Emily Wiley: Originally the plan was to purchase human and animal sets, however it would have been about $4600 and I wanted to test it out before I proposed the purchase of both. Students can check these out at the library with their id and use them in the library and after they are done, they return it to the desk and the individual working will clean and disinfect them. COVID PRECAUTIONS WILL BE MET!

Open Floor

Emily Wiley:

- I am planning the rally for higher education.
- There is something called Christian social services on campus and I have been trying to think of ways we can help give back and I was thinking of doing a winter donation/ can food drive. Since there usually is not much donated, I thought we could match the donations up to a cap of $300.
- Malia Scott: We could donate to Eagle Essentials? Emily: the reason I decided not to do Eagle Essentials is because they already have funding behind them.
- Horizon village is an assisted living area for people with disabilities, PI Kap came to SGA and asked to do a partnership with us for horizon village. If you would like to help in this contactless process, please contact me.

Connor Tilford:

- There is a light that flashes in the parking lot that I feel needs to be fixed and reported to facilities.
- The weather plan : A, B, and C is very confusing. Shannon: there used to be only a plan A and B. Also, when deciding what to do, there are very many things that go into this decision. Emily Wiley: I have given university administration a couple options in regards to this. One being reach out to get extra help, or maybe even transferring to virtual for said day if it is a really bad snow day. I will keep everyone updated.

Morgan Johnson:

- The ramp by Craft Academy is very bad off and if you were in a wheelchair or on crutches, then it would be very hard to get down and maybe impossible to get up.

Announcements

Sarah Combs: Superbowl trivia at 8pm tonight, please join!

Ethan Wells: HOME GAME TOMORROW FOR WOMEN AND MEN!

Shannon Colvin: It is Black History month so take advantage of these events being offered!
