FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.--Morehead State University's Student Government Association will present a night of country music when Alan Jackson with special guests Diamond Rio perform in concert on Thursday, Jan. 16, in the Academic-Athletic Center.

Tickets for the 8 p.m. show are on sale now at the Ashland Area Extended Campus Center, Licking Valley Extended Campus Center in West Liberty, Martins Department Store in Jackson, Video Bank in Mt. Sterling, and in Morehead at the People's Store, Movie Warehouse and MSU's Student Activities Office on campus.

The cost is $6 for MSU students with a valid I.D. card and $13 for the general public. There are a limited number of reserved seats.

While Jackson is still a newcomer to the record industry, he had four consecutive Number 1 records from his debut album "Here in the Real World." The album went platinum in Canada and entered British charts at number two while his home video "Here in the Reel World" went gold, increasing his popularity and nominations for awards and sell-out performances.

The Georgia native's second album "Don't Rock the Jukebox," which is a collaboration with Randy Travis, promises to follow the same path with the title song making its mark on "Billboard's" country charts.

Gaining international recognition, Jackson was nominated for Best New Artist, Album of the Year, Single of the Year and Song of the Year by both the Country Music Association and the Academy of Country Music. He has appeared on the cover of "USA Weekend" and performed for President Bush. "Radio & Records" magazine named Jackson best new artist of the year.

The music of Diamond Rio is described as "bluegrass-inspired harmonies soaring over a solid country foundation, embellished with colorings from rock, jazz and a few genres that have not been defined yet."

The six members of the group are world-class musicians and accomplished songwriters. Their history includes performances with numerous country legends before joining forces to produce such hits as "Meet in the Middle."

Additional information is available from MSU's Student Activities Office at (606) 783-2071.

MOREHEAD, Ky.--Morehead State University will honor the memory of the late Martin Luther King Jr. on his birthday Wednesday, Jan. 15, with a candlelight march and a workshop.

The state will observe the civil rights leader's birthday on Monday, Jan. 20. There will be no classes or office hours at MSU.

The march will begin at 6 p.m. in front of Baird Music Hall. After some brief remarks, the procession will continue across campus to the Adron Doran University Center (ADUC). Candles will be provided and all members of the University community are invited to attend.

Following the march at approximately 7 p.m., Dr. Josepha Campinha-Bacote of Wyoming, Ohio, will present a workshop on sensitivity and cultural diversity. She is president and founder of Transcultural C.A.R.E. Associates which provides transcultural consultation in the areas of Clinical, Administration, Research and Education in Transcultural Health Care.

Her discussion, which will be held in the Crager Room, ADUC, will focus on "Where Do We Go From Here? Nonviolence: A Blue Print For Life," the national theme for this year's King holiday.

Dr. Campinha-Bacote has given several national and international presentations on the topic of transcultural health care and has published numerous articles in this area. She is certified by the Transcultural Nursing Society and American Nurses' Association.

An adjunct assistant professor at Ohio State University and associate clinical professor at the University of Cincinnati, Dr. Campinha-Bacote holds a B.S. degree from University of Rhode Island, M.S. degree from Texas Women's University and a Ph.D. in nursing from the University of Virginia.

The program is sponsored by the Office of Student Development, Office of Minority Student Affairs, Black Student Coalition, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Kappa Alpha Psi and Delta Sigma Theta.

MOREHEAD, Ky.--A work on the subject of human rights by a former Morehead State University faculty member earned the 1991 Outstanding Book Award from the Gustavus Myers Center for the Study of Human Rights in America.

Dr. Victor B. Howard, professor emeritus of history, received the honor for his book "Conscience and Slavery: The Evangelistic Calvinist Domestic Missions, 1837-1861," published by the Kent State University Press in 1990.

The award is given annually to identify, reward and publicize outstanding books on the subject of intolerance in the United States. The selection is sponsored by B'nai B'rith, Fellowship of Reconciliation, "Free Inquiry," National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Project Censored and Unitarian Universalist Association.

The book examines the relationship between the free soil concept and a post-millennialism philosophy as an importance factor in events leading to the Civil War.

Dr. Howard has written two other books dealing with early American history: "Black Liberation in Kentucky: Emancipation and Freedom, 1862-1884," published in 1983, and "Religion and the Radical Republican Movement, 1860-1870," also released in 1990.

He joined the MSU history faculty in 1966, after serving as an elementary and secondary school principal, aerodynamics instructor for the Army Air Corps, supervisor for the Navy Training Command's advanced aerodynamics school and educator with the Chicago Board of Education. When Dr. Howard retired from the University in 1986, he had spent 49 years in education.

(The following statement was issued today (Jan. 8) by Morehead State University Board of Regents Chairman William R. Seaton in response to a page one article on the University's presidential search in today's Lexington Herald-Leader.)

OFFICIAL STATEMENT BY MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY'S BOARD OF REGENTS CHAIRMAN WILLIAM R. SEATON

Today's edition of the Lexington Herald-Leader quotes T.T. Colley, a member of the Morehead State University board of regents appointed by Wallace Wilkinson on Aug. 13, 1991, as saying the regents were "promised" nine or 10 names for consideration as finalists in the presidential search.

At the last meeting of the Board, a resolution was passed which suggested that the search committee "strongly consider" expanding the number of candidates to 10. A thoughtful response to this request was sent to the board by the search committee which included the following:

"Therefore, after thoughtful consideration of the board's request of Nov. 22, 1991, and much deliberation, we respectfully conclude that it would be unwise and counterproductive to increase the number of candidates the presidential search committee recommends to the board."

MOREHEAD, Ky.---John Coleman Kirk, a Morehead State University senior from Inez, has become the first recipient of an award from the Roscoe and Sibbie Playforth Scholarship Endowment Fund.

Dr. and Mrs. Playforth endowed the scholarship through the MSU Foundation at the $10,000 level in October 1990 to assist academically outstanding Kentucky seniors majoring in geography, government, history or sociology at MSU.

Dr. Playforth, who retired in 1976, was dean of the former School of Social Sciences. The recipient of MSU's 1991 Founders Day Award for University Service, Dr. Playforth came to MSU in 1957 as an assistant professor of sociology and, after rising through the ranks to full professor, was named social sciences dean when the school was established in 1966.

Recipients of the $600 per year award must have earned at least a 3.5 grade point average in their major field during their junior year.

Kirk, who is majoring in government with a geography minor, expects to graduate in May and enroll in law school next fall. A member of Phi Alpha Delta pre-law fraternity, he has earned a 4.0 grade point average.

The son of John W. and Loyce Kirk, Kirk was born in Morehead while his parents were attending MSU. He and his wife, Johanna, are the parents of a son.

"In endowing this scholarship fund, Dr and Mrs. Playforth have made it possible for the University to recognize students who are excelling academically," said MSU President C. Nelson Grote. "As an educator and administrator, Dr. Playforth did much to influence the lives of students, always encouraging them to reach their full potential. This gift is symbolic of that spirit," said Grote.

MOREHEAD, Ky.--Morehead State University students are out for blood.

Blood for the Red Cross bloodmobile, that is.

The bloodmobile will make another of its frequent stops on the University campus on Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 27-28. But along with this visit comes a challenge from students at Shawnee State University at Portsmouth, Ohio.

"MSU has the larger number of students, but it's the percentage of those students that will make the difference in this challenge," said Carolyn Howard, coordinator for the American Red Cross-Morehead chapter. "We hope to see a good turnout," she said.

There is always a need for blood and the competition will make this drive more interesting, Howard noted.

Additional information is available from Howard at 783-1212.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.--A special workshop for area craftspersons will be held on Thursday, Jan. 30, at 209 Downing Hall on the Morehead State University campus.

The program will provide the basic business facts craftspeople need to know to sell their wares.

The session is sponsored by MSU's Small Business Development Center and the Kentucky Craft Marketing Program, a state agency of the Cabinet for Economic Development. The SBDC offers management consultants while the Craft Marketing Program provides increased economic opportunities for Kentucky craftspeople by expanding their regional and national markets.

The day's agenda will begin with registration at 9 a.m. The morning program will include an overview of the services provided by the two agencies and the process of jurying the works.

Following lunch on their own, participants will learn about wholesale vs. retail selling, pricing, booth display and promotion.

The registration fee is $10. Additional information is available by calling (606) 783-2895. Arrangements will be made for the handicapped when requested in advance.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.--Three Morehead State University theatre students have been nominated to compete in the American College Theatre Festival to be held at Radford College in Virginia, Jan. 29-Feb. 2.

Selected were Sylvia Elizabeth Layne, Morehead senior and daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William J. Layne; Jamie Phillips, Greenfield, Ohio, sophomore and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Phillips, and Daniel Stockton, Cynthiana junior and son of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Adams.

The three nominees are now eligible to compete for the Irene Ryan Acting Award, a national scholarship given by ACTF.

The MSU students performed "Amulets Against the Dragon Forces" at the Kentucky Theatre Festival in Louisville in November. The nominees were chosen from performances at this competition.

"We are very pleased that our students have been nominated to compete at the national level," said Dr. Travis Lockhart, director of theatre. "But to have the maximum number of students selected can only increase the importance of this honor."

Any production entered in ACTF competition can have only three nominees, regardless of cast size, Dr. Lockhart noted.

The Irene Ryan Foundation awards 21 scholarships and two fellowships on an annual basis.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Fifteen Morehead State University faculty members, including a two-person creative team, will share more than $48,000 in institutional research grants with awards ranging from nearly $1,000 to $5,000.

The awards were granted on the basis of proposals submitted during the fall semester, according to Dr. John C. Philley, MSU interim vice president for academic affairs and dean of faculty.

Awarded MSU Creative Production Grants were:

Stephanie McDavid, assistant professor of art, and Christopher McDavid, lecturer in art, $4,874 for a project entitled "Two Large Scale Cast Bronze Sculptures."

Robert J. Franzini, professor of art, $941 for a project entitled "Multimedia: A Synthesis of Color Monotype and Relief Etching."

Recipients of MSU Research Grants included:

Dr. Michael R. Adams, assistant professor of chemistry, $3,118 for a study entitled "Synthetic, Structural, and Reactivity Studies of Diiron Phosphido-bridged Carbonyl Complexes."

Dr. Teresa Forsyth, assistant professor of biology, $5,000 for a study entitled "Phylogenetic Profiling in Drosophila Species Using VNTR's."

Dr. William C. Green, associate professor of government, $2,003 for a study entitled "The Odyssey of Depo-Provera: An Inquiry into the Controversy Over a Contraceptive Drug."

Dr. Lily Hwa, assistant professor of history, $2,789 for a study entitled "Taiwan's Economic Miracle: Its Philosophical Roots (1949-1990)."

Dr. Denise Jones, associate professor of veterinary technology, $1,430 for a study entitled "Uterine Absorption of Procaine Penicillin G after Intramuscular Administration in Mares."

Dr. David Magrane, professor of biology, $4,004 for a study entitled "Evaluation of Steroid Requirement in Mouse Preimplantation Embryos."

Dr. Bruce A. Mattingly, professor of psychology, $5,000 for a study entitled "Dopamine Receptor Involvement in the Development of Behavioral Sensitization to Cocaine."

Dr. David R. Olson, assistant professor of psychology, $992 for a study entitled "Dysphoria and Self-Verification Processes."

Dr. Brian C. Reeder, assistant professor of biology, $5,000 for a study entitled "Sedimentation in a Lake Erie Coastal Wetland."

Dr. David J. Saxon, professor of biology, $4,715 for a study entitled "Hypercholesterolemia and Feedback Mechanisms in Platelet Aggregation Reactions Stimulated by Arachidonic Acid."

Dr. Stuart S. Sprague, $5,000 for a study entitled "African Americans of Eastern Kentucky and Maysville, 1864-1875."

Dr. Neil S. Websdale, assistant professor of sociology, $3,304 for a study entitled "Recent Developments in the Policing of Domestic Violence in Rowan County, Kentucky."

The University has been supporting faculty research efforts since 1968-69, soliciting proposals and awarding grants during the academic year and in the summer.

"These institutional awards are designed to recognize and stimulate research by our faculty members," Dr. Philley said. "When selecting research proposals for funding, the committee looks not only at how the research will broaden the individual's horizon, but also at what the study will add to the current pool of knowledge."

"In the case of creative production awards, the emphasis is on those projects which have the potential of contributing to the artist's professional growth," he added.

The University's Research and Patent Committee is charged with the responsibility of reviewing proposals and making recommendations to the vice president for academic affairs. Chair of the committee is Carole Morella, director of the Office of Research, Grants and Contracts.

MOREHEAD, Ky.--Dr. Dawn R. Person of Columbia University in New York City will make a return visit to the Morehead State University campus later this month.

She will speak on "Evolution and Contribution of Blacks in Higher Education" on Thursday, Jan. 30, at 4 p.m. in the Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center.

Dr. Person, an assistant professor in the Department of Higher Education at Columbia, has given lectures at colleges and universities across the U.S. and made two appearances on the MSU campus in 1991. Her research efforts have focused on cultural diversity, student development and multicultural education.

She earned B.S. and M.Ed. degrees from Slippery Rock University of Pennsylvania and the Ed.D. degree from Teachers College of Columbia University. Dr. Person has held various administrative posts such as assistant dean of academic services at Lafayette College in Easton, Pa., and director of black student services at Colorado State University at Fort Collins.

Sponsored by MSU's Faculty/Staff Professional Development Program, the lecture is free and open to the public. Reservations may be made by calling (606) 783-2807.

PRESTONSBURG, Ky.---Emphasizing Morehead State University's commitment to providing educational opportunities to the area, President C. Nelson Grote today announced a new scholarship program which could mean up to $30,000 a year for students at MSU's Big Sandy Extended Campus Center.

Beginning in fall 1992, $10,000 in scholarship funds will be earmarked for part-time, nontraditional students taking classes at the center.

Dr. Grote also challenged area individuals, agencies and institutions to match the University's funds, saying that MSU would contribute an additional $10,000 if the original scholarship money was matched.

"It is evident by the rapid growth of the Big Sandy Extended Campus Center that there is tremendous demand for the University to offer upper division classes to the area's location-bound students," Dr. Grote said. "Since 1988, enrollment in classes at the center increased from 296 students to 644 this past fall. It actually has more than doubled since 1988," he added.

"Morehead State intends to do its share to make sure that students who want to improve their educational status are able to do so," he said.

President Grote's announcement was made following an organizational meeting of the center's advisory committee which included a tour of the Big Sandy Extended Campus Center, located in the Highlands Plaza Shopping Center.

Since the mid-1980s MSU officials have been working closely with Prestonsburg Community College and other educators, as well as civic leaders, to identify the needs of those people with two years of college and make additional work toward a four-year degree programs more accessible to them.

In 1989, the Council on Higher Education designated the Prestonsburg regional site as an extended campus center. With CHE approval, MSU is authorized to offer at least 75 percent of the upper division coursework leading to specific bachelor degrees at extended campus centers.

Through its Big Sandy Extended Campus Center, MSU offers two plus two programs in elementary education, accounting, management and nursing as well as six graduate programs in education.

PRESTONSBURG, Ky.---Emphasizing Morehead State University's commitment to providing educational opportunities to the area, President C. Nelson Grote has announced a new scholarship program which could mean up to $30,000 a year for students at MSU's Big Sandy Extended Campus Center:

Beginning in fall 1992, $10,000 in scholarship funds will be earmarked for part-time, nontraditional students taking classes at the center.

Dr. Grote also challenged area individuals, agencies and institutions to match the University's funds, saying that MSU would contribute an additional $10,000 if the original scholarship money was matched.

"It is evident by the rapid growth of the Big Sandy Extended Campus Center that there is tremendous demand for the University to offer upper division classes to the area's location-bound students," Dr. Grote said. "Since 1988, enrollment in classes at the center increased from 296 students to 644 this past fall. It actually has more than doubled since 1988," he added.

"Morehead State intends to do its share to make sure that students who want to improve their educational status are able to do so," he said.

President Grote's announcement was made following an organizational meeting of the center's advisory committee which included a tour of the Big Sandy Extended Campus Center, located in the Highlands Plaza Shopping Center.

Since the mid-1980s MSU officials have been working closely with Prestonsburg Community College and other educators, as well as civic leaders, to identify the needs of those people with two years of college and make additional work toward a four-year degree programs more accessible to them.

In 1989, the Council on Higher Education designated the Prestonsburg regional site as an extended campus center. With CHE approval, MSU is authorized to offer at least 75 percent of the upper division coursework leading to specific bachelor degrees at extended campus centers.

Through its Big Sandy Extended Campus Center, MSU offers two plus two programs in elementary education, accounting, management and nursing as well as six graduate programs in education.

MOREHEAD, Ky.--Dr. Harry Edwards, nationally known sports sociologist, will lecture at Morehead State University on Thursday, Feb. 6.

He will speak on "Sports and Society" at a public forum at 7:30 p.m. in the Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center. A question and answer session will follow. There is no charge for attendance.

Dr. Edwards has served as a consultant for sports related programs on the major networks as well as PBS, Britain's BBC T.V. and Canada's BBC. He has appeared on CNN's "Sports Focus," NBC's "Nightly News," ABC's "Sportsbeat" and "Nightline" and Turner Sports Network ESPN "Sports Forum."

He also has served as a consultant for the San Francisco 49'ers, Golden State Warriors and National Association of Black Assistant Coaches.

Author of four books and numerous articles on sports and athletes, Dr. Edwards has lectured throughout the United States and Canada and has participated in two academic delegations to the People's Republic of China.

Currently a sociology professor at the University of California at Berkeley, Dr. Edwards earned a B.A. degree from California State University at San Jose, M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Cornell University in Ithaca, N.Y.

Earlier in the day, Dr. Edwards will address two special interest groups in programs which also are open to the public. How to meet the needs of the student athlete is the topic for discussion with counseling and support services personnel at 2:30 p.m. It will be followed by a professional development program for MSU faculty and staff members at 4 p.m. Both sessions will be held in the Crager Room.

Dr. Edwards' campus visit is sponsored by MSU's Department of Athletics, Office of Student Development and Office of Minority Student Affairs. His appearance also coincides with MSU's observance of Black History Month.

MOREHEAD, Ky.--To provide the latest information, a "Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) Education" workshop will be held on Tuesday, Feb. 4, in the Eagle Dining Room, Adron Doran University Center on the Morehead State University campus.

The session, sponsored by MSU's Continuing Education Program for nursing and allied health care professionals, will focus on methods of transmission, prevention and recognized medical treatment. The presentation meets the state Cabinet for Human Resources mandatory HIV education requirement for health care professionals.

Serving as the faculty for the day will be Marshia White, MSU associate professor of nursing.

Registration will begin at 4:30 p.m. with class to start at 5 p.m. The cost is $24 which includes handout materials and refreshment breaks. The session will be repeated in early March.

Nurses attending the workshop will receive contact hours as approved by the Kentucky Board of Nursing.

MOREHEAD, Ky.--Morehead State University will welcome prospective students and their parents to its campus for an "Open House" on Saturday, Feb. 15.

The three-hour session is designed to introduce students to the University and answer questions they may have about programs of study, financial aid and social life, according to Michelle Richmond, admissions counselor.

The program will begin with registration at noon in the third floor lobby of the Adron Doran University Center. Displays from the University's programs will be available for viewing.

At 1 p.m., participants will assemble in Button Auditorium for some welcoming remarks by MSU President C. Nelson Grote, administrators and faculty representatives. Visits to the various departments and tours of the campus will begin at 1:30 p.m.

Two special programs have been scheduled to assist students in making decisions about college. A session on financial aid is planned for 12:15 p.m. and will be repeated at 2:30 p.m. Staff members from the housing office will discuss living in a residence hall also at 2:30 p.m.

Additional information is available by calling MSU's Office of Admissions toll-free at 1-800-262-7474 or (606) 783-2000.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---The Eddie Adcock Band from Nashville, Tenn., will be the featured artist for the third annual Bluegrass Festival sponsored by WMKY 90.3 FM, public radio from Morehead State University's campus.

The festival will be held Friday, Feb. 7, at 8 p.m. in Button Auditorium. Tickets may be purchased at the door, beginning at 6:30 p.m. on the day of the show, at $10 for adults and $5 for students.

There will be no advance ticket sales, according to Ron Mace, WMKY's promotion/development director.

Adcock was the International Bluegrass Musicians Association's 1990 Instrumentalist of the Year. Two other members of his trio were nominated for IBMA awards in 1991: Martha Adcock as Female Vocalist of the Year and Missy Raines, Bassist of the Year.

Opening for Adcock will be another Nashville group, the Charlie Sizemore Band which has performed with many of the traditional bluegrass greats, including Ralph Stanley and the Clinch Mountain Boys.

"We're very pleased with the caliber of talent for this year's festival," Mace said. "The performers we've signed represent the full spectrum of bluegrass--from traditional to contemporary and gospel."

Additional information is available by calling Mace at (606) 783-2001.

KING'S BIRTHDAY REMEMBERED

Morehead State University remembered the birthday of the late civil rights leader, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., with a candlelight march on Jan. 15. Nearly 150 people from the campus and community turned out, braving icy winds and snow flurries to pay tribute to his memory. Among the student marchers were, from left to right, Chando Mapoma, Kenya senior and Student Government Association vice president; Robert Hamer, Montclair, N.J., junior; Edward Merchant, Cincinnati, Ohio, freshman; Dwayne Roberts, Eminence junior, and Natasha Woods, Louisville sophomore. A workshop emphasizing cultural diversity, conducted by Dr. Josepha Campinha-Bacote, a consultant in transcultural health care, followed the march. (The photograph was taken with a time exposure to accentuate ambient campus lights.)

'WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?'

Honoring the memory of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. on his birthday, Jan. 15, Morehead State University held a workshop to promote awareness of cultural diversity, following a candlelight march. "Where Do We Go From Here? Nonviolence: A Blueprint for Life" was the national theme for the birthday celebration. Following her formal presentation, Dr. Josepha Campinha-Bacote, standing, a nationally-known consultant on transcultural health care, took questions from her audience, including one from Louisville sophomore Allen Brown.

MOREHEAD, Ky.--The contributions of African Americans will be the topic of a special videoconference to be shown at Morehead State University on Wednesday, Feb. 5.

"Beyond the Dream IV: Discovering the Past--Understanding the Future" is a special broadcast which focuses on the struggles and accomplishments facing those of African descent. It will serve as the national kickoff for the observance of Black History Month, as well as for MSU's own celebration.

The videoconference will begin at 1 p.m. in the Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center. It is free and open to the public.

The program, provided by publishers of Black Issues in Higher Education magazine, will cover political, educational, social and business/economic issues. Among the topics to be addressed are individual and collective responsibility, regaining civil rights momentum and the emerging role of students in improving the status of African Americans.

Panel members for the telecast, which will originate live from Washington, D.C., include:

Alex Haley, award-winning author of "The Autobiography of Malcolm X" and "Roots."

Henry Hampton, creator and producer of "Eyes on the Prize."

Barbara Reynolds, columnist with "USA Today."

Chuck Stone, professor of journalism at University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Renee Poissant, anchor at WJLA-TV, an ABC affiliate in Washington, D.C., who will serve as the moderator.

The MSU broadcast is sponsored by the Office of Minority Student Affairs. Additional information is available by calling 783-2668.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Dr. Robert Swartz, co-director of the National Center for Teaching Thinking in Boston, Mass., will make a return visit to Morehead State University later this month to host two days of workshops with public school teachers and MSU faculty.

The sessions are designed to assist teachers in implementing the curriculum goals of the Kentucky Education Reform Act, according to Dr. George M. Luckey, professor of philosophy and faculty coordinator for MSU's Faculty/Staff Professional Development Program, the sponsoring group.

"The workshop's goals include an emphasis on thinking and problem solving at all grade levels," Dr. Luckey said.

On Tuesday, Jan. 28, Dr. Swartz will visit Johns Creek High School in Pike County. He will be at Greenup County High School on Wednesday, Jan. 29.

Last year, Dr. Swartz led a total of 114 public school and university teachers in activities designed to enhance teaching skills for thinking and problem solving in three different sessions at Morehead State. For his 1991 visits, he was assisted by Sandra Parks Black, nationally known author of 40 books on thinking skills.

PRESTONSBURG, Ky.---Gary Frazier, assistant superintendent of the Floyd County Schools, has been elected chairman of the newly-formed advisory committee to Morehead State University's Big Sandy Extended Campus Center.

Appointed by MSU President C. Nelson Grote, the advisory committee is composed of 18 business and education leaders from the five counties served by the center.

Bronelle Skaggs, regional director of Mayo State Vocational School, was elected as vice chairman during the committee's organizational meeting held here recently. Dr. Roland Burns, interim director of the center, will serve as secretary.

In addition to Frazier and Skaggs, the committee includes: Orville Hamilton, president of Carbon Coal, Inc., Paintsville; Pat Burchett, teacher, Paintsville Independent Schools; Raymond Bradbury, president of Martin County Coal Company, Inez; Tim Hites, president of Inacomp Computer Center, Prestonsburg; Clarence Traum, president and chief executive officer of Highlands Regional Medical Center, Prestonsburg;

Billie Jean Osborne, executive director of Kentucky Opry, Prestonsburg; Paul Lyon, president of Mineral Labs, Inc., Salyersville; Jane Pruitt, teacher in the Pikeville Independent School System; Keith Endicott, land manager for Martiki Coal Corporation, a subsidiary of MAPCO; Linda Hueseman, hearing reporter for the Office of Hearing and Appeals, Salyersville, and Hobert Meek of Hager Hill, an MSU student.

Ex-officio members include: Dr. Deborah Floyd, president of Prestonsburg Community College; Ronald Hager, superintendent of the Floyd County Schools; Ann Latta, mayor of Prestonsburg, and state Rep. Hubert Collins of Wittensville.

The committee, established under the guidelines of the Kentucky Council on Higher Education, will assist the center director in assessing the area's educational needs and advise in the development of cooperative programs through the extended campus center with PCC, the vocational technical school and other area schools.

The committee also will be involved in fund raising activities for the center.

In giving the committee its charge, President Grote told the members that they had a very important role to play in helping to shape the destiny of the Big Sandy area as it relates to higher education. "They become a link between their community and MSU, bringing information to us on the region's expectation and, in turn, making the public aware of the center's services," Dr. Grote said.

"MSU's Big Sandy Extended Campus Center is not in competition with existing educational programs, but to supplement the many excellent programs already in place," the president emphasized. "By cooperating with one another, we can enhance each other's efforts rather than compete with one another."

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Morehead State University student is one of the first recipients of a new scholarship award established by the Department for Environmental Protection (DEP) through the Kentucky Water Resources Research Institute.

Billy Stapleton, son of Kevin and Colleen Barkley of Jonesboro, Tenn., and the grandson of Lula Stapleton of Elkhorn City, is one of nine students statewide to be granted the award through a competitive process.

A 1988 graduate of Virgie High School in Pike County, he is a senior majoring in environmental science and geology at MSU. Stapleton will receive approximately $5,000 per year to help defer the cost of tuition, books, fees, and room and board.

The scholarship program was developed to sponsor students in areas of critical need for Kentucky's environmental initiatives and serves to create an increased awareness and dialogue between the DEP, Kentucky's universities and the general public.

"Once again Morehead State University has demonstrated that its students are well prepared to compete for scholastic honors," said MSU President C. Nelson Grote. "We are proud to have one of our students among the first recipients of this scholarship."

Stapleton's adviser Charles Mason, an assistant professor of geoscience who encouraged him to apply for the scholarship, said:

"I knew when I read the information that Billy would be an excellent candidate for the scholarship. He is a very good student and I thought he would have no problem meeting the qualifications. I told him it would be a great way to gain work experience to go along with his degree."

DEP Scholarship

The DEP scholarships will be awarded annually to undergraduate junior and senior students majoring in the fields of agricultural, civil or chemical engineering; aquatic biology; chemistry and/or geology (specializing in groundwater hydrology).

Awards will be made on a semester-by-semester basis contingent upon satisfactory progress made by the student and the availability of funds from the state.

Recipients of the scholarship must agree to work full-time for the DEP immediately after graduation for one 12-month period per academic year of scholarship aid received. Summer employment is also available for scholarship recipients.

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Funds earmarked for Morehead State University student bowlers received an infusion thanks to the prowess of the bowling team members.

The MSU Foundation has received a check for $2,550 from the Brunswick Foundation, as a result of the team's wins in Brunswick-sponsored tournaments during the fall season. The funds are designated specifically for participants in the bowling program.

Competing in the Brunswick Southern Collegiate Classic held in Atlanta, MSU's men's teams placed first and second, while the women placed second. In the Brunswick Great Lakes Collegiate Classic held in Chicago, the men's and women's teams placed second and third respectively. Both tournaments took place in November.

"We are very proud of the men and women who comprise our bowling team," said MSU President C. Nelson Grote. "As a club sport, the bowling team is not funded through the Department of Athletics, but must be self-supporting.

"These young men and women under the leadership of coach Larry Wilson sponsor a variety of fund raising activities, including preparing and serving steak dinners, to support their program. Not only have the teams been successful in these endeavors, but, even more importantly, they have distinguished themselves in the national collegiate rankings," Dr. Grote added.

Based on the first Bowling Writers Association of America poll announced in December, MSU's men's team is ranked third nationally, while the women hold the fifth spot.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---An evening of guitar and harpsichord music featuring the Gunod/Rosser Duo will be performed at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 11, in Duncan Recital Hall on Morehead State University's campus.

The duo's appearance is part of the Arts in Morehead (AIM) 1991-92 season programming. AIM is a cooperative effort of the University and the Morehead/Rowan County Arts Council.

Admission will be by season ticket or by single event tickets which may be purchased at the door prior to the show at a cost of $6 for adults and $3 for non-MSU students. MSU students with valid I.D. cards will be admitted free.

The duo will present an evening of musical magic ranging from the courtly dances of the 18th century to the rags of Scott Joplin. Also on the program will be rarely heard music written specifically for the unusual combination of guitar and harpsichord.

The Gunod/Rosser Duo performs on several instruments, including a Baroque guitar, an antique Classical period guitar, a modern concert guitar and an historical copy of a French double manual harpsichord.

A frequent featured performer with Pro Musica Rara, Amy Rosser has been hailed by the media for her "special flair for style." On the faculty of Dickinson College, she has studied at the Peabody Conservatory and with Kenneth Gilbert in Paris.

Nathaniel Gunod has appeared as a solo artist with chamber ensembles and chamber orchestras. His work as an instructor at the Peabody Conservatory in Baltimore, Md., and at National Guitar Summer Workshops in California and Connecticut has earned him recognition as one of the nation's leading guitar educators.

The duo has performed throughout the United States since 1980.

Still to come on the AIM season are:

March 7, Dance Alive!, described as a high-spirited ballet company of 10 seasoned dancers with an unusual style and recognized for its innovative choreography, 8 p.m., Button Auditorium.

April 2, "60's Rock: When the Music Mattered," a multi-media presentation by Barry Drake celebrating, examining, clarifying and putting into perspective one of the most exciting decades of music history, 8 p.m., Button Auditorium.

April 21, Saffire--The Uppity Blues Women, a blues trio performing original works and the songs of such artists as Ray Charles, Little Richard and Tina Turner, 8 p.m., Duncan Recital Hall.

Some of AIM's 1991-92 season programs have been made possible by grants from the National Endowment for the Arts through the Southern Arts Federation, of which the Kentucky Arts Council is a member. Additional information is available by calling Yvonne Baldwin, program chair, at (606) 783-2659.

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Morehead State University's Board of Regents unanimously voted to invite three presidential candidates to visit the campus for meetings with faculty, staff, students and other friends of the University.

Chosen Saturday, Jan. 25, from a pool of five candidates after two days of interviews in Lexington were:

Joseph W. Alexander, 44, dean of the College of Veterinary Medicine, Oklahoma State University. A former University of Tennessee faculty member, he has served as an administrator at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. He holds a B.S. degree in animal science from University of Arizona, a D.V.M. degree from Colorado State University and an M.S. degree in educational administration and supervision from the University of Tennessee.

J. Ronnie Davis, 50, dean of the University of New Orleans' College of Business Administration. He also has served in administrative posts with the College of Business and Management Studies at the University of South Alabama and Western Washington University. He holds B.S. and M.S. degrees in economics from the University of Southern Mississippi and a doctorate in economics from the University of Virginia.

Ronald G. Eaglin, 51, chancellor of the University of South Carolina's Coastal Carolina College at Conway. He also is a former vice chancellor for academic affairs at USC's Spartanburg campus. He holds a bachelor's degree in biology and mathematics from Southeast Missouri State University, a master's degree in student personnel administration from Southern Illinois University and a Ph.D. degree in educational psychology from the University of Utah.

In an open session, following the interviews which were held in executive session, regent T.T. Colley moved that the three be asked to come to the MSU campus. His motion was seconded by board member Lois Baker.

The three presidential hopefuls and their wives will visit the campus as soon as arrangements can be made, according to MSU Board of Regents Chairman William R. Seaton.

A search committee, chaired by regent Wayne Martin, reviewed the credentials of 133 active candidates before recommending a pool of five to the board for interviews.

A successor to MSU President C. Nelson Grote, who retires June 30, is expected to be named by early March and will assume the post July 1.

Dr. Grote has served as the University's 11th president since July 1, 1987.

MOREHEAD, Ky.--Morehead State University's Small Business Development Center will offer two programs for potential business owners the first week in February.

On Tuesday, Feb. 4, the how to's, do's and don'ts of going into business will be discussed at the "Pre-Business Orientation" program. It will begin at 6 p.m. at 209 Downing Hall. There is a $5 charge to cover materials cost.

"Realizing the Full Potential of Your Work Force," is the theme of a live telecast to be held in the Adron Doran University Center on Wednesday, Feb. 5. There is no charge for attending but reservations are encouraged for this session that begins at 8 a.m.

The program is part of the Innovation Teleconference Series which stresses total quality management and includes creative and innovative strategic planning and the latest in technological advances.

The focus of the broadcast will be effective strategies for training and empowering personnel, such as effective work groups, leadership development, team building and achievement recognition.

Reservations for either session may be made by calling (606) 783-2895. Arrangements will be made for the handicapped when requested in advance.

The workshops are co-sponsored by MSU's College of Business, the Kentucky Cabinet for Economic Development Small Business Division, Buffalo Trace Area Development District and the Gateway Area Development District.
