

1989

IN THE NEW YEAR ARE YOU WILLING . .

...To close your book of complaints and to open the book of praise?
...To ignore what life owes you and to think about what you owe life?
...To stop looking for friendship and to start being friendly?
...To be content with such things as you have and to stop whining for the things you have not?
...To enjoy the simple blessings of life and to cease striving for the artificial pleasures of the day?
...To forget what you have accomplished and to meditate on what others have done for you?
...To cease looking for someone to help you and to devote yourself to helping others?
...To consecrate your life to the service of an imperfect church and to remember that Christ chose twelve imperfect followers to be His disciples.

THE JOURNERY OF LENT: Lord, it is time to begin the journey to the cross. Time to rehearse again the ending of a life and the beginning of hope. It is time to take time to listen to, to watch for, to wait for the man of sorrows who brought us joy. May each of these days be a new beginning for each of us, a reflection of the continuing paradox of life overcoming death.

Today is the beginning of the third week of Lent.

The Bell Choir is playing for worship service at the Ft. Thomas Christian Church, Ft. Thomas, Kentucky.

(1 VERSE)

THE BENEDICTION

OF THE LORD'S SUPPER,
Alexander Campbell wrote in his "Christian System" in 1839 -

We have said that the loaf must be broken before the saints partake of it. Jesus took a loaf from the paschal table and broke it before he gave it to his disciples. They received a broken loaf, emblematic of his body once whole, but by his own consent broken for his disciples. In eating it we then remember that the Lord's body was by his own consent broken or wounded for us. Therefore, he that gives thanks for the loaf should break it not as a representative of the Lord, but after his example; and after the disciples had partaken of this loaf, handing it to one another..... thus they all have communion with the Lord and with one another in eating the broken loaf.
And thus they as priests feast upon his sacrifice.

.....
Upon the loaf and upon the cup of the Lord, in letters which speak . . . to the heart of every disciple, is inscribed, "When this you see, remember me." . . . Each disciple, in handing the symbols to his fellow disciple, says, in effect, "You, my brother, once an alien, . . . are now brought home to the family of God. You have owned my Lord as your Lord, my people as your people. Under Jesus the Messiah we are one."

"Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above."⁶

on which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,

the proof of forgiveness,
the vehicle of grace,
and the banner of peace.

MEN: The cross breaks down our pride punishment.

LEADER: The cross of Christ is the door
to heaven,

God again proved faithful to the hope of the patriarchs,
the promise of the prophets,
and the ministry of the priests.

 25 Then answered and said, 'His blood be on us and on our children.'
 26 Then released he them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.
 27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.
 28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.
 29 And when they had plaited a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they bowed their knees and prostrated themselves before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!
 30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.
 31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put on his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him.
 32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, named Simon, by name, and they compelled him to bear his cross.
 33 And when they were come to a place called Golgotha, that is to say, the place of a skull, they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side of him, and Jesus in the midst.
 34 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.
 35 And Jesus said, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And when he had said this, he said, I am thirsty. A vessel full of vinegar was put to him, and he drank of it.
 36 And when they had finished these things, Jesus said, It is finished.
 37 And when he had said these things, he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

This is a significant opportunity for us each to open our hearts and share a portion of our many blessing with those in need. Our support in these next few months is critical to helping the Homes cover the daily costs for those who cannot afford their care. Please help as much as possible.

This giving opportunity is very important because the Homes are depending on us to help make up the difference in costs for residents who cannot afford to pay for their care. As we prepare for this special offering, let's reflect on our many blessings and open our hearts to share with those who are depending on us most. Please give as generously as possible to this most deserving ministry.

MOREHEAD AREA HABITAT FOR HUMANITY, INC.

Dear Friends,

We did it! With God's help and all of us pulling together, a miracle has grown up out of the ground at 808 Walton Street.

Please reserve next Sat., November 4th at 11:00 a.m. and join us at the building site for the dedication of the first Habitat home in the Morehead area.

Beth Donovan and her four boys have already worked about 400 hours together with volunteers from the community to build their new home. As they pay back the actual cost with no profit or interest added, the money will be used to work with other families in need of decent housing. We call this plan the "economics of Jesus." Three thousand dollars are needed to complete the Donovan home. Then we will repeat the process with another family and another until there are no more shacks.

Sincere thanks from the Donovan Family and the Board of Directors

YOUTH

Youth am I!
I am a skylark on the wing,
Alive, alert to joy and spring,
No valleys tempt me; peaks allure—
Long flights my quivering wings endure;
And only he who seeks the height
Of great adventure, views my flight
Toward the light.

Youth am I!
I seek new ways beneath the blue;
I take far flights unknown to you—
Yet do I need your faith in me,
For though I seem so wild and free,
When comes the storm and darkened sky,
I would you had climbed as high
As skylarks fly.

Youth am I!
Since you were young it is so long
That you forgot life's morning song,
And do you doubt my loyalty

To ideals high; or can you see Beneath my shining, morning face
The semblance of an inner grace,
High heaven's trace?

THANKS BE TO GOD

I do not thank thee, Lord,
That I have bread to eat while others starve;
Nor yet for work to do
While empty hands solicit heaven;
Nor for a body strong
While other bodies flatten beds of pain.
No, not for these do I give thanks!

But I am grateful, Lord,
Because my meager loaf I may divide;
For that my busy hands
May move to meet another's need;
Because my doubled strength
I may expend to steady one who faints.
Yes, for all these do I give thanks!

For heart to share, desire to bear,
And will to lift,
Flamed into one by deathless Love—
Thanks be to God for this!
Unspeakable! His Gift!

Give Thanks

I think that we shall always see, God's gifts upon our Christmas tree.

You cannot touch
them with your hand, yet they are there at your command. There's joy and faith and hope renewed. There's laughter for a happy mood. There's gratitude for each new day;
a time to think, a time to pray.
The Christ has come with holy light to shine and make your pathway bright.
All these are yours if you can see God's gifts upon your Christmas Tree.
