Whig Meeting in Mason.
Pursuant to a previous notice a large number of the Whigs of Mason assembled in the Court House in the city of Maysville on Monday the 1st of May, inst. Upon motion of Judge Adam Beatty, the meeting was organized by the appointment of Col. Davin Langary, Prosident, Richard Soward, Leroy Dobyns, C. Anderson Lyon, and Robert Humphreys, Vice Presi-dents, and Wm. P. Conwell and John James in line, a salute was fired from the battery of Lieut French, and the cavalry band, mounted, saluted him with their flourishes, and played 'Hail Columbia as he passed them; next; the Rifles, with their shrill, vibrating trumpets, followed likewise, and so on each regiment, until the Hon. Commissioner passed the entire line. The column, then formed and escorted him to his quarters in the city. This was an honor of which any man or functionary in our country might well have been proud. The old Corro Gond division never looked better—never moved with more precision or never showed to more advantage. This, too, is the glorious division that never yet, as a body, or a regiment, company or detachment, has been checked a single instant by the enemy, at any point, whatever, and
