*THE CALL TO WORSHIP

L/ Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised.
 God is forever and ever.
 He will be our guide forever.
 R/ For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, or as a watch in the night.
 L/ Satisfy us in the morning with thy steadfast love, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
 R/ Of old thou didst lay the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the work of thy hands.
 U/ They will perish, but thou dost endure; they will all wear out like a garment, Thou changest them like a raiment, and they pass away; but thou art the same,
 and thy years have no end.

'Alone!' God, the very word makes me shudder. I don't want to be alone. I want to know you are near...that I have the love of those who are of my own flesh and blood. I want self identity among my fellowmen... their goodwill and concern. I can't stand being alone. I want to take my place among my peers and the whole human race.

And when I stop to think — God, that's what the refugee, Vietnamese boy wants (cover page). That's what 15,545,000 refugees want...what starving millions in India and elsewhere want.

They need bread, self help, training and education. But, God, above all they do not want to exist alone. In fact, God, I know they cannot.

ASSEMBLY REGISTRATION SUNDAY

KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION of CHRISTIAN CHURCHES

THEME

"NOW IS A SEASON FOR CHRISTIAN GIFTS"

NOW IS A SEASON

Now is a season
Full of conflict
With men overcome
By problems unsolved.
Easy it is
To withdraw in frustration
Turning away
Both heart and mind.

Now is a season
Full of need
That men overcome
Their inner despair,
Helpless are we
To discover solutions
Facing away
From man and world.

Now is a season
Full of challenge
That men overcome
Doubt of their gifts:
God-given strength
And wisdom and purpose
Wait for the men
Who give of themselves.
