Historical Information: The first Miss MSU Scholarship Pageant was held at Button Auditorium on the Morehead State University campus on March 30, 1968. For the next 30 years, the pageant was held annually during the last week in March. Interest waned and the last pageant held at Morehead State University was on March 26, 1998. The Student Government Association and the Panhellenic and Inter-fraternity Councils sponsored the pageant during the many years it existed. The winners competed in the Miss Kentucky and Miss America pageants.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of programs, scrapbooks, posters, photographs, financial ledgers and stage scripts related to the Miss Morehead State University beauty pageant from 1968 to 1998.
