119 In Rowan Getting Age Assistance

Rowan Standing Well Up In List Of Counties Receiving Aid

Of interest to citizens of Rowan county is the following article from Old Age Assistance Division of the Department of Public Welfare. The number of grants made to Rowan county compares very favorably with those in other counties. The larger, Boyd county, for instance has received only 73 grants at this time, whereas Rowan county has 119.

A number of other investigations have been made and forwarded to Frankfort and additional grants are expected within a very short time. The article follows.

As Old Age Assistance entered its eighth month of actual existence in the State of Kentucky, the number of aged indigents receiving this aid in Rowan county from the State Department of Welfare getting a total of $149,000 or more has been increased to 119 who are average of $9.36 per each, each month, according to an announcement made today by Dr. A. Y. Lloyd, director of the Division of Old Age Assistance. The number of old folk to receive aid in this county will be increased monthly until all who have applied are properly cared for.

The steady monthly increase in grants has brought the total up to 17,812 in the 10 counties in the state to receive checks for the month of February. This number is, on an average of $10.94 per grant. This represents a State wide increase of 2372 grants amounting to $24,125 per month.

Confirming with the grant increase made during the early part of the month, the Division of Old Age

In an interview with Dr. J. D. Falls, head of the Personnel Department he stated that in the near future Morehead college may have a chance to broadcast over WCMI by means of a remote control station located in the new Science Building.

Mr. James A. Kyler, manager of WCMI, assured Dr. Falls last Thursday, after the airing quartette broadcasted, that his would be possible if the college pledged its fullest cooperation.

If this came about Morehead College will have the opportunity of broadcasting daily or weekly and various types of programs ranging from lectures, music, debates, etc. President H. A. Babb could not

More Candidates Out In Past Eight Years

The second week in March, and only five candidates have announced their intention of making races for the various county offices. In discussing the small number of candidates that have announced at this time, with a friend, it was suggested that it would be interesting to know how this number compared with announcements in previous years, as listed in the columns of The News.

So to satisfy our curiosity as well as that of our readers we have dug back through the files of The News for the past two county races and here's what we found.

In 1929, there was certainly no lack of candidates to announce for the political plums that hung so temptingly from the political trees in Rowan county. On January 1, that is in the first issue in January, The News published the announcements of 14 candidates for county

MOREHEAD SHAKES FROM RECENT EARTHQUAKE

Morehead refuses to be left out of the news, and so many of the residents of Morehead distinctly felt the earthquake shock on Monday about 11:30 p. m. The shock while slight did shake some of the houses and rattle the ornaments on mantles and the dishes in the shelves. No damage was done, however, but Morehead certainly had an earthquake.

Rev. Irvin Dies At London Home

Was Former Pastor Of Christian Church In This City

Local friends, of whom there were as many as there were citizens, were deeply grieved and shocked to learn of the death of Rev. W. S. Irvin, at his home in London, Kentucky last week. Brother Irvin, as he was affectionately called here, was pastor of the local Christian Church for a number of years, during which time he endeared himself, not only to the members of his congregation but to the community as well. Funeral services were held in Fleming county last Thursday. Among those from Morehead who attended the services were:

Among those from Morehead who attended the burial of Rev. W. S. Irvin at Flemingsburg Thursday were Mrs. H. L. Wilson, Mrs. Mary Carey, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. C. W. Waltz, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. ## Results Of Guessing Contest Next Week

Readers Should Make Entries In Regional Contest This Week

In view of the large number of entries in the guessing contest on the results of the district tournament last week. The News has been unable to examine them all and publish the results in this issue. However we expect to have them ready for the issue of next week, the winners of both guessing contests will be published at that time and the prizes held for the winners until they come for them.

This week the interest in the contest for the regional tournament will undoubtedly create even greater interest. Turn to the page ad now and pick your winners. Bring your guesses to the office of the Rowan County News before the opening of the tournament. Prizes will be the same as last week. Do it now.

Appointed To Board

W. A. CASKEY

There will probably be a number of candidates for the office of Tax Commissioner if all who have taken the examination announce. The examination was held Monday and the peculiar circumstance was that on Democrat, Charles Waddell, and one Republican, Perrol Myers, took the examination.

The rule with regard to the examination is that any one who has taken it once is not required to do so again. Thus there are already a number of men and women in the county who are qualified to make the race in addition to those who took it this year. It is not anticipated that all will announce, however.

Cobb Discusses Aid To Farmers

Says That Those Who Wish Help Must Agree To Cooperate

Clarence W. Cobb, rural rehabilitation supervisor of the resettlement Administration in Rowan, Carter, and Elliott Counties, has announced that supplemental loans are now made to families farming under the supervised loan plan and that new applications are being received from farmers in need of such assistance.

Applications may be made at the supervisors office, located in the Court House at Morehead, or with county welfare officers who will refer such applications to the County Rehabilitation Supervisor.

The Resettlement Administration provides rehabilitation loans and practical farm guidance to serving farm families unable to secure needed credit elsewhere. The supervisor explained, "Loans will be made to farmers who can be depended upon to put forth an honest effort to repay them to carry out their farming operations in accordance with agreement with the Resettlement Administration."

"The rehabilitation program is often referred to as 'supervised' (Continued On Page Two)

Group From College Heard On "School Of Air" Program

Citizens of Morehead and Rowan county enjoyed a treat last Friday night when they had the pleasure of listening to a program given under the auspices of the "School of the Air" of George Peabody College, Nashville, Tennessee. The program was shown by a number of musical organizations from the local college took part in the program. Short talks were made by President Harvey A. Babb, Dean W. H. Vaughan, and Prof. Neville Finzell. The program closed with all Kentucky programs should close with a beautiful rendition of "My Old Kentucky Home."

A number of wires were received at the studio after the close of the program, from alumni and former teachers throughout the South. Among those who sent messages were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hudson of Fayette, Arkansas. Mr. Hudson, who is head of the art department at the University of Arkansas, was formerly connected with the art department of the Morehead State Teachers College.

Only Two Take Tax Commissioner Exams

Many Others Are Eligible To Make Race For County Office

There will probably be a number of candidates for the office of Tax Commissioner if all who have taken the examination announce. The examination was held Monday and the peculiar circumstance was that on Democrat, Charles Waddell, and one Republican, Perrol Myers, took the examination.

WALTER BROWN IS KILLED NEAR BRADY

The mutilated body of Walter Brown of Clearfield was found beside the C. & O. tracks near Brady Switch last Thursday morning, where he had evidently been struck by a night train. It is not known how the accident occurred, but it is thought that he had sat down on the track to rest and failed to hear the train approaching. Earle in the evening had been accompanied by his oldest son, Marv Brown, who had left him but a short time when the accident occurred. Funeral services were held Sunday at the Clearfield Church in charge of Rev. H. H. Hall. Burial was made in the Clearfield Cemetery.

GINGER LEACH HAS DOSE OF MUMPS

Dog is man's best friend, but there is a dog in Morehead that is suffering from two close friendships with his little masters. The dog is Ginger Leach, and his owners are Jimmy Leach and Earl Leach, sons of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Leach.

And then Ginger got the mumps. His throat and jaws swelled up until he was one of the most comical looking sights we have ever seen. Comical looking, but we imagine he felt just as bad as his masters did when they had the mumps. His big brown eyes looked out sadly from between his swollen jaws, as if he wondered what it was all about.

Ginger is being well taken care of and he is expected to recover.

MALINDA JAMES DIES WEDNESDAY

(Written By The Family) A well known citizen of Morehead, Ky., who had spent most of her life (71 years) in Carter County of her daughter, Nettie Pettit, at Ky. Ky., passed away at the home Morehead, Ky.

She departed this life at 2 a. m. Wednesday, March 3, 1937. She was known in Carter as "Malinda James" and in Rowan as Mrs. James. Besides one brother and six children (still living) she leaves many relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

It can truly be said that all her neighbors and associates always had a word of praise for "Malinda James. Bill James who died at Pleasant Val was the wife of Willard ley, Carter County, Ky., in 1903. She was the mother of seven children: Willard James, Bartwell W. Drawings were held at the college on Sunday with the following results: Teams in the upper bracket include Morehead High School, Breckinridge High School, Olive Hill and Russell. In the lower bracket, are found teams from Racedale, Mt. Sterling, Soldier and Winchester. The drawings paired Morehead with Russell, while Breckinridge drew Olive Hill for their opening game, if Breck and Morehead High win their first game they will meet in the semi-finals Saturday afternoon.

Mt. Sterling drew Soldier for their first game and Winchester will meet Racedale, the winners going to the semi-finals, Saturday afternoon.

John Anglin Dies Following Long Illness

One Of Oldest Employees Of C. and O. Railroad Company

Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon for John A. Anglin, who died at the C. & O. Hospital in Huntington, W. Va., on Saturday of last week. Mr. Anglin who was one of the old citizens of Morehead, had been ill for several weeks first at his home here and later at the hospital. Earlier in the week it was thought that he had shown definite improvement and relatives here were anticipating his return home within a comparatively short time. His daughter, Mrs. Ruth Lappin, however visited him Friday and found that he had suffered a relapse, from which he failed to rally. A message announcing his grave condition, reached them at noon Saturday and he passed away before they arrived at his bed side.

Mr. Anglin had been a resident of Morehead for almost fifty years, coming here with the C. & O. Railroad, with which he had spent his lifetime, having gone to work for them when only a boy. He grew up in the service, the greater part of which was in this city. About two years ago, Mr. Anglin retired from active service and went on the retired list, having served his full fifty years in the employ of the company. At that time, local and railroad friends enjoyed a testimonial dinner at which Mr. Anglin was the honor guest.

Funeral services were held at the Christian Church Monday afternoon with Dr. G. H. Fern in charge. Burial was made in Lee Cemetery. He was assisted by Rev. B. H. Kazez and Rev. H. L. Moore.

John A. Anglin was born May 12, 1850 at Fayette, Ky. On May 12, 1880 he was united in marriage to Ella Woolen of Morehead. To this union were born six children, Mrs. James (Ferna) Cartwright, Mrs. W. C. (Ruth) Lappin, Mrs. Wathan (Continued On Page Two)

WINTER CARNIVAL IS COMPLETE SUCCESS

Beryl Motley and Roger Caudill were crowned queen and king of the Winter Carnival, held at the College Saturday night, by President Harvey A. Babb.

Miss Motley's home is in Frenchburg, while Mr. Caudill is a Morehead boy the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Caudill. Other candidates for these high honors were Linda Lee Eaton of Michigan and Ruby Smith of Olive Hill.

The Winter Carnival is one of the high spots in life of M. S. T. C. students. Proceeds are used to help defray the expenses of the Raconteur, the College annual.

Breck-Morehead In Regional Tournament

Judged by the dope bucket, which everyone knows is easily upset, Breckinridge has an excellent chance of surviving the early games and of going to the finals. They even have a good chance of winning and going to state as the representative of this region. Analyze it this way: If they get by Olive Hill, they will meet either Russell or Morehead in the semi-finals. Breck has already beaten Morehead by a 30-15 score in the district tournament. This gives them a good chance of surviving the early games and of going to the finals. Morehead has beaten Russell by an even more top-heavy score on their court at Morehead High. Any way you figure, it would appear that Breck will get over that first hump named Olive Hill.

In the lower bracket, things are a little different, with Mt. Sterling apparently the tagged team to go to the semi-finals. Morehead High has defeated Racedale once, and Mt. Sterling took Winchester in the (Continued On Page Two)

PREVENT FOREST FIRES

Every spring The Rowan County News has carried stories and editorials concerning forest fires. The article published below is timely and self-explanatory. It was written by the District Ranger of the Red River Forest district.

As spring approaches we are reminded of the fact that many people will be burning tobacco beds, seed fields, and brush from new-ground clearings. There is always a danger that such fires may get out of hand and burn adjacent woodlands.

There were 115 fires on the Red River District of the Cumberland National Forest last year. Nine of these fires were caused by lightning storms during the dry weather last summer.

The beneficial effects of protection against forest fires can already be seen in our woodlands in the form of new green undergrowth containing valuable timber species.

Good citizens will wish to preserve these values and will be careful not to allow fire to escape to woodlands while doing their spring burning. Education should go far towards eliminating the small percentage of incendiary fires.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Written each week by Rev. B. H. Kase, Pastor of Baptist Church.

Subject, Unity With God and One Another Through Christ. John 16:7, 17:14-26.

Golden Text, "That they may be one, even as we are one." John 17:22.

The world about us in all confusion. It is true in the realm of religion. It is true in the realm of the Christian religion. In separate denominations there are divisions and subdivisions, which render our purposes weak and make our efforts seem to the world utter confusion.

In this apparent chaos and appeal for unity seems to be the things the world is hungering to hear. It would seem to the world mind that the best thing all of us could do is to drop our differences and "come together on Christ." At least that sounds fair. You will hear it said over the world today: "We are only disagreed on the non-essentials; we are all united on Christ. Why don't we leave out these unimportant differences and get together?"

So reasonable does this sound that there are large "federated groups," such as the Federal Council of Churches, trying to bring about this great unity of denominations and churches over the country. And this makes a sweeping popular appeal to the masses of our people.

Let us not be deceived by a popular mind on these matters. The great popular mind has never been discriminating in its thought. It has always been shallow and superficial. It will likely get only the surface of any matter.

The fact is, though many refuse it, that we are not merely divided on "nonessentials," but we are divided on the main issue—CHRIST. There was division about His every day of his public ministry here on earth, and that division came even among His disciples. It is the deceiving mind of Satan that brings about the divisions. God is not the author of confusion, is He? Christ? What is He? Was He God in the flesh? Was He merely man? Will His death alone save, or does it require our obedience? Are Baptists and the Lord's Supper important in the teaching of the Gospel, or are they unimportant?

These and many other questions about the divisions. God is not the author of confusion, is He? Christ? What is He? Was He God in the flesh? Was He merely man? Will His death alone save, or does it require our obedience? Are Baptists and the Lord's Supper important in the teaching of the Gospel, or are they unimportant?

enterprise were the necessary back, but it was somehow different from Dry Creek to the mill from the way she had imagined it, where Sparrel was grinding. He was changed and all this talk I was wondering whether you sounded more of the Pikeville law-couldn't help me out for a few yer, Cynthia thought, than the weeks, Shellenberger said in his boy who set out the plants in the pleasant manner. spring and road Blackstone halting. What could I do to help you out, ly under the haystack. She realiz Mr. Shellenberger?

ed with heartache, that even the Those fellows, are grumbling Jesse of those days existed no long for their pay again and the God's er except in her memory, and would truth of it is, Mr. Patter, that I'm return no more to Wolfpen. It was just a little short of cash right idle to think of it being otherwise, at this minute. I was wondering if and yet the thought of placing Jesse I could borrow a ,1000 from in the fault along with all the you for a short time. I'll give you other treasured things that had died my personal note for it, and at the days after he was gone were I'll have Judge Wade of the Cat- less happy than before. Dry Creek wish.

I don't hardly see. You ought to have interest at six turned from his journey down the per cent. Say fifteen dollars for river. He was still talking about the loan. That's the way men make the progress of business-minded money, by making it work. You let the idle in the hand and gets the interest. Just for ninety days and you'll do me a great favor and help my work along.

Sparrel thought it over; the end of May, a thousand dollars, fifteen dollars interest, enough cash for Jasper, a real favor to Shellenber-

I guess I could spare that to help you out, he said. And I don't see any cause to bother Judge Wade with it. I'm certain much obliged to you, Mr. Patter.

Dry Creek kept pushing in like its new owner, Abral was much en- grossed in the technique of lumber- ing and the prospect of driving a raft in the spring. He could even bring a fleeting moment of cheer into the house when he stood in the middle of the kitchen floor in Cynthia's way, with a broom lock- ed in the back of a chair, swing- ing it like an oar-blade and shout- ing to his imaginary helper on the raft to shove on the pole and keep the headlogs away from the bank. Then, the stiff curve cleared, he would relax while the raft rode safely in the current, and turn to Cynthia and say, That's the way to take her around a sharp bend.

I bet you run right into a sand- bar, Abral.

All right, I bet you. What'll you bet?

Well, how many rafts have you ever run? Asked Cynthia.

I can take one around any bend in Gannon Creek or the Big Sandy I learned all about it from Mullens. Cynthia would carry it on, or she would drop it and be happy for a time in the presence of his energy and his confidence. She lived in the rich world of her imagination; for the most part, above the routine of the house where Julia was, small hard pellets of ice, the sun and the thaws carried away the colorless days of January. The wind and the rain, the sleet, freezing enamel on the pear tree, the sun cracking it and dropping it to the ground brought in February.

In Dry Creek more and ever more logs were piling up, and the rough men were getting more restive in the joints and irritable with one another in the long isolation from a town with good drink and women. Cynthia could know little about them but Sparrel was concerned.

He mentioned to to Shellenberger who dismissed it with a word. Sparrel said no more, except to himself. A body hates to see that kind of life in here but it's just the men he brought up from down the river. I don't reckon a little drink will hurt any man, except it's encourag- ing some pretty bad characters to make it. I'd hate like anything to see Gannon Creek get a bad name from it. Things are bad enough down below where they came from, killings and then more killings if somebody witnesses against them in court. These feuds already give a black name to a lot bigger country than has title to it. I wouldn't want any of that around here even on Shellenberger's land. Maybe it'll be all right and I'm just touchy about things.

While he was pretending to him- self that everything was all right, it went abruptly away. Sparrel him- self was in the blacksmith shop at the camp when it occurred. The men came down from the woods with the tools to be sharpened. They were rough looking laborer type of men. White liquor was heavy on their breath and red in some of their eyes.

The trouble between Ike Dallow and Jack Caher had begun in rough humor when Ike said that Jack had been cutting timber for three months and still didn't know which way a tree was going to fall and would have got his fool self killed long ago if somebody hadn't al- ways pull him out of the way. The men, glad of words to break the silence and isolation, laughed; their laughter inspired Ike to keep it up, elaborate it, and go on baiting Jack. Then Jack Caher lost the hu- mor of it, feeling himself in ridicu- le out of the usual good-natured butt, and showed resentment. Ike Dallow couldn't very well stop with out seeming to back down. So they carried on through the drink they had behind a pile of brush and down to the shop. Sparrel tried to quite them, but they were too ex- cited now to listen to him. They grew more boisterous, drawing oth- ers into the gaiting. That's about enough now, Ike, Jack Caher said. Listen to the little rat-sared poolie, Ike said. Enough what?

It's farther between filling stations in the Ford "60"

The 60-horsepower Ford V-8 engine was first developed for Europe, where fuel costs are high. Two years' usage there proved its unusual economy.

When the "60" came to this country this year, the Ford Motor Company made no mileage claims—waited for facts, written on American roads by American drivers.

Now Ford "60" owners are reporting averages of 22 to 27 miles on a gallon of gasoline. That makes it the most economical Ford car ever built!

Best of all, the Ford "60" is just as big and roomy—just as handsome, sturdy and safe—as the famous 85-horsepower Ford V-8. And it sells at the lowest Ford price in years.

If you want a big car for a small budget—a car you can drive with pride and profit—see the thrifty "60" soon!

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!

Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—the daily—constantly producing waste matter, the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure.

When the kidneys fail to function as nature intended, attacks of dizziness, persistent headache, attacks of distress, putting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all were one.

Frequent, scanty or burning passages may be further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.

The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys eliminate excess poisonous body wastes.

Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are guaranteed to cure every case. Made on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

FLAT TIRE RESPONSIBLE FOR FILM FIND OF YEAR

Somewhere around Hollywood there's a nail rusting by the wayside that's directly responsible for one of the most phenomenal careers in motion pictures. The nail caused a blow out and because of it Martha Raye emerged as the screen find of the year.

The nail episode occurred four months ago and Miss Raye has appeared in three pictures since. Her latest, "Hideaway Girl," in which she appears with Shirley Ross, another sensational film find, and Robert Cummings, Sunday and Monday. She was appearing in Hollywood's famed Trocadero as a dinner entertainer late last spring when the nail came into the picture. Norman Taurog, Paramount director, was on his way to Hollywood when his tire picked up the nail and blew out his tire. He went into the Trocadero to dine and wait for the repairman and saw Miss Raye. He was impressed at once with her distinctive madcap hilarious comedy.

It so happened that Benjamin Glazer, who was producing "Rhythm on the Range," was at the moment in need of a comedienne to play opposite Bob "Bazooka" Burns. Taurog rushed to the telephone and told Glazer he had the girl. The very next morning Miss Raye appeared on the set, ready for work in her first production.

She "wowed them" in "Rhythm on the Range," and was immediately cast for a similar role in "The Big Broadcast of 1937." This picture definitely established her as a comedienne of exceptional ability and when "Hideaway Girl" was cast, she was placed in the top comedy role.

Miss Raye was only three years old when she began her stage career as part of her parent's vaudeville act. Her parents were known professionally as Reed and Hopper, and there's hardly a town in the country in which they didn't play at least once. When she was sixteen she left them to take an engagement with Paul Ash's orchestra. From there she went to Benny Davis's touring act and later she toured the Loew Circus.

"Hideaway Girl" is a musical mystery in which both Miss Raye and Miss Ross have singing parts. Louis DaFron, noted dancer, is in the cast in the picture. Others in the cast are Monroe Owsley, Ed Brophy, Wilma Francis and Keneth Harlan.

 Assistance has gradually increased the State wide average per recipient. In August, 1936, when the first grants were made to 238 recipients who drew a total of $1769.45, or an average of $7.43 per grant.

The Kentucky law does not provide a maximum for each applicant over 65 years old. The grants are made on a basis need, living costs with only the most destitute allowed the full $15.00. However, a close study of Kentucky's average shows that it compares favorably with other states having the same maximum. It is considerably higher than most Southern Agricultural states. Compared with Mississippi, the Kentucky grants are exceptionally high. That State, in somewhat similar economic circumstances as Kentucky, is now averaging only $3.58 per grant.

session, and coasted to the end, to win 32-1.

Morehead Juniors

The Morehead High Juniors, showing the class that has kept them in the winning column through the season without a defeat poured the oil on the Sandy Hook Junior, filling up a score that made it look like a college game. At the final whistle the Morehead boys led by the score of 46 to 17, most of the Sandy Hook points coming from long shots from the middle of the court.

Morehead Juniors—Breck

Coming back Saturday night for the finals and championship, the Junior High team from Morehead High won easily with Barker, proving the star of the game, but with the other members backing him up in professional style. The game was of the slap-bag variety, and kept a crowd on its toes in spite of the fact the game was never in question.

Breck Wins

And then the finals. Breckridgieraced to win, set the pace from the start, and the Vikings appeared unable to find themselves. At any rate they failed to penetrate the defense set up by Breck at any time, their baskets coming largely from the long shot variety, or from a fast break that got away twice to score. Breck, however, had managed to get under the basket almost at will. The final score was Breck 28, Morehead High 15.

Both Breckridgier and Morehead High will enter the Regional tournament in Lexington. He was accompanied home by Mrs. Cramer and Leo Cramer who remained here over the week-end.

much for 1929, remembering that thus far only five have announced this year. And then came 1933 another banner year for candidates. The bars were down and no holds were barred, with the result that a myriad of candidates were out for every office. In that year the Democratic candidates were most numerous, as it was the year following the 1932 Roosevelt victory, in which politics were at their height, and everyone wanted a political office.

Here is the list for 1933, as of the second week in March. For Judge, Democratic: Watt

For County Court Clerk, J. M. Butcher, Marvin Wilson, for Sheriff, Mort May, Riley Cline, Herbert Caudill, Jesse Caudill and Bill Carter; for Tax Commissioner, Clayton Johnson; for taller, J. H. Johnson; for Sheriff, S. S. Bowling, Taulmy Myhner, Rube Thomas, Alie Sorrel, William Jones and A. J. McKenzie. Republicans, County Judge, Charles E. Jennings, G. W. Moulton; for county clerk, Olive Hill, and Luther Bay, for Sheriff, B. E. McElvay and Alf Caskey. For Jailer, Marvin Adkins, Lee Hittong, Ed Hall and C. H. Crawford.

Before the closing date for filing there were almost one hundred twenty-five candidates out with about fifty for office of jailer.

Speaking of early candidates, one of the announcements we are now carrying is that of John Mauk for the office of Representative. Mr. Mauk put his announcement in The News and it has been running ever since. That we believe is the earliest announcement we have ever run. In 1929 when Sanford Bowling announced for Jailer, his announcement was carried in the News in the November before the election until the following November, almost exactly a year.

All in all, a study of the announcements made in previous years in The News, is an interesting study of the political life of this community. In 1929 following the Republican land slide that swept Hoover into the president's chair, not one Republican was elected to office in Rowan county. That was Judge Johnson who was elected as county judge. In 1933, following the great Roosevelt victory, in 1932, only one Democrat was elected to office in Rowan county. MUSCULAR RHEUMATIC PAIN

It takes more than "just a salve" to draw them out. It's the "counter-irritant" in Anco that's what good old Muterole is—soothing, warming, penetrating and helpful in drawing out the local congestion and pain when rubbed on the sore, achy muscles.

Muscular Rheumatism, soreness and stiffness generally yield promptly to this treatment and with continued application, relief usually follows.

Many Features At College

College show to be on Thursday this week. On account of the tournament to be held in Morehead this week the Grace Moore production "When You're in Love." In this production Miss Moore takes the part of an Australian singer who is waiting in Mexico for entrance into the United States. When she learns that the quota is filled and she cannot enter, she marries a wandering American, Gary Grant in order to gain entrance; having an agreement that they are to be divorced in six months. After entering the States she is visited by Grant who is not impressed by the artistic life she is leading and he takes her out to the suburbs of the city and has her meet people of an entirely different class than she is accustomed to meet. She likes the simple honest life of these people but is called away by her musical contracts, returning however to find happiness with Grant.

For Sunday, March 14, the production is "The Man Who Could Work Miracles" and stars Roland Young. This is the story of a simple clerk in a London department store upon whom a Heavenly Lord decided to bestow, the ability to work miracles with the purpose of testing a human to see what he would do with such power. Young is copy-fied by his unusual ability and does not know how to use it. He is besieged with business men wanting to make money; lovers wanting to make hits with the ladies and finally by a fanatic who induces him to try to change the world over so it will be moral and law-abiding.

For Tuesday, March 16th the imitable master artist George Arliss, comes in a great production "Man of Affairs." This is the story of Richard Dunkester, who makes a failure of attempting to quiet a group of Greek ministers to the cabinet. The College is proud to announce the booking of the great story from the pen of Jules Verne entitled "Michael Strogoff" which will appear soon.

Breckridgier Is Tourney Winner

Morehead won the district tournament held at the Morehead Public School gymnasium last Friday and Saturday. There is little doubt but that Morehead won, as the finals of the tourney saw Breckridgier (Training School Junior team match their strength against the Juniors from Morehead High, and the Morehead High Senior Team go to battle against Breckridgier Training School Junior team. Champions in their district were Morehead High Juniors, and Breckridgier High Seniors.

The tournament, consisting of three sessions was poorly attended, as there was little doubt to the outcome of any game in the three sessions. The dope in this tournament went strictly according to Hoyle, with Breckridgier taking both Haldeman teams into camp, while Morehead High was polishing off the teams from Sandy Hook, leaving both the Morehead schools to fight it out for supremacy in the final encounter.

Breck Juniors Win In the opening round, Breckridgier Juniors met Haldeman Junior high and took their measure 23 to 12. The Haldeman littlewens were clearly outclassed. Morehead High pilled up a healthy lead over Sandy Hook in the final game of the first
