LESS HORSEPOWER-LESS SPEED-LESS KILLING

A high percentage of automobile accidents, and especially those of the more disastrous type, are wholly or partially the result of "alcohol the more mastrous type, are whonly or partially the result of "alcohol at the wheel." In many states drunken drivers have a better than even chance of escaping scot free. They are punished but mildly, if at all. "Repeaters" are numbered with thousands. There is but one solution to that phase of the problem—and that is the permanent revocation of the license of any and all drivers apprehended operating a car while under the influence of linear. The while interest downed that the are the nother of any and an orrers apprendices operating a car many under the influence of liquor. The public interest demands that the ut-moit and severest legal authority be exerted. Experience has proved that a substantial precentage of drivers cannot be educated into safe practices. Nor can they be frightened into them. They can and must, in that case, be forced into them, or be de-prived of the driving privilege. " Our dilatory attitude in the matter of accident prevention has its ghastly reflection in the statistics. Old ideas of traffic_control and driv. yours, get your cross (the instruing requirements must be superseded by restrictions. Old ideas of traffic adapted to faster cars, better highways, and the constantly increasing traffic congestion, or else horse-power and sfeed of cars must be limit ed by law at the factory, if traffic killings are to be reduced.

down his life for us." I John 3:16. There is none outstanding and definite thing God has been trying to teach this old world all down through the ages since sin, and that is that He loves us and is doing all down through the ages since sin, and that is that He loves us and is doing all the mark of the since since the since the since since since since the since since since since since since the since since since since since since the since s plending threads for others, God has tooky, taught man what is right in his sight and what is wrong. Then when man was able to under-stand more God gave the Ten Com-mandments to teach us what is right and what is wrong. This law was never given to save anyone, but to teach us that we were sin-ners, could not live perfectly and save ourselves, and would ther-fore be compelled to seek the Saviour as our only hope. His was the purpose of the law "A school-master to drive us to Christ" who alone can ave us.

LESS HORSEPOWER-LESS SPEED-LESS KILLING Unless there is a definite change in our attitude toward violators of traffic laws, the accident problem will never be solved with modern automobiles on highways. The annual death toll which last year pass-de the 38,000 mark, will grow larger, not smaller. There is no excuse for the man who drives his car 70 and 80 miles ing him to go out and commit the offense again. And next time he may take an innocent life. than this, that a man lay down his life for his friend." But Jesus had a greater love than man, for he laid down his life for his enemies. Now, the Cross has always been an instrument of death. Sometimes you hear folk say, speaking of some burden they are bearing, "Well, I guess this is my cross." But that is not what the Cross means. When Jenus was about a week off from the crucifizion he sold. "If any main will come after me, let him de himself, take up his cross and f low me." That is, "I am going to Calvarv to het ss and folyours, get your cross (the instru-ment of death) and follow me, and there let that self die by crucifixion in me." Our Cross is not a burden to be hung around our necks for ever. It is the death to self, the self ed by law at the factory, if traffic killings are to be reduced. WAR ON DRUNKEN DRIVERS Governor Chandler's instruction to the State highway patrol to be sepecially vigilant in apprehending drunken drivers on the highway will be generally approved. And as the admoliton is carried into ef-fect to reduce the hazards of the highway except those who are caught driving cotor cars in a condition of intoxication which renders them a law enforcing body as to win commendation of the public.
