambitious young man, who is looking forward to an appointment to teach at a nearby high school so that he can afford to marry Mary. Roger, anxious that Frank should complete his schooling is severe with the youngster, and Frank, misunderstanding the motive, believes the teacher dislikes him.

Frank is scheduled to recite at the school's Easter exercises. While the children are giving their performance, Frank and one of the other boys get into an argument, and they sneak out of the room to settle their difficulties in the yard. Roger breaks up the fight, and Frank is blamed for it, though he is not really at fault. Roger refuses to let Frank recite; his piece, and Frank runs away.

Taking Corky, his dog, with him, Frank boards a freight train. He encounters a group of tramps among whom is the Professor, a well-educated man, who has fallen from grace because of drink. The Professor takes Frank to New York with him. They go to the apartment of three crooks, who plan to take Frank with them to rob a bank. The Professor prevents this. The attempted robbery is unsuccessful. The watchman at the bank is shot. The robbers are traced to their apartment. They escape, but the Professor is shot and Frank is arrested. The Professor dies before... but see the picture at the Colledge Sunday.

Champagne Velvet is "The Balanced Brew." It's Balanced for taste... its appealing, wine-like character blends, mellow and heightens its bouquet. And it's balanced for effect... in addition to pure water and yeast just the right proportion of choice hops and selected grain (and nothing else) is effect only healthfully exhilarating. That's why people say "There's no 'A. E.' (after effect) in C. V."

Try Champagne Velvet today... no letdown will follow its refreshing zestfulness. Or try it tonight... there'll be no early morning unpleasant reaction.
