We have proof—almost conclusive to us—that the malicious articles in last week's issue of the Christian Democrat were written by a veteran editor and proprietor of that paper as well as a candidate for Congress in this district. The article is a direct attack on a couple of contemptible curses in this city.

The editor of the Democrat may deny this, of course, but we do not think he is the author of the article. The matter is not deserving of further notice. It seems to us that the Democrat is now in order to let the writers know that we are "on their list." They have already bought one of our two papers in the name of the "Christian Democrat." They will probably begin to billet the editor and proprietors of this paper when they charged one of our most prominent citizens with being a "Christian Democrat"—a charge which we are not disposed to believe.

A large number of citizens of prominent family have been addressed by the editor and proprietors of the Democrat in the name of the "Christian Democrat." They will probably begin to billet the editor and proprietors of this paper when they charged one of our most prominent citizens with being a "Christian Democrat"—a charge which we are not disposed to believe.

Vestavia Democrats have nominated Mr. C. W. M. Maudlin for City Clerk and P. M. Maudlin for Lieutenant Governor.

In the last assessment, Kenton shows about $3,000 more taxes than last year. The decrease is not due to the large number of buildings destroyed by fire last year, but to the fact that the assessment is made on the basis of market value.

W. J. W. Elder, of the Western Union De- fender, is spoken of as a Democrat candidate for State Senate. He has been a Democrat for many years and left for his party whenever occasion demands.

The Prohibitions of Clermont County, Ohio, are waging war to the bitter end. They are determined to carry their war to the end and to make the people of the state to suffer for it. They have been in close contact with the people of the state and have left for their party whenever occasion demands.

A survivor comes from New York. He says that the President is a leading member of the Republican party, and that he will do this without waiting to be asked. He adds that the President of the United States, Mr. W. J. W. Elder, will be the Republican candidate for the next term.

Democrats, Our Duty. The election comes off next Monday, and it is our duty to see that our party is victorious. We must not only vote for our candidates, but we must also see that they are elected. We must see that the people are satisfied with the result.

Democrats who have seen in a Democratic newspaper that "the President is a leading member of the party" should take notice of this. They should see that the President is a leading member of the party, and that he will do this without waiting to be asked. He adds that the President of the United States, Mr. W. J. W. Elder, will be the Republican candidate for the next term.

The Ticket in this county is one which is well known and respected by all the voters. It contains some of the best men in the county. The candidates are well known and respected by all the voters. The ticket is one which is well known and respected by all the voters. It contains some of the best men in the county. The candidates are well known and respected by all the voters.

In point of efficiency and experience, the various tickets are superior to the tickets of the other parties. The candidate of the citizens of this county has had experience in the positions to which he has been elected, and he has done a good work.

The Boy in the Barn. A young man in the Barn County is the most encouraging nature. Everything is quiet now and the farmers are busy plowing their fields. The crops are doing well and the prospects are good.

The power of the Democratic party is a source of uneasiness to the citizens of the Barn County. They have brought such disgrace upon the party as to cause it to lose the confidence of the people. This is a mistake. The party needs a leader who will show that it is the party of the people and that it is the party of the future.
