Rowan Tobacco Growers Reap Golden Harvest

Crop Sold Brings High Return To 200 Farmers.

Rowan county tobacco growers have gained with growers over the state by the high price that have prevailed during the tobacco selling season. While Rowan county's crop was small when compared with that of other tobacco growing counties, the quality has been high, and the growers have profited accordingly.

The large part of this year's crop has already been disposed of, although a few growers still retain a part of their season's production, which will be disposed of in the near future.

So far as known, the crop to bring the highest prices was sold by Russell Arnold. Mr. Arnold sold a small crop, only 220 average of $3.00 per hundred or a total of $116.00.

Other crops sold from this county were as follows:

S. J. Lytton, 923 pound, about half of his crop, at an average of $4.08.

Thomas Bradley, Waltz, Ky., 220 pounds at an average of $4.00.

Luke Lytton, 1065 pounds at an average of $4.00.

P. L. Alderman, 1300 pounds at an average of $3.50.

Tom Sidlam, 305 pounds at an average of $4.80.

C. H. Adkins sold his crop early at an average of $2.00. If he had held it until later, he would probably have doubled his money.

Harrison Ramsey also sold early and took a comparatively low price for his crop, realizing an

Eagles Make It Six In A Row

Top Wesleyan Five By 35-30 To Keep Clean Slate.

Wesleyan proved to be the stiffest opposition the high flying Eagles from Morehead State Teachers College have encountered during the pre-season basketball season. With the result that the Eagles maintained their unblemished, undefeated record of six wins, by narrow margin of any game of the season, 35-30, in a game here on Monday night.

The Eagles, have now three conference games to their credit, being tied with Eastern at the top, with three wins and no defeats.

Wesleyan led the battle with a two point loss, and the score stood 24, Morehead tied and went ahead and Wesleyan came from behind to make it 8-6. Smith, star defense man could not get going in the first half and was taken from the game temporarily. The battle waged to the end of the half, with the Eagles leading by the margin of a ten point, 17-8.

Wesleyan took the lead in the first few minutes of the second stanza, but the Eagles staged a rally that one time gave them a lead of 8 points. They coasted the last few minutes of the game, freeing the ball.

Smith returned to the floor the second half and performed brilliantly on defense. Arznen, with 13 points led the scoring. The other in spite of two men covering him accounted for 11. Arznen, was knocked out during the closing minutes of the game, when a Wesleyan player collided with him

BILLIE CAUDILL INJURED IN AUTO WRECK SUNDAY

Billie Caudill, son of H. H. Caudill, suffered serious cuts about the head and face Sunday night, while returning from a trip to Middletown, Ohio, where he had gone in search of employment. The accident occurred near the J. B. Fralley home, just as he had about reached the city of Morehead. It is supposed that the boy who had been driving for sometime, dropped off to sleep, causing the wreck. The car was almost totally demolished.

It was necessary to take four stitches in his face to close the wound.

Near Completion

The new dormitory now being erected on the campus located a short distance east of the Training School and just north of the tennis courts and stadium will be ready for occupancy by the second semester. It is a four-story structure and will provide living space for a limited number of married couples and for approximately 150 men students. The building is thoroughly modern and up to the minute in structure and equipment. Most of the student rooms will be on the second, third and fourth floors and practically the entire first floor will be devoted to recreational activities.

LOWELL HOWARD SHOWS MARKED IMPROVEMENT

Lowell Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Howard, a student in the University of Louisville Law School, is reported as being much improved, following an operation on his jaw last Friday. Mr. Howard is said to have contracted a case of blood poisoning following the extraction of an ulcerated tooth the previous week. It was feared for a time that he would not recover, but at present his family is very much encouraged with reports of his condition.

Bashaw Is Dismissed

Tuesday was a busy day in County Court, with a lunacy hearing and the examining trial of Lawrence Bashaw, of Middletown, Ohio occupying practically the entire day. W. H. Thornsbury, was declared insane and was sent to the Eastern State Hospital at Lexington for care. Following a hearing held Tuesday morning.

The examining trial of Lawrence Bashaw, arrested last week at Mt. Sterling charged with striking and wounding Fred Archer on Saturday night, January 2, resulted in the dismissal of the charges against Bashaw, and the holding of him under bond of $500.00 as a material witness against David Swim, who is charged with robbery of Archer as well as striking and wounding. The charges grew out of the injury of Fred Archer at Farmers on that evening, and the subsequent robbery of his person. Swim is said to have returned Archer's watch and flashlight the following day. Archer, suffering with a broken vertebra, was taken to the veterans hospital in Lexington and later was taken to a hospital at Chicago.

Bashaw stated that he had been in company of Archer during the evening and until about 1:00 a. m. when he left him. He said they had been drinking and Archer was very drunk. They had both been at Dick Maze's tourist camp and across the river at the West tourist camp. Archer had left before he did, and later he had gone on home to his brother-in-law's, Harlan Archer. Archer's father later came and aroused him, looking for Fred Archer, who had not returned home. The injured man was found alongside the bridge where he had apparently been knocked and robbed. Evidence introduced tended to prove that Bashaw had no connection with the case and he was dismissed. (Continued From Page Five)

Officers Pledge Drive Against Rabid Dogs

Mad Dog Scare Results In Notice To Dog Owners.

Another "mad dog" scare, this time somewhat worse than usual has caused the County Health Department and the County Judges to issue a warning to all dog owners to conform to the law, by either keeping their dogs up in the future, or by keeping on a leash and muzzle.

With the Kentucky law, if enforced, property will furnish ample protection for all citizens and live stock from attacks by dogs suffering from rabies. The law provides that dogs must be kept up at all times, not for any stated period of time, and that if they are not kept up they must be on leash and in the possession of the owner. The law has not been enforced in this county at any time, as the method of payment of taxes permits entirely too much laxness, and the average dog owner has simply ignored it.

Quoting from the law, we find that, any one is privileged to kill any dog which comes on his property, not owned by his owner, or running loose. The law is very clear on this.

Its weakness consists in not requiring the tax on the dog be paid with the other taxes and a part of that tax be used to pay for their destruction. These dog owners are concerned to pay their real estate and personal taxes on one assessment, and the dogs are listed on another assessment, but it is not connected.

Under the present law dog owners are required to keep their dogs up for the next sixty days. If they are allowed off the owners premises they must be muzzled and on a leash.

The big scare occurred at Clearfield on Sunday of this week, when the six year old son of Walter Owens was bitten by a strange dog roaming the neighborhood.

The dog, which was finally killed had in the meantime bitten sever other persons and a number of cows calves and other livestock.

Reports have come in to the News office that the six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown was bit by the dog, as was a boy from the CCC camp.

The benefit of those who may be interested in Judge Jennings' states that if they wish to have the rabies serum administered they will be required to purchase the serum at their own expense, as the state and county do not make provisions for the cost of the serum. However, if they wish the County Health Doctor will administer the serum without any charge. The cost of the serum, he said is about $19.00.

Reports from Elliott county indicate that over 70 head of cattle have been bitten, contracted rabies and died within the past month, and this county is not far behind, according to reports. Dogs may be valuable, but the best dog in the

MAN'S GREATEST INVENTION

It is impossible for anybody today to imagine a world without wheels. Yet it was only yesterday, in mankind's long climb from primitive savagery to civilization, that he learned to make wheels. Long before wheels were thought of, men were training and riding horses in the great plains of Central Asia, and there are millions in the nomadic tribes which still inhabit that region who have never seen a wheel.

It is less than five hundred years since the first wheel ever turned in America. Not one of the Indian tribes whom the early discoverers found inhabiting North and South America had ever made or used wheels. If, as anthropologists now agree, the American Indians are an Asiatic people who crossed over by way of Bering Strait about 2,500 B. C. the fact that they never made or used wheels might indicate that general knowledge of the wheel among the branches of the human race is very recent indeed.

The flaw in that argument is that the Indians did not have horses, either, until the white men brought them from Europe. Wheels would be of little use without horses.

The "wild" horses of Mexico, South America and our own West are all descended from horses brought over by the Spanish conquistadors. While the Indians of the plains learned how to catch, tame and ride them, they never learned how to make wheeled vehicles for the horses to draw. Two poles with the ends dragging on the ground and the load tied on them was the Indians nearest approach to a vehicle.

One reason the wheel was one of the latest of man's inventions is that he first had to invent tools with which to make wheels. Probably the first wheels were roller-like cross-sections of tree trunks.

Our world of today literally runs on wheels. Practically all industry would stop if wheels ceased to turn. To deliberately stop the wheels of industry would, in our opinion, check mankind's advance and delay the day when the production of wealth will be so great that every human being's every need can be supplied.

HOW MUCH IS ENOUGH?

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, expresses the opinion that industry can never reach capacity production until every man who is willing to work is employed, and every family has at least $3,600 a year to live on. Granting that those are desirable objectives, one wonders whether Mr. Green has not fallen into the common error of confusing the yardstick with the goods.

Thirty-six hundred dollars a year—roughly $75 a week—is about three times the average wage in American business and industry today. But who is going to guarantee that, if the time ever comes when nobody earns less than that, it will buy three times as much of the necessities and luxuries of life?

The dollar of today will not buy as much food, clothing or shelter as the dollar of ten or even five years ago did. It is not many years since $3 a day was regarded as high wages, and men lived and bought up families on $18 a week.

The real measure of wages is, or ought to be, what the wage will buy, regardless of its size in dollars. Values depend upon the amount and cost of the labor which goes into the making and merchandising of commodities. When you increase that cost, the value rises and the higher wage will buy no more than the old low wage used to buy.

Mr. Green's $3,600 a year looks big in the light of present values, but how big would it look if values were based upon every worker getting $75 a week?

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Written each week by Rev. B. R. Easer, Pastor of Baptist Church.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON, Jan. 17, 1937.

SUBJECT: Jesus the Water of Life. John 4:26.

GOLDEN TEXT: "Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst." John 4:14.

On their way northward from Judea to Galilee, Jesus and His disciples came to Sychar, the ancient shechem, situated between Mounts Ebal and Gerizim. It was six o'clock in the afternoon, according to Roman reckoning, when Jesus, wearied with his journey, seated himself in the stone steps of the curbing around the well. The disciples went into the village to purchase food, leaving Jesus alone, unless, perhaps, John who reported that conversation, stayed with him. Here occurred the notable conversation with the Samaritan woman.

The Jews and Samaritans had no dealing. Jesus, being a Jew, was violating one of their most strict conversations when he asked this woman for a drink. She had come to draw water from the well, and Jesus simply requested a drink at her hands. She immediately raised the question about his breaking the custom of the Jews in speaking thus intimately to a Samaritan. Here Jesus begins to arouse her interest in his spiritual message.

"If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that sageth unto thee, Give me to drink, thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water." She, thinking of natural water, inquires how he can do this with nothing to draw from the well, and becomes a bit amused at his boast that he could do more with Jacob who gave thee the well many years ago. Then Jesus begins to teach the spiritual meaning of what he has said by comparing the natural water with the spiritual. If one drinks of this water, he said, one will thirst again, not so with the water that I shall give him; for whosoever drinketh of it shall never thirst anymore. This appealed to the woman's interest, and, to pursue the matter, perhaps unattained, she replied, "Sir, I thirst. Give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come all the way hither to draw." To her it would be a great convenience.

Having aroused her interest, Jesus seeks to bring conviction by telling her of her sin. Knowing that she was living in adultery, he told her to bring her husband. This brought the confession of her sin; she had no husband, but was living with a man, and had had five husbands before. Thus Jesus revealed that she was a prophet. From the confession of sin she leads to the matter of their rival worship, whether in Samaria or in Jerusalem. This gives Jesus the chance to tell her what true worship is: not outward form, but inward spirit. This leads to the prospect of the Messiah and the woman indicates her expectation of one who will come to set up the worship of the Spirit in hearts of all particular shrines. This gives Jesus his opportunity to announce that the Messiah is here, and that speak as he.

The result was that the Baptist woman found herself drinking the Water of Life, and it is so true, need that she went back to the well to tell her friends. They came in numbers and later testified that they believed on him, not merely because of her testimony, but because they themselves now know him.

The truth of this story may be known in any life who comes with an open confession of sin to Jesus and exercise faith in him as Savior.

The eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gearhart suffered a serious accident Tuesday afternoon, when he fell from the bed on which he was playing, breaking the point of a scissor made off in his eye.

Farm Adjustment Available Here

Clarence W. Cobb, County Supervisor in charge of the Rural Rehabilitation Program of the Resettlement Administration in Carter, Elliott and Rowan counties feels that there may be farmers in this section in danger of losing their property from foreclosure, or otherwise in distress on account of debt, who could be helped by the Farm Debt Adjustment Service which is now a part of the Rural Rehabilitation Program of the Resettlement Administration.

"While thousands of distressed debtors in the nation and hundreds in this state have been helped to clear up their debt entanglements and obtain, to the satisfaction of both creditor and debtor, recent studies indicate that there are still those who do not take advantage of the friendly debt conciliation service offered by the Resettlement Administration," Mr. Cobb said. "While it is not always possible to save a farm from foreclosure, in many cases we know, there is always a good chance that we can give some assistance. The Farm Debt Adjustment Service is available to all farmers in serious difficulty on account of debts and it costs nothing to apply."

All one has to do is to address a postal card, or apply in person, to his nearest County Rural Rehabilitation Supervisor who will talk over the applicant's problems and advise him whether it is possible to assist him. Mr. Cobb's office is located in the Court House building, Main Street, Morehead, Ky.

Mr. Cobb calls attention to the fact that voluntary committees, composed of public spirited citizens working without pay, other than actual expense, have been organized in every county to help with this Farm Debt Adjustment Service. These committees meet with the debtor and creditor, try to have the debt reduced in accordance with the debtor's ability to pay, or to get the debtor more time in which to pay off the debt, or to find a new

MANY ACCIDENTS OCCUR IN 1936

When the final figures are made up, it will be very possibly be found that the automobile accident record of 1936 was the worst in our motoring history—from the standpoint of injuries and property damage, as well as fatalities.

Will 1937 further "improve" that record? The answer is up to the millions who drive cars and walk our streets and highways. We make our cars mechanically safer—and accidents increase. We apply the most advanced engineering knowledge to the problems of building cars safer—and accidents increase. We stiffen our traffic laws—and accidents increase.

It is a telling commentary on the evils of debt that the worst accidents involve cars in good condition operating on first-class highways under excellent weather conditions—not worn-out wrecks driving on icy pavements in a storm.

There is a percentage of drivers who habitually aggregate the safety factor—and the annual cost is 25,000 lives and hundreds of millions of dollars in property destruction.

The driver who steps on it—who weaves through congested traffic who disdains traffic signals—who regards pedestrians as a nuisance to be run off the streets—this driver is responsible for mass manslaughter on an unprecedented scale. Will the American people continue to countenance his ravages.

Know Your Language

A CRITICAL reader of a committee report wrote, "There are many omissions in the report. That is impossible. An omission is something that is omitted or left out. If the omissions were in the report they would have been omissions. In reporting a mountain climbing expedition a newspaper reporter wrote, "We followed the climbers step by step through the telescope." That seems to be impossible, too, unless the climbers climbed through the telescope as well as up the mountain.

"Demean" is often used incorrectly as a synonym for "debase, degrade, disgrace," as: "I never thought he could demean himself by such an act." "Demean" is merely a synonym for "behave" or "conduct (oneself)." A person may demean himself either well or badly, just as he may conduct himself either well or badly.

Six Wins For Local Squad Tops All College Teams In The State

From The Courier-Journal

The University of Kentucky, Union College and Centre College suffered their first setbacks of the season last week, cutting the list of undefeated major Kentucky college basketball teams to four. The rise of the Morehead College Eagles, who captured three games to move into first place in the general standings with five victories, featured the week's play. Murray, the Eastern Kentucky Teachers and the Western Kentucky Hilltoppers are the other ambient fives.

Morehead started its three game winning spurt Tuesday night by coasting to a 38-24 win over Alfred Holbrook at Manchester, Ohio. Thursday the Eagles invaded the stronghold of the Georgetown College Tigers and handed the Bengals their first K. I. A. C. loss, 34-25. Saturday night Union fell before Morehead, 43-24.

Eastern edged out Kentucky Wesleyan Thursday, 31-30, in the overtime game of the week. Pennsylvania dropped two more K. I. A. C. games, bowing to Union Tuesday, 30-20 and to Georgetown Saturday, 38-14. Wesleyan entered the victory column for the first time winning over Louisville Saturday night, 30-27.

Team Shows Form In Nipping Tigers

First K. I. A. C. Victory Of Year Registered Thur.

Morehead's Eagles swooped down on Georgetown's Tigers and when the fur and feathers settled on the troubled zone, the Blue and Gold had scratched out their first K. I. A. C. victory of the year.

The boys were not at their best, but, paced by their stellar forward, Arzten, the Moreheadians twisted the Tiger's tail to the tune of 34 to 25 in a rough house affair.

Morehead ran its string of victories to four straight with apparent ease, and was never in serious danger of being submerged before the onslaughts of an infuriated Tiger.

Stanley Arzten, flashy Newport product, held to four points the first half, came back in the second canto to punish the hoop for nine points, for a grand total of thirteen for the evening. This boy is not only a crack shot and a fast-breaking man with plenty of basketball brains, but a leech at guarding his opponent.

Lawrence Carter, undoubtedly the best man in the state under the basket, was not so far behind the pace-setting Arzten with a total of ten points. He is the most feared of all the centers in the conference because of his uncanny ability to connect from any angle. For this reason he is closely guarded; two and sometimes three men being instructed to halt his scoring attack.

Morehead in that it has a wealth of sophomore talent, which was freely used in an effort to halt Arzten and his mates, but to no avail. In a preliminary to this "varsity" game, Morehead's freshman dropped a close decision to the Cubs of Georgetown Thursday evening on the Cubs own court. The final count was 25 to 20.

The Eagles were trailing 11 to 8 at the end of the first half and for a while after intermission looked as if they might overtake the ambling Cubs. Stockdale and his cronies proved to have more than enough to forestall Morehead's yearnings, and the game ended with the Cubs pulling away.

The Eaglet game was featured by blocks and tackles that would have put gridiron experts to shame and served as a warning of what was to come in the game that followed.

Eagles Topple Union College Saturday Night

Win First Conference Go At Home By 41-34

Keeping a clear record and a place at the top of the basketball heap in Kentucky the Morehead Eagles dropped Union College of Harboursville, Ky., here Saturday night in the conference opener at home. Previously in the week the Eagles had taken Holbrook College at Manchester, Ohio and Georgetown College at Georgetown in their stride to make their string of victories stretch to five in a row.

Saturday night's game demonstrated the Eagles had strength to turn as they came from behind a 10 score at the first minute of play and were never headed. Sullivan for Union opened the game with a shot from outside the four circle to draw first blood, and followed it with a free throw to give Union three points while the Eagles gathered themselves for a drive that netted them 16 points while the visitors remained at 3. Arzten, Carter and Horton broke into the scoring column to lift the Eagles out of danger. As the half ended the Eagles led 22-11.

During the early minutes of the second half the visitors threw some what of a scare into the local fans as they drew up with a series of long shots. Their rally netted them a score of 28-22, the closest they ever came to tying it up. The Eagles again put on a drive for points and easily outdistanced their foes to wind up the game with a comfortable 41-34 lead.

Smith as on previous occasions failed to shine as a point garnerer, but his sterling defense game, and his control of the ball on rebounds was responsible for a number of the Morehead points. Arzten accounted for thirteen of the points totalled by Morehead, while Carter made 11 points. Horton came through with the nine and Ishmael made 6.

BOXERS PREPARE FOR HUNTINGTON TOURNAY

Joe Jackson, middle weight, in charge of the team, said that the boys were rapidly rounding into condition, and some of them would go far before being cast into the discards if they did not win.

Among the group from which Jackson will select the representatives are such scuffcutters as Johnny Fitch, a hard-hitting, fast moving welter; Denver Ball, last year a middle with a powder-puff piled into a light-heavy with a kayo punch, who this year has blossomed in either hand; Johnny Runyon, 118 pounder who can hit, has nice footwork, and is expected to be an all-round threat in the tournament; Huston, who will probably be a running mate to Ball in the light-heavy class; and last, but by no means the least of the hopes, is Jackson himself. This lad has more boxing ability than any other lad in the group. Coupled with this he is in the pink of condition, and takes his training seriously.

Analyzing the score, it appears team from the viewpoint of the opponents, as any man may break away on a scoring spree and any one of the first five is likely to break into the scoring column at any time. A team of that sort is always dangerous to opposition, as it is impossible to safely put two men to guarding one as was done Saturday night with Carter.

Morehead employed a fast break in offense that had the visitors puzzled during the first half, and when they developed a passable defense in the last half, the Eagles went into a slow break that had them equally puzzled.

All in all, the fans, while delighted with the work of Red Smith, are no less delighted with the fact that the Eagle Squad as a whole is apparently rounding out into a team that shows the advantage of coordinated team work, rather than individual stardom.

One of the outstanding features of the play was the fact that every member of the team was ready to help every other member make points.

COZY FEATURES

LIBELED LADY

A "Libeled Lady" - friends, and she has for a cold five million on account of a hot news story.

Mrs. Lyra Lyle is the heroine who is libeled and William Powell is the smooth egger "framing" who goes out to get her heart in order to defeat her suit in court.

Spencer Tracy is the worried managing editor who'll lose his job if he doesn't squish the suit. Jean Harlow is his fiancée who enters into a unique "marriage of convenience" with Powell in order to help compromise the heirs. What a setup!

Four of the biggest stars in the film business, gathered together for the first time—in a real story of today's newspapers—revealing the headaches and heartaches behind the headlines.

Produced by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, and directed by Jack Conway, the famous director of "A Tale of Two Cities" and other distinguished motion pictures.

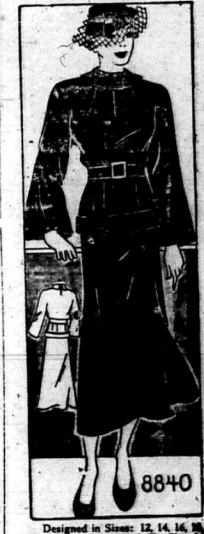

"Libeled Lady" is at the Cagy Theatre for Wednesday and Thursday. It is one of M-G-M's new season "specials" and you can't afford to miss it.

Wallace Sullivan, former Chicago ace, wrote the original story—Maureen Watkins, author of the stage hit, "Chicago," adapted it to the screen in collaboration with Howard Emmett Rogers and George Oppenheimer, two of the foremost scenarists in the business.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation for the kindness and sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our daughter and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Dock Eldridge and family.

Designed in Sizes: 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26 and 28. Size 16 requires 4 1/2 yards of 36 inch material.

Pattern 8840: if you would emulate the style of cosmopolitans, wear a simple type of frock! This is a simple affair for youthful moderns in the simplest design, yet through the clever use of chic details interest, charm and novelty are here a plenty.

An unusual touch of style is the stitched turnback at the lower edge of the jacket. This feature gives a fresh appeal to the new silhouette and is quite modish. The upper portion of the jacket is fitted simply and well with superb texture.

The waist and hip lines are figure defining and follow the latest more slender trend. The skirt flares beautifully in the new spring manner and is a grand companion piece to so beguiling a jacket.
