MRS. STEWART PRAISES LEAGUE AND BECKHAM

Senator Lodge Called Benedict Arnold by Kentucky Woman

[Special to The Herald.]

GEORGETOWN, Ky., Oct. 19.—Speaking before a crowd which filled the hall, Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart said that Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, who opposes the League of Nations, is "a second Benedict Arnold."

Mrs. Stewart, who was introduced by Mrs. W. H. Coffman, opened her remarks as follows:

"If I couldn't be a Democrat, with the issues now before me, I would be ashamed of myself. The Democratic party holds the idealism which we women crave. Wilson is no leader needing apology. Were he the only issue it would be a glorious one. There are many fine Republicans, but the finer they are the quicker they enter Democratic ranks. But I don't decry my many Republican friends, because they walk in Egyptian darkness."

In discussing the League of Nations, Mrs. Stewart alluded to the nine months that must elapse before we can go to war, under the provisions of the covenant. "Did you ever hear of any one remaining angry that long? Of course not, but Lodge is the exception. He has remained angry eighteen months. Henry Cabot Lodge will go down in history as a second Benedict Arnold. Every church in the nation, the women and the American Legion want the League of Nations."

"Senator Beckham," said Mrs. Stewart, "who is our candidate for re-election in the upper House, gave us one of the best state administrations in the history of Kentucky. No one has a better educational record. He is the friend of prohibition and leader on the floor of the Senate, and we need him there."
